Prices Realized

The asterisk next to a price indicates that the lot was bought back by its owner. Stated price is one increment above the last actual competitive bid. Any lots not listed were withdrawn, skipped, or combined. Prices include the 15% buyers premium. We suggest that you employ not only prices realized but also any other readily available sources of information in establishing numismatic market value.

Important Please read

I wish to place the following bids for this sale to be held on October 1, 2, 2001. I authorize Ira & Larry Goldberg, Inc. or any of their agents to bid on the previous lots up to the price stated. Ira & Larry Goldberg will obtain the lots as reasonably as possible (as though I were present, bidding for myself). Ira & Larry Goldberg Inc. assume no responsibility for failure to execute these bids for any reason whatsoever. By signing this Absentee Bidder Form I agree that I am bound by the "Terms & Conditions of Sale" and any "Terms of Guarantee" which are printed in the front of this catalog. Please note that a 15% buyers premium, stated in paragraph 16 of the "Terms and Conditions of Sale" will be added to the hammer price as part of the total purchase price, plus any applicable sales tax. Additionally, all shipping charges will be borne by the successful bidder.

Signed _____ Please read notice to left before signing. We hold bidder responsible for actual phone price.

Date _____

Each absentee bid form should contain bids for one sale only: the sale name and sale number should appear in the top right hand corner of the Absentee Bidder Form. Please place your bids as early as possible. In the event of identicle bids, the earliest bids received will take precedence. Any bids received later than 6 hours before the auction may or may not be executed.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person, and wish to place bids, you may give Ira & Larry Goldberg's bid department instructions to bid on your behalf. Our representatives will try to purchase the lot for the lowest price possible, and will not purchase the lot for more than you indicate. This service is free and confidential. Note: Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale in person, and although we will make every effort, we will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

Placing Absentee bids

To place bids, please use the Absentee Bidder Form provided in this catalog. Be sure to accurately put the lot number and the maximum price you are willing to pay on each lot. Always indicate a top limit the amount which you would bid if you were attending the auction in person. This amount should not include the buyers commission noted in chapter 16 of the "Terms and Conditions of sale"

Mail Bids

When bidding by mail, you frequently place bids for less than your maximum bid. On the floor of the auction, bidding will start at 50% above the second highest mail bid. We act on your behalf as the highest mail bidder. If the auctioneer recognizes no other bids from the floor, you are awarded the lot at the opening bid. If bidding proceeds from the floor, the company, acting as your agent, bids in increments over the previous bid. This process is continued until you are awarded the lot or you are outbid by the floor.

Limit Bidders

If you have a "limit" that you must stay within you must clearly notate this limit on your bid sheet. We will buy your lots as inexpensively as possible but will not exceed your "limit".

"Or Bids"

Alternative bids should be indicated by using the word "OR" between the lot numbers. Then if your bid on an early lot is successful, we will not continue to bid on any other lots for you. Or, if your early bids are unsuccessful, we will continue to execute bids for alternative lots until a bid is successful. Bids must always be placed in the same order as the lot numbers appear in the catalog.

Telephone Bids

Bids may be placed by telephone, but are accepted only at Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles discretion and at the risk of the telephone bidder. We will not be responsible for error or failure to notify the customer in a timely manner during the auction. The telephone bidder must notify the company prior to auction all lots the bidder is interested in bidding on. The telephone bidder should have a preconceived idea of the top limit that he/she would like to bid prior to auction. In some instances the representative of the company will request this information at the time of auction. This information assists us in the bidding process by giving us a range to stay active in the bidding. We will not meet by the auctioneer of your limit and will buy your lot at the lowest price possible.

Internet Bidding

For bidders that want to place Absentee Bids over the internet in lieu of by mail or facsimile. Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles has available internet bidding for those wishing to conduct bidding over the world wide web. For those customers wishing to bid via email, please go to goldbergcoins.com. Click the "how to bid" button, then click the online fill in form. You must be registered with our firm to be able to participate in the internet bidding process. This service is free and confidential. Note: Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles offers this service as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale in person, and will not be responsible for error or failure to receive bids due to network or internet down time.

Buyers Premium

The "top limit" you indicate on your bid form is for the hammer price only. Please keep in mind that a buyer's premium will be added to the successful bid price of each lot you buy and is payable by you, together with the applicable sales tax and shipping charges which is applied to the total cost of your purchase (the total cost includes the buyer's premium). The buyer's premium of 15% will be added to each lot as stated in the "Terms and Conditions"

Successful Bids

Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. All bidders will receive a letter thanking them after the sale.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Terms and Conditions of Sale set forth the terms of a public auction sale conducted in Beverly Hills, California by Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc., a Nevada corporation, California Auction Bond No. 3595453300 (hereinafter, the "Auctioneer" or "Goldberg").

The Terms and Conditions of sale, the glossary, if any, and all other contents of this catalog are subject to amendment by us by the posting of notices or by oral announcements made during the sale.

By participating in any sale, you acknowledge that you are bound by these terms and conditions.

least six (6) business hours prior to the auction session. Bidder is responsible for verifying said bids were received by Goldberg.

- 1 This catalog contains the description of property of multiple consignors (the "Consignors"), and may include consignments from Goldberg, its principals, and affiliated or related companies and their employees, officers, or principals. All persons seeking to bid, whether in person, through an agent or employee, or by telephone, facsimile or mail, must have a catalogue and register to bid at the auction, either by completing a registration card or by completing the bid sheet incorporated into the catalogue. The Purchaser acknowledges that an invoice describing a lot by number incorporates the catalogue by reference.
- 2 By submitting a bid, whether in person, by mail, by phone, by facsimile or through an employee or agent, the Bidder acknowledges (i) receipt of the catalogue, (ii) that the Bidder has read the Terms and Conditions of Sale and the descriptions for the lots on which they have bid, and (iii) that they agree to adhere to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Acceptance of Bids: Anyone wishing to place bids on lots who will not be attending the live auction must submit their bid(s) at
- 3 Each Bidder's determination of its bid should be based upon its own examination of the item(s), rather than the grade represented in this Catalogue or elsewhere. In any purchase or sale, the value of the item(s) is determined by the price. THE PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS OF VALUATION CONCERNING ANY AND ALL PURCHASES. All Floor Bidders acknowledge that the Auctioneer can decline to accept bids from the a Floor Bidder who is known to have not, in fact, examined the lot prior to the sale.
- 4 All material shall be sold in separate lots to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer. If any dispute arises during or immediately after the sale of a lot, Auctioneer shall have the right to rescind the lot offered and put the lot up for sale again. In all cases, Auctioneer's decision shall be final. For the protection of any Mail Bidder, no "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. Goldberg shall have the right in its sole and absolute discretion to reject any such bid received. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid; a Floor Bidder must bid higher than the highest mail bid to be awarded any lot.
- 5 Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. No lot will be broken up unless the Auctioneer determines otherwise. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise.

- 6 Due to the fungibility of the items sold, all lots may carry a reserve. For purposes of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, a reserve means a confidential price below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor or for the account of Goldberg.
- 7 The Auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the seller; a Bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile; or any other participant in the sale. The Auctioneer may also bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, by (i) accepting bids from floor agents on behalf of the Consignor, or any affiliated or related company of the Auctioneer or the Consignor; (ii) by placing successive or consecutive bids for any lot; or (iii) by placing bids in response to other Bidders.
- 8 Auctioneer reserves the right, at his sole discretion, (i) to accept or decline any bid, (ii) to accept or decline any challenge to any bid or bidding increment, (iii) to reduce any mail bid received, (iv) to open the bidding of a lot at any level deemed appropriate by the Auctioneer, and (v) to determine the prevailing bid. Bids will not be accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age without a parent's written consent containing an acknowledgment that the Terms and Conditions of Sale herein and indicating their agreement to be bound thereby on behalf of the Bidder.
- 9 It is unlawful and illegal for Bidders to collude, pool, or agree with another bidder to pay less than the fair value for a lot. Bidders in the sale acknowledge that the law provides for substantial penalties in the form of treble damages and attorneys' fees and costs for those who violate these provisions.
- 10 Goldberg reserves the right to withdraw any lot at any time even after the hammer has fallen, until the Purchaser has taken physical possession of the lot. No Consignor who has registered to bid at the sale (or at any other time unless otherwise provided in the consignment agreement), or any Purchaser or prospective Bidder shall have a right to claim any consequential damages if a lot is withdrawn, even after the sale.
- 11 GOLDBERG IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ERRORS IN BIDDING. A Bidder should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is the maximum (plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission) that he or she is willing and able to pay. Since other Bidders (by mail, facsimile and in person) will be present, and since a re-offering could damage the momentum of the sale, once the hammer has fallen and the Auctioneer has announced the winning Bidder, such Bidder is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Bidder has made a mistake.
- 12 THIS IS NOT AN APPROVAL SALE. All lots sold to the highest Bidder as determined by Auctioneer are final. Floor Bidders are encouraged to carefully examine all lots which they are interested in purchasing because all sales of items viewed by Purchasers in advance of a sale, even if the sale is by mail, telephone or facsimile, and all lots bid upon by the Floor Bidders, together with all those presenting Goldberg with a resale certificate, out of state resale certificate, or similar evidence that they are acting as a dealer ARE FINAL AND SUCH ITEMS MAY NOT BE RETURNED. If the description of any lot in the catalogue is incorrect, the lot is returnable if returned within five (5) calendar days of receipt and received by Goldberg no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after the sale date. No return or refund of any auction lot will be considered except by reason of lack of authenticity unless otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. All lots are sold under the condition that any claims challenging grading, authenticity or methods of manufacture must be made in writing within five (5) calendar days of receipt of material. All disputed lots must be returned intact as received in their original sealed and unopened container. Late remittance or removal of any lot from its original container constitutes just cause for revocation of all return privileges for any reason.
- 13 All prospective Bidders who are allowed the opportunity to examine lots prior to the sale shall personally assume all responsibility for any damage they cause in so doing. Goldberg shall have sole discretion in determining the value of the damage caused which shall be promptly paid by the prospective Bidder.
- 14 Title to any lot remains with Consignor, any secured party of the Consignor, or assignee of Consignor, as the case may be, until the lot is paid for in full by Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to require payment in full before delivering any lot to the successful Purchaser.
- 15 It is the Purchaser's responsibility and obligation to have the lots fully insured while in his or her possession. Purchaser assumes any and all RISK OF LOSS once the lot(s) is in Purchaser's possession.
- 16 A BUYER'S COMMISSION OF FIFTEEN PERCENT (15%) on each individual lot will be added to all purchases made by all Purchasers, except Consignors, regardless of Purchaser's affiliation with any group or organization, and will be based upon the total amount of the final bid.

- 17 Pursuant to a separate agreement with Auctioneer, Consignors or their agents may be permitted to bid on their own lots in the sale and may receive a rebate commission in whole or in part if successful. Under some circumstances, Goldberg may agree with a Consignor (i) not to require the Consignor to pay for all or part of any items bid upon or re-purchased by the Consignor; (ii) when or where an advance has been made, to have the Consignor pay an agreed upon difference to Goldberg; or (iii) to allow an offset against other transactions with Consignor. Where the Consignor has re-purchased a lot and the lot is either returned to the Consignor or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in accordance with the Consignor's direction, or pursuant to contractual agreement, Goldberg reserves the right to so note in the prices realized or to omit a price from the price realized. Every Consignor who registers to bid in the sale, whether to "protect" a lot, or for any other purpose, agrees to all other Terms and Conditions of Sale per this agreement.
- 18 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, auction sales are strictly cash in U.S. Funds payable through a bank in the United States. Contact Goldberg for wiring instructions before sending a wire. Goldberg reserves the right to decline to release lots for which funds have not yet cleared. No credit card purchases will be accepted. On any cash transaction or series of transaction exceeding $10,000, Treasury Form 8300 will be filed. Lots must be paid for on the earlier of receipt of invoice or delivery.
- 19 Purchaser agrees to promptly pay, on demand, any sales tax, or any other tax, if required by law to be collected, postage, handling, and insurance plus the fifteen percent (15%) Buyer's Commission, and any other taxes required by law to be charged or collected, together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed.
- 20 Purchaser grants to Goldberg or its assigns the right to offset any sums due, or found to be due Purchaser by Goldberg, and to make such offset from any past, subsequent or future consignment, or items acquired by Purchaser in possession or control of Goldberg or from any sums due to Purchaser by Goldberg. Purchaser further grants Goldberg a purchase money security interest in such sums or items to the extent applicable, and agrees to execute such documents as may be reasonably necessary to grant Goldberg such security interest. Purchaser agrees that Goldberg and its assigns shall be a secured party with respect to items bought by Purchaser and in the possession of Goldberg, to the extent of the maximum indebtedness, plus all accrued expenses, until the indebtedness is paid.
- 21 By bidding in this sale, Purchaser personally and unconditionally guarantees payment. If the Purchaser is a corporation, the officers, directors, and principals of the corporation hereby agree to personally and unconditionally guarantee payment as part of the corporation's agreement to bid. The authorized representative of any corporate Purchaser who is present at the sale shall provide Goldberg or its agent, prior to the commencement of the bidding (or at the time of registration), with a statement signed by each principal, director and officer that they each personally and unconditionally guarantee any payment due Goldberg.
- 22 No bids will be accepted from Floor Bidders and Mail Bidders who have not previously established credit with Goldberg unless they first (i) furnish satisfactory credit references or (ii) deposit at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bids for that session(s), or such other amounts as Goldberg may require, in its sole and absolute discretion. Any deposits made pursuant to this paragraph will be applied to such Bidders purchases. Any unused portion of such deposit will be promptly refunded upon clearance of the funds.
- 23 On any accounts past due, Goldberg reserves the right to extend credit and impose periodic charges, pursuant to these Terms and Conditions of Sale or as set forth in the Purchaser's invoice. If the auction invoice is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will earn interest at the rate of one-and-one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month until paid. In the event this interest rate exceeds the interest permitted by law, the same shall be adjusted to the maximum rate permitted by law. Goldberg further reserves the right to resell the merchandise, or to have an affiliated or related company do so. Purchaser agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and other collection costs incurred by Goldberg or any affiliated or related company to collect past due invoices, including reasonable costs of any resale of the merchandise. Purchaser also agrees to pay the difference between the resale price and any previous disbursements. Any excess money realized from the resale shall first be applied to pay Goldberg its standard fees and commissions for a sale and the remainder, if any, will be paid to the Purchaser. Goldberg reserves the right to assign its interest to any third party.
- 24 Goldberg may at its sole and absolute discretion, make loans or advances to Consignors and/or prospective Purchasers.
- 25 The Auctioneer may bid for his or its own account at any auction (even though it may not be required to pay a Buyer's Commission, or other charges that other Purchasers may be required to play) and may have access to information concerning the lots and items contained therein that is not otherwise available to the public. Any conflict of interest or claim of competitive advantage resulting therefrom is expressly waived by all participants in the sale.

- 26 If a dispute arises concerning ownership of a lot that has been bid upon, Goldberg reserves the right to commence a statutory interpleader proceeding at the expense of the Consignor and successful Purchaser and any other applicable party, and in such event shall be entitled to its reasonable attorney's fees and costs.
- 27 In the event of a successful challenge to the title to any goods purchased, Goldberg agrees to reimburse any Purchaser in an amount equal to the successful bid price actually paid by Purchaser at auction plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid, in full and complete satisfaction of all claims, which once tendered by Goldberg, relieves and releases Goldberg from any responsibility whatsoever to the Purchaser, even if the instrument is not cashed or is returned.
- 28 Goldberg reserves the right to postpone the auction sale or any session thereof for a reasonable period of time for any reason whatsoever, and no Bidder or prospective Bidder shall have any claim as a result thereof, including consequential damages.

DISCLAIMERS AND WARRANTIES

ALL ITEMS OFFERED IN THIS CATALOGUE ARE GUARANTEED TO BE GENUINE.

THIS IS A LIMITED WARRANTY THAT THE ITEM SOLD IS NOT COUNTERFEIT, THAT ITS DATE OR MINTMARK HAS NOT BEEN ALTERED AND THAT THE COIN HAS NOT BEEN "REPAIRED."

- 29 Any other warranty is expressly disclaimed; Goldberg offers no representation that a numismatic item has or has not been cleaned; that any toning is natural or artificial; that any coin will meet the standards or grade of any independent grading service; that any item has a particular provenance or pedigree, or that a numismatic item is struck or produced in a particular style. Any statement concerning such matters reflects an opinion only. Questions regarding the minting of a coin as a proof or as a business strike relate to the method of manufacture and not to authenticity.
- a. The descriptions contained herein represent the Cataloger's good faith opinion, or the opinion of an independent grading service, as to the state of preservation and strike. When a grade from an independent grading service is utilized, the information is provided strictly for the convenience of the bidder by mail, telephone or facsimile. Bidders and Purchasers acknowledge that (i) grading is an art, not a science; (ii) the grades contained in the catalogue represent the opinion of the Auctioneer based upon its experience; (iii) it is possible that two people will not always grade the same items alike; and (iv) as market conditions change, grading standards change and will most likely continue to do so in the future.

NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY GRADE DESCRIPTION, WHICH IS MERELY AN OPINION THAT IS LIKELY TO DIFFER, EVEN AMONG EXPERTS. PURCHASER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS CONCERNING AND RELATED TO THE GRADING OF A LOT BY AN INDEPENDENT GRADING SERVICE.

- b. Grading or condition of rare coins may have a material effect on the value of the item(s) purchased; and the opinion of third parties (including independent grading services) may differ from the independent grading service's opinion or interpretation of Goldberg. Goldberg shall not be bound by any prior or subsequent opinion, determination or certification by any independent grading service.
- c. All oral and written statements made by Goldberg and its employees (including affiliated and related companies) are statements of opinion only, and are not warranties or representations of any kind, unless stated as a specific written warranty, and no employee or agent of Goldberg has authority to vary or alter these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Any alteration shall be effective only if in writing and signed by an officer of Goldberg authorized to do so.
- d. Bidders shall have no recourse against the Consignor for any reason whatsoever.
- e. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms and Conditions of Sale.

COINS LISTED IN THIS CATALOGUE GRADED BY PCGS, NGC, IGC, SEG OR ANACS CACHET MAY NOT BE RETURNED FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER.

- 30 By bidding in the sale, (whether in person, by mail, telephone or facsimile, or through an agent), Bidder expressly consents to the following

Waiver and Releases:

Purchaser, for himself, his heirs, agents, successors and assigns, generally and specifically waives and releases, and forever discharges Goldberg, and its respective affiliates, parents, shareholders, agents, subsidiaries, employees, members of their respective boards of directors, and each of them, and their respective successors and assigns from any and all claims, rights, demands and causes of action and suites, of whatever kind or nature, whether in law or equity, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Purchaser may claim to have with respect to and/or arising out of, or in connection with any challenge to the title to any good purchased, the sale itself and/or the auction, except for reimbursement in the amount equal to any bid actually paid by Purchaser, plus any Buyer's Commission actually paid by Purchaser where such reimbursement is authorized in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. It is the intention of Purchaser that this waiver and release shall be effective as a bar to each and every claim, demand, cause of action and suit that may arise hereunder, and Purchaser hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives any and all rights and benefits otherwise conferred upon him by the provisions of the California Civil Code, which reads in full as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR."

- 31 Neither Goldberg nor any affiliated or related company shall be responsible for incidental or consequential damages arising out of any failure of the Terms and Conditions of Sale of the auction or the conduct thereof and in no event shall liability for any such failure exceed the purchase price paid.

- 32 The sole remedy that any Purchaser in the auction shall have, whether such Purchase is bidding in person, by mail, by facsimile, by telephone, or through an employee or agent, for any claim or controversy arising out of the auction shall be a refund of the original purchase price and premium paid, if any.

- 33 Upon payment of any disputed sum, which in no event shall be greater than the original purchase price actually paid by Purchaser plus any commission or premium actually paid by Purchaser to Goldberg, Auctioneer and its employees shall be deemed released from any and all claims of the Bidder arising out of or in connection with the sale of such property. Purchaser agrees to execute prior to delivery of any refund, any documents reasonably requested to effect the intent of this paragraph. Should the Purchaser decline to do so, Purchaser hereby grants to Goldberg a limited power of attorney to unconditionally effect such release.

- 34 Rights granted to Bidders and Purchasers under these Terms and Conditions of Sale are personal and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by operation of law or otherwise. Any attempt to assign or transfer any such rights shall be absolutely void and unenforceable. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred on any Bidder or Purchaser by these Terms and Conditions of Sale and terms of warranty. "Purchaser" shall mean the original Purchaser of the property from Goldberg and not any subsequent owner or other person who may acquire or have acquired an interest therein. If Purchaser is an agent, the agency must be disclosed in writing to Goldberg prior to the time of sale, otherwise the benefits of the warranty shall be limited to the agent and not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

- 35 If the Purchaser fails to comply with one or more of these Terms and Conditions of Sale, then in addition to all other remedies which it may have at law or in equity, Goldberg may at its sole option, either (a) cancel the sale, retaining all payments made by Purchaser as liquidated damages, it being recognized that actual damages may be speculative or difficult to compute, or (b) sell some or all of the property and (some or all other property of the Purchaser held by Goldberg, if Goldberg deems necessary), in a quantity sufficient in the opinion of Goldberg to satisfy the indebtedness, plus all accrued charges. More than one such sale may take place at the option of Goldberg. Such sale may take place without notice to Purchaser. If Goldberg gives notice, it shall be by U.S.P.S. Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested to the address utilized on the Bid Sheet, Auction Consignment and Security Agreement or other address known to Goldberg. Such sale will be at Goldberg standard commission rates at public or private sale, within California, or at another location outside of California to be determined by Goldberg. At the time of sale the defaulting party shall not bid nor be permitted to bid. The proceeds shall be applied first to the satisfaction of any damages occasioned by Purchaser's breach, and then to the payment of any other indebtedness owing to Goldberg, including without limitation, commissions, handling charges, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, collection agency fees and costs and any other costs or expenses incurred thereunder. If a lot or item is not paid for, and is sold by Goldberg for Purchaser's account, in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code, Goldberg shall not be required to account to the Purchaser for any excess proceeds. Purchaser shall remain liable to Goldberg if the proceeds of such sale or sales is insufficient to cover the indebtedness. If other property of Purchaser is also sold, any excess of proceeds will be remitted to the Purchaser after first deducting the expenses set forth above. If Purchaser fails to remit sums due to Goldberg, Purchaser grants to Goldberg a lien with respect to such sum, with interest to accrue thereon at the legal rate, until actually paid, which lien shall apply against any property of Purchaser, including any future goods of Purchaser coming into possession of Goldberg. To the extent permitted by law, Purchaser hereby waives all the requirements of notice, advertisement and disposition of proceeds required by law.

The Lifelong Collection of George Mouhtouris

What's it like to deal in coins for fifty years? If you really want to know, ask George Mouhtouris. George is 78 and has been a very active coin dealer since 1952. Unlike most dealers, who start as collectors and graduate into dealing for a living, George was struck by necessity, never really intending to be a numismatist at all. George has a million stories he is always ready to tell. Every one of them comes with a wise smile and an assortment of jokes! But at the beginning, the joke was on George.

It all began when he lost his job as an apprentice printer, resulting from union problems. Most folks cave in and tow the union line. Not George! Ever resourceful, and having no work, he grabbed his old stamp collection and three hundred bucks he had saved up, and opened one of the most curious and diverse shops ever to grace the streets of Lynn, Massachusetts. He called it -- what else? -- George's Stamp & Joke Shop. In reality, it was jokes that George was most interested in, and he wanted to carry a nice line of gags and joke props. But that darned stamp collection was something he could sell, so the shop became a collectors' shop. Coins followed as a matter of course. In those days, when you bought stamp collections you got coins with them; and vice versa.

Lynn is just a few miles north of Boston, an affluent suburb, and what happened was people began coming to George asking for certain coins that even then were almost impossible to find in change. This was the mid-1950s and "penny collecting" was all the rage. Requests came regularly for 1909-S VDB and 1914-D cents. And customers were asking a lot more for Red Books and Whitman albums than they were for "natural gas" gags. George found himself in the coin business, like it or not. In his wildest dreams, in those days, he never imagined what a good livelihood he could have, dealing in "old pocket change."

It started quietly and just grew. One day a man came in and asked George to find him an S-VDB cent in XF. George went to dealer Harold Whiteneck in Boston and got one for $13. The client lapped it up for $16. Just three bucks, you say? Remember, this was about 1955 and a steak dinner cost a dollar and a half. George was hooked!

Next a local youngster came in and "educated" George about what he should stock: 1864-L and 1877 Indian cents, 3-legged Buffaloes and similar popular and scarce coins.

George took the advice and one day "bumped into" and without hesitation bought a 1918/7-S quarter. But he still didn't know coins very well, and it cost him. It also opened his eyes.

Somebody came to the shop and sold him that overdate Standing Liberty quarter for $1.25 and George was thrilled to sell it for full Red Book price, $25. That was a big gain in the '50s, and George decided there and then that the coin business was for him! He was a pro already!

Next week, though, the kid who had advised him to handle rare dates came back to the shop. It was the kid who had given George $25 for the overdate quarter. He let George know that he had taken it to another shop, in Boston, and sold it to that dealer for $35, who then sold it to another collector for $50. George was flabbergasted.

"How'd you do that?" he demanded. It was a $25 coin, the kid told him, in Good. "But you sold me a Very Fine one, worth more. You gotta know your stuff in this business!" The lesson was not lost on George.

His little stamp and hobby shop began to prosper, and George was learning about coins. Then came a big change. The Hobby Shop in Lynn came up for sale, and George bought it for $6,000. Out of this, over the years, grew New England's foremost hobby store, eventually renamed Lynn Hobby Center, Inc.

By now, George had another problem. His own hobbies! The bug had bitten, and bitten him hard. He indulged his curiosity about all the pastimes that interested him -- photography, crossword puzzles, dancing, Greek cooking and baking, those old stamps that got him started back in 1952, and "social sports." George would do a magic trick for anybody who asked. And he always liked to sing; to this day, he still solos on local TV, at churches, and at other localities. George has had an even dozen diverse and educating hobbies over the years.

The old standby, of course, was coins. George became so intent on owning important U.S. coins that, for 22 years, he lived at the YMCA around the corner from his shop, to save his money to buy rare coins.

George's personal coin collection, formed over half a century, focused on the very coins that wise kid told him to own back in the early 1950s. Common coins were never for him. He filled up many albums with nice commemoratives, Indian cents, the early coins of the 20th century, and of course "type coins" representative of American history. Of particular interest, is George's fine collection of Capped Bust Half dollars, most of which were acquired thru the help of Stu Keen. He always liked showing off coins that most of his fellow citizens have never seen, things like 3 cent and 20 cent pieces, half dimes and half cents. They offer endless fascination and a cultural education. Even the "common" ones are not really all that common anymore.

At 78, George can spill out jokes rapid-fire. He's so full of life that it's hard to imagine him in his 40s. He's still active in the local coin hobby in his hometown. He's full of life! In fact, George has recently married again. He and his "bride" have a lot of ambitions. They've decided it's high time to let others enjoy George's favorite coins.

We are delighted to have been selected to offer George's coins to the world. We expect the proceeds will lead George to a lot of new adventures.

And one thing's for sure: the joke's no longer on George!

The Robert Miller Collection

The Miller Collection of Half Eagles was assembled over 20 years. As a full time coin dealer, Robert (Bob) Miller always kept a weather eye out for nice early coinage, specializing in die varieties. Years ago, he nearly completed his bust quarter collection, and worked with the late Walter Breen on a revision of the Browning Quarter variety reference. Breen liked Miller's work, and they worked together on a variety book for half eagles, with Breen sharing his notes with Miller. As Miller's collection grew, he continued to find new varieties and die states. After years of work and countless updates and revisions, Miller's United States Half Eagle Gold Coins 1795 to 1834 was published in 1997. The Miller Collection of half eagles and other coins will be offered at public auction in February of 2002.

THE BENSON COLLECTION of United States Coinage

Part 2

W E HAVE AUCTIONED untold millions of dollars' worth of rare coins over several decades, yet the spectacularly toned silver coins in the Benson collection are as a whole, the most impressive group we have ever seen in terms of consistency of quality and beauty. Primarily for preservation, most of the collection was sent intact to PCGS last year for encapsulation and each is designated "Benson" on the grading tag. The coins were put away into a safe deposit box in 1946 and were not seen again until we began unwrapping them last year.

Part I of the Benson Collection, sold February 16-20, 2001, is now history. This sale, which featured his copper coins, had impressive runs of colonials, half cents, large cents and small cents, which included the Howard Newcomb Indian and Lincoln cent collections. A heavy of phone and mail bidders, combined with a standing room only crowd, drove prices to new levels and several records were obtained.

And now it is the turn of the numismatic Benson silver coins to take the numismatic spotlight.

The silver coins in the Benson Collection are where the family focused most of its attention, culminating in a stunning assemblage of superb coins dating from 1794 through 1946. These coins will form the basis of the Benson II auction and will be offered February 17-20, 2002.

Since 1946, these coins have been carefully stored to enter the National Album, panel pages devised by legendary dealer Wayte Raymond, or carefully wrapped in anti-tarnish tissue paper placed inside envelopes marked with the price paid, the date of acquisition and from whom purchased. The result is pristine quality enhanced by a consistently beautiful rainbow of iridescent toning on almost every coin. The eye appeal is so exceptional, in fact, during a preview of some of the silver coins at the summer 2000 ANA convention, a new term was born and widely used by dealers at the show: Benson toning.

How this extraordinary collection was formed makes for an unusual numismatic tale. The younger Dr. Benson started collecting coins as a Cub Scout in 1939, placing "finds" of Indian cents and other coins taken from circulation into Wayte Raymond holders. His father was a prominent Philadelphia physician with offices in Rittenhouse Square, in the heart of the old colonial city. Among his patients were several of the numismatic luminaries of the time, including dealer Ira Reed and the first female Director of the U.S. Mint, Rae V. Blester (appointed by FDR, she served until 1956).

Ira Reed introduced father and son to the spectacular world of rare coins, showing them treasures of the U.S. Mint, runs of 19th century Proof sets, and even splendid survivors of the earliest days of America, before it was a Republic. He taught both father and son "how to collect."

While visiting Mint Director Blester, they were given intimate glimpses of the minting process itself and allowed to purchase first strikes of coins made each year during the 1940s. Thus many of the Benson coins came directly into the collection from the Mint Director, while earlier pieces were hand-selected for them by Ira Reed.

The father-son collecting team ended its pursuits when the son decided to follow in his father's footsteps. After he entered medical school, the coin collection was simply put away. These treasures remained intact for over half a century until Dr. Benson asked us if we would be interested in auctioning some "old coins."

Colonial Coins

1 Mexico, 1753-Mo M, 1/2 Real, PCGS graded MS-64. One of the most available coins during the colonial period were the pillar coinages of Mexico. As we know, there were few issues available in most of the colonies, and circulating coins were a hodge podge of foreign issues, as well as some local coins, when they were available at all. Often transactions were done by barter, as no one had any coinage for transactions. This little coin is about the size of a dime, shows the familiar pillars on the obverse, and has boldly struck devices. Light tawny gold toning on both sides, and struck from rusted dies.

Estimated Value $300-400

2 Mexico, 1741-Mo MF, Real, PCGS graded MS-63. Satiny silver luster on the obverse and reverse, with boldly struck devices too. Many of these circulated in the colonies of America, as coinage travelled widely. This particular one is quite nice for the grade, and generally untuned.

Estimated Value $300-400

3 Mexico, 1753-Mo M, 2 Reals, PCGS graded MS-64. Excellent luster and surfaces throughout, with toning around the periphery. A well balanced coin that is sharply struck and well preserved. Many of these circulated in Colonial America as so few coins were available there, and with the tremendous wealth of Mexico used to purchase goods from all over the world, these coins were used as dollars are today.

Estimated Value $500-600

4 Mexico, 1768-Mo MF, 4 Reals, PCGS graded AU-53. Steel gray in color and well preserved. The planchet has trivial lines from manufacture, but a glass is needed to see them. Another example of a Mexican coin which may have circulated in the colonies, and hence many are collected as coins which circulated in 1750-1850 America.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

U.S. Colonial Coins

5 Oak Tree Sixpence 1652, PCGS graded VF-20, 34.1 grs. As usual, poorly struck-up on the obverse, however, the reverse is quite clear. Even gun-medal grey toning on both sides. Although struck with the same date as the better executed Pine Tree coinage, the Oak Tree issues were made at least 6 years earlier. Highly desirable for the type and seldom offered in any grade.

Estimated Value $1,750-UP

6 Pine Tree Shilling, small planchet 1652, 70.1 grs, PCGS graded EF-40. One of the better examples of this popular colonial to survive. PCGS has graded 13 this high with 5 graded higher (best AU-53). Steel gray fields with lighter silver on the devices, and golden toning around the tree. Well centered and struck, and a worthy coin for the specialist.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

7 St. Patrick Copper "Farthing", PCGS graded EF-40. One of the better ones seen by PCGS, most of these circulated widely and were not saved, as all coinage was in great need in early America. Medium brown in color and with clean surfaces from circulation, we note central roughness on both sides, but the devices are generally well struck. An impressive example of this scarce colonial issue. One of 4 graded this high by PCGS, with 3 graded higher (best AU-53).

Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

8 1722 Rosa Americana Penny, inscribed "VILE DVLCI". PCGS graded VF-20. Bold and beautiful, this one boasts unusual brown color on the high points of the devices. One put on George's jaw. This is a rare and undervalued variety, with just 3 coins graded by PCGS in all! This one, and two graded higher.

Estimated Value $500-650

Colonial Coins

- 9 1722 Rosa Americana Penny, inscribed "UTILE DULCI". PCGS graded AU-55. Deep brown in color with some mottling on the upper right rim of the obverse. Nearly a mint state coin, and the planchet shows light roughness. Boldly struck, with ample curls on George, and a well defined flower at the center of the reverse.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 10 1722 Hibernia Halfpenny, harp at left. PCGS graded MS-63 Brown. A lovely coin for the grade, the surfaces are a pleasant brown shade with just a bit of red coloring on the reverse. Struck from rusty dies, which show up as small raised lumps on the coin, but these are as made, of course. There are hints of original color tucked in close to the lettering on the obverse. We note some slight breaks in the toning on the highest design elements. The current PCGS Population Report (online) shows only 3 graded this high, with 3 graded higher (best MS-65 BN).
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 11 1723 Hibernia Halfpenny. PCGS graded MS-63 Brown. Magnificent brown surfaces with some slightly darker areas on the high points of the obverse. Free of spots or pitting, this coin will no doubt find a happy buyer out there, and many who wished they had bid a bit more.
Estimated Value $500-700

- 12 1773 Virginia Halfpenny, period after "GEORGIVS". PCGS graded MS-64 Brown. One of the finest graded and in a group of around 50 in the various color combinations seen by PCGS, with just a couple graded higher by that service. Note how clean the surfaces are, even under the scrutiny of a glass, and few contact marks can be found on either side. In the color department this one is quite nice, light brown and evenly toned throughout, and free of all the usual problems. One minor red area is noted near the end of George III's bust. This is certainly a premium coin for the grade, and well worth a strong bid.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 13 1760 Hibernia-Voce Populi Farthing. Large letters. PCGS graded AU-53. The large letters variety is much scarcer than others of this type. PCGS has only graded 7 coins thus far, of those this is the second best, just behind an AU-55 piece. Clean surfaces and well preserved for a colonial coin of the period. Note the mahogany color and well struck devices, as these are often weakly impressed. A rarity that will please the specialist.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 14 1766 Pitt Token Halfpenny. PCGS graded EF-45. A well struck, medium to dark brown example that is problem free. Seldom found at all, and almost never this nice. If you need one, be sure to check it out.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Colonial Coins

- 15 1783 Chalmers Shilling. Birds, short worm. PCGS graded EF-45. One of the finest graded by PCGS, their recent report notes a single coin graded as EF-45 (this one, obviously), and a single coin graded a notch higher (AU-50). There are none graded higher than the AU-50. Struck on a good planchet, without a flaw, and the color is steel gray with darker hues in the fields. As to the strike, it is a touch weak at the center, and we note a tiny spot on the top inside left of the N in SHILLING, which will help to identify this one. Another opportunity for the advanced colonial specialist to purchase a rare and condition census coin.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 16 1720-R French Colonies 6 Deniers. PCGS graded EF-40. Well struck by the dies and with a lovely even brown tone throughout. One small planchet void above the first A of GRATIA. This one is in an early PCGS holder with the green insert.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 17 1740-AA French Colonies Half Sou Marque. PCGS graded AU-55. Clean surfaces for the grade, and nearly a mint state coin. Steel gray in color with luster in the fields and boldly struck on both sides. An impressive example for the specialist.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 18 1738-A French Colonies Sou Marque. PCGS graded MS-64. A lovely example of this scarce issue, the surfaces are lustrous and delicate gold peripheral toning is present. Clean surfaces as expected for the grade, and this one has a good strike on most of the devices. These were struck in France and intended to circulate in the Americas, where most ended up.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 19 1739-AA French Colonies Sou Marque. PCGS graded AU-50. Mottled toning on both sides but well balanced overall. Problem free surfaces aside from minor circulation marks, expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 20 1755-A French Colonies Sou Marque. PCGS graded MS-62. Tin hues over copper shades in the fields and we note that this coin may have been double struck, as we see hints of the crown rotated to the right about 30 degrees, and the 1 has a band through its center. Examination welcomed. The early French pieces circulated widely in the French colonies of America, and were part of the makeup of coins in circulation as the world powers divided up the continent. Seldom found in mint state.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 21 1722-II French Colonies Copper Sou. PCGS graded EF-40. This one has slightly rough surfaces but good color. There is a die break at the center of the reverse. Struck for use in the American colonies under French control.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 22 1767-A French Colonies Sou. PCGS graded AU-58. This is one of the rare examples that is not countermarked "RF". Breen states that over 98 percent of the mintage is counterstamped "RF", which was stamped on coins that were recalled to the Paris Mint after the French Revolution, in order to cover over the offending royal symbol of the fleurs de lys. Excellent color and surfaces, both sides are a medium brown with a couple of minor raised encrustations on the obverse, hidden in the lettering. A rarity that will certainly be an important acquisition for the colonial specialist.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 23 1783 Nova Constellation Copper. Pointed rays, small U.S. PCGS graded AU-53. Medium brown in color, but the planchet has some small areas of red and dark patina into the surface. Well struck by the dies, and an important colonial issue.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Colonial Coins

- 24 1783 Nova Constellation Copper. Blunt rays. PCGS graded AU-58. PCGS has only graded a single coin higher than the present specimen, that an MS-64 example. Further, this delightful AU-58 coin is alone in its grade category, and hence one of the finest yet seen of this important issue. The devices are well struck and we note even brown color on the obverse, while the reverse is mottled. One for the specialist who demands top quality.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 25 1785 Nova Constellation Copper. Blunt rays. SEGS graded VF-20*. Corroded. Despite some roughness, a pleasing uniform reddish-brown in color. Note, this is SEGS "star" holder.
Estimated Value $175-225

- 26 1785 Nova Constellation Copper. Pointed rays. PCGS graded EF-45. Well struck by the dies and we note some dark patina at the center of both sides and a small edge clip at the lower obverse. Good color and surfaces for the grade, and one that most collectors will long enjoy once purchased.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 27 1785 Nova Constellation Copper. Pointed rays. PCGS graded EF-40. Sharply struck and nicely preserved, although a hair off center to the right on the obverse. The planchet on this one is pretty nice, and we don't see the usual problems of corrosion or even spotting anywhere. Hence, this one is perfect for the collector, who demands quality surfaces (when they can find them!). Don't miss this if you are a colonial specialist.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 28 1787 Massachusetts Half Cent, Ryder 4-C. PCGS graded AU-58. The color is a pleasing dark brown, even on both the obverse and reverse. Clean surfaces, with just a hint of wear on the high points. Identifiable by a tiny edge flaw behind the Indian's head on the obverse, and below the date on the reverse. A nice coin for the collector because of its well struck devices and even color.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900

- 29 1787 Massachusetts Half Cent. PCGS graded AU-58. Medium brown and nicely struck by the dies. Examination will note a script letter in the left obverse field, but it is very faint. There are some very small red areas in the planchet, and a speck near the right wing of the eagle.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900

- 30 1787 Massachusetts Cent. "Horn" from eagle's head, Ryder 2b-A. PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. This coin remains the finest graded by PCGS and has held those honors for some time. Note the old green PCGS insert, which hasn't been used in a number of years. The devices are well struck and the coin is well preserved. On the reverse we note some red patina, but it is light and not distracting. One old and faint curved scrape is noted from the U in MASSACHUSETTS down to the eagle's neck. Minor weakness at the central devices. Certainly a superb acquisition for the colonial specialist, and a piece worthy of the finest collection. The "horned eagle" is so named because of the die break extending up from the eagle's head, in the shape of a horn as seen on a rhino.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

Colonial Coins

- 31 1788 Massachusetts Half Cent Emerson Restrike, MS-64 Red and Brown. Here is a beautiful example of the "Emerson" restrike. Note the small "1" above the star by the Indian's head. Beautiful mint color and surfaces, although a few minor spots can be seen on the reverse. Nicely executed dies, and far better than the originals.
Estimated Value $50-UP

- 32 1788 Massachusetts Cent. Period after "Massachusetts". SEGS graded VF-30*. Corroded. Uniform reddish-brown with a small area of minor corrosion on the reverse at MAS. Ryder 11-E. Note, this is a SEGS "Star" holder.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 33 1787 Connecticut Copper. Mailed bust facing left. SEGS graded EF-40*. Corroded. Despite some roughness, the detail is clear, M-33.36. T.2. Note, this is a SEGS "Star" holder.
Estimated Value $175-225

- 34 1787 Connecticut Copper. Mailed bust facing left. PCGS graded VF-25. Medium brown in color with rough surfaces on the obverse, the reverse nicer, but there is a small dark stain extending up from Liberty's arm. These were crudely made coins, and hence few are found even this nice.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 35 1787 Connecticut Copper. Draped bust facing left. PCGS graded AU-58. This is the second finest example seen by PCGS (best MS-63) of this date and variety, and an important coin as such. The planchet has a couple of minor streaks on the reverse, but there are few signs of circulation or handling to be found. Medium brown in color, and struck under very crude conditions from dies that show cracks and strain. An important example of this popular Colonial coin.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

- 36 1787 Connecticut Copper. Draped bust facing left, Miller 33.32, Z13, R-2. PCGS graded AU-55. This is one of the finest seen by PCGS (best MS-63) and topped by one other as AU-58 graded by that service, while in AU-55 a total of 6 coins have been seen, including this one. Medium to dark brown in color and well struck throughout. One edge flaw is noted on the lower left obverse, which is also present on the reverse. Struck slightly off-center towards 7 o'clock on the obverse. Excellent surfaces and truly a delight for the specialist.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 37 1787 Connecticut Copper. Draped bust facing left, double struck error. Sharpness of VF-30 but porous. This coin was first struck normally, then the planchet rotated and the second strike is about 30 percent off center. The planchet shows moderate porosity, and the color is dark brown to green in areas. Minor surface scratches can be seen on Liberty's head as well as on the reverse, but they blend well into the brown color. The planchet cracked under the stress of the second strike, near 4 o'clock on the obverse, and this adds interest to this delightful error. An impressive example for the specialist.
Estimated Value $750-950

- 38 1788 Connecticut Copper. Mailed bust facing left, M-12.2-C, R-3, struck over a Nova Constellatio. VF-20. First off, this is a scarce variety in its own right, and coin is well struck. We note that the coin has moderate roughness, but it is even and better than usually encountered. The host coin was a Nova Constellatio copper, and several letters can be seen around the periphery of the reverse, especially below Liberty's shield. There are a couple of minor rim bumps on either side. A fascinating piece of Colonial history which will no doubt bring much enjoyment to its new owner.
Estimated Value $750-900

Colonial Coins

- 39 1787 Nova Eborac. Figure facing left. PCGS graded AU-58. This coin is alone in its grade category according to PCGS, with just a single coin graded higher (MS-64). Note the strike is sharp for the issue, which is usually quite weak. We note one small raised spot on the upper shield on the reverse, and one minor planchet void on the left side on the rim, also on the reverse. Sharp details on the hair, leaves and drapery lines. A premium example of this scarce issue, and one that is seldom found in grades even approaching mint state.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 40 1787 New Jersey Copper. Shield outlined, M 52-i. AU-50. Here is a nice coin for the grade, the color is light brown with hints of red around the devices and lettering. Sharply impressed by the dies, with all devices showing strong detail. As to the planchet, it shows minor roughness from the rolling process. Struck a bit off center, but only affecting the dentils. For the variety, this coin is likely in the condition census, and deserves a strong price for its rarity and excellent quality. Seldom are colonials found in eye appealing condition and this coin has that in abundance. A sharp example for the New Jersey specialist.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 41 1787 New Jersey Copper. Small planchet, plain shield. PCGS graded AU-58. Medium brown in color and well struck by clashed dies. An impressive example of this issue, and one that will warm the colonial specialists heart for its nice surfaces and pleasing color. Barely circulated, and downright nice to view.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 42 1787 New Jersey Copper. Large planchet, plain shield, Maris 63-S. PCGS graded EF-40. One of the more common varieties of the New Jersey issues, this one is well balanced and decently struck. The central devices show fine pin scratches which can only be seen with a strong glass. The color is dark brown, and there are no spots or other problems, such as rim bumps.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 43 1785 Vermont Copper. "Vermonts". PCGS graded VF-35. Unevenly struck on both sides, with some areas sharp, others a bit weak. Further, the planchet has roughness on both sides, and this contributes to the weak areas. Sharp on the mountains and sun, and generally brown in color save for a red patch on the upper right reverse.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

The Ryder/Richardson Plate Coin of the 1786 Vermont Copper. Baby head

- 44 1786 Vermont Copper. Baby head, Clipped planchet. PCGS graded AU-50. This is the finest graded (by far) according to PCGS, which reports only 3 coins seen. This one alone as AU-50, and 2 others graded between VG and VF. A rare and highly desirable example which boasts a good strike, and a large planchet clip at the top of the obverse missing the top of Liberty's head. On the reverse, there is some red patina on the left side, but otherwise the surfaces are quite nice. This is the Ryder/Richardson plate coin for the variety, and certainly high in the condition census, if not simply the finest known of this famous and sought-after variety. A premium rarity that will no doubt be a highlight in an advanced colonial specialists collection.
Estimated Value $6,500-7,500

Colonial Coins

- 45 "1789" Mott Token. Thick planchet. PCGS graded AU-55. Medium brown in color and struck on a decent planchet by what appears to be rusted dies. The surfaces are not smooth, and thus the coin should be inspected by buyers prior to bidding. The clock is well struck, while the reverse eagle is a bit weak.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 46 "1789" Mott Token. Edge engrailed. Thin planchet. PCGS graded AU-53. Dark brown and glossy with a typical weak strike at the centers. Problem free and a middle of the road example of this rare coin. The surfaces show some scattered marks, and we note verdigris around the lettering and devices. Rare in all grades.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

- 47 (c.1792-1794) Kentucky Token Cent. Plain edge. PCGS graded MS-64 Brown. This is tied for the finest graded by PCGS, which has graded 12 this high, and 2 additional coins as MS-64 Red. The surfaces are fresh, with glowing brown luster and hints of blue around the periphery. Note the well struck devices on both sides, and very eye appealing color. This coin was designed either by the child prodigy John Gregory Hancock, Sr. or George Wyon III, both of Birmingham. It is believed to have been struck for general circulation in America, as Kentucky at the time was hardly more than a settlement in Lexington. Most evidence points to an issue date of 1792, but they could have been coined as late as 1794.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 48 (c.1792-1794) Kentucky Token Cent. Lettered edge, "LANCASTER". PCGS graded MS-64 Red. An exceptional coin for the advanced collector, this one boasts pinkish copper shades which show just slight mellowing. PCGS has only graded 31 as such, and importantly, just 5 higher (all MS-65 Red). Boldly struck throughout, and downright hard to imagine how this coin survived in such wonderful condition all these years. On the obverse we see a couple of very minor fly specks, and they are not detracting. An opportunity for the specialist. Color photo.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 49 (c.1792-1794) Kentucky Token Cent. Lettered edge, "LANCASTER". PCGS graded MS-64 Red. This one is bright pinkish red in color, with no spots or other problems to distract the eye. One of 31 graded this high with 5 graded a notch higher. Boldly struck throughout, and certainly one for the specialist to study.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 50 (c.1792-1794) Kentucky Token Cent. Lettered edge, "LANCASTER". EF-40. This one has some encrustation on both sides, part of which seems to have corroded the surface a bit. Mottled brown in color, areas of lighter and darker shades intermixed. A couple of small rim marks, and minor hairlines are noted from a past cleaning. Kentucky tokens are known to have circulated in this country as they have been found in period hoards. An affordable example of a very popular colonial.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 51 1794 Franklin Press Token. PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. While not the finest known, or even in the Condition Census, this is certainly one of the better examples to come down to us. PCGS has graded 8 as such, with 11 graded higher in the "Brown" category, with just 4 noted in "Red and Brown", and no "Red" examples have been graded. Well struck by the dies, with complete details on all lettering and devices. There is even some red color near the press and the coin is free of spots. Slight mottling in the color is noted on the reverse, from ancient handling. A premium example of this popular coin, because of the Franklin reference.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Colonial Coins

- 52 1794 Talbot, Allum & Lee Token Cent. With NEW YORK. VF-20. The planchet is slightly porous with some raised areas in the fields near the lettering and devices. Brick red patina on the obverse, more brown on the reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 53 1795 Talbot, Allum & Lee Token Cent. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Here is a significant rarity, this is the only "red" 1795 Talbot graded by PCGS! Not only that, but the surfaces of this near gem are quite beautiful and undiminished by marks or annoying spots. Well struck and preserved, this one must have been tucked away at the time of issue, and somehow retained most of the original mint color. Slightly faded, but clearly a very impressive coin for the mint color and surface quality. Once sold, an opportunity to purchase a really nice Talbot may not happen for a very long time.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 54 1795 Talbot, Allum & Lee Token Cent. PCGS graded AU-58. Medium to dark brown shades with some mottling on the right side of the obverse, and one tiny patch of corrosion through the CE of COMMERCE. Sharply struck, with full sails on the boat and strong definition on the gun ports too. An impressive, high grade example for the specialist.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 55 1795 Talbot, Allum & Lee Token Cent. PCGS graded AU-55. A nice collector coin that boasts medium brown color and a decent strike. There is one small spot on the upper right sail of the ship and a slightly rough area on the rim through AT THE.
Estimated Value $600-700

The Finest Graded 1796 Myddelton Pattern in Silver

Enlarged

- 56 1796 Myddelton Token - Silver, PCGS graded Proof 64. One of the most beautiful and coveted of all the colonial issues, the rare Myddelton patterns always create quite a stir among collectors. Perhaps a dozen are known in silver, even fewer in copper. PCGS has only graded 1 coin this high, this specimen, and of course, none have been graded higher. It is likely that no finer example exists than the present specimen, although one can never be absolutely certain of such claims. The dies were prepared and engraved by Conrad Küchler and struck at the technologically advanced mint of Boulton & Watt in Birmingham. Philip Parry Price Myddelton managed to acquire a large parcel of land in Kentucky. In order to make use of this land, Myddelton convinced hundreds of farmers and laborers to emigrate to his land with the promise of steady employment and possible abundance in the new country. He then had these patterns struck, perhaps as advertising tokens, or for circulation in Kentucky. Before long, the treasonous devices landed Myddelton in the horrible Newgate Prison, and his property was no doubt confiscated. A handful of these tokens remain, this is the finest graded of the silver pieces, according to PCGS. Beautiful antique silver color with deeper blues around the periphery, and free of handling marks. Examination will note minor hairlines, but they are light and not distracting.

One can only imagine the horrors of the King when this token was struck, England is depicted on the obverse, head hung low in defeat, staring at the upstart cap of Liberty at her feet. The military might of England had been defeated at Yorktown, hence the spear Liberty holds is point down, and her fasces and scales of justice are dropped onto the ground near her feet. On the reverse, Hope gently nudges two children towards Liberty, with the branch and wreath between (symbol of Myddelton's new colony), and the cornucopia spilling forth Kentucky's vast wealth behind. The engraving and design elements are stunning, and this is one of the most beautiful of all colonial issues. Further, they were struck in proof, and what few are known tend to be well preserved, with this particular one the finest seen by the grading services.

We recently offered two examples of this rare pattern, one in copper and one in silver in our June, 2001 sale, the silver example was PCGS graded PR-63 and realized $14,950 and the copper slightly more. This higher grade silver coin should sell for more, and presents an unusual opportunity to purchase one of the most sought-after rarities of the colonial series.

Estimated Value $15,000-UP

Colonial Coins

- 57 (1796) Castorland Medal. Silver restrike. SEGS graded Proof 64. Lovely rose and blue toning on both sides, with well frosted devices. Trivial hairlines in the fields, but a beauty nevertheless. The SEGS insert states 217.6 grains and "Argent"/Reeded Edge.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 58 (1796) Castorland Medal. Bronze restrike. SEGS graded MS-63. A copy of the familiar medal. The SEGS holder notes "Bronze on Edge" and the weight at 218.2 grains. Nicely struck and preserved, with satiny surfaces and minor toning flecks.
Estimated Value $50-75

- 59 1783 Georgius Triumpho Token, Baker-7. PCGS graded AU-55. One of the finest graded by PCGS, we note the current Population stands at 5 in this grade, with 2 graded higher (both AU-58), no mint state pieces have been graded as of yet. The obverse has nice color although the planchet is slightly rough, on the reverse the color and surfaces are similar, but we note some red coloration on the lower left, and a shallow scrape on the weaving. Broken reverse die as nearly always seen.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500
- 60 1783 Washington Token. Large military bust. Sharpness of EF-40 but plugged. But holed and plugged at the top of the obverse. Medium brown and glossy.
Estimated Value $100-150

From the Fairchild Family Trust.

- 61 1783 Washington Token. "UNITY STATES" Mint error, straight end clip. PCGS graded AU-58. This is a mint error as the right side of the obverse displays a nice straight edge clip (an end clip as noted on the PCGS insert), where the edge of the copper planchet strip was located. Chocolate brown in color, and free of spots or other problems. Nicely struck at the centers, the edges deliberately weak as struck. One for the colonial specialist.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 62 (c.1783) Washington Token Double Head Cent, Baker 6. PCGS graded MS-62 Brown. Tied for the finest graded by PCGS with a total of 4 coins, this magnificent brown coin has a strong strike and clean surfaces for the grade. We note a few stray marks, most of which are dull and not distracting, and the surfaces are free of spots and problems such as pitting. These popular Washington pieces were struck by an unknown maker apparently from Birmingham, and have turned up in non collector accumulations of the period.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

- 63 (c.1783) Washington Token Double Head Cent. MS-60 Brown. One of the better examples of this important Washington piece seen, the color is a lovely medium brown and the surfaces show only minor hairlines. No spots or other detriments, and a delight for the specialist.
Estimated Value $1,250-UP

Colonial Coins

- 64 1791 Washington Token Cent. Large eagle, Baker-15. PCGS graded MS-64 Brown. One of the finest graded of this impressive design, PCGS reports just 10 have been graded this high, with none graded higher in the Brown category. In the Red and Brown slot, we see that 3 have been graded as MS-64, and a single coin graded higher, as MS-65 RB. One of the more beautiful designs to come forth from the engravers in England, and we note how similar the design elements are to the later heraldic eagle reverse, both of which are loosely copied from the Great Seal of the United States. Outstanding die work, with sharp epaulets on Washington's shoulder, and minute engraving in the eagle's feathers. We note one tiny raised spot over the ribbon on the left of the reverse, but this is very trivial. Don't pass this one by.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 66 1791 Washington Token. Liverpool Halfpenny. PCGS graded AU-50. One of the rare pieces from the Washington colonial section, Breen states that about 20 are known in all grades, and this is likely one of the better ones. Designed by John Gregory Hancock, Sr. and struck at Obadiah Westwood's Birmingham Mint for import to the United States, these experimental tokens circulated along the eastern seaboard. All of the known examples were struck on planchets that were a bit narrow, hence the tops of the lettering extend off the coin, and most show the reverse die with two breaks at the top of the ship, likely caused by bubbles in the die steel. As more were struck, the die sank into the bubble, creating raised areas on the coins. PCGS reports 2 graded this high, with just 2 others graded higher (best AU55), so this is certainly high in the condition census for the variety. An important coin for the colonial specialist.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

The Garrett 1791 Washington Token. Liverpool Halfpenny

- 65 1791 Washington Token. Liverpool Halfpenny, B-17, 134.8 grains. The Garrett specimen. PCGS graded AU-58. Deep brown in color with exceptional surfaces throughout. When catalogued in the Garrett sale, Bowers noted (and Breen agrees), that about 20 are known. PCGS notes that only 7 are graded, and this is the finest of those seen, and alone in the AU-58 grade category. Again, and we can't stress this strongly enough, what few are known are always struck on planchets which were too narrow, and as we know from years of experience, copper of this age is normally porous and spotted. Not so here, the surfaces are truly a delight to behold. We note two small spots in the right field, but they are very minor. As to the strike, it is strong on Washington, but the ship is weak on the right side, which was opposite to Washington's large shoulder. A circular die break is noted at the top of the central ship mast, seen on most, and die rust can be found with a glass. Apparently, the coiner made the dies and set them aside before striking a handful of coins. If you demand the finest for your collection, then here it is.

Estimated Value $6,500-7,500

purchased by F. Harrison Garrett*

- 67 1795 Washington Token. Grate reverse, large buttons, reeded edge, Baker-29. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. One of the more common of the Washington pieces, but few are found this nice. PCGS has graded 10 this high, with none graded higher in the RB category. Note the abundance of original mint color on both sides, further, there are no annoying spots or signs of corrosion which often mar copper of the period. One thin line across most of the reverse, which can scarcely be seen, will serve to identify. Fully struck on George's hair and shoulder, with crisp details on even the highest design elements.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 68 1795 Washington "Liberty and Security" Token Halfpenny. "BIRMINGHAM" edge, EF-40. There is a light scratch across Washington's face from his nose to his neck. Nice surfaces and color otherwise, with some weakness on the central shield lines. Scarce and always popular.

Estimated Value $500-600

Colonial Coins

- 69 (1795) Washington "Liberty and Security" Token Penny, Baker-30. PCGS graded MS-64 Brown. An important coin for the advanced Colonial or Washington specialist, only two are graded higher in the Brown category, and 2 higher in the Red and Brown category (no red coins have been graded). PCGS further reports just 5 coins are graded this high in Brown, with 7 more graded Red and Brown in MS-64. It is reasonable to state that this coin is in the top 20 known, and tied with several of those. Examination will find very clean surfaces and no problem spots or contact marks worthy of note. As always seen, the edge is irregular, and this is how these were struck, the coin must have been having problems with the collar, and most show this irregular feature. The strike is full and complete and the planchet displays no flaws.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

- 70 Washington "Success" Medal. Large, Plain Edge. PCGS graded MS-63. Not much is known about the origin of these popular medals. Breen and others have not been able to punch link the letters to other known coins or engravers. Tradition has long held that these were struck for Washington's second Inauguration, but no evidence has been found to support this. They may have been struck later, perhaps as game tokens as late as the mid 19th Century, according to Rulau and Fuld. Nevertheless, they found their way into the Guide Book and are generally considered colonial issues until evidence proves otherwise.

This one has lovely surfaces and color, with the familiar die break through Washington's nose to the rim at the back of his head, and the dies were rusted when this one was struck. As always, the center eye is weak, but the balance of the coin is well struck. Perhaps 40 are known, of which PCGS has seen less than half, this coin is the finest graded in the Population Report, and is likely one of the best known overall. Identifiable by a thin and shallow scratch from Washington's ear to just below his mouth. An opportunity for the specialist, as only one other coin has been graded in mint state (MS-62) according to PCGS.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 71 1787 Fugio Cent. Pointed rays, cinquefoils, "STATES UNITED" K.13-X. SEGS graded MS-63*. Rim Clip at K-7. Glossy dark chocolate brown with some minor planchet flaws on the reverse. Please note this is a "star" SEGS holder. Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 72 1787 Fugio Cent. Pointed rays, cinquefoils, "STATES UNITED", Kessler 8-X, R-2. PCGS graded AU-55. Although this variety is found in the Bank of New York hoard, this is certainly a nice example. The planchet is nice, with just a few minor impurities, the largest just right of the base of the sundial, and a few smaller ones on the reverse. Clean surfaces show minor contact at most, and the strike is decent considering the bisecting obverse die break. Medium brown in color.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 73 1787 Fugio Cent. Pointed rays, cinquefoils, "STATES UNITED" K. 13-X. EF-45. Pleasing uniform medium chocolate brown. Obverse planchet flaw. Estimated Value $700-800

- 74 1787 Fugio Cent. Pointed rays, cinquefoils, 8-pointed stars on label. PCGS graded EF-40. The planchet is not quite perfect on this one and it is unevenly struck, with weakness at the top of the obverse. The color is light brown and the devices are offset by darker hues nearby. A nice coin for the grade, and always popular.

Estimated Value $1,100-1,500

Half Cents

- 75 1793, C-1, B-1, High rarity-3. Del Bland graded VG-10. With the obverse sharper than the reverse where a few devices are worn nearly smooth. Slightly better but very lightly porous with a scratch at the top of tops of 11: in STATES. Medium brown and quite nice for the grade. All in all, a charming example of this first half cent design. The Philadelphia Mint had just opened and the necessary equipment was obtained by late 1793. Last but not least, the required bond was met for copper coinage, and soon the bond for silver coinage too, which began in 1794. Paying the large premium for the gold bond delayed coinage until 1795. Without the bond, which effectively was an insurance policy in case of theft by Mint employees, regular coinage could not have begun. One of the most historic and cherished issues of all half cents.
Estimated Value $1,750-2,250

- 76 1793 B-1, C-1, Good-5. Dark olive surfaces from the usual porous surfaces and one healthy rim dent on the left side of the obverse. Weak at the central reverse, as usual for the variety, but the date and Liberty are strong.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 77 1794, B-9, C-9, R-2. PCGS graded AU-53. This is an early die state, struck after the dies had clashed, but before the crack appears at the cap. Lovely surfaces that are evenly toned a medium brown color, with no signs of spots or other problems. Struck on an excellent planchet, the only signs of striations are before the face in the field, near the rim. While this is a common variety, few are found this nice, and as such, a coin that will always command attention whenever it is sold.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

- 78 1794 Breen-2b, Cohen-2a, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-45 and Del Bland graded VF-20. This was the Guide Book plate coin from 1982 through 1987. Further, the surfaces are a delightful combination of light to medium brown, with darker shades highlighting the devices. One tiny red speck below Liberty's chin in the field, and a minor tick below AL of HALF will serve as hallmarks. The reverse has minor porosity around the left side, with a spot of erosion near OF. Intermediate die state, with strong clash marks from the wreath around Liberty's head. Overall, this is a very appealing example of this date, however you grade it, we know it will be cherished by all future collectors.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,500

- 79 1797, 1 above 1, plain edge, C-1, B-1a, Rarity-3. Del Bland graded VG-10. Some letters of HALF CENT are worn smooth. Medium dark steel brown with relatively clean surfaces. Early die state. Examination will note minor surface hairlines on both sides, and a couple of rim ticks.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 80 1797, 1 above 1, plain edge. Cohen-1, B-1c, Almost Good-3. Struck on a cut-down Talbot Allum & Lee cent. Dark olive surfaces and scarce.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 81 1804, Plain 4, stemless; 1804 stems and 1803 damaged. The 1803 grades Fair, but has some edge damage; each 1804 grades VG. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 82 1806, Small 6, stemless, C-1, B-3, R-1. Del Bland graded Sharpness of VF-35 but porous so net VF-20. The surfaces are dark olive in color and not perfectly smooth, around much of the peripheral area of the reverse light porosity is visible and three pin scratches are on the reverse.
Estimated Value $50-70

- 83 1806, Large 6, stems, B-4. NGC graded AU-58 Brown. Reddish brown fields with offsetting devices. Typical weak strike on the lower (and rotated) reverse. A touch of wear on the upper curls.
Estimated Value $500-600

Half Cents & Large Cents

- 84 1811, C-1, B-1. VF-20. This is the scarce wide date variety. Glossy brown surfaces with a couple of spots on either side. Note that the edges contain a number of minor dents, but they are not very detracting when viewing the coin. Examination will note a few stray scratches on the obverse, and a small nick inside the eleventh star. A rare and popular date.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

Ex: Pine Tree Auctions, 6/1978:333; and from the Dr. Charles Ruby collection.

- 85 1825, C-2, B-2, R-1. Del Bland graded EF-40. Very clean and attractive, marred only by a minor edge dent over the second A in AMERICA. Darkish steel brown. We also note a minor pin scratch over UN into the rims.
Estimated Value $90-110

- 86 1828. 13 stars. MS-63 Brown. Well struck by the dies, with strong details throughout. Nice brown luster, and the color is pleasing.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 87 1829, C-1, B-1, R-1. NGC graded MS-61 Brown. Medium brown in the fields, with some darker brown shades on Liberty's face. Weak on the high points, but clean for the grade assigned.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 88 1851, C-1, B-1. AU-53 Brown. Medium brown and glossy from a coat of wax. A couple of minor spots on either side.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 89 1851, C-1, B-1, R-1. Del Bland graded EF-40. Medium light brown with a few microscopic handling marks and a light corrosion spot above F in HALF.
Estimated Value $50-70

- 90 1853. B-1. NGC graded MS-64 Red and Brown. A mellowing of fiery mint red color with some attractive green iridescence on the upper stars.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 91 1855, C-1, B-1. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. Mostly full red, which is slightly faded accounting for the brown portion of the grade. Well struck by the dies, with complete details on Liberty's curls. Free of serious spots or other problems, and a glass is needed to see the few specks that reside on the surfaces. This is one of the 2 finest graded by NGC! There are none graded higher, and the best full Red example seen is MS-65. Therefore, if you want a pristine gem that boasts ample mint color and is superbly preserved, then take a look at this coin and bid accordingly. We don't think anyone will be disappointed with the radiant beauty here.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 92 1855 C-1, B-1. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Blazing bright red on both sides with just a few scattered flecks of carbon to note the passage of nearly a century and a half. Well struck and hard to imagine any better. PCGS notes only 18 have been graded this high, with none graded higher in Red, making this likely one of the very best to survive. Color photo.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 93 1855. C-1, B-1. MS-63 Red and Brown. An attractive multi-hued example and loaded with mint frost.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 94 1855. MS-60+. Brown. Yellow brown in color, with areas of reddish patina on both sides, especially the central reverse. This is quite common to copper.
Estimated Value $200-250

Large Cents

- 95 1793. Chain reverse, "AMERICA" in legend, S-3, Breen-4, Low rarity-3. Del Bland graded Sharpness of Fine-12 but lightly burnished to a net grade VG-8. The burnishing is not to noticeable because the dark steel brown surfaces somewhat conceal the smoothing. Chain cents are and always have been in huge demand. This example will be no exception. Note that the rims and fields show few marks and the devices are nicely offset against the darker fields. One to examine before bidding to more accurately gauge the value.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

Large Cents

- 96 1793. Wreath reverse, vine and bars edge, S-9, B-12. Sharpness of Very Fine but porous so a net grade of F-15. The surfaces are dark olive, with moderate porosity throughout. We note some trivial scratches on the obverse, and a small rim nick left of the L of LIBERTY on the obverse. All design elements are present, and the coin is still quite presentable. Always in demand as the first year of issue.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 97 1793. Wreath reverse, vine and bars edge, S-8, B-13, Low R-3. Del Bland graded VG-8. Excellent medium dark steel brown surfaces and nearly defect free except for a tiny nick in the right obverse field. A choice cent for the grade.

An opportunity for the numismatist that wants a really nice example without busting the annual coin budget.

Estimated Value $900-1,200

- 98 1793. Wreath reverse, lettered edge, S-11c, Breen-16c, Rarity-3, Single leaf. Del Bland graded Almost Good-3. Sharpness of VF-45 but very heavily corroded, especially the reverse where some of the devices are obliterated. Darkish steel brown.

Estimated Value $200-300

- 99 1794 B-47, S-55, Rarity-2. PCGS graded MS-63 and Del Bland graded AU-55. This one has a couple of small planchet defects, mostly in the lower left obverse field. Lovely medium chocolate brown with a small edge dent over TA of STATES, and very impressive. The edge is blundered ONE HUNDRED A DOLLAR. This is the second finest known behind the Hines-Sheldon example and is so noted in the recently released Breen Encyclopedia on Large Cents. A coin for the ages, and one any specialist will appreciate.

The color is even on both sides and the strike is fairly sharp. We know this coin was graded some time ago as the PCGS is the old green style, which hasn't been used in a number of years.

Estimated Value $10,000-UP

- 100 1794 B-8, S-24, Rarity-1. PCGS graded AU-55 and Del Bland graded VF-35. Sharpness of AU-50 but the surfaces are not perfectly smooth, below the lowest curl is a heavy edge dent, on the obverse is a long, light edge dent with two others on the reverse, on the neck are faint scratches and over the left top of N in UNITED is a nick. Dark chocolate brown.

This is the popular "Apple Cheeks" variety so named by Dr. Sheldon's father as Liberty's cheeks are full and round, as though she had something large in her mouth. The dies are in high relief, and with a coin in high grade, the fine details are still present.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

Large Cents

- 101 1794, B-62, S-70, Low rarity-2. Del Bland graded VG-10. In the left obverse field is an ancient nick and elsewhere on both sides are a few minor handling marks. Darkish steel brown with light tan on much of the obverse rim and end of the cap due to excessive rubbing.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 102 1794, B-53, S-61, Rarity-4. Del Bland graded Almost Good-3. The obverse is sharper than the reverse. Medium brown without any annoying defects. Edge blundered ONE HUNDRED OR A DOLLAR.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 103 1795. Lettered edge, S-75. MS-60+. Excellent color and surfaces throughout, with a strong strike on the devices. We see one tiny red speck on the top of Liberty's cap. An appealing coin and we expect it to do very well when it crosses the block.
Estimated Value $5,500-6,500
- 104 1795. Plain edge, S-78, B-8, R-1, ONE CENT centered. Del Bland graded Good-6. Sharpness of Fine-15 but porous with numerous hairline scratches on the reverse. Medium dark steel brown. ANACS graded VG-8/8 with a photo certificate (not ANACS Cache).
Estimated Value $125-150

Ex: F. A. Myers.

- 105 1796. Liberty cap, S-87, B-8, Low rarity-3. Del Bland graded VG-8. Sharpness of Fine 12 but some roughness is evident, mostly on the reverse. Darkish steel brown and fairly decent in appearance.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 106 1796. Reverse of 1797, stems. S-119, B-40, R-3. MS-60 Brown. This one certainly traces to the famous "Nichols Find" of a bag believed to contain 1,000 large cents dated 1796 and 1797 that was traced back to Benjamin Goodhue, who purchased the coins for his daughters. Excellent hair detail and the surfaces show minor handling marks. We note a tiny surfboard shaped flaw along Liberty's drapery into her hair. Brownish blue in color and well preserved.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 107 1797, S-140, B-22, R-1. VF-20. A well balanced coin for the grade, note the strong device details and quality of the surfaces, something not always encountered on early copper. Medium brown in color, with no significant or distracting marks on either side. Certainly at the high end of the grade, and worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 108 1797, S-140, B-22, R-1. Del Bland graded Fine-12. A bit sharper but across the face is a well hidden thin scratch, above the space between T and A in STATES is a light edge dent and on the upper reverse are three tiny nicks. Darkish steel brown.
Estimated Value $150-200

Large Cents

- 109 1797, S-137, High rarity-2. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of Very Fine-20 but the surfaces are dark olive and rough with a dent opposite the neck, two more tiny ones on the right obverse, a scratch left of 1 in LIBERTY and a heavier scratch through UN.

Estimated Value $100-125

- 110 1798, Style 2 hair, S-174, B-35, Low rarity-2. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of VF-25 but lightly rough with some scratches across Liberty, a scratch across the drapery above 8 and a small nick near the right obverse edge. Dark steel brown.

Estimated Value $40-60

- 111 1799, 9 over 8, S-188, B-2, Low rarity-4. Del Bland graded VG-7. The obverse quite smooth, the reverse uniformly and lightly porous but without any other defects. LIBERTY is sharp and the date is nearly clear. Dark steel with lighter high points and very appealing for the grade.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 112 1800, 80 over 79, S-196, B-10, R-1. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of VF-20 but damage at K9 on the obverse rim has caused a bend in the planchet, opposite the chin is a shallow scrape and a few minor abrasions exist, mostly on the obverse. Dark steel brown.

Estimated Value $40-60

- 113 1801, S-221, B-5, R-2. NGC graded VF-30 Brown. This is one of the corrected fraction varieties, with the first digit in the denominator clearly a 1 over a mistaken 0. Dark brown with minor roughness in the planchet, and leaning towards the black olive color often seen on early copper. A couple of minor surface scratches below the 1 of LIBERTY into her hair. Nice for the grade overall.

Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 114 1802, B-16, S-236, R-1. NGC graded AU-50 Brown. Evenly toned a dark steel brown color on both sides and fairly well struck by the dies. We note light die cracks on the reverse, as normally seen on this die pairing. Two trivial spots are noted, one behind the ribbon, and another below, but they can scarcely be seen and are not detracting. Only four berries on the right branch, and this is the only reverse die known to show this feature used in 1802. Scarce in high grades, and a nice coin overall.

Estimated Value $900-1,200

- 115 1802, S-233, B-13, High R-2. Del Bland graded Fine-15. Sharpness of VF-25 but there are minuscule abrasions, mostly in the right obverse field, a small nick on the bust and a spot of raised corrosion touching the right base of the second S in STATES. Dark steel brown.

Estimated Value $80-100

Large Cents

- 116 1803, S-255, B-14, R-1. Del Bland graded VF-30. Fifteen points sharper but the surfaces are not perfectly smooth and on the reverse evidence of raised corrosion can be seen right of STATES, touching the left base of N in ONE, above T in CENT and right of the top of the second A in AMERICA. Dark steel with faint deep red undertones and a lighter area at ATE on the reverse.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 117 1803, S-260, B-19, R-1. Del Bland graded VG-7. Cleaned and rather nicely retoned to a medium dark steel tan color with a long pin scratch between ONE and CENT.
Estimated Value $40-50

- 118 1803. Small date, small fraction, S-256, B-15, R-3. NGC graded AU-50 Brown. Well struck and preserved for the date, with sharp details on most of Liberty's curls and the wreath, and light wear on the highest elements of the design. Examination will note a minor tick from the T of CENT up into the wreath, but this is minor. No spots worthy of note, and generally a clean coin that will please most collectors.
Estimated Value $800-1,200
- 119 1803. Small date, small fraction, S-255. PCI graded VF-30. The color is a medium brown, but we note some surface scratches on both sides which can be seen with a glass. The reverse has an interesting die cud over STA of STATES. Not a bad coin, all things considered.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 120 1803. Small date, large fraction, S-257. PCI graded VF-30. The fields are dark olive while the devices are lighter brown. One dig noted on Liberty's head, behind her temple. Check this one out before bidding.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 121 1804, S-266c, B-1, R-2. Del Bland graded VG-7. The top half of STATES has worn smooth and an edge dent is located over ST. Excellent medium dark steel brown surfaces and a very nice lower grade example of this popular date with the obverse and reverse die breaks. For a collector who demands top quality, this piece will find a cherished home without any trouble, whenever it's offered.
Estimated Value $750-850
- 122 1805, S-269. PCI graded VF-25. Medium to dark brown in color, with slightly rough surfaces. Rather aggressively graded by PCI, so we recommend viewing this lot prior to bidding.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 123 1807. "Comet" variety, S-271, B-1, R-1. Del Bland graded VG-8. A trifle sharper but on both sides are a few light edge dents. Nice medium dark chocolate brown surfaces.
Estimated Value $40-50
- 124 A trio of early date cents, as follows: 1801 VG-8 with some weak striking; 1805 G-6, porous, cleaned and retoned and 1806 VG-10, reverse scratches. All are Del Bland graded. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 125 1808 S-278, B-2. Sharpness of Fine but damaged. Damaged by a small drill mark on upper rim (obverse) and nearly punched through at the bottom of the reverse, probably for suspension. A few spots of corrosion and mottled brown in color.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 126 1808, S-277, B-1, R-1, Twelve star variety. Del Bland graded VG-10. Sharpness of VF-25 but between stars one and two is a spot of raised corrosion, above ONE and in the leaves below ME are some dent-like defects where corrosion formerly existed and on both sides are other minor defects. Dark steel brown.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 127 1809 S-280, B-1, R-2. Sharpness of AU-50 but dark and porous. The surfaces of this coin are dull and porous, as almost always seen. As most of the planchets were not in great condition when these coins were struck, few are at the top of the beauty scale today. This one is dark olive, but has nearly Mint State detail.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 128 1809, S-280, B-1, R-2. Del Bland graded VG-7. Decent surfaces that have been cleaned and retoned to a medium and light steel brown color.
Estimated Value $125-175

Large Cents

129 1810, S-285, B-2, R-3, Del Bland graded VG-8. An attractive medium dark steel brown cent.
Estimated Value $70-80

130 1811, S-287, B-1, R-2, Del Bland graded VG-10. Medium dark chocolate brown surfaces with some minor handling marks, the worst being a shallow dent from the left top of N in ONE into the field. The obverse is struck off center at K-1½.
Estimated Value $80-100

131 1812, Small date, S-291, B-1, High R-2, Del Bland graded VG-10. Dark steel with lighter high points and clean except for an edge dent over 11 of STATES.
Estimated Value $50-70

132 1813, S-292, Breen-2, low Rarity-2, NGC graded AU-58 Brown. This coin has dark toning on both sides and examination will note some thin scratches down Liberty and above the date. Similar on the reverse, with two minor scratches above ONE in the field. These are toned over and scarcely show. Well struck and scarce in this grade, with few seen much better. The planchets used for 1813 must have been of poor quality, as most are dark when compared with other dates of this type.
Estimated Value $1,750-2,000

133 1813, S-293, B-1, R-2, Del Bland graded Fine-12. Slightly sharper but the surfaces are microscopically rough and a small nick is visible in the hair on top of the head. Dark steel in color.
Estimated Value $150-200

134 1814, Crosslet 4, S-294, B-1, R-1, Del Bland graded VF-20. Five points sharper but on the obverse there is some faint porosity and over E in ONE is a minute nick. Dark steel with brown high points.
Estimated Value $325-425

135 1814, Crosslet 4, S-294, B-1, R-1, Del Bland graded VG-10. Medium dark steel brown and free from defects to the unaided eye. A decent coin for the collector.
Estimated Value $50-70

136 1816 N-9, ANACS graded AU-58. This one has been cleaned and retuned to a dark brown. Liberty's face has some minor marks on it, although other areas are smooth, and the central reverse has a couple of thin scratches.
Estimated Value $300-350

137 1817, 13 stars, MS-63 Red and Brown. Nice color and surfaces with some mint color appearing from beneath the light brown toning. One minor rim tick above OF on the reverse, but no other problems worth noting. Perfect for the type, date or variety collector.
Estimated Value $325-375

138 1817, N-14, R-1, Del Bland graded MS-60. Better struck than most of this variety. Medium chocolate brown with traces of faded mint red, mostly on the reverse. One red spot hidden in Liberty's hair, and another below the I of AMERICA.
Estimated Value $200-250

139 1817, N-14, R-1, Del Bland graded EF-45. Rather well struck for the variety. Ten points sharper but cleaned and retuned to a medium light steel brown with a reddish color on part of the reverse. On the front line of the top of the neck is a tiny nick.
Estimated Value $100-140

140 1820, Large date, N-13, R-1, NGC graded MS-66 Brown. One of the more common varieties of the type thanks to the large numbers found in the Randall Hoard, but this is certainly a nice example. Brown luster on both sides with areas of ocean blue splashed on over the otherwise brown shades. Liberty's cheek shows few signs of handling, and the fields are truly a delight when compared with many others that show distracting marks. No spots or other problems, just beautiful surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

141 1821, N-1, High R-1, Del Bland graded Fine-15. Five points sharper but the reverse is faintly porous and the obverse is not perfectly smooth. Medium dark steel brown.
Estimated Value $60-80

142 1823, 3 over 2, N-1, R-2, AU-53. The surfaces are somewhat rough, and a few spots can be found. A scarce date that is always popular with collectors.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

Large Cents

- 143 1823. 3 over 2, N-1, Low R-2. Del Bland graded VF-30. Sharper by five points but under magnification several trivial abrasions are visible and touching the inside point of star two traces of a raised corrosion spot can be seen. Dark chocolate brown and very presentable.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 144 1823. Unofficial restrike. NGC graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Here is one of the finest graded of this unusual issue. Apparently the original dies were sold as scrap from the Mint (as was occasionally done at the time) and the dies found their way into numismatic circles. Planchets were made and the dies were used to strike more coins, however, the dies were badly cracked and it is obvious which coins were made at the Mint, and which are restrikes. When this coin was struck, the obverse shows extensive rust and rim crumbling (as small pieces broke away from edge), and two healthy die cracks. Similar on the reverse, which also shows rust and die cracks. Of the few graded, this is one of the 6 highest seen by NGC, and we note substantial red is present, which is mellowing slowly towards brown. Color photo.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 145 1825, N-6, R-2. Del Bland graded VF-30. Sharpness of EF-40 but around many devices traces of raised corrosion are visible, most noticeable around ONE CENT. Deep mahogany brown.
Estimated Value $60-80

- 146 1825 N-10, High Rarity-3. Rare late die state. Del Bland graded Fine-12. Sharpness of Very Fine-20 but the surfaces are slightly rough and heavily patinated. The only notable marks are a few very faint hairline scratches in the field behind the head and a few dull scratches under NITED. Slightly glossy dark olive and steel in color. Late die state with a small but heavy cud break joining star seven to the rim. Nicer in appearance than it sounds.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 147 1826 Error large cent, Flip Over Double Struck in collar. PCGS graded VG-10 "Mint Error". Here is a dramatic error, the initial strike was probably normal, then the coin flipped over and was fed into the press again and restruck. A strong outline of Liberty's head and part of LIBERTY is clearly visible within the wreath. Further, the coin must have then jammed in the press, and was struck yet again, this time with a previously struck coin on top of it (face down) which imparted seven incuse stars on the left side of the obverse! There are four unfortunate digs on Liberty's face, and some minor scratches between the 18 in the date, and other less distracting marks. A wonderful mint error for the specialist.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 148 1827. N-1. ANACS graded VG-8 Double Struck. The second strike was about 80 percent off center and hit just at the tip of Liberty's coronet, on the reverse parts of the second wreath are clearly visible. Steel brown in color, with average surfaces and minor corrosion near the devices on the reverse. All early mint errors are rare, and fun to own.
Estimated Value $500-700

- 149 1828. Small wide date, N-10. ANACS graded MS-60 Brown. Ruddy color with reflective fields and slightly darker devices make this well struck coin stand out. One small toning speck between the last two stars, and minimal handling marks in the fields. The small date variety is less common the large date of 1828.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 150 1829, N-6, Low R-2. Del Bland graded VF-35. Medium dark steel brown and clean except for a few tiny handling marks in the left obverse field and a very light edge dent right of star nine.
Estimated Value $70-90

Medium steel brown in color, with clean surfaces throughout. Seldom found so problem free. No quite in the Condition Census, but not far from it either! An important example of this variety, and worthy of a strong bid.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

- 152 1831 N-3, R-1, MS-64 Red and Brown. Glossy and mostly brown, with faded red highlights near the devices. Boldly struck by the dies, and the surfaces are generally quite clean.
Estimated Value $600-800

- 153 1831, N-6, R-1, Del Bland graded EF-45. With a small low spot between O in ONE and C in CENT. Sharpness of AU-55 but opposite the mouth is a small nick and at stars seven and eight and through 3 in the date faint porosity exists. Dark chocolate brown, lighter on the reverse.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 154 1831, Medium letters, N-3, NGC graded MS-64 Brown. This coin is probably in the Condition Census for the variety. We note the color to be a steel brown with blue highlights near the devices, and one area of red forming in Liberty's hair near her ear. Glowing luster in the fields and quite nice in every way. As to the strike, it is sharp on Liberty, but the stars show weakness, as usual for the die. Condition Census.
Estimated Value $450-650

Ex Sheldon

- 155 1831, Large letters, N-7, NGC graded AU-58 Brown. Beautiful brown color on both sides, with a couple of dark areas in Liberty's hair and a reddish area at the central reverse the only detractors. Clean surfaces and nicely preserved. The reverse die was rotated about 30 degrees counter clockwise when this one was struck.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 156 1832, Large letters, N-1, R-2, PCCS graded AU-58. Well struck and preserved, with medium brown color throughout. This one just misses mint state, and is lovely in every way.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 157 1832 Large Letters, Newcomb-3, NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Excellent color and surfaces expected for the grade, we note one tiny black speck between the first star and Liberty's neck and a small low area above and right of ONE on the reverse. A decent strike on both sides, and good color.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 158 1832, N-3, R-1, Del Bland graded VF-25. Ten points sharper but scattered around the obverse are several tiny pin point nicks. Medium dark steel brown, the obverse cleaned and nicely retoned, the reverse showing a considerable amount of faded mint red.
Estimated Value $40-50

- 159 1834, MS-63 Brown. This one has been cleaned and retoned to a medium and pleasing brown color.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 161 1835, N-16 $\frac{1}{4}$, Triple profile, Type of 1836, R-2, Del Bland graded VF-30. Sharpness of EF-40 but near star eight is a dent, between stars six and seven is a scratch, left of star five is a small edge dent and on both sides are a few nicks visible under a glass. Medium chocolate brown. Triple profile on the lips and chin, double on the forehead.
Estimated Value $40-50

- 162 1836, Newcomb-3, NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Deeply toned with yellow, brown and red shades mixed together with traces of an old fingerprint on the surfaces. Boldly struck and impressive. This is the die variety with the small rim end above star six. An appealing example of this date and variety.
Estimated Value $600-800

Large Cents

- 163 1837. Plain cords, medium letters, N-13, High Rarity-2. NGC graded MS-66 Brown. This one has some red in the fields of both sides, and is toned light brown elsewhere. Liberty's face is especially smooth and the fields also show few signs of handling. The reverse has a die crack through the tops of the motto, and we note two small spots on the N of CENT, neither large or noticeable. Certainly one of the finest graded of this variety, and of the entire date too.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 164 1837. Head of 1838, N-5, R-2. PCGS graded AU-58. Nice light tan to brown on the obverse, the reverse similar, but there is an old red spot over the N of ONE. Well struck and nearly a mint state coin, save for a touch of wear on the upper curls.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 165 1837. Head of 1838, N-11, R-1. NGC graded MS-66 Brown. A glossy brown example that boasts delicate hints of red color near the devices and pristine fields and surfaces. Examination with a glass finds few signs of handling, and no problem spots or other detriments. Well struck by the dies, with most of the stars full, although a few are a hair weak at the centers, the reverse die shows two cracks which meander through the wreath to the rim.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 166 1839. Petite head, N-8, Type of 1840, R-1. Del Bland graded VF-35. Attractive dark steel brown surfaces almost perfectly free from defects except for an edge dent over the second A of AMERICA.
Estimated Value $40-50

- 167 1842. Large date, N-8, R-1. PCGS graded MS-64 Brown. Well struck by the dies, but the planchet has some minor flaws on the lower reverse rim near the stem end on the right. Clean surfaces, with no obverse spots, but a few on the reverse, but they are not large or distracting.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 168 1843, Type of 1844. N-16, R-4. Del Bland graded VF-20. Five points sharper but on the obverse rim are three short scratches and around star eleven are four tiny nicks showing raw copper. Medium chocolate brown with two darkish red areas on the obverse, darker on the reverse.
Estimated Value $75-100

- 169 1843. Petite head, small letters, N-9, R-2. PCGS graded AU-58 and Del Bland graded EF-45. Medium and light chocolate brown with only a very few trivial contact marks on the obverse and a tiny raised carbon spot left of star thirteen. The digits 843 all show recutting low.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 170 1844, N-6, R-3. Del Bland graded VF-35. Quite clean medium light chocolate brown surfaces with a few small olive spots on the obverse.
Estimated Value $50-75

- 171 1846. Small date. NGC graded MS-64 Brown. Deep brown in color and well struck by the dies. Examination will locate a couple of very small specks on the reverse, but they are not a problem. Scarce in this grade.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 172 1846. Small date. Newcomb-5. NGC graded MS-63 Brown. Nice color and surfaces on this one. We note a small nick on Liberty's neck below her ear, and a couple hidden ones on the wreath, which probably kept this from an even higher grade. Boldly struck and free of spots.
Estimated Value $125-175

- 173 1846. Tall date. NGC graded MS-62 Brown. A choice coin for the grade, even brown in color, with clean surfaces and none of the usual spots or other copper related problems.
Estimated Value $300-UP

- 174 1847. N-38, R-1. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. Beautiful color on both sides with light brown starting to cover over the luster. One tick mark in the field before Liberty's mouth and a smaller one on her nose are noted, as well as scattered small specks of carbon, visible with a glass. The strike is bold and complete, and all but a single star is crisp. A hard coin to find this nice, and probably doesn't exist in finer condition. We note that this is the highest coin graded of the variety by NGC and one of just a couple graded this high by that service, PCGS hasn't graded any over MS-65.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Large Cents

- 175 1847. N-38. PCGS graded MS-64 Brown. This one has hints of mint color around the devices and clean surfaces for the grade. There is one small dark area below the first star, and a small tick at the top of Liberty's head. Well struck and nice for the grade.

Estimated Value $300-400

Tied For Second Finest Known

- 184 1851 N-9, R-3. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. According to our consignor, this coin is tied for the finest known. Splendid mint red on both sides, with traces of an ancient fingerprint. Excellent color and surfaces throughout.

- 185 1851. N-13, R-1. PCGS graded MS-65 Brown, and Del Bland graded Mint State-60. The quality of Mint State 62 but a large area on the lower obverse has been lightly cleaned to a pale reddish color although this is not readily apparent to the unaided eye.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 186 1851. N-13. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Good color and surfaces, with a clean cheek on Liberty. We see a healthy spot on the U of UNITED, and another small one near the first T of STATES. Sharply impressed and well preserved.

Estimated Value $300-400

Large Cents

- 187 1852, N-6. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Dark brown in color with generally clean surfaces. Close examination will note a tiny disturbance on Liberty's jaw, but the coin has abundant appeal overall. Well struck during the middle die state.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 188 1852, N-10. NGC graded MS-66 Brown. This coin is certainly in the Condition Census for the variety. Note the faded red on both sides, with medium brown color throughout. Boldly struck by the dies, and well preserved. Free of spots or handling marks of any consequence.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 189 1853, N-13, R-1. Del Bland graded MS-66 Red. Full blazing mint red, lustrous and well struck with touches of very light carbon here and there. Above the left side of star nine is a tiny nick mentioned solely for the sake of accuracy. An excellent type coin and one of the finest known examples of this common variety.
Estimated Value $2,000-UP

- 190 1853, N-27, R-2. NGC graded MS-66 Brown. Near perfect surfaces which account for the grade, the only complaint might be the tiny specks visible on either side. Toned a medium brown, with a couple of flecks of red showing through. If you demand surfaces that can't be beat, take a peek here. One of the finest graded by NGC, certainly high in the condition census for the variety, and probably in the top 100 for the date.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 191 1853, Newcomb-22. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Steel brown and lustrous, with excellent surfaces. Sharp at the centers, and weaker around the periphery. No spots or other problems worthy of note.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 192 1853, Newcomb-21. NGC graded MS-64 Brown. One tiny spot by the eighth star on the obverse, and a die lump at the center of the reverse. Light brown in color and sharp at the centers, weaker around the periphery.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 193 1853, N-25, R-1. Del Bland graded MS-61. Medium chocolate brown with traces of mint red on both sides. At the base of the neck is a tiny nick, another is in the field behind the neck and one more is on the edge midway between stars five and six.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 194 1854, Newcomb-11. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. Faded mint red on both sides, especially near the devices. The surfaces are quite clean, we note a tiny tick on Liberty's neck, another on her cheek and close to her ear, but these are microscopic and scarcely worth mentioning. Well struck and a beauty in every way.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 195 1854, Newcomb-2. NGC graded MS-64 Brown. Dark brown in color on the obverse, a bit lighter on the reverse. Minor handling marks, and softly struck in areas, especially the lower wreath, while Liberty is sharp.

Large Cents

- 196 1854, N-8, R-1. Del Bland graded AU-55. Lovely medium chocolate brown surfaces with some evidence of faded mint red on the reverse. Perfect for people who slab early copper coins as third party grading firms will label this cent at least MS-63 BN
Estimated Value $100-125

- 197 1855, Upright 5's, Newcomb-4. NGC graded MS-66 Brown. Superb surfaces that show precious few signs of handling. Great color, with a hint of original red on the obverse, more on the reverse. Light to medium brown, and delightful hints of blue at the edge of the reverse.
Estimated Value $600-800

- 198 1855, Upright 5's, PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Bright red in color with just a few minor fly specks on either side. Most of these Large Cents toned over long ago, and finding a bright red one has become a challenge, which is why they bring strong prices. See if this one will fit into your collection.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 199 1855, Slanting 5's, N-10c, the 12 star variety, R-1. Del Bland graded MS-61. Satiny light brown with noticeable amounts of faded mint red on both sides, the fields nearly pristine. On the right obverse rim are a couple of very tiny nicks. A beautiful example of the late die state where the obverse die was clogged, probably with grease, causing depressions that obliterate stars as well as a large area around the point of the bust.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 200 1856, Slanting 5, N-14, R-1. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. While this is a hoard coin, the present example is one of the better ones to come down to us today. We note a very light and small spot on Liberty's jaw, and a tiny dark speck at the upper point of the last star. As to the strike, it is weak on the upper obverse as often seen, but sharp on the lower half. The reverse is very nice, without a problem or a flaw worth describing. As nice as these are ever found, even for the date, with just a couple graded a notch higher by this service.
Estimated Value $600-800

- 201 1856, Slanting 5, N-14, R-1. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Mostly red, with faded brown starting to settle in on both sides. Clean surfaces and delightful in every way.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 203 1856, Slanting 5, N-3. NGC graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Orange-red in color with brown overtones. Sharp at the centers, a touch weak on the stars, and we note two small die cracks at the upper right of the reverse.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 204 1856, Slanting 5, NGC graded MS-64 Brown. We note good color and smooth surfaces, with a couple of raised specks on the reverse in the lettering.
Estimated Value $225-275

Rare Proof 1857 Large Cent

- 205 1857. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. A rare proof issue from this final gasp of the large cents. This one has faded red toning turning ever so slowly to brown. Clean surfaces that show minor hairlines and a few tiny specks. In an old green insert PCGS holder. We note that 5 have graded as such by PCGS, with just 4 graded higher. One for the specialist to own.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

Rare Proof 1857 Large Cent

- 206 1857. Small date. Proof 64 Brown. This coin has beautiful copper tones with hints of purple tones near the stars on the obverse, the reverse is a bit darker, and we note some soap or other cleaning residue on most of the devices. This residue could likely be removed by someone knowledgeable in such matters, but this is no coin to experiment on! There is a heavy wire edge around parts of the obverse and reverse. Color photo.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

Flying Eagle Cents

Rare 1856 Flying Eagle Cent

Enlarged

- 216 1856. ANACS graded Proof 63. This coin does not have the lump under the serif of the N in CENT, and we note that the leaf does not extend up to the back side of the C of CENT as seen on most other proofs. Perhaps this is a mint state coin, but we'll leave that for the experts to argue. What we do have is a nice 1856 Flying Eagle cent. There are minor hairlines accounting for the grade, and a small speck at the first S of STATES. This one is very well struck by the dies, in fact both sides have a partial wire rim, and all details are bold. We even see a small lint mark in the field, shaped like a downward pointing crescent moon, above the 8 in the date. Always popular with collectors, who long to fill that hole in their albums.

Estimated Value $7,500-8,500

Scarce 1856 Flying Eagle Cent

- 217 1856 Snow-9, VF-35 but cleaned long ago. This is a Proof which was apparently circulated for some time, but the diagnostics are present to attribute the die pairing as a proof only issue (approximately 1000 of these were struck, probably around 1860, per Rick Snow). The die line from the eagle's beak through the U of UNITED to the edge is present, as is the center dot on the N of CENT. We note there are some trivial specks on both sides, and the lower left reverse ribbon is very low, as if a lamination fell out of the planchet after striking, another near the rim and a much smaller one on the right ribbon end. These may be some sort of minor circulation damage, but it is difficult to tell for certain. The fact remains this is a decent coin for the grade, and always in demand by date collectors.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Enlarged

- 218 1857. MS-65. This is a curious coin, the obverse shows doubling on the date and especially the eagle. However, the doubling on the date is high, on top of the digits instead of extending out from the digits. On the eagle, we note a clear double line along his breast, and the tail feathers are clearly doubled at the ends. The doubling continues up the right wing from the body about half way. This may be the result of a die bounce, which is a striking phenomenon instead of a true doubling in the die. Inspection recommended, as this is certainly an interesting coin. Full luster and well struck throughout, with no problem spots or other deficiencies.
- Estimated Value $2,000-UP
- 219 1857. MS-60. Nice color and surfaces, with the date slightly re-cut left. Sharp.
- Estimated Value $200-225
- 220 1857. AU-55. Problem free surfaces and lightly toned through the obverse periphery.
- Estimated Value $100-125
- 221 1857 Sharply Doubled Obverse. EF-40. There is substantial doubling on the obverse, be sure to view the date, with doubling on all digits south, the eagle's tail, with two distinct rows of feather tips, the lower four feathers of the right wing, the final A of AMERICA too, all show doubling. The obverse die can further be identified by a long die scratch from the rim up through the eagle's upper beak nearly to his left wing tip. Typical handling marks for the grade, and an interesting coin to study. We searched in the books by Richard Snow and another by Kevin Flynn but could not match up the diagnostics of this piece with those listed.
- Estimated Value $200-300

The Only Cameo Proof 1858 Flying Eagle Cent Graded By NGC

Enlarged

- 222 1858. Small letters. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. This is the only "Cameo" proof graded by NGC, and a rare coin it is. Further, of the Small Letters variety, NGC has graded only 4 others this high, with just 2 coins graded higher (both PF-66). To produce a "cameo" proof, the dies must be highly polished, and these are normally the first few coins struck from the dies. As more coins are struck, the proof polish loses some of its depth, and soon the cameo effect is gone. We note that the fields have extensive lines on them, this is due to the extreme polishing of the dies, and are not hairlines. Note how the cross through devices and lettering, unlike hairlines. Identifiable by a small speck on the right side of the U of UNITED and a tiny mark between the two N's at the center of the reverse. Toned with delicate copper hues on the reverse, the obverse still mint fresh. A foremost coin in this grade, with the recent advent of Registry Reports, and advanced numismatists everywhere trying to find the highest grade specimens, this superb and possibly unique cameo proof will certainly be the center of attention when it crosses the block, and no doubt the center of an advanced set. Color photo.

Estimated Value $17,500-UP

- 223 1858. Small letters. PCGS graded MS-64. Frosty gold luster on both the obverse and reverse, and quite appealing. One streak on the right side of the obverse, but free of spots or other significant handling marks. Perfect for the type or date collector.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 224 1858. 8 over 7. Fine-12. This is a lower grade specimen of this scarce overdate. The diagnostic dot above the first 8 is present, and a hint of the flag of the 7 can be seen above the second 8. Decent surfaces, and always popular.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 225 A three coin group: 1857, 1858 S.L. and 1858 L.L. These grade from VF to EF. The 1857 has been cleaned and poorly retoned. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 226 Lot of 3 Flying Eagle cents, 1857, 1858 S.L. and 1858 L.L. Each grades Fine. Typical surfaces, some with moderate handling and streaky toning. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 227 1858. Large letters and 1858. Small Letters. Both grade Very Fine to Extremely Fine. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $80-100

Indian Head Cents

- 228 1859. Proof 60+. The obverse has streaky brown toning across Liberty's face, and well struck by the dies. Examination will note a couple of peripheral scrapes on the reverse. One year type coin, and rare in Proof grades

Estimated Value $500-600

- 229 1859. PCGS graded MS-64. First year of the regular issue for the Indian cents, the 1859 ended up as a one year type coin when a small shield was added to the upper reverse starting in 1860. Planchets were a composite of .88 copper and .12 nickel. Why nickel? Well, Joseph Wharton came into possession of huge nickel mines up in Canada, and needed a patsy to sell his production to. Using his considerable political influence, Wharton had laws passed changing the metallic content of the cent to include nickel, which at the time had no real economic use, and certainly no precious value. Mint Director James Pollock soon found nickel to be very difficult to work with as an alloy, as nickel made the cent planchets quite hard compared with softer pure copper as had always been used to produce large cents. Thus, dies cracked and broke quickly, and die life dropped considerably. Pollock lobbied hard to have the cursed hard nickel alloy removed from cents, but it wasn't until the Mint literally ran out of nickel in 1863, due to Wharton's mines being unable to keep up with the Philadelphia Mint's voracious demand, that Congress authorized French Bronze (95% copper, 5% tin and zinc) as the new alloy for cents in 1864.

Wharton had the last laugh though, he used the hated "Shinplasters", or 3¢ fractional currency notes then in circulation to launch his comeback by convincing Congress that anything was preferable to these filthy paper rags. Congress relented, and in short order the Philadelphia Mint was striking the new 3¢ nickel coin (75% copper and 25% nickel) in 1865 to replace the hated fractional currency notes and by 1866 the new five cent coin of the same composition to circulate alongside the silver half dime of the same value. Naturally, by the time the fractional currency was replaced, nickel had become firmly established as an alloy at the Mint, and Jefferson nickels to this day continue with the same 75% copper and 25% nickel composition. Perhaps Wharton's wealthy heirs still retain these nickel mines, with regular checks streaming in from government mints around the world eager to buy up their nickel production. This particular Indian cent has nice luster and a few stray specks on both sides. An excellent coin to represent this one year type issue.

Estimated Value $600-700

- 230 1859. MS-63. This one is toned with coppery shades in disorganized fashion. The reverse has a staple scratch from the C in CENT up to the rim, and several die cracks

Estimated Value $300-400

- 231 1859. AU-55. Great color and luster, but slightly weak on the lower wreath, sharper on the obverse

Estimated Value $100-125

- 232 A small lot of Indian cents. Included are 1859; 1860; 1861 and 1862. Grades range from EF to AU. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $125-150

NGC Proof 68 1860 Indian Head Cent

Enlarged

- 233 1860. Rounded bust. NGC graded Proof 68. Here is the finest graded Proof 1860 Indian Cent seen by either NGC or PCGS. It is alone as the sole PF-68 seen. Further, there is only a single coin grade PF-67 below, that also by NGC. If you want the best, the ultimate in grade, then go after this monumental 1860 Indian Cent. Blazing mint color and a level of freshness which gives the appearance that it was struck just moments ago. The strike is perfect, the surfaces perfect (or as close to it as is imaginable) and the color is perfect. One tiny problem, all the coins in your collection won't look as nice as this one, if you are lucky enough to win the lot. Throw away the estimates on this one, for it is truly unique.

Estimated Value $8,000-UP

- 234 1860. Rounded bust. NGC graded MS-64. Bright and lustrous, but we note a few spots on both sides, including a partially removed one left of the date.

Estimated Value $225-275

One Of The Finest Known 1861 Proof Cents

Enlarged

- 235 1861. NGC graded Proof 66. This is one of the finest known of this important date! NGC has graded 2 this high, and none higher, and PCGS has graded just 1 this high, and also none higher. There you have it, this is one of 3 at most that grade PF-66! The coin is simply stunning, the gleaming frost jumps off the devices and the mirror fields remain pristine. There are two small planchet flakes on the Indian's neck, another below the final 1 in the date, and one more above the E of STATES, and these mint caused flakes will serve to identify this important coin in the future. Undiminished by time or handling, this superb coin will no doubt see well deserved furious bidding. Color photo.
Estimated Value $9,500-UP

- 236 1861. ICG graded Proof 65. Excellent surfaces and color, but we note one tiny raised speck in the left obverse field, which appears to be getting worse, perhaps this coin should be rehold-ered after the debris is removed from the coin. Frankly, it looks like the ICG add promoting their intercept shield, which this coin does not have. A rare gem proof of this early date, and a coin that should receive better care in the future.
Estimated Value $2,500-UP

- 237 1861. NGC graded MS-65. Good color and luster here, and the surfaces are gem throughout. One of the scarce copper-nickel dates. NGC reports 93 graded as such, with 23 graded higher.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 238 1861. PCGS graded MS-64. Mint fresh and nearly a gem in quality. Good color and spot-free.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 239 1861. MS-60+. Great color and surfaces save for a small neck nick midway. A firm strike by the dies.
Estimated Value $100-130
- 240 1862. ICG graded MS-63. The struck through portion is minor, affecting the 6 in the date, which is weak but can be made out. Lightly toned with small specks on both sides, and otherwise sharp.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 241 1863. Accugrade graded MS-63 Mint Error. This one is struck off center towards 8 o'clock, and boasts mint luster and fresh surfaces throughout. The coin is generally untuned save for a bit of color streaking across the obverse. On the reverse, we note a heavy die crack through the upper left of the wreath towards the top of N in CENT, and another along the middle arrow shaft which suddenly turns down near the arrowhead, through the arrow head below to the rim. A first rate error which is no doubt very rare in mint condition.
Estimated Value $900-1,100
- 242 1863. NGC graded MS-63. Light brown in color with good luster and only moderate handling marks.
Estimated Value $90-100
- 243 1863. MS-60+. Sunset and coppery toning on this one, with clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $90-100
- 244 1863 and 1906. Both grade Mint State-60. Light toning on each. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $50-60

Gem Proof 1864 Copper Nickel Cent

- 245 1864. Copper-nickel. NGC graded Proof 66. One of the finest graded by NGC, the current Population Report notes 11 graded as such, with none graded higher. In addition 5 others have been graded as Cameo or Ultra Cameo. Bright red in color on the obverse, the reverse has some mottled gray toning on the wreath on either side. The surfaces are simply perfect, or as close to it as one can imagine. Color photo.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

Indian Head Cents

- 246 1864. Copper-nickel. NGC graded MS-65. Bright, speck and fingerprint free, and just the ticket for a gem date collector. This one is well struck, and the final year of the 25 percent nickel composition, brought to you by our friend Wharton, the well connected nickel mine owner
Estimated Value $500-750

- 247 1864. Copper-nickel. MS-60. This one has streaky toning on the obverse, but is mostly light brown. Sharply struck.
Estimated Value $90-110

- 248 1864. Copper-nickel. AU-50. Nice color and surfaces, but the strike has some softness on Liberty and her headband.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 249 1864. Bronze, no "L". PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. Toned with a wood grain appearance when examined with a glass, and an even brown color with blue highlights under a glass. Well struck and preserved, with trouble free fields and face on Liberty.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 250 1864. Bronze, no "L". ANACS graded Proof 62 Red and Brown. This coin appears to have been lacquered at some point in the past, as the color is not correct. One tiny spot on Liberty's nose, and clean surfaces otherwise. A scarce early Indian proof.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 251 1864. Bronze, no "L". MS-63 Red and Brown. Mostly red and well struck, the reverse die was rotated about 30 degrees counterclockwise when this one was struck.
Estimated Value $60-80

- 252 1864. Bronze, no "L". MS-63 Red and Brown. This one has a few minor specks on each side, but nice color throughout.
Estimated Value $60-80

- 253 1864. Bronze, with "L". NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. Stand up and take notice of this condition rarity! NGC has only graded 16 this high, with none graded higher! Further, in full Red condition, NGC notes 3 graded in MS-66, and again, none higher. Thus, this is one of the finest out there in certified coin land. The color is mostly bright, with slight fading accounting for the "Brown" portion. Well struck throughout, and we note the surfaces are outstanding for an Indian cent of the period, with scarcely a tick mark to be found. Minor repunching on the 18 in the date, and the reverse die shows clash marks from the obverse, and has minor die cracks near the top left of the wreath to the rim, and a fainter one through the lower right stem.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,700

- 254 1864. Bronze, with "L". PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. A classic key coin in the Indian cent series, this beauty will please most collectors. We note subdued mint red on both sides, no harmful spots or other problems, and one tiny mark on Liberty's face from a higher grade. Struck from worn dies, and few are found in high mint state grades like this. One for the date collector.
Estimated Value $450-500

- 255 1864. Bronze, with "L". EF-45. Hints of original mint color, but mostly light tan overall. Softly struck on STATES, but sharp elsewhere.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 256 1864. Bronze, with "L". VF-25. Medium brown with nice surfaces, one faint scratch below the shield is all we note.
Estimated Value $80-90

- 257 1864. Bronze, with "L". VF-20. Glossy brown in color with reddish patina on the reverse.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 258 1865. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. This is a "Plain 5" as are all proofs of this date. Mellow red color on both sides and well preserved. The strike is exceptional, with full feather details on the headdress, and free of all but minor signs of handling.
Estimated Value $500-550

- 259 1865. Fancy 5. MS-65 Red. Red starting to fade a bit with streaks of toning just beginning to form. One fly speck on the ribbon. The strike is average.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 260 1865 Fancy 5. NGC graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Mottled deep red and gold toning on both sides, and quite beautiful atop the lustrous fields. Well struck, and popular with date specialists.
Estimated Value $100-120

- 261 1865 Fancy 5. MS-60 Red and Brown. Nice mint color and clean surfaces, but the strike is a bit mushy around the periphery.
Estimated Value $50-60

Indian Head Cents

- 262 1866. EF-45. Great color and surfaces, and a tough date to find this nice.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 263 1866. VF-30. The obverse has some mottled spots which are pretty obvious against the dark toning. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 264 1867. ANACS graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. A lovely gem example with light olive and violet iridescence. Among the finer examples of only about 625 proofs struck.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 265 1867. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Clean surfaces and well struck for this date, the toning is the typical wood grain flecks over the original red on both sides. This is the normal date obverse. One of 83 graded by NGC, with 12 graded higher (all MS-66). Note that this is a rare date in full Red, with NGC reporting only 9 graded as such in MS-65, with none graded higher! Bid accordingly.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 266 1867. MS-65 Red and Brown. Dark at the center of the obverse but bright color at the periphery. A rare date.
Estimated Value $700-800
- 267 1867. EF-45. The surfaces have some red rough areas, especially the lower obverse, otherwise this coin is a nice, high grade specimen.
Estimated Value $100-115

Gem Red Proof 1868 Indian

- 268 1868. NGC graded Proof 65 Red. Superb color and surfaces for the grade, and a date that is downright impossible (well nearly) to locate this nice. NGC in their Population Report reflects this, we see that they have graded just 3 this high, with 2 coins graded higher (both MS-66 Red). There is a small lint mark on Liberty's neck, touching the diamond laden ribbon. Free of spots or other detriments, and simply a superb gem for the collector.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 269 1868. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Lovely even brown in color and well preserved without spots or other detriments. An impressive coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $475-525
- 270 1868. MS-60. This one was dipped years ago, but is still sharp and nice for the grade. Well struck for the date.
Estimated Value $125-175
- 271 1868. EF-45. Medium brown in color, with clean surfaces although we note a hidden mark on the tops of N1 in UNITED.
Estimated Value $100-115

- 272 1869 over 9, Snow-3. PCGS graded MS-65 Red and Brown. This coin has a sharply repunched 9 and also repunching noted on the upper right of the 6 in the date. A later die state as there is a faint vertical die crack through the 9 to the curl above, and on the reverse there is a sharp die lump on the N in ONE at the top, and a crack from the rim at 8:30 on the reverse into the wreath vertically, and the reverse die has clashed with the obverse inside the wreath. Nice color and surfaces for the grade, enough so to earn the "Photo Seal" from Rick Snow which comes with this lot.
Estimated Value $1,100-1,300
- 273 1869 over 9. ANACS graded MS-63 Brown. The 9 in the date is recut high. Toned a medium brown color with some red near the devices. We note the ribbon is not well struck at the top.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 274 1869 over 9. EF-45. This is the Snow-3 variety, with repunching at the top of the 69, and noted to be scarce. Nearly perfect for the grade, light brown and well struck, the only minor problem is a touch of weakness on the upper left of the reverse shield.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 275 1869, 9 over 9 grades EF-40 and 1869 in Fair-2. The first one has medium brown surfaces and a couple of minor spots, including one near Liberty's nose. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

Indian Head Cents

- 276 1869, NGC graded MS-65 Red. One of only 10 so graded by NGC, with a single coin graded higher (MS-66 Red), making this one of the best around for the date. Few are found that qualify as "Red", as most toned during the decades or were finger-printed going in and out of various coin albums and boards. This one is sharply struck and retains the blazing red color most desired by collectors. An opportunity.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 277 1869, PCGS graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Satiny red color fading towards brown on both sides. Sharply impressed and free of annoying spots, although microscopic specks can be seen. A nice coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 278 1869, VF-35. Chocolate brown with a few lighter areas on the high points, and some verdigris on the reverse, which is probably removable. Another tough date for the collector.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 279 1869, VF-20. All the letters on the headband are present, but weak from limited circulation, straight brown in color.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 280 1870, NGC graded MS-65 Brown. This one has some red color near the devices, over which has settled a delicate brown tone in the usual wood grain layering. A gem by any standards, the fields and face of Liberty are clean, with scant signs of handling. Well struck and well preserved, without the usual problems such as spots. A rare date.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 281 1870, VF-35. Nearly a grade higher, and with smooth, even wear and good color.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 282 1870, VF-35. An original, uncleaned coin that has smooth brown color and just a few minor contact marks, mostly on the reverse.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 283 1871, EF-40. Chocolate brown in color and well preserved. A scarce date in nice circulated grades.
Estimated Value $200-240

- 284 1871, VF-20. Well struck, nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 285 1871, VF-20. Nice surfaces and color throughout.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 286 1872, Proof 63 Red and Brown. Free from noticeable spots with medium iridescent toning.
Estimated Value $100-400

Gem 1872 Indian Head Cent

- 287 1872, NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. This coin is tied for the finest seen by NGC, which notes 6 in the Red and Brown category, and nothing higher than MS-65 in the Red category for 1872. Needless to say, this is a tough date to locate in high grade. Glossy luster with some red color mixed in well with the gentle brown of age. Well struck from lightly cracked dies, we see peripheral cracks on the obverse, while the reverse die is still in good shape.
Estimated Value $3,500-UP

- 288 1872, MS-64 Red and Brown. A rare date in high grade, the 1872 is seldom found with any red color and in mint state, but here is a nice one. Well struck by the dies, with a faint die crack through the truncation into the left field, and a low area above OF on the obverse rim. One for the album collector who needs this date.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 289 1872, VF-20. Dark brown to medium brown in color, with average surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $175-225

- 290 1872, Fine-15. Medium brown and well preserved.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 291 1873 Open, MS-63 Red. Some faint hairlines on the surfaces and a couple of fly specks on each side.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 292 1873, Closed 3, PCGS graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. Light golden brown in color, with ample mint color on both sides. A couple of faint hairlines in the field probably kept this from a grade higher. One tiny planchet flake in the field before Liberty's neck.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 293 1873, Closed 3, AU-50. Streaky brown, dark on top, lighter at the bottom of the obverse, but nice quality nevertheless.
Estimated Value $100-115

Indian Head Cents

- 294 1873 Closed 3 Doubled "LIBERTY", Snow-I. NGC graded AU-50 DDO FS-009 Brown. This is the rare Snow-I variety which shows the strongest doubling on LIBERTY. The surfaces have some moderate problems from hard circulation and several small ticks can be seen with a glass. It is probable that this coin was dropped in gravel on a road for a short time, and that is the source of the nicks. Toned an even brown color and downright rare in any grade, especially with the doubled LIBERTY still sharp. Worth a look despite its problems, as this is a rare and sought-after variety.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP
- 295 1874. MS-64 Red and Brown. This beauty is so close to being full mint red.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 296 1874. EF-45. With a hint of original red in the fields, medium brown and well struck.
Estimated Value $60-70
- 297 1875. Proof 64 Red and Brown. Deep burgandy toning on the obverse and brighter shades of copper on the reverse. Clean surfaces, and only a few specks scattered about. Scarce.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 298 1875. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. A nice coin that boasts ample faded mint red on both sides and a good strike. We note some die cracks on the obverse, and a die lump on Liberty's neck left of her ear and another below her temple. Scarce.
Estimated Value $550-600
- 299 1875. MS-64 Red and Brown. Frosty mint lustre with mellowing mint red color.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 300 1875. AU-55. Good color and clean surfaces make this one for the date collector.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 301 1876. PCGS graded Proof 66 Red. A superb coin that is tied as one of the finest graded by PCGS with just 9 specimens in all. Deep frost on the devices, and well mirrored fields that show just a whisper of toning on the right side of the obverse. Centennial year and quite important as such. Don't wait for a better one! One for the specialist who demands the best.
Estimated Value $3,000-UP

- 302 1876. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. Excellent surfaces that show few signs of handling, and well struck. The toning is an appealing blend of faded red to brown. Scarce centennial year issue.
Estimated Value $700-800
- 303 1876. NGC graded MS-64 Brown. Deep brown with blue highlights in the fields, and delightful for the grade.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 304 1876. EF-40. Nice for the grade, with good brown color and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 305 1877. VF-30. The key date in the series, this one has good color and strike. We do note two old, hidden pin scratches, one down Liberty's neck and another through her headdress, but they scarcely show, even with a glass.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 306 1877. Fine-15. Minor circulation marks and always in high demand as the key date to the series. Medium brown in color, with just a couple of letters weak in LIBERTY.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 307 1877. NGC graded VG-8 Brown. Although even wear and problem free, three letters in LIBERTY do not show. Medium chocolate brown in color.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 308 1877. VG-8. The United States economy was weak in 1877, and demand for small change fell. Hence, not many cents were struck, and when the year drew to a close only 852,000 had been coined. Today, most are found in low grades, with perhaps half the original mintage surviving in various conditions. In particular, the coin offered here has nice glossy brown surfaces, with most of LIBERTY partially, if not fully, visible. Toned with a slightly wood-grain appearance, with purplish highlights on the devices. Therefore, this would be an excellent addition to a circulated date set. Always in great demand as the key date to the popular Indian cent series.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 309 1878. AU-55. Ominous dark toning over original red in the fields, with brown shades intermixed. Bold and beautiful.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 310 1879. MS-64 Red. Quality surfaces and color, and a nice piece for the date.
Estimated Value $150-200

Indian Head Cents

Estimated Value $300-350

Estimated Value $80-100
- 13 1880. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. This one has hints of original red, and clean surfaces throughout. One tiny speck on the bridge of Liberty's nose before her eye, and a couple of others near the wreath.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 14 1882. MS-64 Red. A fly speck or two from a higher grade, but good color and surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 15 1882. MS-63 Red. Bright, original red throughout and well struck too.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 16 1883. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Hazy toning on the devices and deep coppery red in color. Nicely preserved, and with most of the red color present.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 17 1883. ANACS graded MS-63 Red and Brown. Plenty of mint red color present.
Estimated Value $100-150
- 18 1883 SEGS graded MS-65 Brown and 1899 NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. The 1899 is especially nice. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 19 1885. PCGS graded Proof 66 Red. Lavender hues with coppery red on the obverse, golden red on the reverse. One tiny speck near the first 8 of the date, but otherwise clean surfaces. One of the finest graded according to PCGS which note 8 graded this high, and 3 graded higher (all PR-67). A coin for the specialist.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500
- 20 1885. PCGS graded Proof 66 Brown. A pristine gem that has superlative surfaces and hints of greenish red hues. Free of spots and virtually perfect for the grade.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 21 1885. ANACS graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. Clean surfaces, but decidedly no red, at least not now, but smooth, even brown toning on both sides.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 22 1886. Variety 1. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Mostly red with a light brown tone settling in over the obverse, especially on the devices while glowing red remains around the periphery. One old spot under the first S of STATES.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 323 1886 Variety 2. NGC graded Proof 66 Red and Brown. A gem which boasts darker fields and frosted devices which are also toned deep red hues. Splendid surfaces and a bit darker than one might expect for Red and Brown, but a beauty to be sure.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 324 1886. Variety 2. MS-64 Red. Slightly mellowed red color which leans a bit towards pink. Sharp on Liberty, but some weakness is seen on STATES. One of the many tough dates to find in high grade.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 325 1886. Variety 2. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Light brown shades are starting to cover over the original red, which is the natural process for all copper coins. Clean surfaces for the grade, a glass will find a couple of really minor bagmarks, but nothing worth noting. Substantial original red remains, and scarce as such.
Estimated Value $400-600

- 326 1886. Variety 2. NGC graded MS-64 Red and Brown. A tough date to find this nice, we note virtually full red luster on both sides, with touches of bluish toning on the high points of the design. Sharply impressed, with full feathers on the head-dress and full leaves in the wreath. Problem-free and desirable for the date.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 327 1889. NGC graded MS-65 Red. Bright in color and still a gem, with few signs of handling on either side. Nicely struck and perfect for the high end set.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 328 1890. PCGS graded Proof 65 Red. One of 16 so graded by PCGS, with 2 graded higher! That makes this one of the very best to come down to us from this important series. Blazing reflective red color on the obverse and reverse, with two tiny marks visible with a glass, one on Liberty's cheek, another between IN of CENT. Spot and problem free.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

Indian Head Cents

- 329 1891. NGC graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Purplish red in color and we note a few old fly specks on the headband, and a couple more on the reverse.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 330 1891. MS-63 Red and Brown. Two pieces in lot.
Estimated Value $80-100
- 331 1892. Proof 60+ Red and Brown. This one has some spots on the obverse which are toned deep blue, and traces of a fingerprint on the reverse with ANACS photo cert grading proof 60/63.
Estimated Value $80-90
- 332 1892. NGC graded MS-65 Red. Good luster and bright red in color, with no problems or spots evident aside from a few microscopic ones on the obverse. Always popular in this grade.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 333 1893. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. One of the finest graded by PCGS of this date, in fact one of just 17 to have been awarded this grade, with none graded higher! Blazing red color and well struck by the dies, with only the faintest traces of handling or specks. Seldom offered this nice.
Estimated Value $500-UP
- 334 1893. NGC graded MS-65 Red. Blazing red color and well struck by the dies. There are faint traces of a fingerprint on the obverse, but this is still a very appealing coin for its color and luster.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 335 1893. NGC graded MS-65 Red. One of a small group which came to us for this sale. Identical color and surfaces to the others, this one has a faint speck on the E of CENT, and yellow/red luster throughout. Well struck, and well preserved since that time.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 336 1893. NGC graded MS-65 Red. This one has blazing red color on both sides, and only traces of carbon, mostly on the right side of the reverse. A beauty that's worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 337 1893. NGC graded MS-65 Red. This one has bright red color throughout and we note that the 8 is faintly recut widely left at the base. Some residue on the reverse dentils near the arrow feathers. If you want a red one, snag this lot.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 338 1893. NGC graded MS-65 Red. Glowing red in color with clean surfaces. A couple of minor ticks on Liberty's face. Simply superb.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 339 1894. MS-63 Red and Brown.
Estimated Value $50-75

- 340 1896. Proof 64 Red and Brown. A lovely fiery iridescent proof specimen housed in an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 341 1896. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright red throughout, save for the high points of the obverse which show a dazzling array of rainbow hues. The reverse is bright red, with some fading highlights on the wreath. In an old PCGS green insert holder.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 342 1899. NGC graded MS-65 Red. Liberty's face shows minor handling marks, but none are deep or large enough to knock this one out of the gem grade. Bright mint color and well struck.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 343 1901. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Premium Quality. A blazing red gem that has no signs of spotting or other trouble. Minor ticks, but not enough to remove this from the gem category.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 344 1901 and 1902. MS-63 Or Better. Red and Brown. Both exhibit plenty of fiery mint red color.
Estimated Value $50-80
- 345 1903 & 1907. MS-63 Red and Brown. Two coins with plenty of full mint color.
Estimated Value $50-75
- 346 1905. PCGS graded Proof 65 Brown. This one boasts vivid blues and iridescent shades of lavender on the obverse, with more reddish hues on the reverse. If you love toned ones, take a peek at this one. Bold and beautiful.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 347 1906. MS-60+. This coin appears to have proof surfaces, but the edges and lettering are not that crisp. We guess this is an uncirculated coin that was struck by proof dies, or perhaps a poorly made proof. We'll let the buyers decide.
Estimated Value $60-70

- 348 1908-S. NGC graded MS-66 Red and Brown. One of the finest graded by NGC, this Red and Brown category boasts just 7 coins seen this high and another 22 in full Red MS-66, according to that service. The obverse is toned with medium brown at the centers, which seems to lighten to more red color around the periphery. The reverse has a band of lavender on the left side at a diagonal, while the right side is more brown with red undertones. A scarce date that would be even more popular were it not for the 1909-S Indian. Near perfect surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 349 1908-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Bright and fresh, with good luster and a nice strike. One tiny area of handling debris is noted in the dentils above the F of OF, which may eventually cause a spot, and hence should be removed. Scarce and always in demand as one of the tough Indian cent dates to find in high mint state grades. In an old style green insert PCGS holder, so this one was put away some years ago.
Estimated Value $550-600

Indian Head Cents

- 350 1908-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Bright red in color and free of spots or other problems. The surfaces are quite clean for the grade, and this coin appears to be a gem. A good strike and scarce as the first "S" Mint issue of Indian Cents.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 351 1908-S. NGC graded MS-63 Red. Nice color and surfaces, but we note a couple of faint spot-like areas starting to form. One on the fourth feathertip up from the bottom and some other ones on the reverse. Always in demand.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 352 1908-S. MS-60 Red and Brown. Great color and clean surfaces for the grade, there are two tiny raised spots on the obverse which may be removable, both in the lettering. Scarce and popular.
Estimated Value $125-175

- 353 1908-S. MS-60 Brown. Smooth brown color with just a trace of a fingerprint on the obverse. Superb fields and devices that show no distracting marks or other problems. One a date collector will love.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 354 1908-S (4 pieces). These grade Good to Very Fine. One is pretty nice, and other is kind of nasty. The other two are typical circulated coins of the period. A decent lot overall. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $120-140

- 355 1909-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Premium Quality. A top end coin that boasts gleaming mint red and excellent surfaces. There are a couple of traces of carbon on both sides, but this is quite the norm even on gem examples. The final date of Indian cent coinage and hard to locate this nice.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

- 356 1909-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. One of the key dates to the Indian cent series, the 1909-S was the final issue of this design prior to the mid-year changeover to the popular Lincoln cent. This particular cent has the usual strike, which is somewhat soft at the centers, but no spots, fingerprints or signs of toning on either side, keeping it firmly in the premium Red category. One for the date collector.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

- 357 1909-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. This one has just started to tone with light wood grain streaking as usual for the date. Most of the luster and color are present and this one is nearly free of the usual specks and spots. We note some faint softness on the high points, but this is typical of the San Francisco Mint and of the issue. Clean surfaces and scarce.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 358 1909-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. This coin is a brilliant gold color and quite nice, we note the faint trace of a fingerprint on the obverse, which apparently knocked this one out of the full "Red" category. Scarce this nice, and especially so any better. A premium coin for the collector.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 359 1909-S. EF-45. Nice color and surfaces here, and evenly toned (not the usual wood grain appearance) throughout. Perfect for the date collector who has searched long and hard for a nice specimen of this low mintage date.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 360 1909-S. EF-45. The surfaces on this coin are minutely porous from storage in a damp environment. Toned a light brown now, after having been cleaned to lessen the porosity. Inspection recommended.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 361 1909-S. VF-30. Medium brown and pleasing, a couple of minor spots starting on the upper right reverse, hidden in the oak wreath.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 362 1909-S. Fine-15. Streaky dark wood grain toning as usual for this date.
Estimated Value $225-250

Lincoln Cents

- 392 1909. VDB. MS-60+. Double Die Obverse. This is recognizable by the die chip in the R of LIBERTY and wider letters of that word than usual. Original color and clean surfaces. One tiny planchet void is noted at the top of the reverse.
Estimated Value $75-100

- 393 1909-S. VDB. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. One of the very finest graded of this most popular date of the entire Lincoln Cent series. It is hard to believe that Lincoln cents have been coined since 1909, for nearly 100 years! Here is a sparkling jewel from the first batch knocked out at the San Francisco Mint. Glorious color and surfaces, with just a couple of tiny specks to note the passage of years. PCGS has graded 112 this high, with just 9 graded higher, all MS-67 Red.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

- 394 1909-S. VDB. NGC graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Golden luster beneath the light brown toning on both sides. The key date, and a nice moderate uncirculated grade for the date collector. Strongly struck and pleasing.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 395 1909-S. VDB. MS-64 Red and Brown. Golden red in color and quite beautiful to behold. The luster is complete and the strike very sharp, especially on the wheat ears. A glass will locate few signs of handling, and this coin will certainly fill the bill for a top notch Lincoln cent date set. Rare in this grade, with most showing more signs of handling or downright circulated from the original mintage of 484,000.
Estimated Value $900-1,100
- 396 1909-S. VDB. MS-60+. Red and Brown. This one has been cleaned with a few light hairlines the result, mostly on the obverse, and the color was probably taken up a few shades too. Still scarce, and the surfaces are pleasant. From an old collection that was put away years ago.
Estimated Value $500-600

Lincoln Cents

- 397 1909-S. VDB. MS-60+. Red and Brown. A splendid example of this popular issue, the surfaces are clean and the color is bright and without fault. Well struck by the dies, we note full detail on Lincoln's beard and surrounding letters. Always in demand as the key date to the series.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 398 1909-S. VDB. EF-40. Medium brown in color, but we note several tiny spots on the obverse. Always in strong demand.

Estimated Value $425-500

- 399 1910-S. MS-60 Red and Brown. Nice color and free of spots or other problems. Fully struck throughout and the only fault we see are faint hairlines on Lincoln.

Estimated Value $30-40

- 400 1911-S and 1912-S. Both grade AU-55. We note a tiny lamination on the reverse of the 1912-S below E, which is mint caused. Toning is starting to form on both. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $100-120

- 401 1913-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. We note a single spot on the I of IN and faded mint red on Lincoln. Typical strike, with good detail throughout, and clean surfaces for the grade.

Estimated Value $250-350

- 402 1914-D. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. One of the key dates to the Lincoln cent series, production fell to 1,193,000 and few were saved (unlike the 1909-S VDB which was saved in large numbers). The strike is crisp on the obverse, and similar on the reverse, but the reverse die seems more worn. We note extensive rim crumbling around the reverse die, above RIBUS UNU and by the right wheat ear. On the obverse, there is a die crack from the rim towards Lincoln's bow tie, but stops short. A handful of tiny specks can be seen with a glass, and slight mellowing on the reverse in the color, but this coin is nearly full red otherwise.

Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 403 1914-D. AU-50. Reddish brown in color with a few minor spots on either side. Well struck by the dies, with excellent details on Lincoln and the lettering, as well as on the reverse. Scarce in high grades, and this coin will be a highlight in any collection.

Estimated Value $650-750

- 404 1914-D. AU-50 Whizzed. Accompanied by an ANACS photo certificate graded "AU50/50 Whizzed". We agree.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 405 1914-D. VF-30. Nice color and surfaces, but the devices are outlined with a dark verdigris, which is probably removable.

Estimated Value $150-175

- 406 1914-D. Fine-15. Medium brown and perfect for the grade.

Estimated Value $120-140

- 407 1914-D. VG-8. Good color and surfaces although we note a couple of minor handling marks on both sides near the rims.

Estimated Value $75-100

- 408 1914-D. Almost Good-3. The date is clear, but the entire surface is rough. A key date, nevertheless.

Estimated Value $50-60

- 409 1914-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Red and Brown. This one is bright and shows little toning over its gem surfaces. One tiny tick on the M of AMERICA and an inconsequential speck at the top left of the O in ONE will serve to identify this specimen. Seldom offered in gem grades, this coin will no doubt find a happy residence in a specialists collection.

Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 410 1914-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. The obverse is very nice on this coin, spot free and well struck. On the reverse there are a couple of trivial toning specks around the O in ONE. We don't expect any complaints on this coin, as we know how hard these early mintmarked dates are to find in "Red" from the grading services.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

- 411 1915. Matte Proof 65 Red and Brown. A splendid gem example with a myriad of colors blending nicely together which further adds to its eye-appeal.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 412 1915. Matte Proof 60+. This one appears to have been lightly cleaned and waxed at one time. Fully struck and otherwise well preserved.

Estimated Value $100-150

- 413 1915-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Faded red in color with a good strike for the date. We note some small specks on both sides, which are not large or distracting.

Estimated Value $125-175

Lincoln Cents

- 414 1916. PCGS graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Glorious red and gold toning on both sides of this gem, with pristine surfaces throughout. PCGS reports that just 28 have been graded as such, with 6 coins graded higher, not many to go around. Traces of a fingerprint on both sides, but nothing else significant to note. Mintage of 1,050 pieces, and quite scarce today.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 415 1916-D. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. A scarce date in full red condition, this one has an average strike. NGC reports 36 graded as such, with just 3 graded higher in RB.
Estimated Value $500-750

Enlarged

- 416 1917. Doubled die obverse, VF-35. One of the rare double die obverses that is seldom found at all. A couple of minor handling marks around the rim, including a dull mark on the lower reverse. The doubling is most visible on TRUST and the 9 of the date.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 417 1917-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Sharp on the obverse, with glowing red color, and similar on the reverse. The motto is typically weak, but the wheat ears are strong. We note a trivial streak on the upper right reverse, touching the E of ONE. PCGS has graded 41 this high, with just 11 graded higher in the red category.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 418 1918-D. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright red throughout and well preserved. The obverse is well struck, but the reverse die was worn, with minor weakness on the right wheat ear. In an old small PCGS holder. We note only 25 graded as such, with 7 graded higher.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 419 1921. NGC graded MS-66 Red. Boldly struck and blazing red throughout. One tiny speck midway on the right wheat ear.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 420 1921-S. SEGS graded MS-65 Brown. This one states "Fully Struck" on the SEGS insert. That it is, quite fully for the date. Deep brown to blue toning and clean surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 421 1921-S. PCGS graded AU-55. Medium brown and nice for the grade, one scrape along the back of the E of ONE.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 422 1922. Plain, third or weak reverse. MS-63 Red and Brown. This coin has faded mint color on both sides and was struck from very worn dies. The mintmark is gone, and the final 2 above is fairly weak too. On the reverse, about half the wheat ears are missing, and the lettering is quite soft in appearance. Remarkably, this is as struck, and the quality control during 1922 at Denver must have been quite lax. They did create a fascinating variety, which would never have been noticed if Philadelphia had coined any cents.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP

- 423 1922. Plain, Good-5. Strong reverse die, but very mushy on the obverse. Even light brown in color and with clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $200-275

- 424 1922-D. MS-65 Red. A bright gem that boasts clean fields and a strong strike. There are a few tiny marks on Lincoln's face, but they are not deep or detracting. Strong on the wheat ears, and just a couple of minute specks can be seen with a glass. A key date in this grade, and seldom found in grades even approaching this one.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 425 1922-D. NGC graded MS-64 Red. Faint toning starting to form at the top of the reverse, otherwise all is bright red in color. A tough date this nice.
Estimated Value $250-300

Lincoln Cents

426 1923-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Weakly struck by the dies, with several areas not brought up. Minor fly specks on both sides and toned with light brown over reddish fields.
Estimated Value $300-400

427 1924 PDS and 1925 PDS. These grade from EF to Uncirculated, but we note that the 1924-D is rough and the 1925-S is dark. Nice for the balance. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

428 1926-D. MS-64 Red. Another scarce date from the Lincoln cent series, the 1926-D is overshadowed by its sister the 1926-S, but deserves respect nonetheless. Nicely struck by the dies, and generally well preserved.
Estimated Value $500-750

429 1926 PDS. These grade from AU to MS-63 Red and Brown. The Philadelphia coin is bright and golden color, the Denver more Red and Brown and the San Francisco is Brown with a touch of red. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $40-60

430 1926-S. MS-60 Red and Brown. This one was likely dipped at one time and has toned back with slight wood-grain toning.
Estimated Value $60-80

431 1927. NGC graded MS-66 Red. Blazing red in color, with no signs of spots or similar aging problems which so often plague these. Outstanding in every way, and perfect for the date collector.
Estimated Value $100-125

432 1927. MS-66 Red. Gorgeous red color and excellent surfaces.
Estimated Value $100-125

433 1927. MS-65 Red. Bright and original, without spots or problems, and just a hint of gold toning on the left side of the obverse.
Estimated Value $60-75

434 1927-D and 1927-S. Both grade AU to MS-60 Brown. A really nice pair, each has some mint color and clean surfaces. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $50-60

435 1928 PDS and 1929 PDS. These grade from AU-55 to MS-64, some Red, others Brown and in between. Most are bright and fresh, one has spots and the 1929-D is brown. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

436 1929-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Red. Traces of a fingerprint on the reverse, nice color and well struck.
Estimated Value $50-60

437 1930. NGC graded MS-67 Red. One tiny speck by the D of GOD. Flashy and red.
Estimated Value $100-125

438 1930 PDS set. These grade MS-64 to 65 Red. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $50-75

439 1931 PDS set. These all grade MS-64 to 65 Red. Mint fresh and some have reddish color around the periphery. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

440 1931-S. MS-64 Red. Bright red throughout with no signs of spots or other problems.
Estimated Value $100-125

441 1931-S (2 pieces). Both grade EF-45. Nice glossy brown surfaces and scarce. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $70-80

442 A small lot of certified Lincolns. This group includes 1933 PCGS graded MS-64 Red; 1938 PCGS graded MS-65 Red; 1939-S NGC graded MS-67 Red and 1943-D PCGS graded MS-67. The mintmark on the 1943-D is very high. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-UP

443 1934. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. As bright and fresh as the day it was coined, this blazing red cent boasts superb surfaces, and is one of the finest graded by PCGS of the date (73 this high, none higher). If you demand the best, look here.
Estimated Value $150-250

444 1936. Doubled die obverse. VF-35. The doubling on this is fairly slight, but can be seen on the date. Clean surfaces and medium brown color on both sides.
Estimated Value $40-50

445 1937-D. NGC graded MS-67 Red. Bright red although we note a couple of tiny steel flecks breaking the red color on both sides.
Estimated Value $75-100

446 A small lot of proof cents. This lot includes proof cents as follows: 1938 (2 pieces); 1939; 1940; 1941 and 1942 (2 pieces). Some show small spots, and should be inspected. These early proofs are becoming very popular with the recent excitement created by the PCGS Registry, and prices will move accordingly.
Estimated Value $100-125

447 1938-D. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. One of the finest graded, PCGS notes just 144 have been seen this nice, with none graded higher! Superb in every respect.
Estimated Value $75-150

448 1939-D. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. Fully struck throughout, with radiating red on the devices and fields. One of 141 graded as such, with 4 higher.
Estimated Value $75-150

449 1940. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. A scarce date in this grade, with only 44 graded this high, and none better. Full red and we note very few signs of handling.
Estimated Value $75-150

450 1941. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. The count on this date is 60 graded in MS-67 Red, and none higher. Bright red in color, with splendid surfaces on both sides.
Estimated Value $75-150

451 1941 DDO FS-018. Die 1. ANACS graded MS-64 Red. Bright red with just a few tiny specks. The doubling is visible on U of TRUST and other letters, but it is slight.
Estimated Value $300-400

452 1941-D. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. If you want the best, buy this coin. One of 64 graded this high, and none have been graded higher. Undiminished red and superb in strike, color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $75-150

453 1942. PCGS graded MS-67 Red. Fiery luster and well preserved surfaces. We note the color has slightly mellowed on this one. 71 seen this high, none better.
Estimated Value $75-150

Lincoln Cents

- 454 1942-S, PCGS graded MS-67 Red. The Minmark on this one is repunched to the left. Spot-free and fiery red throughout. Well struck, and one of just 119 graded this high, with none higher.
Estimated Value $75-150

- 455 1943-D, PCGS graded MS-68. One of the finest graded by PCGS, in fact, only 44 have achieved this illustrious grade and none have been graded higher. The surfaces, luster and quality are as close to perfection as these "Steelies" are ever found. These curious coins were the product of emergency war needs, all the available supply of copper was bought up and turned into shells and shell cases for large canons. In order to fill the need for copper, the mints had to stop producing copper cents. As a substitute these unusual "steel" cents (low carbon steel coated with a very thin layer of zinc) were struck in large numbers in 1943. By the time 1944 rolled around, enough large caliber canon shells had been returned from the war effort to allow for regular bronze cent production to resume. As soon as the curious white cents of 1943 were released, it was discovered that they quickly rusted when in a damp environment. Hence, very few are found in pristine condition today. Here is one of the finest graded, and with the current excitement in the 20th Century issues growing, we suspect this coin will prove quite popular with collectors.
Estimated Value $600-1,000

Rare And Desirable 1944 Cent Struck On A Peru 5 Centavos Brass Planchet

Enlarged

- 456 1944 Error Lincoln Cent, struck on a Peru 5 Centavos Brass Planchet. NGC graded AU-50. Listed in Appendix "B" in the Judd book and extremely rare, perhaps even unique, but most likely one of a few known. The surfaces of this cent are obviously brass and not the usual shell case copper seen on other 1944 cents. There is a minor planchet crack on the lower right reverse, and some light scratches under AMERICA on the reverse. Minor hairlines from circulation, and the coin is pretty well struck considering the planchet is smaller than that of a normal cent planchet. Also included in this lot is a regular 1959 Peru 5 Centavos coin to show what the planchet was intended for. A rarity and one that fits hand in glove with the 1943 copper cent errors. The error is noted on the NGC insert.
Estimated Value $2,500-UP

Near Gem 1955 Doubled Die

Enlarged

- 460 1955. Doubled die obverse. MS-64 Red. One of the few found that remains in mint state, especially without toning. Fully struck on the wheat ears, and the obverse, well, we all know that story, with the doubling it is almost hard to look at! Free of spots, which is very unusual for the issue.

Estimated Value $5,000-UP

- 461 1955. Doubled die obverse. MS-63 Red and Brown. Clean surfaces throughout, with even mellow red color matched on both sides. One of the most popular of the double die errors, and one of the most dramatic! Perfect for the album collector who doesn't want a slabbed coin.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 462 1955. Doubled die obverse. MS-63 Brown. Hazy brown toning over reddish hues near the devices. Sharp, especially on the all important obverse, and we note full wheat ears on the reverse too. Perfect for the date set collector.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 463 1955. Doubled die obverse. MS-60. Medium brown in color with some mint red visible on both sides. Nice color and surfaces, and worth a good bid. Always popular and in strong demand as one of the most spectacular errors of the 20th Century.

Estimated Value $950-1,150

- 464 1955. Doubled die obverse. Sharpness of Extremely Fine but corroded. This one has an interesting story, it was found in the ground with a metal detector. Examination will note the coin probably never circulated, but the entire surfaces are lightly corroded. As to the diagnostic doubling, it is sharp and clear to the eye. One scratch is noted below Lincoln's beard. Certainly unusual, and a good coin to put in an album to finally complete your Lincoln collection.

Estimated Value $300-UP

- 465 1963. NGC graded Proof 69 Cameo, Red. One of 104 graded this high, with none higher, a superb coin in every way.

Estimated Value $25-UP

- 466 1964. NGC graded Proof 68 Ultra Cameo, Red. One of the ultimate grades awarded for this date, only a few are found with the "ultra cameo" appearance. NGC has graded 44 this high with just 20 graded higher. As coin collecting has greatly expanded the past few years, modern rarities have taken on a life of their own, and the early proof strikes sometimes include these "ultra" or "deep" cameo strikes. Such coins represent the finest quality available, and when they sport high grades too, find feverish demand from date collectors. This one has fiery red color around the periphery, and is quite beautiful in every respect. The ultra cameo pieces must be seen to be understood, as the frost is quite strong on the devices, while the mirror fields are especially deep.

Estimated Value $100-UP

- 467 1972. Double die obverse. PCGS graded MS-66 Red. As nice as these are usually found, just 305 have been graded as such, with 8 graded higher. This particular coin has blazing red color and no significant spots or other problems. The doubling is very sharp and plainly visible with a glass.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 468 1972. Double die obverse Error. MS-63 Red. Sharply doubled on the obverse, nearly as sharp as the 1955 error. Great color and surfaces.

Estimated Value $150-200

Lincoln Cents

- 469 1977. Cent struck on a dime planchet. MS-60+. Well struck, with minor weakness on the F above the Memorial on the reverse, and a tiny spot below the date.
Estimated Value $150-UP

- 470 1978. Lincoln cent struck over a previously struck 1978 dime on a dime planchet. ANACS graded MS-64. This coin started life as a normal 1978 dime, somehow the struck dime was refed into the coming press and struck by Lincoln cent dies! Substantial design elements from the dime can still be seen, including the original date, although the 8 is obscured somewhat, and the outline of Roosevelt's head is clear. While this type of error has been found in larger numbers the past few years, examples from 1978 are more difficult to locate. Any person can see this error, and hence this would make a great conversation piece or addition to an error collection.
Estimated Value $250-UP

- 471 1983. Double Die Reverse. MS-65 Red. All lettering on the reverse is clearly doubled. Great surfaces and color.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 472 1983. Cent struck on a flip over 1983-P dime. MS-64. This coin started as a 1983-P dime on a normal planchet, somehow, after the dime was struck it overstruck by 1983 cent dies! Thus, Roosevelt has the Lincoln Memorial across his face, and on the obverse, the cent has ONE DIME above Lincoln. Most of the design elements of both strikes are clear, and this is a wonderful error coin that anyone can enjoy.
Estimated Value $300-UP

- 473 1984. Double Die on Ear. MS-65 Red. The double ear feature is obvious on this coin. Gleaming bright surfaces throughout.
Estimated Value $125-150

Enlarged

- 474 1984. Double Die on Ear. MS-65 Red. The double ear feature is obvious on this coin. Gleaming bright surfaces throughout, but a small spot by C of CENT.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 475 1984. Doubled die on Ear. MS-60+. Cleaned. Some minor spots on both sides, but sharp on the double ear.
Estimated Value $50-75

- 476 1988 Lincoln cent error, flip over double strike. MS-63. The first strike was normal, then the second strike was 60 percent off center and flipped over. The flip over portion clearly shows Lincoln's back and head, while the other side was struck over a planchet and thus simply spread out the face of poor Lincoln with TRUST extending out to the rim with elongated letters. Bright red in color, save for bright aluminum where the thin copper coating broke through from the second strike. A dramatic and exciting error coin.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 477 1994 Cent struck on a 1994-P Dime! ANACS graded MS-64. The reverse of the 1994-P dime is clearly distinguishable on the cent's obverse and on the reverse of the cent, the head of Roosevelt is clearly defined. A remarkable mint error and one of only 4 reported.
Estimated Value $500-750

- 478 1995. Double Die Obverse, 2 pieces. Both grade Mint State 64 to 65. Free of spots or other problems. The doubling is obvious with a glass. Lot of 2 coins
Estimated Value $50-60

- 479 1909 through 1995-S Lincoln Cent collection. This collection is missing the 1909-S V.D.B., 1912-S, 1922 "Plain" and 1955 double die. Grades range from Good to Proof. The later dates from 1941 on are all mint state or proof. Many nice coins are included, and a good set to break up or upgrade. Mounted in a Dansco coin album. Lot of 246 coins
Estimated Value $500-600

These grade mostly EF to AU. A great lot for the date collector who wants to get several tough dates out of the way. Lot of 15 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150

A few of the coins have been lightly cleaned and we note the familiar pink copper shades, as well as faint hairlines. A few are even starting to tone, but most are free of spots or other problems. A well matched set that includes some scarce issues, and a set that could likely be broken up for a profit, with the recent price increases on Lincoln cents. The later coins from 1976 on are frosted proofs. Mounted in a Capital Plastics holder. Lot of 48 coins.

Two Cent Pieces

505 1864. Small motto, FS-000.5. NGC graded MS-65 Red and Brown. For the date, this is about as nice as this variety is found, with just a handful graded a point higher by NGC. Nearly full red, with slight mellowing in near the centers to account for the Red and Brown designation. The Small Motto variety has always been collected widely, and over the years it has been proven to be far more scarce than the Large Motto style. Apparently, the Small Motto style was first used during the pattern stage, and soon after regular production began, the Large Motto style won out and most of the 1864s made show that design.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

506 1864. Small motto. MS-60 Brown. Glossy brown in color with a darker area on the upper right reverse. Rare and popular, especially this nice.

Estimated Value $300-400

507 1864. Small motto. EF-40. Medium to dark brown in color and sharp. Some minor dark stains on the lower reverse.

Estimated Value $175-225

508 1865. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Blazing red in color and with the fancy 5 in the date. We note the reverse has clash marks from the shield below the 2. Clean surfaces and scarce this nice. Minor weakness in the peripheral strike.

Estimated Value $650-750

509 1865. PCGS graded MS-65 Red. Bright in color, with good luster and generally clean surfaces. We note two minor specks, one at the end of the ribbon on the obverse, the other below R1 of AMERICA on the reverse. Sharp, but we note several low areas above the peripheral lettering.

Estimated Value $650-750

510 1870. NGC graded MS-65 Brown. Evenly toned with pleasing and glossy brown shades. Clean surfaces, enough so to keep this one in the gem class. A slightly better date.

Estimated Value $300-400

511 1871. NGC graded MS-64 Brown. Hints of red around the devices, and well struck and preserved.

Estimated Value $175-225

Two Cent Pieces & Silver Three Cent Pieces

- 512 1872. PCGS graded MS-64 Red and Brown. Wood grain toning on both sides and with plenty of red underneath. Excellent surfaces and a good strike except for the right side of the reverse, which has some weakness in the lettering.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 513 1872. VF-30. Dark brown and pleasing for the grade. Just 65,000 were struck, making this one of the scarcest dates, only behind the rare 1873.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 514 1873. Open 3. Restrike. PCGS graded Proof 64 Red and Brown. One of 37 so graded by PCGS, with 17 graded higher. Nice color and surfaces, with streaky toning on the reverse, brighter on the obverse with delicate red color around the periphery.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

- 515 A date run of Two Cent pieces. The following are included: 1864 Large Motto, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870 and 1871, these grade from Very Fine to About Uncirculated. Lot of 8 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

Silver Three Cent Pieces

- 516 1851. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright and fresh, with just a whisper of gold toning starting to form over lustrous fields. Nicely struck from cracked and clashed dies.
Estimated Value $300-350

Enlarged

- 517 1854. NGC graded MS-66. Here is one of the finest graded of the date, NGC has seen 5 graded as such, with a single coin graded higher. PCGS has even fewer, with 2 graded this high and a single coin graded higher. Don't expect to find a better one! As we know, the type II design has proven to be much rarer in high grades than the earlier issues. This has been established by collectors, and confirmed as the various Population Reports have reflected the data. Silvery gray in color, with flecks of toning mostly around the periphery. Undiminished by contact marks or problems, this gem will satisfy the most fastidious collector.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

Enlarged

- 518 1857. PCGS graded MS-65. Deep rose, blue and gold toning over lustrous fields. Struck from clashed dies, as are most seen. An impressive gem example for the date collector.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500
- 519 1858. Type 2. MS-63. Satiny luster and barely toned with hazy white colors. We note the rim is irregular due to striking, while the star is full and complete.
Estimated Value $400-500

Silver Three Cent Pieces

The Finest Graded Proof 1860 Three Cent Silver

Enlarged

- 520 1860. NGC graded Proof 68. Deep watery fields that reflect back wondrous colors at the top, more gray at the bottom on the obverse. Similar on the reverse, with the top more of a gray tone with the lower portions deep blue and gray. A glass will scarcely locate any hairlines or handling evidence, and this one is truly superb. As to rarity, NGC has graded only one coin this high, this coin, and the next grade down is PF-66, with 2 specimens seen. PCGS hasn't graded any higher than PR-65! That makes this little coin pretty much for certain the Finest Known, but two points! Perhaps there are some others out there that haven't been graded, but we doubt there are any better than the coin on offer here today. Boldly struck save for the center of the tiny branch on the reverse, which is weak at the center. In NGC holder #1600240-042.
Estimated Value $10,000-UP

- 21 1860. NGC graded MS-62. Frosty luster beneath flecks of gold toning on both sides and quite appealing for such a tiny coin. Moderate handling marks.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 22 1862. NGC graded MS-62. Steel gray in color, with minor ticks keeping this from a higher grade.
Estimated Value $150-175

Enlarged

- 23 1863. MS-60. This one has really nice gold toning and good luster, but the fields do show moderate hairlines from a past cleaning. One that would look nice in a Capital plastics display box.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 24 1864. Proof 50. Dull and matte in appearance from a cleaning. Nice surfaces otherwise.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 525 1865. AU-55. Light gold around the periphery, and well struck.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 526 1866. EF-45. Well struck by the dies and wonderfully toned with darker highlights around the devices and golden steel in the fields.
Estimated Value $250-275
- 527 1867. Proof 55. Steel gray in color with the usual hairlines in the fields. Just 625 struck, keeping this coin quite rare from its day of issue. Apparently this proof slipped into circulation for awhile, and was cleaned long ago.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 528 1868. AU-50. Tawny original toning over some very minor hairlines. An excellent, original, example of this date. Note the mintage of just 3,500 for circulation.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 529 1869. EF-45. Well struck and preserved, with a layer of gold toning over lightly circulated fields and devices. A rare date.
Estimated Value $275-325
- 530 1870. AU-50. A lovely example of this rare date, only 3,000 were minted for circulation (why did the Mint bother?), and few survive other than in proof condition. One tick mark on the lower point of the star, and another in the field below. Deeply toned.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 531 1871. EF-45. An extremely rare coin in any grade. This one has deep gold and gray toning throughout and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 532 1872. Proof 63. Deep blue and red toning on both sides and very beautiful.
Estimated Value $450-550

Enlarged

Estimated Value $700-800
- 534 1851, 1851-O, 1852 and 1853. This group of Three Cent silvers grades Very Fine to Extremely Fine. Each is toned. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

Estimated Value $60-80
- 536 1854, 1855, 1856, 1857 and 1858. This group of Three Cent silvers grades Very Fine. Most are toned and have clean surfaces. A group for the date collector. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 537 1859, 1860, 1861 and 1862. Each of these Three Cent silvers grades Very Fine. The 1862 has rough surfaces from an improper cleaning, but has retuned nicely. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $100-120

Estimated Value $250-275
- 541 1874. NGC graded Proof 64. Well struck throughout, with mirror fields and a blush of sunset gold color on either side. Problem free.
Estimated Value $250-275

- 542 1877. PCGS graded Proof 64. Mintage of just 510 in Proof, and no business strikes were produced, creating the rarity of the series. Hazy nickel toning and well struck.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 543 1878. Proof 63. One faint slide mark on Liberty's face, bright and untoned.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 544 1879. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. A sparkling gem proof that boasts good contrast between the fields and devices. Identifiable by a tiny fleck out of the planchet at the top of Liberty's neck, just below her cheek line. The cameo proof designation is seldom awarded, so if you want a premium example of this date, check it out.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 545 1879. NGC graded Proof 66. Superb surfaces and color, with well frosted devices against the mirror fields.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 546 1879. AU-55. Boldly struck and untoned.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 547 1880. EF-45. Lightly circulated and sharp.

Estimated Value $500-550

- 549 1882. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. Bright and untoned, with fully frosted devices that seem to float on a mirror sea of glass. Scarce with the cameo designation, and highly appealing.
Estimated Value $500-550

- 550 1882. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. A superb gem that is totally white, free of spots, toning or signs of handling. The surfaces are simply superb. All cameo proof coinage is desirable and most are far rarer than the regular proof issues.

- 551 1882. AU-55. Typical color and surfaces, and well struck for the date.
Estimated Value $90-110
- 552 1883. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. One of several cameo proofs which were consigned to our sale, this one boasts excellent contrast and gleaming surfaces. Free of toning or signs of handling, and we note a couple of specks on OF.
Estimated Value $500-550

Estimated Value $500-550
- 557 1884. NGC graded Proof 66 Cameo. A rare coin to locate in Cameo proof, one of just 3 graded as such by NGC, although 2 are in this sale. This one has some streaky gold toning on the obverse, and a bit on the reverse too. Superb quality throughout.

- 560 1885. Proof 63. Bright and original, with good surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 561 1886. PCGS graded Proof 64. Bright and original, with one thin line down Liberty's face from gem. Excellent frost.
Estimated Value $250-275

Estimated Value $200-250
- 563 1887. 7 over 6. PCGS graded Proof 64. The overdate is about as scarce as the regular date in proof, but more popular as Philadelphia struck few overdate proofs of any denomination. Estimated Value $325-375

Estimated Value $200-250

Nickels

Shield Nickels

- 71 1866 Rays. NGC graded MS-64. This one has gold toning on the obverse, and a bit of the usual nickel streaky tone on the reverse. Good luster in the fields, and few marks can be seen, even with a glass. Popular as the first year of issue of the new larger, nickel metal coin, which eventually replaced the half dime.
Estimated Value $500-550
- 72 1866 Rays. AU-58. There are several small marks on the vertical shield lines, and a speck has been removed from the upper reverse near and on the second S of STATES. Cracked reverse die, and interesting.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 73 1866 Rays. ANACS graded AU-50. One spot in the field left of the denomination, and one above the top star. Scarce first year of issue.
Estimated Value $100-140
- 74 "1867" No Rays. Contemporary Counterfeit. VF-30. Lightly cleaned at one time, and certainly good enough to "pass". The date is repunched on the 18, the shield lines a bit wavy, and the lettering is off style, but all in all a fun coin to study. Can you imagine counterfeiting a nickel? A lot of work went into this, and they are not too common.
Estimated Value $20-UP
- 75 1869. SEGS graded Proof 64. Hazy and somewhat dull, the obverse has a broad streak of light gold toning through the shield. Scarce and always popular.
Estimated Value $325-375

- 576 1873. Closed 3. PCGS graded MS-64. Here is a truly rare coin that is not fully appreciated by the collecting public. In a recent PCGS Population Report, we note that 3 have been graded this high, with none graded higher! Further, only 3 others have been graded below it, all MS-63 in uncirculated grades. The closed 3 date punches were replaced in early January 1873 after it was determined that the closed 3 could easily be mistaken for an 8. Hence, new date punches were prepared for nearly all denominations, and new dies were pressed into service. Hence, few closed 3 coins were produced, and this Shield nickel is an excellent example for the collector who appreciates such things. Frosty luster and well struck, the surfaces are problem free.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 577 1874. NGC graded Proof 65. A golden toned gem that has few signs of handling and loads of appeal.
Estimated Value $600-700
- 578 1875. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright and well struck by the dies.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 579 1877. PCGS graded Proof 63. Toned with hazy nickel shades and scarce, with a mintage of 510 or so (Mint records may not be perfect on this date). We note a long, hidden scrape across the top right third of the coin, mostly present in the horizontal shield lines.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 580 1878. Proof 63. Bright and untuned, with a good strike and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 581 1879 Recut Date. Proof 60+. Lots of recutting on the date, the coin has nice surfaces and hazy toning.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 582 1880. Proof 63. Sharp and pleasing, we note a couple of tiny specks on the reverse. Far better than most.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 583 1881. PCGS graded MS-64. One of the rare dates from this popular series, only 72,375 were coined in all, and this is certainly one of the finest to survive. PCGS notes just 19 graded as such, with 43 graded higher (best MS-67). Bright and lustrous, with problem free surfaces.
Estimated Value $700-800

Nickels

- 584 1881. EF-40. A rare date that boasts a mintage of 72,375, most of which were lost. Well struck and with clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 585 1883. 3 over 2. NGC graded MS-62. A few light hairlines and slight dullness in the color, but still lustrous overall. Scarce in mint state, the overdate is quite plain with a glass, and the die shows numerous cracks from use. The final year of issue for the Shield design.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 586 1883. Proof 60+. Clean and bright, we note a few hairlines, but better than one would expect for the grade.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 587 1883. MS-64. Struck from a cracked obverse die, with the motto poorly defined, and a bit weak on the central reverse.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 588 A partial set of Shield nickels. This partial set grades from Very Fine to Extremely Fine. The following dates are included: 1866, 1867 Rays, 1867 No Rays, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1882 and 1883. A great start on a high grade circulated date set. Lot of 14 coins.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 589 A type set of nickels. This set includes the following dates and grades: 1867 with Rays, Mint State 60, 1867 double date, no Rays, MS-60, 1883 No Cents, MS-63, 1902 AU-58, 1913-D Type I, MS-60 and 1931-S MS-63 with a few spots. These are mounted in a blue plastic holder. Lot of 6 coins.
Estimated Value $300-400

Liberty Nickels

- 590 1883. Without "CENTS". NGC graded MS-65. Trivial specks on the reverse, and the obverse has a faint planchet streak. First year of issue, and an important type coin. Nicely struck by the dies, and most of the luster remains.
Estimated Value $140-170
- 591 1883. Without "CENTS". PCGS graded MS-64. Nice and fresh, we note clean surfaces for the grade and a good strike, with just a hair of weakness on the cotton bolls. A one year type coin, and always popular.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 592 1883. With "CENTS". NGC graded MS-64. Typical nickel gray in color and just a couple of scattered flecks, with an average strike.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 593 1885. NGC graded Proof 66. The key date to the series, and Proofs are easier to locate than high grade circulated examples. Here is a nice one, Liberty's head has a large dollop of toning in her hair into the stars above, otherwise the surfaces are nickel blue. The reverse is similar, but entirely blue in hues.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 594 1885. MS-60+. This one has nice surfaces for the grade, a few minor hairlines, but they are toned over with familiar nickel gold colors. Bright luster in the fields and well preserved aside from the hairlines. The key date to the series, mintages plunged on minor coinage while the Philadelphia Mint closed down production on February 16, 1885 through nearly the end 1886.
Estimated Value $700-800

Estimated Value $650-700

Enlarged

- 604 1898. MS-60. This is a highly unusual coin, the date has been widely recut, with traces of the final 8 more than half that digit's width high and to the right. Similar on the 9, which shows wide recutting too, and a trace also on the first 8. Breen mentions partial repunchings, but clearly he was not referring to this dramatically repunched date! Not reported in the Cherrypicker's guide. Perhaps this is an early die state, and the repunching traces were removed once the dies were lapped and polished. Worth a look, as this is certainly unusual and the first we recall seeing.
Estimated Value $250-UP
- 605 1903. PCGS graded Proof 65. Hazy toning on both sides and clean for the grade. One small speck below the left bullet on the reverse.
Estimated Value $300-400

Estimated Value $350-400

Estimated Value $350-400
- 608 1906. MS-64. Frosty and bright, with a couple of minor ticks on each side.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 609 1908. MS-65. Bright and fresh with clean surfaces, but we do note one tiny defect in the dentils at the point of the twelfth star. A flash coin.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 610 1911. NGC graded MS-65. A lot of flash for the grade, with radiant luster throughout. Well struck save for the lower left ear of corn, which is flat.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 611 1912. NGC graded Proof 63. A pleasing spot-free example with a tinge of pinkish steel color.

Estimated Value $200-300

Buffalo Nickels

- 617 1913. Type 1. PCGS graded Proof 64 Premium Quality. A scarce example of this short term type coin in Proof. Just 1,520 were struck, and few are as well preserved as this one. Note the curious texture in the fields and on the devices, which is especially strong on this coin. Nice luster and color, and no signs of toning or age. Clean surfaces for the grade, and satisfying in every way.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
-
- 618 1913. Type 1. Matte Proof 64. Gleaming mint surface on both sides and boldly impressed by the dies. Clearly, these early proofs were very well made when compared with general business strikes. Take a look and see, but be prepared for a surprise how nice these look when fully struck.
Estimated Value $750-1,000
- 619 1913. Type 1. PC1 graded MS-64. Subdued luster and with typical surfaces for the grade. A scarce type coin that was only issued for part of 1913.

- 620 1913-D. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the finest graded, PCGS notes 170 this high with just 18 graded higher (all MS-67). Apparently, this gem was put away at the time of issue and remains about as nice as the day it was struck. Strong luster and free of detractors.
Estimated Value $300-400

Nickels

- 621 1913-D. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-65. Sharply struck by the dies, we note a full and complete horn and a good split in his tail on Mr. Bison. Good luster and clean for the grade. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $150-190
- 622 1913. Type 2. PC1 graded MS-64. Sharply struck and with good luster, but there is a small speck on the lower part of the Chief's feather.
Estimated Value $50-60
- 623 1913-D. Type 2. Premium Quality. NGC graded MS-64. Nice color and surfaces, we note a few scattered fly specks on the obverse, but the strike is firm and the coin pleasing overall.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 624 1913-D. Type 2. NGC graded MS-64. Gleaming luster throughout, but we note that the bison's horn is not quite full, and there is a small spot on the E of FIVE.

Estimated Value $150-185
- 628 1913-S. Type 2 EF-45 and 1938-D/D Buffalo, MS-60+. An interesting pair for the collector. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $170-190
- 629 1914. PCGS graded MS-65. Sunset gold toning on the upper left of the reverse is starting to form, and we note a tiny speck on the end of the Chief's nose, and another on the ground above the slobbering beast. Sharp and pleasing.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 630 1914. ANACS graded MS-64. Nice color and surfaces, the obverse die shows two small die cracks.
Estimated Value $90-110
- 631 1914-D. PCGS graded MS-64. Clean surfaces for the grade, we see few signs of contact and the coin is not toned. Struck from a lapped obverse die, with LIBERTY somewhat weak, as struck. The reverse sharper, with the lettering and bison details generally crisp.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 632 1914-D. MS-64. Sharp, and we note blue-gold toning on both sides. A scarce date that is seldom found this nice.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 633 1914-D. MS-63. A nice strike from the dies, and with strong luster, but some dunderhead put a small pin scratch down the bison's shoulder and leg. Sigh. Staples and coins don't mix.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 634 1914-S. PC1 graded MS-64. Nice luster and color for the date, and scarce this nice.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 635 1915. NGC graded MS-64. Nice color and surfaces, but note the green forming along the reverse rim at the base.
Estimated Value $75-85

Estimated Value $75-95

- 637 1915-S. NGC graded MS-64. Tiny flecks of toning on both sides scattered about can be seen with a glass. Fully struck on the horn, but LIBERTY and the rump of the bison show characteristic weakness of the date.
Estimated Value $650-750
- 638 1915-S. PCGS graded AU-58. Light streaky toning on the bison, and this one just missed a mint state grade. Perfect for a high grade set.
Estimated Value $225-275

- 639 1916. NGC graded Proof 66. Bright and well preserved throughout. These early proofs are quite scarce, only 600 were minted and few this nice, NGC notes 38 have been graded this high with just 10 graded higher. Light gold toning and exceptional quality.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900
- 640 1916-D. PCGS graded MS-64. Weakly struck from worn dies, with the face flat on the bison, although the horn is full. In an old style small PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $300-350

Estimated Value $275-325
- 642 1916-D. AU-50. This coin is nearly mint state, check it out! Clean surfaces and well struck.
Estimated Value $60-70
- 643 1917-D. PC1 graded MS-64 "Flat Strike". Good luster and moderate handling marks. A scarce date in higher mint state grades, so check it out and see if it will fit into your set. As noted on the holder "flat strike", as often seen, with weak definition on the high points at the centers.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 644 1917-D. EF-45. Excellent color and surfaces, with a tiny planchet lamination (still attached, but peeling) in the field above to date into the Indian's neck.
Estimated Value $70-90

- 645 1917-S. PC1 graded MS-63. As often seen, the dies look a bit leathery in the fields, but this is as struck. The result is a textured appearance in the fields, and it is best viewed with a glass. Nice luster and a decent strike for this Western Mint.
Estimated Value $700-800

Nice EF 1918-D, 8 over 7 Buffalo

Enlarged

646 1918-D, 8 over 7. PCGS graded EF-45. Toned with golden hues on the obverse, a bit streaky on the reverse. We note some very faint scratches on the back of the bison and in the field above. The overdate feature is strong and can easily be seen with a glass. One of the most popular and difficult to locate buffalo nickels, especially this nice. Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

Enlarged

47 1918-D, 8 over 7. PCGS graded EF-40. A rare date in high grade, most of these are found in lower circulated grades than offered here. Note the nearly full horn on the bison, and the natural appearing color on both sides. This coin looks like it was just plucked from a roll, or a hoard of nickels, and the overdate feature discovered. Minor handling marks, mostly on the outer front leg of the bison. The overdate feature is plain, with a broad and flat top on the 8. PCGS notes about 100 have been graded this high or better. Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

48 1918-D, PC1 graded MS-63 Premium Quality. Sharply struck and with good luster throughout. We note one tiny speck at the center of the obverse. Estimated Value $750-850

49 1918-D, EF-45. Nice color and surfaces, with a crisp strike too. Too bad this isn't the overdate. Estimated Value $100-130

650 1919-D, VF-35. Faint hairlines on the reverse and well struck. It just misses the full horn on the reverse. Estimated Value $50-75

651 1920-D, PCGS graded MS-64. Here is a better strike than usual for this date, in fact we see slight doubling on the date and ribbons nearby. Steel gray in color, and worth a look as this date often is found quite weak. Hard to find this nice. PCGS notes a gross as MS-64, with just 34 graded higher, all MS-65. Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

652 1920-D, EF-40. Perfect for the grade, evenly toned and lightly circulated. Estimated Value $150-175

653 1920-S, EF-40. Sharp, and probably an early die state, as this date is often seen poorly struck. Darker toning on the high points. Estimated Value $100-125

654 1921-S, PC1 graded VF-30. A decent circulated example of this downright rare date! The devices are enhanced by the original color in the fields. Estimated Value $200-250

655 1921-S, VF-30. Streaky toning on both sides, with a minor lamination extending up into the field from the tip of the Indian's nose. A few fresh surface marks on the upper reverse devices which could be toned over. Estimated Value $275-350

656 1923-S, EF-40. Light golden toning on the obverse and reverse, with one tiny tick on the rim before the Indian's face. Estimated Value $150-175

657 1924-D, PCGS graded MS-64. Another well struck example of an early mintmarked buffalo. Steel gray with more luster than others, and slight doubling is noted on the date. The only signs of weakness are at the top of the reverse legend. On the tail, we see a bit of a split, and the head is well formed but not as crisp as seen on later issues, but decent nonetheless. Estimated Value $700-800

658 1924-D, EF-40. Toned with medium dark flecks of color around the devices, one minor scratch above the bison's head. Estimated Value $100-130

659 1924-S, PC1 graded VF-30. Weak on the bison's head and with a toning spot on the Indian's face, otherwise medium nickel yellow in color. Scarce. Estimated Value $150-200

660 1924-S, VF-20. Original and scarce. Estimated Value $250-300

Nickels

- 661 1925. PC1 graded MS-66. The date shows some doubling to the right of each digit. Wow, this one has vibrant orange gold toning on both sides over abundant luster. It is well struck by the dies and shows few signs of handling whatsoever. One for the specialist who demands a toned and well preserved coin.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 662 1925-S. EF-40. Well struck and original, with a full horn on the bison.
Estimated Value $100-115

- 663 1926 Original Gem Uncirculated Roll (40 coins). MS-64 thru MS-66. Here is something you don't see everyday, an entire original roll of Buffalo nickels! The roll grades from MS-64 to 66. If you would love to set aside something quite unusual and downright rare, then put this away today. Lot of 40 coins.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP

- 664 1926-S. EF-40. A low mintage date of 970,000, and most are found in lower grades. This one has been lightly cleaned in the past, and is an even gray color throughout. Full horn on the bison, and generally sharp for the issue. Minor handling, and well worth a look.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 665 1927-S. PCGS graded MS-64. A rare date in high grade, PCGS has graded just 141 this high, with a scant 18 graded higher (all MS-65). Tawny gold toning on the obverse and reverse, with satiny luster in the fields. Don't expect to find a better one, this is about as nice as these ever are found. An important coin for the specialist.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 666 1927-S. EF-40. Lightly circulated, steel gray and nice.
Estimated Value $50-60

- 667 1928-S. MS-60. Lightly toned with pleasing hues. Typical softness in the strike, but good luster throughout.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 668 1929-D. PC1 graded MS-65 "Weak Strike". As noted on the insert "weak strike", as usual for the date. Good luster, and this is how most are found. This one is set apart from the herd by its clean surfaces which give it a leg up on the competition.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 669 1931-S (9 pieces). These grade Very Fine to Extremely Fine. One of the lowest mintage dates of the entire Buffalo nickel series! Don't pass these up if you're a dealer. Lot of 9 coins.
Estimated Value $40-50

- 670 1934. NGC graded MS-66. Sharply impressed by the dies and with good luster throughout. We note traces of an old fingerprint on the reverse. A nice coin for the date.
Estimated Value $250-275

- 671 1934-D. NGC graded MS-65. Golden russet to reddish hues in the color department, with excellent luster in the fields. As to the strike, it is good enough, not razor sharp, but enough so to keep this one above average.
Estimated Value $500-550

- 672 1937. Proof 65. A brilliant, platinum color, spot-free gem.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 673 1937-D. 3 legged FS-020.2. NGC graded MS-64. Here is one of the few near gems to be graded by either grading service of this immensely popular variety. We note some tawny gold toning on the obverse, with a splash of multicolored hues around the bison's head on the reverse. NGC has graded 105 this high, with 36 graded higher, similar numbers at PCGS. Well struck and always in demand for the curious feature on the reverse.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 674 1937-D. 3 legged. PCGS graded AU-55. One of the great stories in American numismatics, this clashed die was lapped a bit too aggressively and the foreleg of the bison was filed past the bone clear down to the field! All that remains is the poor beast's hoof. Clean surfaces and a good strike, with a full horn on the bison. Natural tawny gold in color.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 675 1937-D. 3 legged. AU-50. Steel gray and clean for the grade, with just a few light hairline scratches on the obverse. Well struck on the obverse, the reverse is characteristically weak.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 676 1937-D 3 legged. EF-45. One of the classic rarities of the series, the "3-legged" variety was created by lapping the reverse die to remove clash marks. A bit too much metal was removed from the, including the foreleg of the bison. A couple of minor ticks from circulation, but a full horn and all the diagnostics are clear. Perfect for the collector.
Estimated Value $300-375

- 677 1937-D. 3 legged. NGC graded VF-25. A pleasing problem-free example of this popular 20th century mint error.
Estimated Value $250-300

Nickels

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Jefferson Nickels

War Series Jefferson Nickel on a Steel Cent Planchet

Enlarged

682 1943-S Jefferson Nickel struck on a Zine Coated Steel Planchet! NGC graded MS-63. An extremely rare error, perhaps even Unique, as Judd notes the existence, but doesn't state if more than one is known. This looks very similar to a regular Jefferson nickel of the war period, but when examining the lettering and date, we note they are drawn up towards the rim as the smaller cent planchet expanded into the collar during striking. Excellent surfaces for the grade, with no troublesome marks or scratches that are so often seen when a smaller planchet is used than normal, the ejection equipment didn't scrape or mark this piece at all. Good luster throughout and a premium error that is extremely rare and almost never available. This particular coin had been put away for many years and was recently coaxed out of hiding for our sale. The error is noted on the NGC insert, and currently in holder #1270632-002.

Estimated Value $5,000-7,500

Nickels & Half Dimes

- 683 1943-S Jefferson Nickel struck on a Fiji/Australia Sixpence Planchet! NGC graded AU-58. A delightful error which is possibly unique, or certainly extremely rare at least. The smaller planchet was fed into the coining press and this dies produced a fairly normal looking Jefferson nickel, however, the right side shows only a fraction of the lettering and base of the digits in the date (enough so to identify this as a 1943). On the reverse, the large "S" over Monticello confirms this is a war-time issue. Somewhat softly struck on the steps and upper curls as this thinner planchet simply didn't have enough metal between the dies to fill in all the high points. Apparently this one circulated briefly before being saved, but is still very lustrous and appealing. A foremost rarity for the error specialist, and while not as well known as the 1943 copper Lincoln cents, is no doubt rarer and struck during the same time period and circumstances. The error is noted on the NGC insert, and currently in holder #1270632-004.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,500

- 684 Jefferson Silver War Nickel struck 40 % Off Center (No date or mintmark). PCGS graded MS-62. This coin was struck off center towards 7:30 o'clock, just enough to miss the last digit of the date, and enough on the reverse to miss the mintmark. As this is struck on a silver planchet, we know that the date would have been 1942 to 1945, when the necessities of a mechanized war required more useful nickel for the war effort, while silver had little use by comparison. Hence the composition of nickels was changed to copper, silver and manganese during the war. The surfaces of this coin show five dull scrapes hidden on Jefferson's coat, and two more short ones from the rim to his nose, and these account for the grade. Many off center coins have these scratches, perhaps they are caused by the planchet ejection equipment or some similar process. On the reverse, there is a minor dark planchet streak in the blank area.

Estimated Value $300-350

- 685 Jefferson nickel set, 1938 through 1985 including proof only issues. This set grades from Uncirculated to Proof. Also of note is a 1939 with a doubled die reverse (with ANACS papers) that grades About Uncirculated 50 included as a duplicate at the end of the second album. Mounted in two blue Whitman albums, and a quality collectors set.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 686 A type set of Nickels. This set includes the following: 1867 with Rays EF-45; 1883 Shield EF-45; 1883 No Cents Liberty, EF-45; 1907 AU-55; 1913 Type I Buffalo MS-60 and 1938-D Buffalo MS-60. A nice group for the collector. Lot of 6 coins.

Estimated Value $150-200

Half Dimes

Enlarged

- 687 1795 V-4, LM-10, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-40. Medium to dark gray in color and very well struck, in fact most of Liberty has a double profile. Minor surface marks from handling and brief circulation and only one small area which is weak, that located near OF and below, which is opposite Liberty's bust point. The reverse has some moderate hairlines. One for the type collector.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Enlarged

- 688 1796 V-1, LM-1, Rarity-3. PCGS graded EF-40. Dark gray in color and we note some digs hidden in Liberty's hair, one on the central back curl, and a couple of others above her ear. A few other scrapes and bumps on the reverse, but they are not unusual on these tiny coins, which seem to have more than their share of handling. Examination will locate a few hairlines, perhaps from circulation or later events. A hard to locate type coin in high grade.

Estimated Value $2,200-2,700

Half Dimes

Enlarged

1800 Valentine-1, LM-1, Rarity-3, PCGS graded AU-55 Premium Quality. Perfect for the type or date collector, this coin boasts a strong strike, which for the variety is often weak. Note that all the reverse stars present, although not sharp, and weak on two clouds, both of which show outlines. Glorious blue and gold toning over lustrous fields, and well preserved save for the usual light hairlines. Few half dimes are found without significant problems from this era, so avail yourself of this opportunity

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

Enlarged

1800 LM-1, V-1, R-2, EF-45. Steel gray in color and well struck from this early die state. We note a few small digs on Liberty's head, but they are hidden and can scarcely be seen without a strong glass, the rim shows a minor pinch where someone may have used this coin to turn a screw, and evidence can be seen above the R of LIBERTY and below the arrow claw. Sharply struck and a very appealing coin for the grade, and the marks noted do not detract all that much, and many of these are found in far worse condition.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

1829 LM-1, V-7, R-2, MS-62 Prooflike. Prooflike and well struck, as are most of this variety. Steel gray and reflective, with prooflike fields

Estimated Value $250-350

Enlarged

692 1832 LM-5, V-8, SEGS graded Proof 61. This is a curious coin as some may believe it to be a Proof issue, others do not. As always, please make up your own mind about such things before you decide to bid. The SEGS insert states that this is "Lx Fraser/Reed Hawn Eliasberg" example, presumably from Bowers Eliasberg Sale, 5/20/96:921, which is the only 1832 V-8 half dime offered. In their description, the cataloguer noted that Breen considered this variety a proof issue (we're not certain if Breen was referring to this coin or not, and have no evidence one way or the other). Further, the Bowers cataloguer stated that they did not believe the coin was a proof, as the strike was weak and other characteristics of proof coins of the era are not present. The coin does have sharp stars and reflective fields, but they since have been cleaned a slightly dull finish. We also do not think this coin is a proof, but again, all collectors and dealers must make up their own minds, and we implore you to view the coin before deciding for yourself.

Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

693 1832 V-2h, LM-12, R-2, PCGS graded MS-64. Frosty luster in the fields and well struck throughout. A couple of minute handling marks are located on both sides, but they are not distracting. Scarce in this grade, and worth a look

Estimated Value $750-850

694 1832, LM-7, V-9, R-2, NGC graded AU-58. Dark steel gray in color, with just a bit of rub on the high points. One tick near the fifth star, and another above Liberty

Estimated Value $150-200

Half Dimes

- 695 1834 LM-2, V-1, R-1. EF-45. Sharply struck by the dies and with beautiful toning, especially on the obverse. These interesting coins have held steady in price for nearly 20 years, despite being widely collected by variety specialists. They are often found in high grade, with excellent surfaces, and this series makes a comparatively affordable collection when compared with other series of era. The bottom line is, half dimes present a lot of value for the collector at today's prices.
Estimated Value $70-90

Enlarged

- 696 1835. Large date and 5c. Proof 63 or better. A rare coin in proof and only a few were probably coined. This coin has slightly dull reflective surfaces and some hairlines on the obverse. All is very sharply struck and reflective.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

From the 1990 G.N.A. Sale.

- 697 1835. Large date and 5c. MS-63. Flashy and white, with abundant luster and a sharp strike. A few minor hairlines.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 698 1835. Large date and 5c, V-3, LM-3, R-1. AU-50. Beautiful old toning on both sides covers over some trivial field scratches on the reverse. Remarkably, this coin was estimated at $175 to $200 23 years ago when it last sold, showing that not all coins are such good investments! As a collector of these coins, prices of coins in grades ranging from VF to AU have been remarkably flat for over two decades, despite considerable collector growth and appeal.
Estimated Value $120-140

- 699 1835. Small date and 5c, LM-10, V-7, R-1. MS-63+. Deeply toned with dark blue and purplish colors on both sides. Proof-like fields beneath that show a few stray handling marks. One of the more common varieties of the year.
Estimated Value $500-750
- 700 A group of Half Dimes, 1831 to 1872. This group grades from Fair to Fine. Dates include 1831, 1833, 1835, 1837 Seated, Small Date; 1840, 1847, 1850, 1851-O, 1853 Arrows; 1853-O; 1854-O Arrows; 1856-O damaged; 1858; 1861; 1862; 1871 and 1872. Some have been cleaned, others damaged a bit, some just worn. Nevertheless, this is a fun group to go through and some interesting coins and grades are included. Lot of 17 coins.
Estimated Value $100-UP
- 701 1837 No stars, large date. EF-40. Pretty blue and green toning on the obverse, and well struck too. Some faint surface scratches in the right obverse field do not detract.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 702 1838 Stars, no drapery. AU-50. Steel gray with mint-fresh luster in the fields. Sharply struck.
Estimated Value $90-110

- 703 1853. Arrows. ICG graded MS-67. Our consigner notes that this coin is a possible proof as the devices are all needle sharp and the die shows extensive polishing lines. Regardless, this must have been an early strike, although both dies show clash marks. Further, this is no ordinary half dime, but a wonder gem that grades MS-67! The surfaces are pristine, with nary a mark to be found anywhere. As to toning, this one is stone white, perhaps there is a faint layer of gold, but overall, this one has little or no toning on either side. Make sure to view it to make your own determination as to its status. Whatever you call it, this coin is stunning.
Estimated Value $6,000-UP

Half Dimes & Dimes

1853, Arrows, PCGS graded MS-64. This one has nice gray toning and clean surfaces. Struck from strongly clashed dies, as were most we've seen.
Estimated Value $400-500

1853, Arrows, NGC graded MS-63. Struck from badly clashed and worn dies, with outlines from the opposing die noted on both sides. Untoned and lustrous, with no handling marks or problems worthy of note.
Estimated Value $150-200

1853 Arrows and 1871-S. A pair of half dimes, the first grades AU-55, the next AU-50. Both are nice for the grade. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-225

Enlarged

1858, PCGS graded MS-65. A gem that boasts splendid lilac toning over lustrous fields, with hints of sunset gold near the devices. Clean fields, even for this grade, and we wouldn't be surprised if this coin brings a strong price for its beauty and quality.
Estimated Value $900-1,000

1867-S, AU-55. This one is nearly mint state, it has silver surfaces and toned with light gold around the edges. Boldly struck, and hard to find nice, according to Breen. Only 120,000 struck.
Estimated Value $200-250

Dimes

Early Dimes

1796, JR-2, R-4, VG-8+. Dark steel gray in color, the devices lighter than the surrounding fields. One rim tick above the ninth star, and some faint surface scratches. One for the type collector. Average appeal for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,300-1,600

1797 13 stars, JR-2, Rarity-4. Sharpness of VF-20 but harshly cleaned and repaired. This coin should be viewed by prospective bidders before placing a bid. The surfaces have been entirely worked over to remove something, and we note the coin has no original surfaces remaining, perhaps from a light acid dip. The planchet has a slight bend to it, but this only is visible when the coin is rocked on a flat surface. The cleaning involved some sort of abrasive, as tiny scrapes and marks are present on many areas of the coin. Retoned to a pleasant silvery gray, with gold shades around the periphery. One minor scratch is noted past OF from the wreath to the rim, and a couple of smaller ones below the eagle in the clouds. Obviously not something for everyone, but it is what it is, a downright rare coin in any grade, which is seldom offered, and all too often seen similar to this one.
Estimated Value $700-1,000

1801, JR-1, R-4, PCGS graded EF-40. Steel gray in color and we note some darker shades on the devices. Struck from rusted dies, as were all, and sharp. As a date, 1801 is seldom found in high grades at all, so to locate one this nice is quite a feat. The reverse is especially nice, with full stars and details on the eagle, unlike many other dimes of the period.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

1805 Four berries, JR-2, Rarity-2, VG-8. Steel gray and original in appearance. Minor handling, expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-400

Capped Bust Dimes

1809, JR-1, VF-20 but porous. The surfaces are porous throughout, and have been cleaned, and there are minute surface scratches on both sides. Steel gray and this one won't win belle of the ball, but it's a tough date and someone will enjoy it in their type set.
Estimated Value $200-240

Gem 1811, 11 over 09 Dime

Enlarged

- 714 1811 over 9, JR-1, Rarity-3. NGC graded MS-65. While not the first year of issue (that being taken by 1809), this 1811 is very similar. A trickle of 65,180 were coined, most of which entered circulation and stayed for years. Many were subsequently melted when they became worn, others were lost to oblivion. Somehow, this one survived in pristine condition. Not just uncirculated, which is difficult enough to imagine, but in gem condition! The surfaces glow with luster, and we note a delicate gold tone starting to form. Most 1811 dimes were struck after the reverse die shattered, as seen here, but this is still an early enough die state that large sections of the design are not weak or mushy. NGC has graded just 6 this high, with a single coin graded higher, similar at PCGS where they have graded just 2 as MS-65, and 2 a notch higher. In sum, this is likely in the top ten known of the date, and a beauty it is. For the specialist who knows a numismatic classic. Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

- 715 1814. Small date, JR-1, Rarity-3. Sharpness of AU-50 but repaired and cleaned. This one has been repaired near the second and third obverse star, and the entire coin has been bathed in acid. Retoned to a steel gray, and not unpleasant in appearance. A later die state, with heavy clash marks and the die bulge at C1 on the reverse. Estimated Value $300-400

- 716 1821 Large date, JR-1, Rarity-2. VF-35. Original gray toning and well struck. Some minor surface marks on the left side of the reverse rim. Estimated Value $70-90

Rare Mint State 1822 Capped Bust Dime

Enlarged

- 717 1822, JR-1, Rarity-3. NGC graded MS-63. One of the classic rarities of the dime series, the low mintage of 100,000 belies how few are found. To locate a mint state example is something of an accomplishment. This particular coin has slightly flat stars, especially on the left side of the obverse, which is normal for the date. Toned a light silvery-gray, the coin remains bright, with faint evidence of toning probably removed by dipping, similar on the reverse. Identifiable by a minor scrape at the upper right of the N of UNITED. The reverse die was rotated about 20 degrees counter clockwise when this one was struck. An American classic, always in high demand and seldom found in grades even approaching this lovely mint state example. NGC has graded 5 this high with just 2 graded higher. Similar at PCGS, which has only graded 2 as MS-63, and none higher! Thus, if you want one of the top graded examples, back up the truck and snag this one before it gets away. Estimated Value $8,000-10,000

- 718 1831, JR-4, R-2. Brilliant Proof 60 or better. This coin should be examined by prospective buyers, the surfaces and quality of the strike imply that is it a proof, but it has been harshly cleaned with myriad hairlines as a result. Steel gray and bold throughout, with a high wire rim around the obverse and reverse. Proofs are known from this pair of dies, and given the wire rims, this appears to be a proof. Rare and seldom offered. Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

From the 1990 FUN Sale.

- 719 1831 JR-2, Rarity-3. AU-50. Steel gray and pleasing for the grade. Boldly struck throughout. Estimated Value $200-250

Dimes

- 20 1832, JR-2, NGC graded MS-61. Deep gold and blue toning throughout, with boldly struck stars and curls on Liberty. Moderate fields marks from handling, expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $500-700

- 21 1835 JR-9, R-2, PCGS graded MS-64. Untoned and still lustrous, with a good strike from the dies on the devices. Although a common variety, no dime is common in this grade, so be sure to view it before the sale.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

Liberty Seated Dimes

- 22 1837. No stars, small date. PCGS graded MS-64. Perfect for the type collector, this one has excellent luster and light golden toning on both sides. As a type coin, these were only produced for two short years, with prior and subsequent type coins overlapping both the beginning and the end. Few were saved in high grade, and this one has clean surfaces for the grade assigned.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 23 1837. No stars, small date. MS-60+. Deeply toned from an old album with gray and blue shades over lustrous surfaces. Excellent surfaces and very appealing for the moderate grade assigned.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 24 1838-O. No stars. MS-63. Bright white and lustrous, with a sharp strike for this early type coin. We note some minor rim breaks on the obverse where the die has started to crumble. If you need this type, here is an admirable coin to purchase.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

Mint State 1845-O Dime

Enlarged

- 725 1845-O. PCGS graded MS-62. Here is an extremely rare coin in Mint State. In fact PCGS reports on 2 such coins, this one and a MS-69 (!). Although we have no information, we suspect that the MS-69 could possibly be an error of some sort, but you never know, perhaps there is one monster gem dime of this date out there in coin land. Whatever. We do have a downright nice one here too, the devices are well frosted, the fields are even a bit prooflike. There are some scattered handling marks expected for the grade, and we note the strike is quite strong throughout. Identifiable by one tiny stain on the edge below the reverse right ribbon end. Untoned and quite pleasing overall. An important rarity in this grade and worthy of a strong bid.
Estimated Value $9,000-10,000

- 726 1847. NGC graded MS-65. One of the finest of this entire year, this coin is the finest graded by NGC, and alone in the MS-65 category. PCGS has graded one higher as MS-66, but none in MS-65 according to the respective Population Reports. This one is toned a deep blue with gold highlights on both sides and is very sharply struck. Note the faint die cracks through the peripheral devices and how few handling marks are present. One tiny field nick is visible between the inside two points of the twelfth star. An important coin for the specialist who demands one of the finest available for a date set.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 727 1848. MS-62 Possible Proof Striking. This coin is from the "Pennsylvania Cabinet" and is a possible proof. We'll be conservative though and simply call it Mint State and let the market decide. The fields are reflective and the dies show heavy polishing lines. As to the strike, it is not as sharp as we would like to see for a proof, and there is weakness on the upper left of the wreath.

Estimated Value $1,000-UP

Ex Pennsylvania Cabinet

- 728 1853. No arrows. PCGS graded MS-64. With a mintage of 95,000 one would expect that this would be a very rare coin in high grade. However, there was a small hoard of these that were distributed by Harold P. Newlin before 1883, and most mint state survivors probably trace back to that group. This one has steel gray surfaces and is lightly toned. Boldly struck throughout, especially on the stars and Liberty's head. PCGS has graded 24 this high, with 21 in various grades higher.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 729 1853. Arrows. NGC graded MS-65. A classic gem coin, the surfaces are steel gray with darker tones around the periphery, light at the centers. Always popular as a type coin, the with arrows were only used briefly to reduce the silver content of most silver denominations (except for the dollar, curiously) to below face value. Prior to 1853, silver had virtually disappeared from circulation, as it could be taken from circulation, melted down, and sold at a small profit.

Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 730 1861. PCGS graded MS-65. A steel gray gem that has well frosted devices and slightly prooflike fields. PCGS has graded 24 as such, with just 3 higher of the date, making this one of the best around. Check it out, and you will soon agree that it is a wonderful coin for the advanced collector.

Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 731 1861. PCGS graded MS-64. A mate to the coin just offered, this example has the same steel gray color with frosted devices and offsetting fields. This presents an opportunity to compare an MS-64 to an MS-65 to sharpen ones grading skills. Both are excellent coins.

Estimated Value $350-450

- 732 1866. PCGS graded Proof 64. Deep lilac and gold color on both sides set this coin apart. The surfaces beneath the toning appear smooth and show virtually no signs of contact. As a proof, the devices are very sharp and this coin is nearly a full gem. Just 725 coined in proof.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 733 1874. Arrows. ICG graded Proof 64. Hazy white toning on this example. Well struck and reflective gray fields contrasting with the frosted devices. Good for the type collector.

Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 734 1877. NGC graded Proof 64. Nicely frosted devices stand out over the mirror fields. Untoned and we note the usual quotient of hairlines in the fields.

Estimated Value $325-400

- 735 1877-CC. NGC graded MS-65. A surprisingly common date even in this grade. NGC reports 54 graded as such, with 3 graded higher. This particular coin has deep frost on the devices and prooflike fields. We note minor handling marks visible with a glass, but the quality is really something special for a "CC" coin. One for the type or date collector.

Estimated Value $650-750

- 736 1877-CC. MS-64. The left obverse field has some scattered ticks from handling, but the coin is still prooflike and quite nice. Frosted devices and we note one small rim mark at the top of the reverse.

Estimated Value $350-450

- 737 1881. MS-64. Dipped to a white coin, with remaining luster in the fields and well struck by the dies. Clean surfaces throughout.

Estimated Value $500-550

- 738 1882. PCGS graded Proof 66. Deeply toned with glowing blue at the edge and burgandy rose at the centers and fields over frosted devices. Superb surfaces, and extremely tough to find this nice, especially with such glorious toning. PCGS notes 1 graded this high, with just 6 graded higher of the date.

Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

Dimes

1883. NGC graded Proof 66. A high end example of this date, and probably in the top 50 known. Substantial frost on the devices, while the mirror fields retain their reflective qualities. Seldom found this nice.

Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

Stunning Gem 1884-S Liberty Seated Dime

1884-S. NGC graded MS-66. This coin has only a single specimen listed higher by NGC, that being the Pittman MS-68 monster coin. Nevertheless, this MS-66 is nothing to sneeze at! Blast white in color, with frosted devices and pristine fields that show few signs of handling, even under the scrutiny of a strong glass. If you demand a special coin of this date, then take a look at this superb example.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

1885. MS-60. Lightly toned over lustrous fields and surfaces. A good strike and no general complaints despite the modest grade. Includes a green PCGS insert tag reading MS-62.

Estimated Value $100-110

1885-S. PCGS graded MS-63. One of the key dates of the Liberty Seated series, the reported mintage was just 43,690. With modern computers and tallying instruments, PCGS has noted just 31 have been graded of this date, 31 coins in all. How many were uncirculated? So far, just 5, one in each of the following grades: MS-61; MS-62; MS-63 (this coin); MS-64, MS-65 and MS-66. This would certainly make a nice grading set, if you could afford to round up all the coins! Sharply struck by the dies, and we note good luster and clean surfaces throughout. An important coin for the specialist, and one that will certainly see considerable, and well deserved, attention.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Splendid Gem 1886-S Liberty Seated Dime

743 1886-S. NGC graded MS-66. Flashy and white, without a breath of toning. NGC has graded 5 this high with 3 graded higher, making this one of the best around. A premium grade and a special coin, to be sure. Nicely frosted on the devices.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

744 1887. NGC graded MS-66. NGC has graded just 24 this high with 2 graded higher. As to this particular one, it has resplendent toning of deep rose around the periphery and iridescent green and blue at the centers. Well struck by the dies, and the fields and devices are exceptional. An opportunity for the specialist who loves toned coins with superb surfaces.

Estimated Value $700-800

745 1889. NGC graded Proof 66. A blazer that has mile high frost on the devices and ocean deep mirror fields. The obverse is white, while the reverse has faded yellow toning. Scarce this nice.

Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

746 1890. NGC graded MS-65. Flashy and bright on the obverse, with splashes of light gold starting to form, the reverse similar with a streak of gold toning and strong luster in the fields. Well struck and pleasing.

Estimated Value $500-550

747 1891. PCGS graded MS-66. One of the finest graded of the date, PCGS has awarded 32 this high, with just 2 coins graded higher (both MS-67). This coin is a variety 102 with a double tail on the 9 in the date, per Brian Greer's book on Liberty Seated Dimes, which is fairly common as a variety, but downright spectacular as an MS-66! Light gold toning on the left side of the obverse, and deeper gold and blue on the left side of the reverse, strong luster and excellent surfaces throughout. In an old green insert PCGS holder.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

Dimes

- 748 1891. MS-65. Satiny and white, and this coin does not have a breath of toning on either side. Good luster and struck from a crack reverse die. If you love snow white coins, take a run for this.
Estimated Value $650-750
- 749 A small group of type dimes. This lot includes the following: 1855 Arrows VF-25, 1874 Arrows, EF-40, 1888 AU-55 and 1900 AU-55. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175

Barber Dimes

- 750 1892. Proof 62. A pretty example of this date, but the fields show hairlines from a past cleaning or wiping with a cloth. Frosted devices, and still eye appealing.
Estimated Value $200-220
- 751 1892. MS-65. This coin has bright luster and is starting to tone with flecks of gold on either side. We note a couple of light hairlines on the obverse, and the dies had clashed pretty hard when this one was struck. First year of issue and always popular as such.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 752 1892. MS-63. Flashy luster and well struck for this first year of issue. Untoned and nice for the type collector.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 753 1905-S. MS-60+. Nice luster and lightly toned, the only complaint is a small rim tick below the date to the right.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 754 1908. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. One of just 4 cameo proofs graded of this date, with 2 graded higher, and one below according to NGC. Magnificent cameo frost on Liberty, with deeply mirrored field surrounding. Few cameos were produced in any given year, they were very early strikes just after the dies had been polished up, and if you have not seen one of these take a look as they really stand out from the normal proof issues.
Estimated Value $800-1,000
- 755 1910. MS-63+. Dark, mottled and multicolored toning on both sides, with areas of bright green when examined with a light. Probably from long album storage.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 756 1911. MS-63+. Lovely toning and nicely struck, but a few hairlines on the face.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 757 1912. PCGS graded MS-65. Vibrant luster and well preserved, with few marks present, even with the scrutiny of a strong glass. Starting to tone with a hint of gold.
Estimated Value $400-450

- 758 1912. NGC graded MS-64. Beautiful toning on this one, a bit mottled, but all the right colors from album storage jump out when examined.
Estimated Value $125-150
- 759 1914. NGC graded MS-66. If you love toned coins take a peek at this deep russet gem! Both sides have the sunset red color with deeper blues and greens at the periphery in splashes. Pristine surfaces that keep this coin solidly above most gems seen. NGC has graded 19 this high, with just 1 coin graded higher.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 760 1916-S. PCGS graded MS-65. A sparkling satiny mint white gem. Can see no faults in this little beauty. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $650-UP

Mercury Dimes

- 761 1916. NGC graded MS-66 Full Bands. Speckled gold toning over lustrous fields and devices.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 762 1916-D. MS-60+, Full Bands. The key date to the series, but we note that the surfaces are slightly washed out, probably from a few too many past dippings. A coin that would look great in an uncirculated album set, especially once it starts to tone back with some golden hues. Highly desirable in any grade, this mint state coin shows good separation on the bands.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 763 1916-D. PCGS graded AU-55 Premium Quality. This one is well struck for the date, and still has full bands on the reverse despite a few points of wear. Satiny gold in color, with good luster in the fields, and no handling marks worthy of note. In 1916, Denver produced a scant 264,000 of these, precious few when compared with other dates boasting mintages of 10 million or more, and thus, 1916-D remains the key date of the series.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500
- 764 1916-S. MS-64 Full Bands. Lightly toned, and we note some faint hairlines in the fields.
Estimated Value $70-90

Dimes

- 5 1916-D; 1921 and 1921-D Mercury Dimes. These grade from About Good to Good. The 1916 D grades About Good, with the tops of the rims worn down into the lettering, but the "D" is full and complete. Each are nice for the grade. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 6 1917-D, NGC graded MS-63 Full Bands. Hazy toning on the obverse, brighter on the reverse. Minor hairlines from a higher grade, and well struck for the date.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 7 1917-D, MS-60. Light to moderate toning over lustrous surfaces.
Estimated Value $80-100

- 8 1918-D, PCGS graded MS-64 Full Bands. A rare date to find with full bands, in fact PCGS has graded just 58 this high with 15 graded a notch higher, and none above that. This one has glorious multicolored toning on both sides, with deeper gold and green hues around the periphery, and satiny silver at the centers. Check this one out.
Estimated Value $1,600-1,900

- 9 1918-D, MS-64 Full Bands. Hazy toning and well struck, with split bands at the central reverse. A rare coin as such, with delicate peripheral toning and good luster in the fields. Scarce.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,800

- 10 1918-S, MS-60+. Weakly struck on the obverse, sharper on the reverse, but not full bands, of course.
Estimated Value $70-80

- 11 1919-D, AU-58. This one is really close to mint state, light gold toning and frosty luster in the fields. Minor handling marks.
Estimated Value $50-75

- 12 1919-S Struck 5 % off center and out of the collar, MS-63 Full Bands. This is a beautiful and rare mint error. The obverse is bright white, with full luster and just traces of hairlines, while the reverse is similar but has a couple of long shallow scrapes, the primary one through ICA and above DIME. As the coin was struck off center and out of the collar, the strike is very sharp, but the coin appears to be slightly out of round, as the planchet expanded during the strike unevenly. Further, the edge is partially reeded, perhaps 10 to 20 percent of the rim near the obverse side shows crisp reeding, while the balance of the edge is rounded. The scrape on the reverse may be part of the ejection process, and many off center coins have scratches of some sort or another. An exciting coin for the specialist to enjoy for many years.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 773 1919-S, AU-53, Bright and untoned. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $40-70

- 774 1920-D, NGC graded MS-63 Full Bands. Hazy gray luster on both sides and struck from lightly cracked dies, as are most. Excellent details, even at the centers.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 775 1920-S, ANACS graded MS-63. Hazy luster under golden flecks of toning on the obverse, more toning on the reverse. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 776 1921, NGC graded MS-65 Full Bands. The United States economy went into a tailspin in 1920, because of the retooling from a war economy to a peace economy. Demand for products fell, and fewer transactions were undertaken. Hence, demand for coinage dropped, and only 1,230,000 dimes were produced at the Philadelphia Mint in 1921, one of the lowest mintages in years. Hoarders could scarcely locate rolls of these, as what few were produced entered circulation. Here is one that survived in gem condition, with a strong strike on the central reverse bands. NGC has graded 39 this high, with 13 graded higher, making this well up in the top 100 known. Frosty and bright, with no toning and no marks worthy of note. Struck from a cracked obverse die, with a fine crack just to the right of the R of LIBERTY, and a die line extending down from the back of Liberty's head.
Estimated Value $2,400-2,800

- 777 1921, EF-45. About as perfect for the grade as you could hope, excellent surfaces, light toning and free from troubling bumps or marks. Downright rare in this grade.
Estimated Value $300-350

Gem 1921-D, One of the Finest Graded

- 778 1921-D, NGC graded MS-66 Full Bands. One of the finest graded by NGC, they report 8 seen this high with a single coin graded higher. Similar at PCGS, they have graded 16 as MS-66 FB, but none higher. This particular specimen has blazing luster and is generally well struck. We note minor weakness near the rim above the B of LIBERTY and at the corresponding portion of the reverse. Toned a light gold on the obverse, the reverse is mostly white, but has a large portion toned with deep gold to blue on the lower right side. A rarity in this grade as so few have pristine surfaces, and a good strike. An impressive example for the specialist.
Estimated Value $4,500 UP

Dimes

- 779 1921-D. NGC graded MS-65 Full Bands. A well struck totally white gem specimen.
Estimated Value $4,000-UP

- 780 1921-D. PCGS graded MS-64 Full Bands. This is a really beautiful coin for the grade, Liberty's face is pristine and the only tiny mark we found with our 10X glass is located on the back of Liberty's wing along the feathers. Glowing luster and lightly toned with delicate hues of gold and red around the periphery. A rare date this nice, and certain to find many eager buyers whenever it's offered.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 781 1921-D. PCGS graded AU-58 Premium Quality. Dealers and collectors, check this one out. The strike is sharp, with full bands at the central reverse and the surfaces are frankly, outstanding. The wear, if any, is limited to the extreme high points of the design, and the fields and cheek are mint fresh and free of contact or wear. We reasonably suspect that this one will bring a premium for its outstanding quality.
Estimated Value $600-750

- 782 1924-S. ICG graded MS-65 Full bands. Milky haze toning on the obverse, a bit brighter on the reverse. Sharply struck and rare in this grade. If you love toned coins, then take a look at this one to see if it will fit in your collection.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 783 1924-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Full Bands. Magnificent deep gold and blue toning on both sides with some areas of mottling. Sharply struck throughout, including on the all important central bands. PCGS notes only 62 graded as such, with 16 graded higher.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 784 1925-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Full Bands. Tawny blue and gold around the periphery of the obverse, brighter on the reverse. Splendid luster and clean surfaces, with a good strike required to bring up the central bands on the reverse. PCGS has graded 37 this high, with just 12 graded higher.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 785 1926-D. MS-64 Full Bands. Lightly cleaned in the past as we see faint hairlines on the surfaces, but well struck by the dies, with enough force to bring up the central bands. Untoned and frosty.
Estimated Value $250-400

- 786 1926-D. MS-64 Almost Full Bands. This one has a good strike, with nearly full bands at the center. Hazy toning and nice luster.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 787 1926-D. PCGS graded MS-63. Hazy cream toning is noted on Liberty's face and in the lower obverse field, the edges with some gold settling in. Nicely struck, but not quite full bands apparently, although they are split. Around the edge lettering, some areas are weak, as frequently seen on the issue.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 788 1926-S. MS-60+. Bright and lustrous, with a decent strike but not full at the central reverse. We note one edge scrape on the lower left of the reverse. A rare date in mint state, and should be considered for your album.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 789 1926-S. EF-45. Nicely struck and well preserved. A few minor circulation lines, and a very scarce date.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 790 1927. NGC graded MS-67. Deeply toned with vibrant shades of green and gold on the obverse, tawny gold on the reverse with a large splash of bright red in the right field. A toning wonder, as well as a pristine gem. This is tied for the finest graded by either NGC or PCGS, but most of the others are full bands (what few there are). We note the bands on this coin are not quite full, but close. Buy it for the toning and surfaces, you won't be disappointed.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 791 1928-D. NGC graded MS-64. Hazy white luster and a bit dul from past dippings. A good strike, but not quite enough for full bands.
Estimated Value $275-325

Dimes

- 92 1929-D, NGC graded MS-66 Full Bands. Blast white in color and well struck at the centers, with some weakness on the Mint mark. This one looks like it was just plucked from a bag.
Estimated Value $225-275

Estimated Value $120-140
- 96 1930, PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. A couple of faint marks and haze probably account for the grade, blazing white in color.
Estimated Value $60-80
- 97 1930, PCGS graded MS-65. Mint fresh and beautiful, with a decent strike, but not sharp on the bands.
Estimated Value $60-70

Estimated Value $150-200
- 102 1937, PCGS graded Proof 66. This one has delicate streaky toning on both sides, over silvery gray shades. A scarce early issue and seldom found any better.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 103 1937, PCGS graded MS-67 Full bands. Superb and vibrant toning on this one! In an old small style PCGS holder, and unimprovable quality.
Estimated Value $100-UP
- 104 1938, PCGS graded Proof 63. Light cloudy toning but certainly the appearance of a higher grade and this one seems to have been graded really tough.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 105 Proof Mercuries: 1938 and 1941. Both are PCGS graded PR-64. Hazy toning on each, and both are in the old style small PCGS holders. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $200-240

- 808 1940-S, PCGS graded MS-66 Full Bands. Soooooo fresh and fresh from a mint roll. The strike is strong, with full bands at the centers, and we note there are some shiny areas near Liberty's face and head, as made.
Estimated Value $80-90

- 809 1941-S, ANACS graded MS-67 Full Split Bands, Prooflike. An early strike from the dies as numerous die filing lines are present in the fields of the obverse and reverse. Slightly prooflike on Liberty's face, and boldly struck at the centers. No signs of handling and blazing white in color.
Estimated Value $200-300
- 810 1942, 2 over 1, AU-50. Some tawny toning on the lower part of Liberty, with luster in the fields too. A nice coin for the grade, and always in strong demand.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 811 1942, 2 over 1, EF-40. Lightly cleaned, but still very nice and well struck throughout. The overdate feature is clear, and the coin will delight most collectors.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 812 1945-S, NGC graded MS-68 Full Bands. One of 21 graded this high by NGC, this one is toned with lovely golden hues on both sides. However, we note that the obverse strike is weak on IN GOD WE TRUST as the dies were pretty well worn when this one was struck. Examination of the surfaces will find only a couple of tiny ticks. One for the grading set to see how close to perfection a dime can be.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 813 1916 to 1945 Two Partial Sets of Mercury Dimes. Both sets are missing the 1916-D and 1942/1 PD coins. One set is also missing the 1944 P. The sets grade AG to Very Fine. Both are mounted in Daneco Coin Albums, and are decent circulated sets for the collector. Lot of 151 coins.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 814 A small group of Mercury dimes. The first coin is a 1924 NGC graded MS-61 Full Bands; next is a 1937 PCGS graded MS-67 Full Bands and last is a 1937-D PCGS graded MS-67 Full Bands. The first is satiny and a bit dull, the 1937 is bright and flashy, while the 1937-D has light rose toning. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $275-325
- 815 PCGS graded Mercury lot. This lot includes the following, all PCGS graded: 1937-S MS-66; 1941-S MS-65 Full Bands; 1945 MS-65 and 1945-S MS-66 Full Bands. The 1945 has separated bands, but they are not quite full (as always). A nice group for the date collector. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $30-40

Roosevelt Dimes

- 819 1972-S Proof Roosevelt Dime Error, Broadstruck out of collar. Proof 65. An extremely rare Proof error, this coin is a well centered broadstruck piece that is nicely frosted and perfectly preserved. The obverse rims are starting to form a "cup" and are quite raised, and naturally curled down on the reverse. These are part of the dynamics of striking without a collar. Free of handling marks or other signs of abuse, this mint fresh coin will no doubt be a centerpiece of an advanced error collection. All proof errors are rare, and this coin is certainly no exception!
Estimated Value $450-650
- 820 Four complete Roosevelt dime sets 1946 through 2000. Each set ranges from 1946 through 2000, and the coins grade from Uncirculated to Proof. Lacking only the 2000-S silver proof issue. Each set is mounted in a brown Dansco coin album and contains 156 coins. Lot of 624 coins total for the four sets.
Estimated Value $700-850
- 821 Three sets of Roosevelt Dimes, 1946 to 1964. One set is mostly Uncirculated, but is missing the 1952-S, the other two sets are Fine to About Uncirculated. Each set is mounted in a coin album, two blue Whitmans and one Library of Coins. A total of 3 sets.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 822 A large dime lot, all silver. This lot grades from About Good to Extremely Fine. Included are 12 Seated Dimes, 28 Barber Dimes, 312 Mercury Dimes and 275 Roosevelt Dimes, all 1964-D or prior. Each is currently in a 2X2 cardboard holder. A total of 627 dimes.
Estimated Value $250-UP

Twenty Cent Pieces

- 823 1875. EF-45. Bright and untoned, although we note some pin scratches inside the loops of the 8 in the date where someone removed something. Some luster in the fields, and with moderate handling marks on both sides.
Estimated Value $120-140

- 824 1875-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Frosty and bright, with no signs of toning on the obverse, while the reverse has some evidence of peripheral toning and is a bit darker overall. Sharply recut mintmark.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 825 1875-S. MS-63+. Bright white and flashy, with excellent luster in the fields and a typical strike from lapped dies. One for the type collector.
Estimated Value $800-UP
- 826 1875-S. EF-45. Lovely original toning and struck from cracked dies on the reverse.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 827 1876. ANACS graded Proof 65. This one has a nice cameo appearance from the frosted devices and appealing blue and gold toning on both sides. Fully struck by the dies, as expected for a proof, and with clean fields and devices. Examination will note a couple of minor hairlines, but no other notable signs of contact. A tiny lump is noted on Liberty's right leg, just above her knee, and this is probably present on all proofs struck from these dies.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 828 1877. PCGS graded Proof 61. Light gold toning on the lower obverse and reflective in the fields despite typical hairlines. Although 510 were struck, many were apparently melted after lower than expected sales were encountered. For the grade, this is a pretty nice coin.
Estimated Value $1,700-2,000

Twenty Cent Pieces & Quarters

- 29 1878. NGC graded Proof 64 Cameo. A rare cameo proof issue of this short-lived type. NGC has only graded 7 as Cameo proofs in all. Light gray in the fields and deeply frosted on the devices. The delicate mirror fields show moderate hairlines, limiting the grade.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 30 1878. PCGS graded Proof 62. Deep steel gray toning on both sides, with moderate hairlines accounting for the grade. Well struck and the final year of issue.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500
- 31 Twenty Cent piece lot. The following are included: 1875 VG-8, 1875-S VF-20, 1875-CC F-12 and 1876 VF-30. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $250-350

Early Quarters

1796 Draped Bust Quarter Dollar in Fine

- 832 1796 Browning-2, Rarity-3, Fine-12. This one has been cleaned long ago, but is now toned a lovely steel gray in the fields, and lighter gray on the devices. Minor adjustment marks can be seen on the lower and left side of the reverse. This one is well struck, as the eagle's head does not show the normal weakness which is nearly always encountered on this date. All in all, a good coin for the collector who needs this one year only type date. One tiny rim nick by the third star is noted, but overall the surfaces are very nice.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

High Grade 1806 Draped Bust Quarter

- 833 1806, B-3, R-1. NGC graded MS-64. This coin boasts lovely gold and green toning on both sides over lustrous fields. We note that the strike is characteristically weak on this variety, with several reverse stars weak or missing, and the eagle's head and right wing are also weak. Struck from badly clashed dies, with design elements from the opposing die present on each side. Extensive rim crumbling is seen on the upper left side of the obverse. A glass will locate horizontal adjustment marks on Liberty's chin and neck, but they are faint. NGC has only graded 14 this high, with a single coin graded higher (MS-66), making this one of the best available from that service. PCGS has graded 7 as MS-64, and just 2 higher, according to the current online census reports.
Estimated Value $10,000-15,000

- 834 1806 B-9a. NGC graded AU-55. This coin has a pretty strong die crack from the 1 in the date to the E of LIBERTY. Deep steel gray in color and with a typical strike, weak over the eagle's head. Rare this nice, and worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 835 1806 B-3, Rarity-1, VF-35. Natural steel gray in color and weakly struck at the central reverse, as always. Normal surfaces although we note minor hairlines under the toning and trivial handling marks expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 836 1806 AG-3 and 1821 Good-5. The 1806 is dark, with most of the stars on the left worn smooth, the 1821 is silvery gray in color and decent for the grade. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

Quarters

- 837 1815. Sharpness of AU-50 but harshly cleaned. This one has been harshly cleaned and the surfaces are rough because of it. Further, there is some tooling above Liberty's cap. One to be inspected before bidding.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 838 1818, B-1. NGC graded AU-58. Deep gold and blue toning throughout, with pleasant surfaces. A few hairlines from circulation. We note a long die crack through the second T of STATES to the left corner of the shield, as often seen on this die pairing. Softly struck on the high points of the devices.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 839 1818 B-10, Rarity-4. EF-45. A scarce variety in higher grades, this one has darker shades in the fields, and lighter gray on the devices. Problem free for the grade.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 840 1819. Small 9 B-3 and 1835 B-1. The 1819 grades G-5 while the 1835 grades VG-8. A nice pair. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $60-80

- 841 1822, B-1. MS-60+. This one has been cleaned and retoned to a somewhat dull reddish yellow color on both sides. The surfaces are reflective, and the coin is well struck. One minor mark on Liberty's face. A scarce date, especially this nice.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Enlarged

- 842 1831. Small letters, Browning-4b. SEGS graded Proof 64. An extremely rare proof issue that boasts blast white surfaces and well frosted devices. We note that several of the stars are slightly weak, a curiosity on these primitive early proofs. The curls and other high points are extremely sharp, and the fields are well mirrored, including between the shield lines on the reverse. We note a light die crack through the C in the denomination, making this the "b" die state. Apparently these dies were used to strike normal production coins first, and then an order for proofs came in, so the dies were polished up, a few proofs made, then regular production resumed once again. Estimates on the number known range from a few to 20, and this coin can probably be traced by a tiny tick below the left wing of the eagle, and a slightly toned area above the R of LIBERTY in the cap. Minor hairlines from a past cleaning, but still very appealing.
A comparable coin was offered in Bowers and Merena's Morgan Sale, 11/12/1998:109.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

Quarters

- 13 1831 Small letters, B-1c, Rarity-3, AU-53. Flashy luster throughout, with delicate gold toning around the periphery. Minor hairlines throughout, as always.
Estimated Value $400-450

- 14 1832, MS-60+. This one has been retoned and is slightly dull, and we note some fine scratches around the eagle's neck and one under the right wing. Still lustrous, and in general, the fields and surfaces are better than many other encountered in this grade.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 15 1834 B-5, Rarity-5. NGC graded MS-62 Pittman. Possibly the finest known of the variety, and certainly high in the condition census for the variety. This is the Pittman coin from David Akers wonderful sale in 1997. We note the dies are clashed, with strong shield lines around Liberty's ear, and a few scattered hairlines and surface marks in the field, accounting for the grade. Steel gray in color, and appealing.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,400
From David Akers 1997 Sale of the John J. Pittman Collection.

- 846 1836. Browning-4, Rarity-5. PCCS graded AU-58. This is an important and rare coin in high grade and certainly high in the Condition Census for the variety, if not the very finest. In the June 1998 quarter variety census published in the John Reich Journal, the finest noted in that Census was AU-50. While it is possible that a few more high grade examples of this variety reside in type sets, what is known is that this is presently the best known example in the census. As to the coin itself, it is a magnificent example for the date, with lovely gray toning with blue highlights near the edge. There are some very minor surface marks, apparently from brief circulation, but they are not detracting. Struck after the dies had both cracked, the obverse with a roughly vertical bisecting break through the B of LIBERTY to just right of the 6 in the date, and another heavier crack through the top two points of the first star to Liberty's neck. Similar on the reverse, there is a vertical bisecting crack from F of OF through the shield, lowest pair of leaves to edge, and another through the U of UNITED to the central shield. These die breaks apparently retired the dies early, as this variety has not turned up in great numbers. This coin is exceptionally original and problem free, and any collector will do well by purchasing it.
Estimated Value $800-UP

This coin turned up in a small group at the August 2000 ANA after being held in a South American collection for 60 years. It was sold to a collector at the show and to our knowledge has never been auctioned.

Liberty Seated Quarters

- 847 1838. AU-50. Sharply struck by the dies and an untuned silvery white in color. There is a series of small marks from the bottom of the D in UNITED to the top left of the shield.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 848 1843-O. MS-60+. Dusky gold toning on both sides and with a healthy number of ticks and marks in the fields. The reverse die has a crack through the lower portion. Good luster and scarce this nice.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

Quarters

- 849 1845. NGC graded MS-64. Well struck with mottled turquoise and violet toning. Only 10 reported in this grade with three higher. A decidedly rare coin in mint state.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 850 1852. MS-60 Retoned. The color on this one is not right, and we're certain it has been expertly retoned. The coin is well struck and the surfaces look generally clean for the moderate grade assigned.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 851 1852-O. MS-60+. Mottled gold and blue toning on both sides, and sharp at the centers, but there is weakness on some of the obverse stars. Examination of the surfaces shows a faint but general roughness and we suspect this coin was cleaned in the past and aside from the roughness, there are hairlines, as well as die lines, but as noted, today sports pretty gold and blue toning. As a date, 1852-O is virtually unobtainable in mint state grades. The price of silver had shot up relative to gold during the 1849 Gold Rush in California, and Congress delayed adjusting the content of silver in coinage until 1853. Hence, all silver was hoarded, melted and sold for a profit, probably to the Mint. By 1852 the situation was desperate, and coinage ground to a halt. It is suspected that most of the production of these early 1850s years was melted, either at the Mint, or turned back to the mint for recoinage into the with arrows pieces. Official records indicate 96,000 were struck of 1852-O quarters, but far fewer are found today. PCGS has graded only 21 for instance of the entire date! Of those, a single coin grades mint state, that MS-62. Hence, despite this coins problems, it is very rare indeed, and few collectors can ever even hope to own one. To find a high grade one is nearly impossible. View it before the sale and make your own determination, the rarity is without question, and this one is certainly in very high grade, the hard part, as always, is determining the value, which is what an auction is all about.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 852 1853-O. Arrows and rays. NGC graded MS-61. Deep gray toning on both sides and the fields are a bit baggy and show moderate hairlines. The toning does not look entirely original, although we could be wrong. A rare coin in mint state, as most were spent and very few were saved. NGC reports only a single coin in this grade, with 8 graded higher. If you have been searching for one of these, then take a look and see if this one suits your collection.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 853 1854. Arrows. NGC graded MS-64. Greenish gold toning evenly distributed on the obverse, even brighter on the reverse. Reflective fields and frosted devices are the rule, and this coin is an alluring beauty. Sharply impressed by the dies, and a short 2 year type coin with the arrows at date, noting the reduction in the amount of silver and a small increase in the purity that went into effect in 1853. Hard to find this nice, and downright expensive if found any better. Color photo.
Estimated Value $1,700-2,000
- 854 1855 Arrows. AU-55. A decent strike but with beautiful gold and blue toning, especially on the obverse.
Estimated Value $160-180

- 855 1858. PCGS graded MS-64. This one is untoned, and boasts satiny luster on both sides. Well struck, save for the central reverse, which has some weakness.
Estimated Value $800-950
- 856 1858. PCGS graded MS-63. Dusky rose toning starting to form with excellent luster in the fields. Fewer marks than one would expect for the moderate grade. Struck from clashed dies with portions of the eagle present in the right obverse field.
Estimated Value $400-450

Quarters

1859. PCGS graded Proof 63. Dark coppery-brown in color with elements of deep blue added in for good measure. Minor hairlines and a couple of small contact ticks from a higher grade. Boldly struck, as expected, and scarce in all grades.
Estimated Value $800-900

1861. PCGS graded Proof 64. Steel gray with a hint of gold toning over very clean surfaces. This one probably missed being a full gem because of faint hairlines in the delicate mirror fields. Frosty devices, excellent contrast and downright pleasing.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

1861. AU-53. Silvery white luster on both sides and lightly toned around the edges.
Estimated Value $100-125

1863. PCGS graded Proof 65. Deep bluish to dark gray on the obverse, the reverse lighter with russet colors at the center and steel gray for the balance. Sharp and well preserved, with minor hairlines in the fields from a higher grade. These deeply toned proofs are quite the norm, as silver is supposed to "tone" over time, and 140 years (nearly) is a lot of time. Color photo.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

1863. NGC graded Proof 64. A scarce coin in this grade, with 460 coined few are found in near gem grades. This one has delicate gold toning and clean surfaces. The only complaint are minor hairlines in the fields, and a tiny spot near the rim below the lowest leaf tip. Frosty devices and very well struck.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

1867. PCGS graded Proof 66. One of the finest seen of this date in Proof. The coining press stopped at 625 pieces for 1867 in proof, many of which were mishandled over the years. PCGS, in their Population Report note only 3 have been graded this high, with none graded higher, making this a candidate for the finest known of the date. Deep gold, blue and gray in color, with pristine fields beneath which show no signs of handling or abuse. Identifiable by a small light toning spot behind the eagle's neck and another in the right wing.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

1867. PCGS graded Proof 65. While this may not be the highest technical grade, it certainly is one of the most beautiful! Deep blue at the rims quickly fades to russet, lilac and gold on both sides. Philadelphia coined 625 in proof, and this is one of the best, PCGS has graded 15 this high, with just 5 graded higher. If you love deeply toned gems, then put a big circle on this lot number, and bid accordingly. Color photo.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

1873-S Arrows. AU-50. Good luster and nice peripheral toning on this coin. Scarce.
Estimated Value $300-350

1874-S. Arrows. NGC graded MS-64. Blazing white in color and with excellent luster throughout. Fully struck and well preserved, although we do note a small tick mark on Liberty's cheek and some very faint hairlines. Mintage of just 392,000, and not many are as nice as this.
Estimated Value $1,700-1,900

1875-S. ANACS graded MS-61. Lustrous in the fields, with encircling die cracks on the obverse, and similar on the reverse, but with more speckled toning. A nice example of this date.
Estimated Value $120-140

Quarters

- 867 1876. PCGS graded MS-65. A frosty gem that is bright and flashy on both the obverse and reverse. We note some trivial handling marks, mostly on the obverse, and a curious die flaw which looks like a rectangular lump below Liberty's left breast. Boldly struck and a lovely example of this centennial year issue. Downright hard to find this nice, and worth a strong bid.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500
- 868 1879. ANACS graded MS-63. Slightly dull from past cleanings, and recovered with cloudy gold toning over minor hairlines. Well struck, and always popular with date collectors.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 869 1880. Proof 64. Steel gray in color and nicely frosted on the devices. Minor hairlines and otherwise free of contact. 1,355 struck and a low mintage date too! A nice piece for the date collector.
Estimated Value $600-700
- 870 1880. NGC graded Proof 63. Tawny gold toning on both sides and well frosted on the devices. Minor hairlines account for the grade.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 871 1880. Proof 60. Deep stormy gray toning throughout and quite well struck. When examined with a strong light, golden hues are seen in the toning.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 872 1883. NGC graded Proof 66. Deep blue and rose colors on the obverse, even more blue on the reverse of this gem. Excellent surfaces that reveal no handling marks aside from faint hairlines, which may be striation lines, it is hard to tell with all the lovely colors. A scarce coin in such a high grade.
Estimated Value $1,900-2,100

- 873 1889. MS-60+. Nice gold toning on both sides, and sharply struck by the dies. Cleaned long ago, with resulting hairline noted in the fields.
Estimated Value $400-450
- 874 1891. PCGS graded MS-64. Snowy white in color, with abundant luster and eye appeal. Examination will locate a few scattered ticks, but none are heavy or distracting. A decent strike but most of the stars don't show their center lines.
Estimated Value $550-650

Barber Quarters

- 875 1892. Proof 60. Clean surfaces for the grade, but the coin has likely been dipped in Cholor as it is somewhat cloudy and dull. Nicely frosted on the devices.
Estimated Value $140-160

- 876 1896-O. MS-64. One hairline mark on Liberty's face and some others on her neck, perhaps from an album slide. Bright and untoned, with a sharp strike from the dies and still a nice example of this rare date. If toned, this one would probably look quite a bit better.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 877 1899. ICG graded Proof 64. Deep dusky gold in color, with a few scattered specks on the surfaces.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 878 1901 ANACS graded AU-55 and 1924 Quarter EF-40 cleaned. The first is very nice for the grade with steel gray color and a couple of small toning spots on the lower right obverse. The 1924 quarter has been cleaned, with the usual resulting wip lines, but still quite nice overall. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $60-70

Quarters

9 1903-O, MS-60+. Nice luster and color, with golden yellow around the periphery and clean surfaces for the grade. One minor tick below the date.
Estimated Value $500-600

0 1903-S, MS-60+. Bright white with just a whisper of toning on the lower obverse. Strong luster and a sharp strike.
Estimated Value $400-500

1 1909, Proof 63. Toned a deep gold color and we note a small disturbance at the back of Liberty's neck.
Estimated Value $400-500

2 1909-S, NGC graded MS-64. Satiny gray toning in the fields and on the devices, and all is sharp. Scarce this nice. The NGC holder has some minor marks on the reverse, which will probably show up in the photograph of the coin, they are on the holder, not the coin. An impressive example of this low mintage issue.
Estimated Value $950-1,150

3 1912-S, PCCS graded MS-64. This coin has a long but faint scuff down Liberty's face and neck which has been toned over. Dark gold around the periphery and luster is abundant in the fields. A scarce coin in this grade.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,300

4 1916-D, AU-55. Bright and lustrous, with just a few flecks of toning.
Estimated Value $80-100

Standing Liberty Quarters

Gem 1916 Liberty Standing Quarter Dollar

Enlarged

885 1916, NGC graded MS-65 Full Head. An outstanding example of this first year of issue, the coin has delicate gold and pink toning on both sides and is well struck, enough so for the coveted Full Head designation from NGC. Identifiable by a trivial bagmark below the D of GOD and a reeding mark below the center of the shield. NGC has graded just 19 this high, with a meager 8 graded higher with full heads. An important opportunity for the specialist of the series to purchase the first year of issue in fully struck gem condition. A beauty and rarity combined. Color photo.
Estimated Value $12,000-UP

Quarters

Nearly Mint State 1916 Liberty Standing Quarter Dollar

- 886 1916. AU-58. The key date and first year of issue of this important quarter series. We note the head on Liberty is slightly weak, but the entire shield bosses are present. Further, Liberty shows fine details on her toes and drapery folds, and the eagle has full feathers too. Mintage of a mere 52,000 will always keep this date in high demand, as many collectors desire a high grade example for their date sets. As to the surfaces, they were probably cleaned in the past, and the coin has since toned with iridescent shades on the upper obverse, and abundant gold hues around the edges. During 1916 and into 1917, the mints experimented with a curious surface quality on the dies, and many of the new coinage designs have a more satiny and grainy appearance than prior issues. Few signs of handling and a whisper of wear from mint state.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 887 1916. VF-20. Silvery white in color with nice surfaces for the grade. Perfect for the album collector who needs this rare date, only 52,000 were coined and precious few seem to be around today.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 888 1917. Type 1. NGC graded MS-65 Full Head. A short-lived type coin that has always been very popular for the beautiful design elements. Fully struck on Liberty's head and her shield, as well as on the eagle. Delicate gold toning flecks on both sides, with quite a bit of luster in the fields.
Estimated Value $750-1,000
- 889 1917. Type 1. MS-64 Full Head. Bright white, with a sharp strike and clean surfaces. Always popular and worth a look. A couple of ticks on Liberty's knees.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 890 1917. Type 1. MS-63 Full Head. Boldly struck by the dies and free of distracting marks or bumps. Delicate toning flecks are starting to form.
Estimated Value $175-225
- 891 1917 Type 1 and 1920. Both quarters grade Mint State 60 or a touch better. The 1917 has a full head, but there is a tiny mark on her cheek. Light toning starting to form on each, but highly lustrous for the pair. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 892 1917. Type 1. EF-40. Nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $40-50
- 893 1917-S. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-64 Full Head. Clean surfaces for the grade and boldly struck, as were most of the Type 1 quarters. Two tiny ticks on Liberty's calf, and a couple of faint hairlines are the only detriments, while the beautiful device and mint-fresh luster will stir the most jaded collector's heart.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 894 1917. Type 2. MS-63. Nearly a full head on this one, with good luster and just a bit of cloudy toning.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 895 1917-D. Type 2. MS-63 Full Head. Lightly dipped in the past and still bright, with just a hint of gold in the lustrous fields. Nicely struck, with a full head on Liberty.
Estimated Value $200-250
- 896 1918. MS-64 Full Head. A gorgeous frosty mint specimen, well struck with all of the rivets showing. Light attractive toning adds to its appeal.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 897 1918. MS-60. Mostly white, with fresh luster and flecks of toning starting to form.
Estimated Value $80-100
- 898 1918-D and 1918-S. Both grade EF-40. A nice 2 coin lot.
Estimated Value $80-100

Quarters

Enlarged

1918-S, 8 over 7, PCGS graded EF-45. This example has a strong date and is well struck, although Liberty's head is weak as always seen. Steel gray in color with traces of luster in the fields. One trivial dark spot on the left reverse near a star. Highly desirable as one of the most difficult overdates to obtain from the 20th Century, especially in a high collector grade.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

1918-S, 8 over 7, Fine-15. The overdate feature is clear with the tail of the 7 obvious in the lower part of the 8, and the flat top there is also noted. Steel gray in color with lovely shades of multicolored toning near some of the devices. Minor hairlines and well preserved overall. An important coin in all grades, and this one especially so with the strong overdate feature and gently circulated surfaces.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

1919 PDS lot. These grade from VF to EF. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

1920 PDS lot. This three coin lot grades VF to EF. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $125-150

1921, PCGS graded MS-64 Full Head. A rare date with a full head, and this one has satiny luster and is untoned. Clean surfaces and one that would fit into a gem set.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

1921, VF-20. Discolored by dark toning, but still a scarce date.
Estimated Value $125-150

1923, PCGS graded MS-64 Full Head. Fully struck on the head and shield, and this one boasts lovely golden hues on each side. A beautiful coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $250-300

1923, 1925 and 1928. These each grade AU-50. All are nice for the grade, and have soft gold toning around the periphery. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

1923-S, VF-20. Nice for the grade, with light golden toning and luster in the fields.
Estimated Value $250-300

1923-S, Fine-15. Steel gray and nice for the grade, with minor hairlines on the surfaces. A key date in any grade.
Estimated Value $175-225

1924 PDS set. This trio grades VF to EF. The P and D both have light toning, while the S is more gray. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-125

1924-D, MS-64. Sharply struck, but not quite full on the head. Satiny gold in color over mostly lustrous fields. A few ticks on either side.
Estimated Value $150-200

1925, MS-64 Full Head. Sharply struck by the dies and well preserved, this one remains untuned and flashy.
Estimated Value $200-250

1926, 1927, 1929 and 1930. These each grade MS-60 to 63. Some have nearly full heads, others flat. Nice luster. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $300-400

1926-D, PCGS graded MS-64. With full white luster and a decent strike, but missing most of the details on Liberty's head.
Estimated Value $170-190

1926-D, MS-63. This one has good luster, the usual weakness on Liberty's head, and a small tick on Liberty's calf.
Estimated Value $120-140

1926-D, 1927-D, 1928-D and 1929-D. These grade AU or better. Most have flat heads, but good luster and surfaces. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

1926-S. Sharpness of EF-40 but rough surfaces. A rare date in this grade, but we note the surfaces are rough. Perhaps this coin is lightly corroded or was exposed to a hostile environment.
Estimated Value $50-70

1927, PCGS graded MS-65 Full Head. Deep iridescent gold toning throughout with good luster beneath. Sharp and pleasing, and if you loved toned coins, take a shot at this one, you'll be glad you did. Color photo.
Estimated Value $600-700

1927-D, MS-64. Light golden toning starting to form, and a decent strike but not quite full on the head.
Estimated Value $150-200

Quarters

- 919 1927-S. MS-60. Cleaned and retoned to a medium dull yellow. A rare date that is seldom found in any high grades. One faint scratch on the shield, and a pair of shallow scrapes on the reverse below the left wing.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 920 1927-S. EF-45. One of the lower mintage dates of the series, just 396,000 were coined and most circulated to lower grades before being saved. This one has been cleaned and retoned, but the surfaces and device detail have not been diminished. We note that Liberty's head is typically weak, as nearly always seen on this date. One hidden mark on the eagle's head is worth attention.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 921 1928-D. NGC graded MS-67. One of the finest graded by NGC, and one can see why! The surfaces are snowy white and examination reveals no signs of contact with other coins. The strike is strong, but not quite full on Liberty's head, as usual. A visually stunning coin that will entice many bids whenever it's sold. NGC has graded 5 this high, with none graded higher.
Estimated Value $1,700-2,000
- 922 1928-D. PCGS graded MS-65. Deep rose to gray toning and well struck, but not quite with a full head. There are beautiful flecks of color on either side, and these come alive under a light. Scarce.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 923 1928-S. NGC graded MS-65. Flashy bright luster, and well struck, but not quite a full head.
Estimated Value $300-400
- 924 1928-S, 1929-S and 1930-S. Each grades MS-60. Some have light toning, others bright. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $225-300
- 925 1917 to 1930-S Standing Quarter Lot. This lot includes all Standing Liberty Quarters which grade from AG to AU. Mostly later dates, and worth a bit more than silver to be sure. Larry says it's worth examining. Lot of 111 coins.
Estimated Value $200-UP

- 926 A small group of Standing Liberty Quarters. This group includes 1917-D Type I, 1917-S Type I, 1917-D Type II and 1917-S Type II, grades range from Very Fine to Extremely Fine. Most have some toning and all are nice. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 927 A nice group of Standing Liberty quarters. This includes the following dates: 1917, P,D,S all Type I; 1917 Type II 1925; 1930 P, S, each grades Extremely Fine to Uncirculated. A nice lot for the date collector. Lot of 7 coins.
Estimated Value $300-350

Washington Quarters

- 928 1932-D. MS-63+. Here is the key date to the series, and this one may be less expensive than the recent $92,000 example sold at Heritage's delightful ANA sale this summer. Nicely struck by the dies, with no signs of weakness, and the surfaces are clean for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 929 1932-S. NGC graded MS-62. A hint of light tone is just starting to form. Premium Quality for the numerical grade.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 930 1932-S. ANACS graded MS-62. Toned with mottled gold on both sides. Well struck, but we note a few hairlines which probably account for the grade.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 931 1932-S. EF-45. Silvery white in color, with luster in the fields. Popular with date collectors.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 932 1938. PCGS graded Proof 64 Premium Quality. This one is lightly toned on the right side, both obverse and reverse.
Estimated Value $90-110
- 933 1939. ICG graded Proof 67. Light hazy toning and superb in every way. A gem for the date or type collector.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 934 1950. PCGS graded Proof 64 Premium Quality. Bright and untoned, and a beautiful coin.
Estimated Value $30-40
- 935 A circulated Washington Quarter set, 1932 through 1964-D. This set grades from Good to About Uncirculated. Mounted in a blue Whitman coin album, we note that the 1932-S has full rims, but the 1932-D does not. Lot of 83 pieces.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 936 1932, 1934, 1935. MS-60+ or better. All exhibit dusky toning. Three coins in lot.
Estimated Value $75-100

Quarters

Error Washington Quarter struck on a Cent planchet. No Date, "D" Mint obverse mintmark. MS-64. A frosty uncirculated specimen that boasts clean surfaces and mint-fresh color. With the smaller cent planchet, the entire date is missing on the quarter.

Estimated Value $200-300

(No date). Delaware Washington Quarter, struck 90 % Off Center. PCGS graded MS-64 "Mint Error". This one is perfectly aligned in that the word "DELA" and "QUARTER" are all that are visible, hence we know the date is 1999 and that this is a Delaware Statehood Quarter. One for the error specialist who demands top quality spectacular errors.

Estimated Value $200-300

Lots 939 to 1758

Half Dollars

Enlarged

1795 O-102, R-5, PCCS graded Fine-15. The present coin has steel gray surfaces and natural color. Liberty has strong hair detail and the coin is well balanced with even wear and no rim or surface problems. Identifiable by a minor scratch up from the high leaf under OF to the rim, and another between the CA of AMH RICA. At the center of the reverse there is a partial circle, but we do not believe this to be one of the extremely rare silver plug coins. After examination of photographs by Chris Pilliod and Steve Herriman, neither felt that a silver plug was present, but believed the mark on the eagle to be caused by something else. Further, the 3 known silver plug half dollars are not from this die pairing. Still and nice coin for the grade.

Estimated Value $800-1,200

From an old family estate which has been off the market for many years.

1803, Large 3, EF-40. Plenty of hair detail to justify the grade and problem-free; all, lightly toned.

Estimated Value $600-700

1803, Large 3, O-102, R-3, Good-5. Nice for the grade, but there are some fresh surface scratches breaking into the toning on the reverse.

Estimated Value $90-110

1805, 5 over 4, O-101, R-3, VF-25. Medium steel gray in color with an average strike for the dies. The edge lettering is blundered. No rim and surfaces for the grade, and worthy of a good bid.

Estimated Value $600-700

943 1806, 6 over 5, O-103, Rarity-2, PCCS graded AU-55. Perhaps one of the finest known of this variety, it is certainly at the top of the Condition Census published in the 1992 Overton Parsley reprint on half dollars, and at least tied for the finest seen. Pearl gray throughout, with ample luster near the devices. Well struck, especially on the left side of the obverse, where the stars are strong, and weaker on the right. The overdate feature is present at the top right of the 6, where a small bit of the tip of the flag protrudes above the ball. No adjustment marks or other problems from circulation, and a coin which most collectors will long enjoy.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

944 1806 Pointed 6, stem through claw, O-120, R-3, VF-35. This is an early die state with the crack between AM barely visible. Steel gray and clean for the grade, with minor hairlines from a past cleaning. Scarce and seldom found this nice.

Estimated Value $200-250

945 1806, Pointed 6, stem not through claw, O-109, NGC graded VF-30. Dark steel gray in color with lighter shades on the devices and darker in the fields.

Estimated Value $200-250

946 1806, Painted 6, no stem through claw, O-109, R-1, VF-20. There are a couple of scratches through the upper obverse, and the coin has been cleaned with an abrasive. We note a rim bump by the first star and another above the O in OF. Nicely struck and should retone if given a chance.

Estimated Value $150-200

947 1807 O-105, R-2, PCCS graded AU-58. One of the finest of this common variety, this one boasts full luster and barely a hint of toning. There is an area of minor encrustation around the S of STATIS and cloud below, but this will serve more to identify this coin than as a flaw. If you want a flashy "headlight" for your collection, then take a look at this well struck example. Nearly the scarce later die state.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

948 1807, O-110, NGC graded VF-30. Dark gray in the fields with lighter devices. The surfaces are clean for the grade, with just a couple of tiny ticks seen. Typical strike for the date.

Estimated Value $200-250

Half Dollars

Bust Half Dollars

- 949 1807. Small stars, O-113, R-2. EF-40. John Reich came to the United States as an indentured servant in order to escape the Napoleonic Wars, soon he was one of the finest engravers in the United States and was known to Mint Officials by 1801. However, Mint Engraver Robert Scot did all he could to keep Reich out of the Mint, and thus Scot insured his continued employment. By 1807 Scot's failing eyesight had become enough of a concern to Mint officials that they overruled Scot and Reich was hired as an Assistant Engraver for $600 per year (Breen's Encyclopedia). Reich was given the assignment to redesign silver and gold coinage. One of the first denominations was the half dollar, which employed a buxom rendition of Liberty wearing a cap of freedom, with a relaxed American eagle on the reverse. During 1807, some of the obverse dies employed large stars, others small stars as seen on this coin. It is widely believed that Reich "signed" his dies by using a star in the final position with a small notch on the outer point facing the rim. This particular coin retains some luster in the fields and is generally untoned save for the periphery which shows some gray and blue tones. Average hairlines.
Estimated Value $500-600

- 950 1807. Small stars, O-113a, R-3. EF-40. A late die state that shows extensive cracks on the obverse and well developed cracks on the reverse too. Nicely struck by the dies, with nice surfaces for the grade. Liberty's face has an area of roughness which extends down to her chest.
Estimated Value $450-500
- 951 1807. Large stars, 50 over 20, O-112, R-1. VF-30. Light steel gray in color and average for the grade. We see moderate hairlines and minimal handling marks on both sides. The upper left curl of the 2 is plainly visible left of the 5 in the denomination. A good strike, with full stars and adequate definition on Liberty's curls and on the eagle's feathers.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 952 1807. Large stars, 50 over 20, O-111b, The Bearded Goddess, R-5. VF-25. The Bearded Goddess variety is so named because of the unusual die break which connects Liberty's chin with her chest. On this particular coin the die break is extensive, continuing down to the rim left of the date, and up through the E of LIBERTY in her cap. Dark steel gray in color, with minor wipe lines as nearly always seen on Bust half dollars. Two rim knocks, one above her cap, the other right of the C in the denomination.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 953 1808. 8 over 7, O-101, R-1. EF-40. Nice color and surfaces save for moderate hairlines which blend well in with the steel gray color with blue at the edge. Lighter shades on the face and neck, as well as the upper curls. One tick above Liberty's cap on the edge.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 954 1808 O-104, MS-63. Glowing luster and well struck for this early date. Still white from a recent dipping, but enough luster remains to dazzle the eye. These early date half dollars are always in feverish demand, and for good reason, they are rare! One for the date collector or variety specialist.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 955 1808, O-104, R-2. AU-50. This one is silvery-white with good luster and a bit of toning on the upper obverse. Minor adjustment marks through the central reverse. Average strike for the variety, hence weak at the centers. Moderate hairlines when examined, but no other faults worth noting.
Estimated Value $350-450
- 956 1809. Normal edge, O-105, R-2 and 1810 O-105, R-2. The 1809 grades VF-30 and is a nice steel gray coin, with the usual weakness on the left wing of the eagle and the 1810 grades VF-25. Both are nice for the grade. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

Half Dollars

1809. Experimental edge, "IIII" between words, O-109b, R-4, AU-50. This is the scarcer late die state of this variety that shows lumps along the crack through AMERICA and the top two arrowheads. Examination notes that the surfaces have been cleaned or lightly polished long ago, and gold toning has returned to the periphery. There is a series of faint scratches on the central obverse but these should continue to tone over if given a chance. A decent coin for the grade.

Estimated Value $350-450

1811. 11 over 10, O-101, R-1, VF-30. A choice coin for the grade that boasts hints of luster in the stars and delicate gold toning there, with blues near the edge and steel gray for the balance. One tiny tick above Liberty's cap and another below the denomination on the edge. Quality surfaces that show few signs of cleaning or handling otherwise.

Estimated Value $150-200

1811. Small 8, O-111, R-1, EF-45. Silvery-gray in color with nice luster in the protected areas. Delicate blue and gold toning around the periphery and an average strike, with weak stars on the left. A problem-free example that is very eye appealing and downright nice for the grade.

Estimated Value $150-200

1811. Large 8, O-104a, R-1, AU-55. One of the prettiest coins in this extensive collection, the surfaces retain much of the original luster and the coin has light gold and blue toning around the periphery. Under a strong glass a couple of thin hairlines can be seen on Liberty, and some goofball tried to remove a planchet flaw on Liberty's chest with a pin, but this is very tiny. A coin many will love.

Estimated Value $300-400

1812. 2 over 1, small 8, O-102a, R-2, EF-40. Medium steel gray in color and well struck by the dies. A late die state which exhibits clash marks and the die crack through the date, and with devices drawn towards the edge. Some of the edge letters caused low areas on the reverse rim, and these are not rim marks, but are a function of worn dies and wobbly equipment, as the low areas correspond to the edge device lettering.

Estimated Value $150-200

1812, O-104a, ANACS graded Sharpness of AI-50 Net EF-40. Steel gray with rather extensive hairlines from a past cleaning. No rim bumps or other problems.

Estimated Value $80-100

963 1812. Normal date, O-104a, R-1, AU-50. Excellent luster in the fields and quite nice for the grade. Allowing gold toning around the periphery fades to brilliant white at the center of each side, the reverse with a bit less toning. Problem free surfaces that show faint hairlines and no other significant problems. Later die state with all the noted cracks present plus an additional crack on the obverse through the first star, Liberty's drapery, to the top serif of the first I in the date.

Estimated Value $250-300

964 1812, 1825, 1830 and 1834 Bust Half Dollars. These each grade from Good to Very Fine, and most have been cleaned with resulting hairlines. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $100-125

965 1813 O-108, R-4, AU-50. This is a nice example of the scarce early die state of this variety. The coin is toned an even gray color on the obverse, while the reverse is both russet and green in color. We note a long pin scratch across Liberty's chest nearly to her lower curl, but it is hidden by the toning. Moderate hairlines on both sides, as nearly always seen, but they are toned over and not too distracting.

Estimated Value $300-350

966 1813, O-107a, R-1, AU-50. This is a nice example of one of the more shattered dies of the series. The obverse die is cracked heavily through the date and stars, while the reverse is similarly cracked, and both dies show heavy clash marks. Obviously, no new dies were available when a large quotient of Bust half dollars needed to be produced. Examination will show moderate hairlines from a past cleaning, and this one has been more harshly cleaned than most, but still retains some luster.

Estimated Value $250-350

967 1813. 50C over "UNI", O-101, R-2, EF-45. One of the classic errors of the period and highly sought-after by a multitude of collectors. This particular example is light silvery-gray in color, and is just starting to tone back from a light polishing. We note a thin pin scratch encircling both the obverse and reverse, above the lettering and devices, nearly to the dentils. Moderate handling marks on both sides, and a couple of small dings on the edge. Better than we make it sound, but one to be inspected first before bidding.

Estimated Value $250-350

968 1814. 4 over 3, O-101a, R-2, AU-50. A classic example of this scarce and popular coin, the overdate is clear with the upper bar of the 3 easily visible at the top of the 4. The obverse and reverse die show strong clash marks and cracks. As to the surfaces, this coin is very nice, we see no major signs of contact or rim bumps, just the usual and ever-present hairlines in the fields, but they are relatively light.

Estimated Value $550-650

Half Dollars

- 969 1814. E over A in "STATES", O-108a, R-1. AU-55. A lustrous beauty that has gunmetal blue in areas but is mostly steel gray. Well struck from cracked and clashed dies, the only weakness is on the eagle's neck and left wing, which is diagnostic for this variety. The featured E over A in STATES is quite clear, as always, and long listing in the Guide Book has kept demand high for this variety. Minor breaks in the toning on the face and chest of Liberty, in the areas where the wear naturally occurs. An impressive example of this sought-after coin.

Estimated Value $650-750

- 970 1814. O-105a, the "single leaf", R-4. VF-35. One of more popular varieties in this die state as the upper pair of olive leaves has been reduced to a single leaf by heavy die lapping. This coin is toned a dark gray in color, with lighter silver on the upper devices, and a minor stain above Liberty's cap. A few minor surface scratches, expected for the grade. Always in strong demand because of its long listing in the Guide Book and popular with variety collectors as well.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 971 1814 O-102 and 1814 O-108a E over A in STATES. The O-102 grades EF-40, but has been cleaned and retuned with dark gold and blue at the periphery, while the 1814 O-108a grades EF-40 and is a pleasing gray color. A nice pair overall. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 972 1815. 5 over 2, O-101, R-2. EF-40. This coin has been cleaned and carefully retuned with deep blue and gold around the periphery and bright silver at the centers. Moderate handling marks and hairlines, as well as a minor rim ding at the point of the middle arrowhead. Struck from clashed dies, as are virtually all seen of this date.

Why were so few minted in 1815? The War of 1812 had resulted in an embargo by the British fleet of American ports, and the importation of copper planchets from England's Boulton & Watt firm, had been halted, and the embargo continued through 1815. During a war, the uncertainties of the outcome cause people to hoard cash, especially gold and silver. Thus, very little gold or silver was given to the Philadelphia Mint for coining, and coinage came to a virtual halt. Further, the Mint had a terrible fire in January of 1816, which curtailed coinage until late 1817. Hence, 47,150 half dollars were produced in 1815, a fraction of prior years issues.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 973 1817. 7 over 3, O-101a, R-2. EF-40. This coin has good eye appeal and some luster near the devices. However, close examination notes light surface scratches across the high points of the obverse which appear fresh in nature. In time, the coin should continue to tone and these will not be as distracting. One of the most visible overdates in American numismatics, the 7/3 feature is plain to the unaided eye. We note a very late die state with extensive clashing, including ERICA through the last few stars, the denomination above Liberty's cap, wings from the eagle in the field, and rusted dies in evidence.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 974 1817. Dated 1817, O-103; 1817 O-109 and 1817 O-113. The O-103 grades VF-35 and the next two each grade VF-30, although the O-113 has been burnished to remove scratches. Still a nice group. Lot of 3 coins.

Estimated Value $225-300

- 975 1818. 8 over 7, small 8, O-102, R-1. EF-45. This coin is dark in color but actually shows little wear on the devices. Hairlines are present and can still be seen through the toning, but they are no worse than usual. Clean rims and surfaces otherwise, and this well struck coin has the details of a higher grade.

Estimated Value $250-350

Half Dollars

1818. 8 over 7, large 8, O-101, R-1, EF-40. Well struck by the dies and generally well preserved. We note luster around the stars, and moderate hairlines from circulation. A middle die state with the obverse crack from star 11 to the curls, but not the reverse crack through the denomination. The reverse has scattered dark spots, otherwise it has light golden toning.

Estimated Value $100-150

1818. O-108, R-1, EF-45. Cleaned, now with moderate hairlines and a touch of luster remaining near the devices. Retoned with pretty gold shades around the periphery.

Estimated Value $100-150

1818. O-110, R-4, EF-40. A rare variety that is seldom cherry-picked. This one had some very faint marks in the left obverse field which have been carefully buffed down. Further, the coin was cleaned, leaving moderate hairlines throughout. Now toned a dark steel gray, we see no other flaws and note that the hair details on Liberty are very strong. An impressive example of this variety.

Estimated Value $150-200

1819. Small 9 over 8, O-106, R-4, MS-60+. Here is a rare coin in any grade, and this one may well be up in the Condition Census. Good luster in the fields with some light gold toning forming on both sides. The overdate is clear, and the diagnostic line over the second 1 is clear. Mottled gold on the reverse. Well struck for the variety and we expect a lot of interest when this one crosses the block.

Estimated Value $1,000-UP

1819. Small 9 over 8, O-101, R-1, EF-45. Medium to dark gray in color with deep golden shades mixed in. A few minor handling marks at the center of the obverse and some fresh scratches there too. Nicely struck and overall pleasing.

Estimated Value $150-200

1819. Large 9 over 8, O-102, R-2, AU-53. A highly appealing example which has beautiful blue shades at the rims and russet at the centers. Well preserved and without a flaw. Lightly wiped, as always, but free of bumps or bruises.

Estimated Value $200-250

1819. O-110, ICG graded MS-61. A most beautiful toned coin which boasts deep sea green and blue around the periphery, and brighter silver at the center, perfectly matched and balanced on each side. Minor friction on the high points, as usually seen on this grade. Good luster, and minor handling marks and hairlines throughout.

Estimated Value $500-750

983 1819. O-114, R-3, VF-25. Medium to light gray in color with darker highlights around the edge. Moderate hairlines.

Estimated Value $75-100

984 1820. 20 over 19, square 2, O-101, R-2, EF-45. This one has been cleaned with the resulting hairlines on the surfaces, but some luster remains. Starting to retone with gold around the rims. Well struck on both sides.

Estimated Value $300-400

985 1820. 20 over 19, curl 2, O-102, NGC graded AU-58. Stark white in color, with copious luster in the fields. Minor weakness at the center on Liberty's curls. A popular overdate in very high grade.

Estimated Value $600-700

986 1820. 20 over 19, curl 2, O-102, R-1, EF-45. Nicely struck by the dies and retaining a fair amount of luster in the fields. Moderate hairlines as usually seen, and starting to tone with light gold around the edge. A truly obvious overdate.

Estimated Value $250-300

987 1820. Curl base 2, small date, O-103, R-1, EF-40. The recut second T of STATES is clear on this early die state. Nice peripheral gold color and clean surfaces, but the usual hairlines are present. The edge is blundered, and reads FIFTY CENT DOLLAR.

Estimated Value $150-200

988 1820. Square base, knobbed 2, large date, O-105, R-1, VF-30. Medium gray in color with colorful shades around the periphery. Moderate hairlines as too often seen, and we note a rim bump over R of AMERICA.

Estimated Value $100-125

989 1821. O-103, R-2, AU-50. Flashy luster and silvery gray in color. Clean surfaces for the grade and not that well struck, as the central curls are not bold, while the reverse is sharp.

Estimated Value $300-400

990 1822 O-105, R-3, AU-55. This one has nice luster and light gold around the edge, but does have the ever-present wipe lines from a past cleaning. A slightly better variety, this one shows the light reverse crack through the legend. Sharp stars and excellent definition on Liberty's curls keep this at the high end of the grading scale.

Estimated Value $250-300

Half Dollars

- 991 1822, O-107, R-2. AU-55. This is the variety with the small button in the fold at the top of the cap, and the only variety to show this feature. A beautiful example too, with bright blue toning through the stars and date, gold to russet elsewhere, the reverse more evenly toned in gold, with blue only at the extreme edge. Free of handling problems, and a coin that you won't ever want to upgrade.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 992 1822, 2 over 1, O-102, R-4+. EF-45. This is a tough variety, and this particular coin is not too far from the Condition Census. There are some fresh surface scratches on the high points near the center, Liberty's face and curls, but these should tone back in time. The rims and surfaces are steel gray and pleasing otherwise.

Estimated Value $275-350

- 993 1823, Broken 3, O-101, R-1. AU-53. Fresh mint luster in the fields and light silver in color. Well struck by the dies, and clean on the obverse while the reverse has several minor nicks.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 994 1823, Patched 3, O-101a, R-1. EF-40. One of the downright ugliest date messes created on any die, this 1823 obverse die began as the "broken 3", and after quite a few were struck, the die was reworked and the broken part of the 3 was patched at the center. The result was scarcely better than the original, and the 3 still leans awkwardly to the right, with a broad curl at the top and a knob at the bottom. In particular this coin boasts luster in the fields and lovely original toning around the periphery. Light hairlines from handling, but they are not too detracting.

Estimated Value $100-150

- 995 1823, Ugly 3, O-110a, R-3. AU-50. Similar to the noteworthy 3 on the O-101 variety, this obverse die takes a turn for the worse with a downright ugly 3. Examination of the 3 shows engraving slips, bumps and lumps with the result nothing short of ugly. The coin itself is anything but, with light golden shade over silvery-gray fields that are still reflective in the protected areas. There is a double profile on Liberty's chest and neck. Minor surface marks and a few fresh scratches on the central high devices, as seen on many coins from this group. Nicely struck and popular with collectors.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 996 1823, O-105, R-1. AU-50. Sharply impressed by the dies and enhanced by blue and gold toning around the periphery. Minor hairlines as always, but they are toned over. A nice collector coin.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 997 1824 over various dates, O-103, R-1. AU-50. A popular variety with collectors who have long wondered just what the undertype digits are below the 4 in the date. It is believed to be a 2 and a 0, but no one is certain. This particular example has been cleaned in the past, but has retoned with desirable album toning around the periphery with deep gray there, and brilliant at the centers on the obverse, more delicate gold peripheral toning on the reverse, and mostly bright. Nicely struck and we see a fine double profile on Liberty. Moderate hairlines, as usually seen.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 998 1824, 4 over 1, O-101, R-2. AU-50. Dark blue and gold around the edges and well struck. We note minor handling marks and wipe lines, including some fresh ones on the obverse high points. Nice color and surfaces otherwise.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 999 1824, 4 over 4, O-109 and 1828 O-109. The 1824 grades VF-25 and the 1828 grades VF-35. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $75-125

- 1000 1824, O-105, MS-60+. Bright and lustrous with gold and blue toning starting around the periphery. Well struck on Liberty, but the stars are generally flat, as usual. One small streak through Liberty's cap.

Estimated Value $400-600

- 1001 1824, O-111, R-2. AU-53. Frosty and bright, with a bit of gold around the rims. Minor handling marks and a few faint hairlines, but well struck and appealing in every way.

Estimated Value $250-300

Half Dollars

- 002 1825, O-102, R-1, AU-50. We note a partial double profile on Liberty, especially on her neck and chest. Light gold and blue toning at the rims, and white at the centers. Well struck and pleasing for the grade, despite a few hairlines and minor handling ticks.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 003 1825, O-101, R-1, EF-45. On this variety, UNITED STATES appears as one word. Still lustrous despite minor hairlines. Gold around the edge, white elsewhere.
Estimated Value $100-125

- 004 1826, O-109, R-1, MS-63+. A beautiful coin that boasts deep gray toning around the edges and much brighter silver at the centers. Liberty is quite well frosted and our consigner believes this may have been some sort of presentation strike. We do note there is a fine scratch down Liberty's neck to her drapery, but is can only be seen with a glass. Minor hairlines in the fields. Regardless of what you call this coin, it is appealing and one that many collectors will enjoy in the future, as I'm sure they've enjoyed it in the past.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 005 1826, O-108a, R-1, AU-55. This sparkler will liven up your collection without breaking the bank. The surfaces show light wear only on the high points of the design, and the toning is the style found in old album collections, with dark blue around the edges, white at the center of the obverse, the reverse similar, but the centers are toned in reddish-gold hues. Luster beneath the colors in the fields adds to the allure. A few hairlines, but they are faint, and no other problems worth noting were found.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 006 1826 O-106, R-3, AU-55. This one has been cleaned and displays the usual profusion of faint hairlines when examined with a glass. Nearly a mint state coin as the curls show fine separation even on the high points, and the stars are almost all full. Delicate gold and red toning at the periphery. Abundant luster and generally a very nice coin overall.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 007 A three coin Bust half lot. Dates include 1826, 1828 and 1835, each grades VF and is toned. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $100-130

- 008 1827, 7 over 6, O-102, R-1, EF-45. This one was recently dipped and remains too bright and without toning. Minor hairlines and a coin that should improve if given a chance to tone.
Estimated Value $100-150

- 1009 1827, Square base 2, MS-60+. A lovely satiny mint example and delicately toned.
Estimated Value $300-UP

- 1010 1827, Square base 2, MS-60. A very well struck example with most of the stars showing their center points and the hair detail on Liberty is sharp and defined. All is overlaid with medium to dark violet color.
Estimated Value $250-350

- 1011 1827, Square base 2, O-125, R-3, AU-50. Golden toning over lustrous fields.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 1012 1827, Square base 2, O-116 and 1827 Curled base 2, O-146. Both grade EF-45. The O-116 has been cleaned with resulting hairlines and the other more natural in appearance. Both have peripheral toning. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 1013 1828, Curl base, no knob 2, O-101, R-1, AU-50. Pretty toning around the rims while the centers remain bright. Well struck and impressive.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 1014 1828, Curl base, knob 2, O-107, R-2, AU-58. Smoky gold toning on both sides over lustrous fields. Boldly struck and well preserved for this variety. A problem free example that will surely please any collector.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1015 1828, Square base 2, small 8's, O-110, R-2, AU-50. We note a couple of minor scratches down Liberty's face and neck. Lightly cleaned, but still lustrous and nicely toned with deep gold around the periphery and blue and green on the reverse. Sharply struck and quite flashy.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 1016 1828, Square base 2, small 8's and letters, O-116, R-2, EF-45. Steel gray and sharply struck, including on the motto, which is often found weak. One rim bump by the middle arrowhead.
Estimated Value $150-200

Half Dollars

1017 1829. 9 over 7. MS-60+. Well struck with most of the stars showing their center points, all lightly toned.
Estimated Value $700-UP

1018 1829. 9 over 7. O-101a, R-1. EF-45. Struck after the reverse die was lapped (probably to remove clash marks). Slightly reflective perhaps from an old cleaning as hairlines are noted, especially on the obverse. A sharp overdate on this variety.
Estimated Value $125-175

1019 1829 O-119, R-2. AU-58. Bright luster and flashy with an arc of toning on the lower obverse. A bit weak on the upper stars, and a later die state.
Estimated Value $200-250

1020 1829 O-105, R-1. AU-58. A beautiful coin that boasts deep blue around the edge, and bright white luster elsewhere. Clean surfaces for the grade.
An interesting die state here, the obverse crack is present from the tenth and eleventh star to the lower curls, and the stars are drawn towards the dentils. On the reverse, all the arrow shafts are broken from die lapping, and the diagnostics have changed with the eagle's claw ending just above the right tip of the serif of C (on early die state coins, this claw extends past the left side of the serif, and the arrow shafts are sharp). One for the specialist.
Estimated Value $150-200

1021 1829 O-105, R-1 and 1834 O-109, R-1. The 1829 is ANACS graded VF-25, the 1834 is ANACS graded AU details, net EF 40, cleaned-scratch. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $75-100

1022 1830. Small 0, O-115, R-2. MS-63. Bright luster throughout and without any signs of toning. Obviously dipped recently, but still extremely lustrous and well preserved. Minor handling marks in the fields, the strike is average with a few stars weak at the centers. Nice cartwheel for the collector.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

1023 1830. Small 0, O-116, R-2. AU-50. A later die state with the obverse stars drawn to the edge. Satiny gray and lustrous, with minor hairlines.
Estimated Value $150-200

1024 1830. Large 0, O-123, R-1. AU-53. This one has a light scrape down from Liberty's face to the second and third stars, and moderate hairlines. The coin is now toned a medium silvery gray with darker golds at the rims. Boldly struck, but the hairlines are somewhat distracting on this one. For reasons unknown most of the survivors of the Bust half series show hairlines. Perhaps all the coins from the Economite Hoard were cleaned when they were recovered using some sort of abrasive (like baking soda), and hence so many of these show hairlines. Whatever the cause, that's the way they are, and this one is no different. Pleasing eye appeal at a glance.
Estimated Value $175-225

1025 1831 O-102. MS-63. This coin has loads of wild toning on the obverse and reverse. The coin has some hidden streaks running parallel through the obverse, and we're not sure of the origin, or if they were mint caused or not. Inspection recommended, as always. Good luster and the reverse is normal.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

1026 1831 O-116, R-3. AU-55. A scarce coin in this grade, this one just nudges the bottom of the condition census. Frosty and white in color with a ring of gold around the periphery.
Estimated Value $200-250

1027 1832, O-118. ANACS graded AU-50. Rubbed on the high points of the design to fresher silver colors, while the surrounding fields and devices are toned. Hairlines as always, and with an average strike, and some luster.
Estimated Value $140-180

1028 1832. Large letters, O-101a, R-2. AU-55. This is the only Large Letters reverse die used in 1832, and it is easily identifiable by a large die break from the wing down to the eagle's tail. Frosty luster and light gold toning around the edges.
Estimated Value $200-250

1029 1832. Large letters, O-101 and 1832 O-102a. The first grades EF-40 and the second grades AU-53. Nice quality on each. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $225-300

1030 1833, O-110, R-2. NGC graded MS-62. Beautiful light blue toning over lustrous fields fading to gold. Minor hairlines in the fields, as always. Sharp at the centers, but weak beneath the date on the dentils, as struck. A good value in today's market.
Estimated Value $500-750

Half Dollars

31 1833 O-112, R-2. AU-50. This one has been lightly polished then retoned to a dark blue and gold. Beneath the colorful streaks, hairlines have taken up residence. A later die state with stars and letters drawn towards the edge on both sides. One that could be improved by people expert in such matters.
Estimated Value $150-200

32 1834. Large date and letters, O-103, R-2. NGC graded MS-61. Colorful tones of red, blue and green around the periphery, and nicely struck too. Minor hairlines and a hidden scratch on Liberty's bust apparently account for the moderate grade.
Estimated Value $300-350

33 1834. Large date and letters, O-103 and 1834 Small date, O-111. Both grade EF-45. The first is lustrous and nice for the grade, with gray toning and clean surfaces, the second has been lightly cleaned and nicely retoned with gold around the rims. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-200

34 1834. Large date, small letters, O-107, R-1. AU-55. Strong mint luster and generally bright, with a touch of gold around the edges. Minor hairlines and circulation ticks, but much less than usual, keeping this at the higher end for the collector who loves nice surfaces. An appealing example.
Estimated Value $200-250

35 1834. Large date, small letters, O-106, R-1. AU-50. Good luster despite a minor cleaning in the past, and mostly bright silver with a touch of gold starting to form. Sharp on Liberty's curls, but a few stars are weak. The edge lettering is a bit blundered.
Estimated Value $150-200

36 1835, O-107, R-1. AU-53. Cleaned with resulting hairlines as usual, and nicely retoned with deep gold to blue around the edges. Sharply struck and with clean rims and only minor circulation marks. A common variety.
Estimated Value $175-200

37 1836. Lettered edge, O-108-a, R-2. AU-50. This one has been cleaned, with resulting hairlines throughout, with no signs of toning starting to form. Some luster near the stars and devices, and nicely struck for this later die state. This is the popular 1836, 8 over 3 variety, where the die engraver punched in the 3 before realizing he should have used the 8. Oh well, what's 5 centuries?
Estimated Value $200-250

38 1836. Lettered edge, O-101, R-1. AU-50. Lightly cleaned and starting to retone with splashes of gold around the peripheries, but mostly bright silver. Sharply struck at the centers, and with clean rims and average surfaces. The edge lettering is blundered.
Estimated Value $150-200

39 1836. Lettered edge, 50 over 00, O-116, R-2. Sharpness of AU-50 but buffed. A scarce and popular variety, but this coin has been buffed to remove corrosion or some other surface marks on both sides. Now a touch dull and starting to retone. Still nicely struck, and a coin that doesn't appear to have problems to the naked eye.
Estimated Value $200-300

1040 1836. Reeded edge, VF-25. A beautiful example of this scarce coin, the reported mintage was 1,200 pieces, and most circulated to lower grades. Here we note lovely steel gray tones with multicolored hues near the devices. Average handling marks for the grade, with nice rims that show no distracting bumps. If you have been searching for a select example of this date, then take a look at this one.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

1041 1837 Reeded edge. SEGS graded MS-63 Reverse Scratch/Dig ("Star"). Here is a special coin. First of all, this is a "Star" SEGS holder, which means there are problems, and when carefully examined you can locate a pair of drill marks on the eagle, one in left wing near the shield, and a small one in the shield. In addition, there are a couple of shallow scratches extending from either wing. On the obverse, the coin is bright and untoned, with good luster and surfaces, save for the usual trivial hairlines. Weakly struck at the top of the head and on a few stars, and at the corresponding section of the reverse. Better than we make it sound, so inspection is recommended.
Estimated Value $500-750

1042 1837 Reeded edge. PCGS graded AU-53. Mint fresh luster in the fields and starting to tone with gold around the edge. Boldly struck by the new steam press, and a few minor tick are present from limited circulation.
Estimated Value $200-250

Half Dollars

- 1043 1837 Reeded edge. AU-50. Light silvery gray in color with some luster in the fields. Minor hairlines and handling marks, but well struck and quite pleasing for the grade. The inverted G was used for the C in AMERICA and this feature is strong on this particular coin. It is curious that this series has been orphaned by many collectors, variety collectors purchase Capped Bust half dollars up until 1836 when the steam press was introduced and the edge device became reeded instead of lettered. The Seated half dollar collectors begin with 1839 when the design changed again. Thus, these Reeded Edge half dollars sort of fall through the cracks. Many varieties are represented and Jules Reiver published an excellent variety study of these Reeded Edge half dollars back in 1988 or so. This is one of the more popular varieties, and one that is hard to find in high grade.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 1044 1837 Reeded edge. EF-45. Lovely gold toning and luster in the fields, boldly struck by the dies and well preserved by time and collectors.

Estimated Value $75-100

- 1045 1837 and 1838 Reeded edge half dollars. Both grade EF-45. The 1837 has a minor rim mark at the upper left of the obverse, but nice color and surfaces otherwise, and the 1838 is nice for the grade, with steel gray toning and interesting die cracks on both sides. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $200-300

- 1046 1839 Reeded edge. AU-50. This coin may have been lightly polished, and the surfaces show hairlines on both sides. Excellent curls on Liberty, and the coin retains some mint flash and has gold toning around the rims. As with most of the steam press coinage (post 1836), the strike is sharp.

Estimated Value $200-300

- 1047 1839 Reeded edge. EF-40. This one has been cleaned and re-toned nicely. Some luster near the stars and devices.

Estimated Value $90-100

- 1048 1839-O. MS-60+. This coin has been cleaned and retoned to a dark gray, but luster still shines through from the fields. We note hairlines under the toning. Well struck by the dies, with full stars and curls on Liberty. As usual, there are encircling die cracks on the obverse, more so through the reverse legends.

Estimated Value $2,000-UP

- 1049 1839-O. EF-45. Lightly cleaned long ago and now a steel gray in color. Well struck, with the big Mintmark placed above the date, making this an excellent choice for the type collector. Nice rims and surfaces, aside from the usual trivial hairlines.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 1050 A small group of Bust and Seated halves. The following are included: 1827/6 Fine, scratch; 1834 Very Fine; 1837 VG scratch; 1839 Bust, Fine and 1843 Extremely Fine. Lot of 5 coins.

Estimated Value $170-190

Liberty Seated Half Dollars

- 1051 1839 No Drapery. EF-45 Cleaned. Boldly struck by the dies, but cleaned and now a matte in appearance. Toning back with golden hues of gray surfaces. Problem free otherwise and good for a type collector who needs this.

Estimated Value $500-550

- 1052 1842. Small date. MS-60+. Delicate gold toning over lustrous fields is seen on both the obverse and reverse. Well struck for the date, as the stars are full and the eagle shows good separation throughout. Minor handling marks expected for the grade. The small date variety has an estimated mintage of 191,000 according to Breen.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Half Dollars

- 53 1843. PCGS graded MS-63. This is a beautiful coin because of its rich golden red and blue toning. Frosty luster in the fields, and struck from cracked dies, with a crack extending off the back of Liberty's head, another through the first two stars to the rock, and one on the reverse which vertically bisects the coin. Nicely struck, with most of the stars full, and overall quite pleasing.

Estimated Value $800-950

- 54 1846 over horizontal 6 (error). PCGS graded AU-50. One of the more dramatic "errors" produced by the Philadelphia Mint of the period. Breen speculates that this type of error, the mis-punched dates, were a silent protest by Mint workers over the employment of James B. Longacre as mint engraver, replacing the recently deceased C. Gobrecht in 1844. Breen speculates that these errors may have been created by Longacre himself as he would have resented the menial tasks of punching in dates into dies, when he should have been designing new and important coins for circulation. Whatever the cause, the results are fascinating. In this particular instance, the 6 was punched into the die sideways, as though it were taking a little nap, and was later engraved over upright, but both still plainly show. The surfaces are clean, this coin is steel gray with some luster in the fields. On the reverse, the usual die break is present over UNIT. Estimated Value $600-800

- 55 1853. Arrows and rays. PCGS graded MS-63. Bright and untoned with ample luster in the fields. Examination will note moderate surface marks, as usual for the grade assigned. Sharp, with full details on the eagle, rays and even the stars on the obverse. A few more hairlines than usual, but this is an important type coin.

Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

- 56 1854 Arrows and 1874 Arrows. The first grades EF-45, the last EF-40. Both are nice for the grade. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 1057 1855-O, Arrows and 1863-S. The 1855-O grades Extremely Fine 40 and the 1863-S grades Very Fine 20 but is damaged by rim marks, bumps, scratches and a punch mark. Lot of 2 coins.

Estimated Value

$80-100

- 1058 1857. NGC graded MS-64. Nice and frosty and creamy white. We note some light striations as made across the central portion of Liberty.

Estimated Value $1,300-1,500

- 1059 1858. MS-64. This one has spectacular toning with rainbow hues in concentric rings on both sides, perhaps from an old Wayne Raymond album. Minor hairlines from long ago, and a couple of ticks from perfection. We feel that most will like this coin for its lovely toning.

Estimated Value $1,250-UP

Half Dollars

- 1060 1861 Confederate States of America. Restrike. PCGS graded MS-62. The story of the Confederate half dollar is as follows, in late 1860 the Secession Convention resolved to take the New Orleans Mint into the Confederate States of America. The new reverse die was engraved by A.H.M. Patterson and this was to be paired with the standard United States Seated Liberty obverse die. Of the originals, just 4 were coined, and the die removed until after the Civil War. Dr. Taylor, the chief coiner, removed the die and maintained secrecy until 1879, when he felt it was safe to publish its story. Soon the die was purchased by J. W. Scott, who found the die to be extensively rusted. With the help of David Proskey, Scott tenously struck 500 white metal impressions, fearing the die would break apart. The die did not fail, and 500 silver impressions were made using 1861 half dollars with the reverses plained down. This coin is from that group of 500, which were sold to collectors.

Few have survived, PCGS in their Population Report notes that 12 have been graded as MS-62, with just 3 graded higher, all MS-63. The reverse boasts frosty luster and well struck devices, while the obverse has minor surface scratches and shows the flattening from the restriking of the reverse. A popular rarity, and one of the few examples found in any grade.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 1061 1861 Confederate Half Dollar. Scott Token obverse. SEGS graded MS-62* "Scratched @ "C" of "CSA". This one has a few minor spots on the obverse, and we note a small circular scratch around the C of CSA on the reverse where someone tried to "pin" off a spot. Other spots are noted on both sides, and these restrikes have long been popular with collectors. Don't let the minor surface problems trouble you too much, this is a scarce piece and they are not offered all that frequently.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 1062 1862-S. NGC graded AU-55. Satiny gray in color with some luster in the fields. Moderate handling marks, none of consequence.

Estimated Value $200-250

Gem Toned 1863 Liberty Seated Half Dollar

- 1063 1863. NGC graded Proof 66. A magnificent toned gem that has simply superb colors throughout. The hues range through the deep sea-greens and vibrant golds of an old time collection, and cover the entire coin, front to back. Boldly struck, and well preserved to be sure, and this is one of the top coins graded by NGC of the date. In fact, only 3 have been graded this high, with 3 graded higher (one in each grade PF-67, 68 and 69!). If you want a truly special coin for your set, then here it is. Color photo.

Estimated Value $8,000-9,000

- 1064 1871. PCGS graded Proof 63. Deeply toned with lilac gray hues with areas of blue around the periphery and gold towards the centers. Boldly struck as expected for a proof. The only complaint are faint hairlines scarcely visible under the toning. If you want a lot of value for your collecting dollar, then take a look at this beauty.

Estimated Value $550-650

- 1065 1874. Arrows. Proof 63. This proof has been cleaned and re-toned in the past, and we note moderate hairlines in the fields. Small dark specks can be found on the obverse. A scarce type coin with Arrows at the date.

Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 1066 1875. PCGS graded Proof 65. Deeply frosted devices seem to float on a mirror sea. Bright and nearly free of toning. A gem that will entice many collectors to bid.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

- 1067 1875. AU-58. Prooflike fields with delicate rose and gold toning near the edges. Minor hairlines from handling.

Estimated Value $125-150

Half Dollars

- 68 1875-S, FF-45. Lightly cleaned some time ago, still lustrous and well struck.
Estimated Value $60-80

Ex Pine Tree Auctions June 1978 Lot 582

- 69 1876, MS-65. A bright gem example of this popular Centennial year. The devices are piled high with mint frost, while the fields are exceptionally clean. Examination with a strong glass will locate a few stray hairlines, but they are trivial and not distracting given the beauty and quality of the coin. Boldly struck by the dies, with strong details throughout. An impressive example for the type or date collector.
Estimated Value $1,800-2,200

- 70 1877-CC, PCGS graded MS-64 Premium Quality. One of the nicest of this small hoard and quite a beauty. Note the well mirrored fields as this must have been an early strike from the dies, and the well frosted devices. We note minor handling marks on both sides and a few trivial hairlines. PCGS has graded 27 this high, with just 16 graded higher, making this one of the very best to survive from the original mintage. Mostly white on the obverse, with flecks of color starting to form on the reverse, mostly around the periphery.
Estimated Value $1,300-1,500

- 71 1877-CC, PCGS graded MS-64 Premium Quality. One of the nicest of this little group, the surfaces are very pleasing indeed, with great luster and no significant problems. A few tiny hairlines and scattered ticks, otherwise all is mint-fresh and original. One small area of raised toning between Liberty's head and cap on the star. Splashes of hazy color starting in the field of both sides. A rare coin in this grade, and well worth a strong bid. Struck from a clashed reverse die, with outlines of Liberty around the eagle.
Estimated Value $1,300-1,500

- 1072 1877-CC, PCGS graded MS-63 Premium Quality. This example has a slightly doubled CC at the top and is just starting to tone around the periphery. Bright and frosty on the obverse, and quite well struck for this date. We note minor hairlines, and some small areas of raised verdigris in the reverse lettering and devices, seen on several of this hoard.
Estimated Value $800-900

- 1073 1877-CC, PCGS graded MS-63 Premium Quality. Bright and flashy, with good luster in the fields and clean surfaces. Close examination finds a couple of minor bag ticks, and light hairlines, but nothing too distracting. Apparently a small hoard of these were found, as 39 have been graded this high, with 43 graded higher by PCGS, which is quite a few considering that only 1,420,000 were struck. This one has sharply defined devices and is starting to tone around the periphery.
Estimated Value $800-900

- 1074 1877-CC, PCGS graded MS-62 Premium Quality. This is an example of the recut 77 in the date, with doubling visible on the lower part of each number. Somewhat prooflike and well preserved, with frosty devices and great quality for the moderate grade. Hints of toning are starting to form about the periphery.
Estimated Value $700-800

Half Dollars

- 1075 1877-CC. PCGS graded MS-62 Premium Quality. This one has a few wispy hairlines in the fields and also shows strong cameo contrast. Well struck by the dies, and we note light peripheral toning on the reverse, while the obverse remains white and untoned. Delicate die cracks are present on both the obverse and reverse through the periphery.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 1076 1877-CC. PCGS graded MS-62 Premium Quality. A truly great coin for the moderate grade assigned, as the luster is full and fresh, and the strike sharp. No distracting marks or hairlines, just the usual minor stuff which scarcely warrants the grade. One tiny mint flaw on the upper shield lines. Double 77 in the date, and with a hint of mottled toning as seen on most of this group, but mostly white in color.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 1077 1877-CC. PCGS graded MS-62 Premium Quality. Nice for the moderate grade, this coin boasts fresh luster and frosty devices, and a general scattering of handling marks and hairlines. This is one of a small hoard which was recently submitted to PCGS, but we believe the total known in mint state grades to be around 150 pieces for the entire year, which is precious few given over a 1,400,000 were coined.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 1078 1877-CC. MS-60+. This is the double date variety, with the 77 obviously recut at the bottom. Frosty luster and well struck by the dies. We note minor hairlines in the fields, and a couple of microscopic spots, including one on either side of the eagle's head. One tiny edge scrape above the C of AMERICA. A sparkling and beautiful coin for the grade.

Estimated Value $600-700

- 1079 1877-CC. MS-60+. A frosty and bright mint state coin but we note hairlines in the fields and some surface disturbances above the eagle which may have been in the planchet prior to striking. Excellent frost on the devices, and always popular for the "CC" Mintmark.

Estimated Value $600-700

- 1080 1879. PCGS graded Proof 64 Cameo. This coin is basically white, without signs of toning on either side. The fields are deeply reflective while the surrounding devices are frosty and white, providing a high degree of contrast. PCGS has recently started grading "Cameo" as a separate designation from a generic "proof", and this coin clearly stands out from the run of mill example. Identifiable by a two dentil stain near the first star.

Estimated Value $700-900

- 1081 1879. Proof 60. Steel gray and untuned, the fields show rather extensive hairlines and there is a shallow scrape on the lower reverse.

Estimated Value $350-400

Half Dollars

1879. MS-63. A real beauty for the grade, with soft gold and rose toning around the periphery and well frosted devices. Minor hairlines in the fields, as always. One of the tough dates and always popular with collectors.

Estimated Value $500-600

1887. NGC graded MS-64. Gold and lilac in color with hints of deeper shades at the rims. We note some minor fritzies on the obverse devices and rims, perhaps accounting for the grade, as well as some hairlines. Well frosted on the devices, and a highly appealing example of this scarce date.

Estimated Value $750-1,000

A lot of 4 half dollars. The 1936 shows little evidence of doubling, although we note a touch on the end of the 3 in the date. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $125-175

Estimated Value $175-200

1089 1900-O. MS-65. This one has blotchy gold toning on both sides and we note some slide marks on Liberty's face. A rare date in gem grade, so make sure you view it carefully before the sale.

Estimated Value $7,000-10,000

1090 1905. NGC graded Proof 66. A stunning example of this date, the toning is quite alluring as it ranges from bright blue at the rims through red and gold towards light gold at the centers, similar on both sides. Perfectly struck and preserved, and a fine addition to a high grade set.

Estimated Value $2,200-2,600

1091 1905-O. PCGS graded MS-65. One of the finest graded by PCGS, they report 6 grade as such, with just 5 graded higher (best MS-68). This one has excellent luster and a good strike, with satiny gold toning starting to tone down the original white surfaces. One minor tick on Liberty's nose from a higher grade, but her cheek and the fields are very clean. A gem by any definition.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

Half Dollars

- 1092 1907-O. NGC graded MS-66. A remarkable coin that boasts satiny gold luster and toning on both sides, and very few handling marks. Take a look and see if this is one for your collection.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

Estimated Value $300-400
- 1098 1917. MS-63+. Bright white and untoned, the fields are piled high with snowy luster and the strike is firm.

- 1 1927-S. NGC graded MS-64. Satiny with nice luster in the fields and completely without toning (most likely dipped recently). The centers show minor weakness in the strike, as always, but Liberty's head is nicely detailed while her hand is flat. Minor stacking marks account for the grade. Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1122 1927-S. PCGS graded MS-63. Good luster and untuned on either side. This one looks like it was just removed from a roll of these. The strike is weak at the centers, as always, and we note a bisecting reverse crack through the second 1 of DOLLAR.

Estimated Value $700-900
- 1127 1938. PCGS graded Proof 64 Premium Quality. A very sharp strike here, check out Liberty's thumb, it's about as high as any we've seen. Clean surfaces and conservatively graded.

Estimated Value $200-250
- 1156 1953-S. PCGS graded MS-65. One of the most difficult dates to find with "Full Bell Lines", this one has a better than average strike, but is weak on the center bell lines. Locating a fully struck specimen has become downright expensive, as seen in the famous sale of a gem in January by our friends Bowers and Merena. Clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $100-UP
- 1157 1954. PCGS graded Proof 66. Light foggy toning starting to form and with a touch of gold around the periphery. A couple of faint hairlines from an even higher grade.
Estimated Value $50-60

Half Dollars

- 59 1955. PCGS graded MS-66 Full Bell Lines. A rare coin in this grade, one of 58 so graded by PCGS, and none have been graded higher! Estimated Value $150-200
- 63 1957. PCGS graded MS-66 Full Bell Lines. This one is probably from a mint set, as are several other toned coins in this series, as the colors and "fabric" of the toning are what are usually found in period mint sets. Sharply struck by the dies, and the surfaces are very clean. One of the more available dates in this grade, but still just 211 graded this high, with 6 higher.
Estimated Value $150-200

Certainly one of the more beautiful coins in this selection.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 66 1957-D. PCGS graded MS-66 Full Bell Lines. Dusky gold toning with colorful highlights near the rims on this coin are the rule. Well struck, and especially clean fields and devices. PCGS notes 143 graded this high with 1 higher.

Kennedy Half Dollars

Extraordinary Frosted Proof 1981-S Kennedy Half Dollar Error

- 1182 1981-S Double Struck and broadstruck Kennedy Half Dollar in Proof! Proof 65. An extraordinary error very few of which are known. We must remember that proof error coins are seldom found, the quality controls at the various mints on Proof coins are especially high, and we can only guess how this one escaped the San Francisco Mint in 1981 without detection. Needless to say, it would not have fit into the standard proof set box of issue, as the coin has expanded quite a bit from the normal size because of the double striking outside the collar. The devices are well frosted and the coin is quite spectacular to view. There is no edge reeding, and with the extreme pressures used to strike Proof coins, the planchet split through the top of Kennedy's head. Certain to be one of the highlights of an advanced error collection.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500
- 1183 A partial set of Kennedy half dollars including Proofs, 1964 to 2000. This set grades Brilliant Uncirculated to Proof. A few dates are missing, including the following of the silver proof issues: 1993-S, 1994-S, 1995-S, 1996-S, 1997-S, 1998-S and 2000-S and the following regular proof issue 2000-P. The set contains every imaginable permutation of Kennedy half dollars, such as the Uncirculated coins of each date, the Special Mint Set issues of 1965-67 as well as the regular issues of those years and the uncirculated dates and proof dates, as issued. Inspection recommended as many are very nice coins indeed. Mounted in a Dansco brown coin album, this set contains 106 pieces.
Estimated Value $350-400

Estimated Value $10-UP

Commemorative Silver Coins

1190 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. PCGS graded MS-63 Premium Quality. Here is a coin that boasts ample mint frost and luster, and exceptional surfaces for the moderate grade assigned. Mostly white in color, we note peripheral gold toning on the upper obverse and lower reverse. This coin is probably undergraded, so prospective buyers should look it over carefully to make up their own minds as to its value.

Estimated Value $450-500

1191 1893 Isabella Quarter Dollar. NGC graded MS-63. Mottled gold and gray toning throughout. A highly appealing example for the grade, with a good strike and clean surfaces despite the moderate grade.

Estimated Value $400-500

1192 1900 Lafayette Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. Hazy luster that is just starting to tone on both sides. Nicely struck, with some details on the boot, and sharp elsewhere. Nearly a gem, with few bagmarks or signs of handling found even with a glass. This early commemorative is often found with numerous bagmarks and most were mishandled by the early collecting public, not so here, the surfaces remain quite fresh despite a century since its issue.

Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

1193 1900 Lafayette Dollar. AU-58. Nice luster and clean surfaces on both sides, with light toning starting to form around the edges. Typical strike, with the heavy die polish lines present in the fields which are usually seen.

- 1194 1921 Alabama Half Dollar, with 2 x 2. NGC graded MS-65. Sharply struck and lightly toned on each side. This one is in an old NGC holder, with the green insert. Examination notes clean surfaces and few signs of contact. Scarce this nice.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 1195 1921 Alabama Half Dollar, no 2 x 2. NGC graded MS-65. Bright and untuned, with strong luster in the fields and clean surfaces. One of the scarcer commemoratives to find in gem condition. Estimated Value $1,200-1,400
- 1196 1936 Albany Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Cloudy gray toning on both sides and very nice. Excellent surfaces that show few handling marks. A high end gem! Don't miss it.

COMMEMORATIVE HALF DOLLAR
MARKING THE 250th CELEBRATION OF THE GRANTING OF THE CITY'S CHARTER

- 1198 1936 Albany Half Dollar with the original paper holder of issue. The coin itself grades Mint State 65, while the paper holder grades Very Fine. On the front of the paper holder someone has written "10/15/37 $2.00 each" in pretty purple ink. Inside the holder there is room for 5 coins, with the curious paper tabs which held them in place, and these same tabs are the things that produced the unusual "tab" toning seen on several commemoratives (many in this sale in fact). The sulfur content in the paper is the active chemical which makes coins tone. This particular coin boasts golden toning on the reverse, and streaky gold on the obverse. This lot contains 1 coin and 1 holder.
Estimated Value $250-UP
- 1199 1937 Antietam Half Dollar. MS-63. A couple of minor ticks on the reverse, but good luster and light gold toning.
Estimated Value $300-330
- 1200 [1937 Antietam Half Dollar] holder only (no coin). The paper holder grades Very Fine or better. In pretty red ink someone has noted "Rec'd 9/28/37- cost 1.65". The committee names are on the front of the holder and few of these are seen anymore, most having been discarded as they wore out or were lost during countless moves. The holder appears to have been used for just one single coin, although it could hold up to five coins.
Estimated Value $75-100
- 1201 1935 PDS Arkansas Half Dollar Set. MS-66. A gem set delicately toned. The Philly is in a PCGS holder while the two branch mint issues are in NGC slabs.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

Commemorative Silver Coins

Estimated Value $500-600

- 204 1937-D Arkansas Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Lovely gold toning around the periphery with hazy silver shades at the centers, identical on both sides. Superb surfaces, and currently in an old green insert PCGS holder, from a collection held off the market for many years.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 205 1937-D Arkansas Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-66. Delicately toned. Low mintage date and usually only offered in the set.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 1206 1937-S Arkansas Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-66. Deep russet toning, deepening about the borders, graces the surfaces on both sides.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 1207 1938 PDS Arkansas Half Dollar Set Plus the Original Box of Issue! The three coins grade Mint State-65 each and the box grades Fine. An unusual find, most of these boxes were discarded years ago and are seldom available, the box is covered in a thin paper which has the appearance of oak, which shows some wear on the corners. The paper hinge is worn but still functions. Obviously, this box is fragile, which no doubt accounts for how few of them were saved! Inside the box is a dark blue felt holder with insets for the 3 coins. The coins themselves are all toned and appear to have never been dipped. Lot of 3 coins and 1 box.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 1208 1938 PDS Arkansas Half Dollar Set. Each coin is NGC graded as follows: P Mint is MS-65; D Mint is MS-65 and the S Mint is MS-64. Each coin is toned with speckled yellow gold shades over nice luster. This was probably an original set, as they are well matched. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 1209 1939-S Arkansas Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. Bright and fresh, with good luster and clean surfaces throughout. Hints of gold are starting to form.
Estimated Value $600-700

- 1219 A pair of Commemorative half dollars. Wow, here is a rare pair, a 1936 Bridgeport NCI graded MS65/65 and a 1922 Grant NCI graded MS65/65. We rarely see these NCI holders anymore, both coins show faint toning and should be inspected to determine today's current grade. I expect ole' P.T. Barnum would rather enjoy life today as much as he did during his years.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 1220 1925-S California Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66 Premium Quality. An especially bright and flashy example, and hence deserves a premium. As to the grade, well, MS-66 certainly says a lot, but this one seems to push that number. Take a moment to examine the pristine surfaces and not the absence of bagmarks or other detriments. Then notice how sharply the devices are struck and the exceptional quality overall. PCGS has graded 180 his high with just 61 graded higher.

Estimated Value $1,250-UP

- 1221 1925-S California Half Dollar. NGC graded MS-65. Exceptionally bright and reflective, with lovely and colorful shades around the periphery of the obverse, and evenly divided down the middle on the reverse, with the left side colorful, the right side cloudy, but bright.

Commemorative Silver Coins

- 226 1953 PDS Carver-Washington Half Dollar Set. Each coin is NGC graded MS-65. It is likely that these coins were from the same original set as they have matching luster and light gold toning. These are some of the lower mintage commemorative half dollars, and not all that easy to find in gem grades. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 227 1936-D Cincinnati Music Center Half Dollar. ICG graded MS-67. A satiny, frosty gem that shows an arc of golden toning around the periphery and minimal handling marks or hairlines. Hazy white toning on the balance of the surfaces. Sharp, and seldom found graded this high.

Estimated Value $600-700

- 230 1936 PDS Columbia, S.C. Half Dollar Set. This set is PCGS graded as follows: P Mint MS-65; D Mint MS-65 and S Mint MS-64. This appears to be an original set, the Philadelphia coin has tab toning with a gold streak across the obverse from the paper holder, with tawny gold on the reverse, the Denver coin has tab toning also and blazing luster beneath, while the San Francisco coin has darker gold toning on the obverse, but is bright on the reverse. Lot of 3 coins.

- 234 1936 Elgin Half Dollar. MS-63. Satiny luster with light golden toning.
Estimated Value $110-130

- 1235 1936 Gettysburg Half Dollar. MS-60+. Nice luster and surfaces for the moderate grade assigned. Untoned.
Estimated Value $190-210

- 1236 1922 Grant Half Dollar, with star. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright white and without toning, we note some trivial hairlines and scattered contact marks which account for the grade, but obviously this is a very nice example of this scarce date and variety. One of the most difficult commemoratives to locate in high grade.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

- 1237 1922 Grant Half Dollar, with star. NGC graded MS-64. Lightly toned around the periphery, with a drop of blue on S of STATES. One minor lamination in the left obverse field. Rare in high grades, the with star pieces are hard to locate this nice.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,500

- 1238 1922 Grant Half Dollar, with star. MS-60+. Nice luster in the fields and toned a rose gold color, with splashes of toning on Grant's hair. Examination will note minor hairlines, but they are not very detracting. One of the more difficult commemorative issues, and the with star pieces have always been coveted by collectors.
Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 1239 1922 Grant Half Dollar, no star. MS-64. This coin has exceptionally beautiful toning that ranges from deep gold to blue at the rims. Well struck by the dies, and we see few distractions from handling, keeping the surfaces near the gem class.
Estimated Value $150-175

Commemorative Silver Coins

- 1240 1928 Hawaiian Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. A bright and flashy example of this low mintage commemorative. This one has a touch of delicate gold toning around the rim, but none of the usual heavy patina often seen from storage in Hawaii for many years. Fresh luster throughout, and worth a good bid from a collector who can appreciate the quality of strike, surfaces and visual appeal of this coin.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1241 1928 Hawaiian Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-64. This Hawaiian has the usual dusky gold toning on both sides with a few widely scattered ticks from bag handling. One of the scarce commemoratives that is truly hard to find in gem grades.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1242 1928 Hawaiian Half Dollar. AU-58. This one has been cleaned and remains dull in appearance. Still a scarce commemorative, and most of these have been cleaned several times in the past, and this is no exception. We must recall that a great many of Hawaiian commemorative issues were stored and became toned with not the most becoming shades, so few survive in original mint-fresh condition. This one is nicely struck, and will probably improve over time.
Estimated Value $800-850

- 1243 1935 Hudson Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Bright with flecks of gold toning on both sides. Well struck and nicely preserved. Some iridescent toning on the reverse. PCGS has graded 99 this high, with 4 graded higher (all MS-67), so don't expect to find a better one.

Estimated Value $90-100

- 1246 1936 Long Island Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Deep russet toning on the lower obverse and upper reverse accentuates the devices. Boldly struck and outstanding in every way. If you are a commemorative collector (as was our consignor), you know how hard it is to find beautifully toned, high end gem pieces, and will want to avail yourself of this opportunity.
Estimated Value $800-900

- 1247 1936 Lynchburg Half Dollar. MS-63. Blazing luster and just a bit of toning on the lower obverse. Well struck by the dies.

- 1249 1934 Maryland Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Here is a beautiful example of this commemorative, we note peripheral sunset gold toning while the centers are generally bright on the obverse, the reverse with a dark area from the "tab" which likely held this coin for many decades. Bold and superb.
Estimated Value $450-550

- 1250 1934 Maryland Half Dollar. MS-63. Flashy mint luster and untoned.
Estimated Value $90-110

Estimated Value $150-175

Estimated Value $150-175

- 1261 1939-PDS Oregon Trail Half Dollar Set with the original paper holder. The coins in this lot grade Mint State 65. What makes this fun is that the original cardboard holder is included, with the familiar "tabs" that held the coins in place still attached and intact. The card is actually in nice shape, and it must have been carefully stored for years, without constant handling. Naturally, the coins are toned with lovely steel gray and gold on both sides, from years of storage in the present holder. Lot of 3 coins and 1 holder.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 1262 1915 Panama-Pacific Half Dollar. PCGS graded MS-65. A snowy white gem that boasts excellent luster, a strong strike and just a hint of toning around the periphery. Examination notes a small chattermark hidden in the folds of Liberty's dress near the rising Sun, but no others aside from the most minute signs of contact. - 1394 A selection of World War II Ration Books and stamps. The first War Ration Book Three is nearly complete (just 3 stamps missing from a single page, all other stamps present and accounted for), the next is War Ration Book Two which has a complete set of stamps included and next is War Ration Book One (1942) which has many stamps included on the original pre printed form. Last of all is a stamp display card with dozens of loose war ration stamps included for fuel and other "goods" which were subject to government rationing. During World War II, many foods and products were rationed so the majority of these scarce products could be shipped overseas to the soldiers to support the war effort. The first commodity to become rationed was car tires, in January of 1942. Victory gardens sprang up everywhere, but by the time the vegetables and fruit were ready for canning, sugar was rationed, and even canning became a problem. Luckily, these ration stamps remind us of those difficult days, when many common goods became downright uncommon, and were rationed. A most interesting group for the World War II buff or stamp collector. As to the condition, they are basically as issued with minimal wear or handling.

- 1540 A Handsome Gangetic Valley Harpoon of Medium Size. Ancient India, Uttar Pradesh, c. 1500-1200 BC. Harpoon of copper, with reinforced triangular blade of medium width on thick cylindrical shaft -- this tapering towards a narrower flattened base. The ends of the heavy blade terminate in longish barbs, with additional backwards-facing barbs symmetrically arranged along the shaft. Piercing at rear most barb for attaching head to handle. A very well preserved example of these scarce tools or weapons, with very fine two-tone green patina. Length: 12-7/8".
Estimated Value $600-UP

Ex Gangetic "Hoard," sold Sotheby's NY, 9-20/21-85, lot 334. Small hoards of copper objects of this type have been found for the most part in Uttar Pradesh, with additional finds from sites in Bihar and Madhya Pradesh, plus finds to the west in Pakistan, e.g. Shalozan, along with findspots further south in Bhagrapir, in Orissa, and at Kalhur. This and the following four lots are from the Sotheby group cited. Interestingly, one of which is a west Persian, or Luristan, import. According to Agrawal, harpoons of this type "could have been used for killing fish or big game, as shown in a rock-shelter in Mirzapur"; for type and discussion, cf. pp. 204-207.

- 1541 A Large and Imposing Gangetic Valley "Antenna Sword." Ancient India, Uttar Pradesh, c. 1500-1200 BC. Sword of cast and wrought copper. The narrow triangular blade having a sharply carinated reinforcing central rib and thickened tip, strengthened for piercing. The blade ends terminating in rounded barbs. The sword's tang of flattened rectangular section, a thick sliver of which has been peeled back to form a very sharp, rounded barb. It is this feature which earns this class of weapon its nickname. A few minor dents along the blade, otherwise with good green patina under cleanable encrustations. Pleasing example, and not often seen. Length: 19-1/8".
Estimated Value $500-850

World Gold Coins

- 1542 Combination War Axe / Club, from Iran, Luristan, N.W. Iran, found Uttar Pradesh, c. 1500-1200 BC. Axehead of typical shape, with elongated and angled blade with rounded edge. This with reinforcing ribbing at top, and crescentic ribbing along the bottom edge. The socket robust and further strengthened with ridges that taper into four spikes on the other side. Axe head nicely preserved, with darker green patina under earthen highlights. The blade with trivial ancient dent, but still sharp. The spikes at the butt show that this was a well used weapon, since the points have become quite rounded and dulled from wear. Length: 8-1/4".
Estimated Value $400-600

Ex Gaugetic "Hoard," sold Sotheby's NY, 9-20 21-85, lot 334. This item is of the "classic" Iranian type, of good hard bronze, and belonging to the second half of the date range, and thus placing this group rather late for its time period. For axe type, plus many of its decorative variations, cf. Moorey, LACMA, Heeramaneck Coll., 1981, nos. 25ff., there dated c. 1350-1000 BC.

- 1543 Lot of Two Bronze Blades -- A Robust Persian Spearhead, and a Slim Indian Harpoon. Luristan, N.W. Iran, & Ancient India, Uttar Pradesh, c. 1500-1200 BC. The two an interesting contrast of blade types. The Indian harpoon of the type seen in the earlier lot, but slimmer and smaller, and comprised of a multi-barbed blade only. This with six paired, symmetrical barbs (one missing where blade was pierced for attaching cord). Behind these, two thick, triangular swellings, one with an additional piercing to take a second cord. The Persian point, c. 1000-800 BC., is comprised of a narrow lanceolate blade, with wide, rounded midrib, and set on a broad and very thick, squarish shaft with flaring protrusions and sharply tapered tang. Blade edges well sharpened. The Indian piece a little bent, but shows overall fairly modest use, with pleasing medium to tan green patina. The Persian Very Fine, with moderate signs of use, and with deep green to dark brown patina. Length of harpoon: 9-3/4". Length of spear point: 14-1/2"; comes with black metal stand. Lot of 2 pieces.
Estimated Value $475-750

World Gold Coins

- 1555 China. 1988 Error 1 ounce Platinum coin struck in Gold! Yes, that's correct, this 1988 Chinese Panda coin was supposed to be struck in platinum, but was struck in gold by mistake. Apparently a few others escaped before the officials realized their error, and this is one of the few off-metal proof errors found from any world mint. - 1750 Interesting Asian "Primitive Money" Lot. A fun assortment of various "oddments." In the truly "primitive" realm, we see a Ngon-hoi, or "egg yolk" money from Siam -- a crude hemispherical ingot in base silver. More interesting is the "Arrow money," either southeast Asia or the Philippines. This a wicked looking barbed arrow, with long stem, attached to a bamboo shaft. Accompanying this is its case, a larger bamboo tube covered with red leather sheath and having fringed ornament. A step above these is the "Boat money" ingot from the Mekong area of Laos, and its similar counterpart from Siam, "Tiger Tongue money" (a narrow ovate ingot with beaded and raised patterns on one side). In silver, an small "chuckram" (0.37 g), billed as "One of the world's smallest coins." Likely northwest India, c. 18th-19th century. A group of five gambling tokens, in colored and glazed porcelain, produced by the Chinese gambling houses in Siam. Four with usual value designations in Chinese characters. One showing a seated sage, or propitious "luck" bringer. Also, a rectangular silver Ichi-bu gin, probably Ansei Era (c. mid-19th century). Also a well preserved example of Japanese "Cardboard money." This a narrow-shaped bill, of almost blotter paper-like texture, with printed designs and stamps. This accompanied with a translation of the bill's texts. Lastly, a piece of Mongolian "Tea Brick money," compressed tea leaves molded into a block with patterned designs on front and back. The money probably dating to the 1950's. "Funny" money may stink to some, but this one sure is fragrant! Sizes range from 1/4" at the smallest, to 24" for the largest. Lot of 13 pieces.
Estimated Value $200-300

- 1751 Another "Primitive Money" Lot, but African. The first item is "primitive" in its truest sense. A form of currency dating back to the Stone Age, and the beginnings of barter. The "coin" is a sizable lump of pinkish halite -- in other words, rock salt! These are rare to still find intact! More usual for the African region are the "slave bracelets" in cast bronze. The were both manufactured locally, or even made in Europe and imported to the continent. Two types are seen here. One a simple penannular ring of crescentic shape. This quite old and well patinated. The other similar, but a native-made bracelet, round and of crescentic section, with ribbed grooves running along its length. This also with green patina, and said to be from the Mende tribe, in the Sherbro area. Last are two examples of the most popular of African metalwork: brass weights form the Ashanti nation. These were used to both weigh out gold dust, and as a form of currency in themselves. One is cast into the form of a stork-like bird. The second a rectangular bar with raised swastika ornament. All items in very good to very fine condition. Sizes, from 1-3/4" to 4" in length. Lot of 5 pieces. Take a look, and we're sure you'll enjoy this little, instant collection of African art.
Estimated Value $100-200

Silver Dollars

Flowing Hair Dollars

- 1759 1795. Two leaves beneath each wing, B-1, BB-21, R-2. PCGS graded Fine-15. Perfect for the grade, this one boasts steel gray centers with darker color around the periphery. Nicely struck by the dies and without any handling problems. It appears that there are some very small rim ticks, but these are expected for the grade, and hard to see in the PCGS holder. One small area of adjustment marks on the reverse, through UNITED and a couple of other very minor scratches in the obverse fields are scarcely worthy of note. A coin that a collector will long appreciate.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 1760 1795. Two leaves beneath each wing, B-1, BB-21, R-1, URS-12. Sharpness of VG-7 but holed and plugged and repaired. This one is a filler, it has been holed and plugged left of L of LIBERTY, and with the rotated reverse die the hole lines up beneath the ribbon ends. A long scratch below and through the right wing of the eagle has been scraped down, and we note some healthy rim dents. Needless to say, not the prettiest early dollar, but someone will appreciate its charms.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 1761 1795. Two leaves beneath each wing, B-9, BB-13, R-5, URS-10. Sharpness of VG-7 but holed and plugged. This one has been holed and plugged through the L of LIBERTY which lines up between the ribbon ends on the reverse. Dark gray in the fields, lighter on the devices, and this coin doesn't have all that bad of an appearance, all things considered. A nice filler for a collector. This is a scarce variety and all of those seen show strong clash marks from the eagle's wings around Liberty.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 1762 1795. Three leaves beneath each wing, B-5, BB-27, R-1, URS-13. PCGS graded AU-58. One of the most common varieties of all bust dollars, but downright rare in this grade! PCGS has seen 21 this high, with 14 graded higher. An important type coin that is rarely found this nice. As to the surfaces, they are stark white with abundant luster and loads of eye appeal. Boldly struck for this variety, most of these are weak and show little hair detail, not so here, as Liberty's tresses are sharp and show excellent separation from her temple all the way down to her back. On the eagle, his breast has a some feathers, while the wings show remarkable and seldom seen definition. At a quick glance we were unable to trace this one, but suspect it could be found with diligent tracing. The familiar bar on the obverse is present, but fairly light, perhaps this one was struck after the dies were lapped and we note the top of Liberty's head elashed at the lower wreath. Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

- 1763 1795. B-1, BB-21, R-2, URS-12. ANACS graded Sharpness of Fine-12 Net VG-8 Scratched. Here is a problem coin, the obverse has numerous light pin scratches, especially around the face. There is also a planchet flaw in the field and touching the twelfth star. Steel gray in the fields and lighter devices. Inspection mandatory. Estimated Value $500-750

Outstanding 1795 Draped Bust

Enlarged

- 1764 1795. Off-center bust, B-14, BB-51, R-2, URS-12, PCGS graded AU-58. A magnificent coin for the grade that boasts a wonderful strike with full curls on Liberty and excellent breast feathers on the eagle. PCGS has only graded 9 this high, with a scattering of others in mint state, 22 in all. That's not many considering how many type collectors there are combined with the dollar collectors who need one! The surfaces are toned a rich golden gray, with glowing luster throughout with blue tones around the edges. We do note moderate hairlines, perhaps as much from circulation as past handling, but these are quite the norm. There is one jagged scratch through the back of Liberty's curls and into the field just above her ribbon, but it scarcely shows. Thought to have been the first of the draped bust varieties coined, with the new dies which employed the famous portrait of Anne Willing Bingham by Gilbert Stuart. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $10,000-15,000

Silver Dollars

- 1765 1795. Centered bust, B-15, BB-52, R-3, URS-12. PCGS graded AU-55. This one has beautiful color from many years of being stored in an album, with a colorful ring of yellow and green through the stars. As to the balance of the coin, it is dark to medium gray in color on the obverse, a bit lighter and more silvery gray on the reverse. Well struck save for the area at the bust tip where adjustment marks are located, this lack of silver caused OF on the reverse to be weak too. Bold on the eagle's breast, with most of the feathers in attendance still. The familiar die chip has just started to form on this one (located in the hair near the ribbon), and that makes this a very early die state. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $8,000-12,000

- 1767 1796. Large date, small letters, B-5a, BB-65, R-3. Sharpness of VF-20 but cleaned. This one was cleaned long ago, now with moderate hairlines present on both sides, but has retoned a steel gray with blue highlights in the lettering and devices. Excellent hair detail on Liberty and even breast feathers on the eagle. We see a small rim bruise below the bust, but no other problems. As on all seen of this die variety, there is a die lump touching the f of AMERICA, and this was caused by a bubble in the die steel which collapsed as more and more coins were struck. Therefore, the coins show a progressively larger raised "spot" where the bubble was located in the die. Similar die bubbles are seen on dimes (1796 JR-1) and other coins of the period.
- Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

Bold And Beautiful 1796 Draped Bust Dollar

- 1766 1796. Large date, small letters, B-5, BB-65, R-3, URS-11. PCGS graded AU-55. One of perhaps 10 coins graded as such by PCGS (there is some confusion over the various date/letter size combinations over the years), with just 6 coins graded higher. This one has cloudy gray toning on both sides, especially the reverse, with darker gold on the high points. As to the strike, it is extremely sharp, and the eagle's wings and body seem to leap off the coin. Clean surfaces for the grade, without the usual bagmarks or circulation ticks seen on others of this grade. Bright gold shades in the devices and lettering, which offset them from the fields. Excellent details on Liberty's curls, and the eagle's breast feathers are sharp. A common date, but this one is one of the very finest seen. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $8,000-12,000

- 1768 1797. 9 stars left, 7 right, large letters, B-1, BB-73, R-2, URS-12. Sharpness of VF-35 but slight tooling noted. This one has been holed and plugged left of the date, where a series of faint scratches, but the evidence is more available on the reverse where ED of UNITED have obviously been reingraved. Further, there was a planchet streak through the eagle's head to the rim left of OF and through the ED of UNITED. Perhaps the reingraving was to reduce the planchet streak, but instead many areas of tooling can be seen with a glass. This is all too bad, as the coin was nice to begin with, and would have been a high grade example, with a minor planchet flaw. Inspection mandatory and many would appreciate this coin's qualities and could overlook the tooling.
- Estimated Value $1,000-UP

One Of The Finest Graded 1797 10 X 6 Stars

Enlarged

- 1769 1797. 10 stars left, 6 right, B-3, BB-71, R-3, URS-12. PCGS graded AU-58. One of the more common varieties but rare in such a high state of preservation. In fact, PCGS has only graded 3 this high, with none graded higher! Zippo, none, yes, that's right, ain't any better ones graded. Note the frosty luster in the fields and golden hues and steel gray toning. Some weakness at the center of the obverse where minor adjustment marks can be seen and a dollop of gold color is located there and on the high point of Liberty's drapery. We note that some of the stars are not all that sharp. On the reverse we note similar color and toning, with surfaces that clearly state that this coin barely circulated. The eagle's breast feathers are present, with wear only on the uppermost few and his thigh below. His eye is strong, and the fields show ample luster. A foremost rarity in this grade, totally unappreciated for many years, and just recently, with 15 years of Population Report data in, does anyone finally care. Worthy of the finest collection, and certain to please any collector of early Federal Silver
- Estimated Value $12,000-18,000

Silver Dollars

- 1770 1798. Small eagle reverse, 15 stars on obverse, B-2, BB-81, URS-11, Rarity-3. ANACS graded EF-45. A scarce coin that is always in demand by type, date and variety collectors alike. This one appears to have been retoned with a yellowish gold shade and has average surfaces for the grade. As to the strike, it's better than normal as most are quite weak on the reverse, not so here, the eagle and his feet are sharp for the variety. Examination of the surfaces will note a slight pebbly appearance which was possibly the result of a long past cleaning or improper storage, nevertheless. Strong hair detail on Liberty and we note some breast feathers are visible with a glass on the reverse, making this a very significant offering to today's dollar collector. If you have been searching high and low for a high grade example, then take a look at this lot.
Estimated Value $4,500-6,500

- 1771 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse closed date, 5 vertical stripes in shield, B-17, BB-101, R-5, URS-7. PCGS graded VF-25. A rare and seldom offered variety, this coin sports the 5 fine lines making up each stripe in the shield to represent the red and white of the Great Seal. Most silver dollar dies show 4 fine lines, and this detail is enough for listing in the Guide Book as a separate issue. Steel gray in color, with mottled darker areas around the central reverse devices. The strike is average. On the reverse, the engraver used the star cross pattern, which is closer to the pattern seen on the Great Seal of the United States, and the stars are arranged in lines rather than arcs. One rim bump above CA of AMERICA, and we see two short parallel scratches below Liberty's ear as well as other general handling marks on both sides, expected for the grade. Struck from dies which were severely lapped, nearly eliminating the dentils on the left side of the obverse (this was done to remove a die crack through the stars on the left side, some of the crack can still be seen). The Bowers Borckardt auction survey notes just 22 auction appearances for the variety.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,800

- 1772 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, large eagle, knob 9, B-7, BB-95, High Rarity-5, URS-8. ANACS graded VF-20. One of the scarcer varieties of 1798, the Bowers-Borckardt Encyclopedia noted 23 auction appearances in their extensive survey of decades of auction sales through 1992. Of the 23 offered, certainly some duplication is probable, and in the last 9 years offerings of B-7, BB-95 have been few and far between. Perhaps 40 to 50 are known in all grades, most below extremely fine. The present coin has slightly mottled dark gray toning and has weakness in the strike through LIBE and the central shield which is common to other coins of this variety. We note several minor surface scratches on both sides, but these are not deep and a glass is needed to see them. On the reverse, there are some minor rim knocks, one above TE of UNITED and others over STATES. Within the lettering multicolored toning can be seen, and traces of luster beneath. For the variety, this is a very acceptable coin as most higher grade examples are tied up in variety collections and will probably stay off the market for the foreseeable future.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 1773 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, 10 arrows, B-21, BB-107, R-4, URS-10. ANACS graded AU-50. Frosty luster in the fields and toned with antique gold colors. We note staining on the upper left through the stars to LI of LIBERTY, and one hidden mark is located outside the fourth star. Faint hairlines from past cleaning and circulation are also present, but nothing else worth noting. Sharply impressed by the dies, and a slightly better variety, with just 44 auction appearances noted in the extensive Bowers Borckardt survey. A good coin for the variety collector.
Estimated Value $2,700-3,500

- 1774 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, close date, B-8a, BB-125, Rarity-2, URS-11. Sharpness of Fine-15 but the rim was lightly filed. This coin is a late die state example, with the heavy break through the C of AMERICA and two of the obverse stars very weak, as struck. Dark steel gray in color. The reverse rim has been lightly filed to remove bumps on the upper right, another bump resides over the U of UNITED. Otherwise, the surface are acceptable for the grade, and considering the die state, this makes for a great coin to study.
Estimated Value $400-600

Silver Dollars

- 1775 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, close date, B-25, BB-123, R-3, URS-10. Sharpness of Fine-12 but holed and plugged. This one has been holed right of the date and plugged, and some rim bumps have been filed down. Toned a dark steel gray, and acceptable for what it is.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 1776 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, wide date, 13 arrows, B-14a, BB-122, URS-10, Rarity-3. ANACS graded AU-55. A condition rarity that is seldom offered above extremely fine, this coin is likely high in the Condition Census for the variety. The surfaces are generally untuned, with ample white luster to tease the eye. Well struck for the variety, this is Bowers die state IV, struck after the obverse had cracked, but before the dies were lapped. We note some scattered tick marks, one at the inner point of star six, one just above the head below the I of LIBERTY, and a couple in the field above Liberty's chest. On the reverse, we note some strange parallel lines running through the shield in line with the D of UNITED to the I of AMERICA, these may be adjustment marks that were nearly hidden by the strike, or some minor post minting contact, but they are clearly not from the dies. An important high grade specimen that will no doubt be eagerly sought-after by collectors.
Estimated Value $3,500-5,500

- 1777 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, wide date, 13 arrows, B-19, BB-106, R-5, URS-8. ICG graded EF-45. Gunmetal gray toning throughout, with lighter gray on the upper devices that show wear. We note darker splashes of toning around the stars, otherwise the color is even. A glass will find moderate handling marks on Liberty as well as minor rim ticks, but these are not plain to the unaided eye. As a variety B-19 or BB-106 is scarce Bowers and Borekardt report 39 auction appearances of this variety. The obverse die cracked early (none have been reported without the bisecting obverse break), through the spine of the F in LIBERTY, down through curls to the I in the date, and the left side of the die is weaker than the right where the crack passes. Due to the location of the die crack, Liberty's hair is always a touch weak, and hence few are found in high grades. Identifiable by a small tick right of the upper point of the fifth star and a rim tick above the F of LIBERTY and another between RT, on the reverse by a field nick at the left ribbon end.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1778 1798. Heraldic eagle reverse, wide date, 13 arrows, B-23, BB-105, R-3, URS-11. EF-40. Lilac grey in toning with better than average surfaces for this coin. Note that the strike is sharp on Liberty's hair, and all but the highest curls show complete definition. As to handling marks, we see a few minor scrapes in the right field, and a shallow mark on Liberty's neck. Well struck on the reverse too, with full stars over the eagle and mottled dark grey to light gray toning. Free of rim marks or adjustment marks, and a very nice coin for the grade. The obverse appears to be a fairly early die state, while the reverse die shows numerous lumps and the lettering is drawn a bit towards the edge.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

Silver Dollars

- 1779 1799, B-8b, BB-165, R-3, URS-11. PCGS graded AU-58. As a date, 1799 is the most "common" date found in high grades of the bust dollar series. But this is relative, to be sure, as the current PCGS Population Report shows only 38 graded as such, with 44 graded in various mint state grades. In total, that's less than 100 coins! This particular one had steel gray and gold toning throughout over lustrous fields. As to the surfaces, they are very nice for even this high grade, and all collectors will love the coin. Further, it is a late die state with a healthy die crack through the legend on the reverse. Softly struck on the central reverse stars, which is unusual for a 1799, as most are found boldly struck. A rare opportunity, and probably one of the finest known of the variety.
Estimated Value $6,000-8,000

1799 BB-154, B-18 Condition Census Coin

- 1780 1799. Normal date, B-18a, BB-154, URS-7, Rarity-5+ ANACS graded AU-55. Here is a very significant coin for the advanced specialist. This is the second rarest variety of the 22 known die combinations struck during 1799, just behind the BB-151 or B-13 variety as rarest. Further, this coin is well up in the Condition Census for the variety, behind a single mint state coin, and an early die state coin (AU-55), this coin falling in the top half dozen and perhaps as high as the top three for the variety. In color, we note a golden gray tone over luster in the fields, and the strike is sharp and complete. Struck soon after the reverse die cracked between the ED of UNITED through the ribbon to wing of eagle, the crack is present, but not nearly as severe as seen on specimens struck later. We note a touch of multicolored hues below the eagle's tail near the rim. Identifiable by a small planchet flaw on the edge above the right side of the U of UNITED, and a small nick below the D of that word. On the obverse, we note a tiny field mark inside and above the third star, towards the ribbon end. Minor hairlines, as always, but these do not measurably detract.
This is not the Terrill/Austin/Fairfield coin offered in various Bowers and Ruddy sales from the 1970s, and it is far better than the Very Fine Ostheimer coins (1975 ANA) or others offered over the years. No prior pedigree information has been found on this specimen.
Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

Silver Dollars

- 1781 1799. Normal date, B-12b, BB-160, URS-11, Rarity-3. ANACS graded AU-50. This is a wonderful late die state example of this fairly common variety. It is BB-160 die state IV, with several die cracks on the obverse. For the die state, this coin is scarce in this grade, and would certainly satisfy even the most advanced collector. Minimal wear on the highest points of Liberty, with luster and light silvery-gray shades throughout. We note the usual light hairlines, which are present on the surfaces of this and virtually every other silver coin of the era. Clean rims and fields for the grade. The raised rim area on the obverse near stars two through four is not a rim bump, but a small rim cud which is seen on most of the late die state coins of this variety, and is frequently mislabeled a rim bump. This is a nice coin the collector who loves broken and cracked dies.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

- 1782 1799. Normal date, B-16, BB-158, R-2, URS-11. PCGS graded EF-45. Although the PCGS insert says "8X5 Stars" this clearly is not that variety, and someone simply used the wrong code number when this coin was being encapsulated. Steel gray in color with slightly darker tones around the periphery. Sharply impressed by the dies, as are most 1799 dollars, and all the stars, clouds and devices are clear to view. A problem free example that is perfect for a type collector.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 1783 1799. Normal date, B-7a, BB-156, Rarity-4, URS-10, EF-45. A scarce variety that is a bit tough to find this nice. Examination of the surfaces will note minor handling marks on both sides, and the coin is a bit more scuffy than average. Cleaned and retoned, as seen on virtually all early silver coins. Toned with pleasant gold and blue shades, with darker areas around the periphery and some lighter patches on both sides. Identifiable by a tiny rim tick above the R of LIBERTY and a hidden pin prick at the back of Liberty's eye. An intermediate die state with light reverse cracks through the lettering. An acceptable coin for this variety, in a good collector grade.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1784 1799. 8 stars left, 5 right, B-23, BB-159, R-4, URS-11. NGC graded AU-50. The curious feature here is the 8 X 5 stars on the obverse, this arrangement was only used on this die to make silver dollars. No other bust dollar die of any date employs this star arrangement. Perhaps the engraver had been working on an eagle die, or half eagle obverse die, both of which employed stars so arranged. Long listing in the Guide Book has increased interest in the variety, and few have been found in high grades such as this. In particular we note that this coin has silvery-white luster in the fields, and delicate toning around the devices. On the reverse faint vertical adjustment marks can be seen at the center. The rim is irregular above the T of LIBERTY, and this is likely where a tiny rim bump was filed off or a small planchet lamination resides, as the dentils are sunken at the rim. The surfaces show fine hairlines from either circulation or a gentle cleaning, but make no bones about it, this is a highly appealing coin and one that is seldom found in About Uncirculated grades.
Estimated Value $2,800-3,500

Silver Dollars

- 1785 1800, B-17a, BB-196, R-1, URS-11. PCGS graded AU-55. Bolender describes this coin as a Rarity-1, but it probably should be up a notch or two from that as they are not that plentiful. Here is a very high grade example. The surfaces are steel gray in color and the coin retains luster in the fields after limited circulation and handling. Bust dollars are very hard to find in these high grades. PCGS has graded 26 in AU-55, with 17 graded AU-58 above, and only 9 coins in various mint state grades of the date. When it comes to varieties, very few of any given die pairing are found in high grades. Over the past few years, the coin market has begun to recognize and appreciate the true rarity of these early dollars and has started to price the accordingly.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1786 1800 B-16, BB-187, R-2, URS-11. PCGS graded AU-55. Toned with deep shades of gunmetal gray with hints of steel blue. Well struck by the dies with no signs of weakness anywhere to be found. Liberty's curls are especially well defined, and only a touch of wear can be seen. There is a faint die crack through the last 0 of the date up to Liberty's chin curling over to the tenth star. Minor hairlines can be seen in the fields, but they are toned over and scarcely visible. Only 26 in this grade category, and not many graded higher as noted herein.

Estimated Value $4,000-6,000

Ex Kevin Anderson collection.

- 1787 1800. B-8, BB-188, URS-9, Rarity-4. ICG graded VF-35. A scarce variety and this coin is probably in the top 20 known. Toned deep gray color, and we note a dull hidden scratch below Liberty's throat, and another on her cheek, as well as some faint marks before her face and above in the field. We note a minor die crack through AMERI and above CA, as usual for the variety. In an ICG holder which incorrectly identifies this as a "B-5, BB-189".

Estimated Value $1,250-2,000

- 1788 1800. Dotted date, B-14, BB-194, R-3, URS-11. PCGS graded AU-50. This one has vivid blues and golds in somewhat mottled formations on both sides. The dotted date variety came about as the die steel apparently had bubbles in it around the date area, and as coins were struck the bubbles sank, taking the surface of the die with them, and causing the raised dots around the date and other areas of the coin. Examination will note some hairlines on the surfaces, and this one should be inspected carefully as the colors are pretty unusual.

Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

Silver Dollars

- 1789 1800. Only 10 arrows, B-15, BB-195, URS-10, Rarity-4. NGC graded AU-50. Rare in this grade, this variety is seldom found in high grades, and just a couple are known in about uncirculated, with none known in full mint state. Frosty mint luster on both sides, with a delicate golden tone which enhances the devices. A decent strike for this variety, which is usually found weak on Liberty's hair. A couple of very trivial rim ticks are noted for accuracy, on either side of the first A of AMERICA. Struck from a clashed reverse die, with the outline of Liberty's bust through OF, as seen on most. One other minor tick mark is noted on the left side of the eagle's breast. A rarity in this grade and well worth a premium for this scarce variety.
Estimated Value $3,500-5,500

- 1790 1801 B-1a, BB-211, R-4, URS-11. PCGS graded AU-58 Flannagan. One of the finest graded of the date, PCGS in their Population Report notes just 6 graded this high, with 2 graded higher (both MS-62). The surfaces are resplendent in their beauty, deep golden toning surrounds and enhances the devices. Liberty herself is bathed in silvery gray, and the periphery is slightly darker shades of gold. Perfectly matched and balanced on the reverse. For the date, the strike is pretty good, with separation on Liberty's high curls. Most of the original luster is present and this coin is highly appealing to the eye and will no doubt bring a strong price as such. This is the usual die state with the crack down through STA to the clouds, and out the first A in AMERICA. An opportunity to put away a truly rare and barely appreciated date. Identifiable by a tiny dig on the second S of STATES at the top.
Estimated Value $8,000-12,000

From the Flannagan collection

- 1791 1801. B-1, BB-211, URS-11, Rarity-3. ANACS graded AU-50. This is a rare later die state coin that is very scarce in high grade. The reverse die shows a sharp die crack through down STA of STATES, into the clouds, eagle's wing and AM. Another faint crack is present along the left wing top feather, first cloud, star below, three center row stars above the eagle's head, and fourth star near the cloud where it ends in the cloud above. Another feature which is very unusual are the dentils clashed through the letters MERICA from the obverse die. While not the terminal state of the dies with the heavy swelling through AME, this is later than most found. Frosty luster throughout with bright gold toning on the obverse and reverse, fading to reddish hues at the rims. Minor hairlines from circulation but no marks worthy of note. An excellent coin for the advanced collector.
Estimated Value $3,000-5,000

- 1792 1801 B-1, BB-211, R-4, URS-11, VF-20. Steel gray and natural in appearance. The obverse is clean for the grade, and on the reverse we note a small rim tick below the U of UNITED, another past the D, and a bump between the right wing and the first A of AMERICA. On the right wing there is some roughness, probably from a rubber band exposure. Die crack on the reverse through STATES into the clouds below.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

Silver Dollars

- 1793 1801, B-3, BB-256, R-3. Sharpness of VG-8 but holed and plugged. This one has been holed and plugged through the R of LIBERTY, with the repair not all that skilled as such things go. The coin has been cleaned and retoned, and has the surfaces of a jewelry coin, with moderate handling marks on both sides.
Estimated Value $200-UP

- 1794 1802, 2 over 1, narrow date, B-1, BB-231, URS-8, Rarity-4. ANACS graded EF-40. A rare coin in this grade and a variety that is seldom offered at all. Toned a medium gray in color, with hints of blue around the periphery of both sides. Typical handling marks, with some small rough areas hidden in Liberty's hair. We note that the rims and fields are generally well preserved, and no adjustment marks are present.
During 1801, several obverse dies were prepared and dated, and apparently not used. When 1802 rolled around, 5 different obverse dies were repunched with a 2 over the final 1. These five different obverses were paired with two different reverse dies to create five varieties of overdates (Bolender 1, 2, 3, 4 and 9 and Bowers-Borekardt 231, 232, 233, 234 and 235). In terms of rarity, only the B-9 or BB-235 commands a big premium, while the rare B-1 and B-2 (BB-231 and 233) are finally starting to be recognized as rarities in their own rights. This particular coin is tied for fourth finest in the recent Bust Dollar survey, published by the John Reich Collector's Society in their Journal. We note that this coin is conservatively graded, and buyers would do well to make up their own mind about the grade (as always).
Identifiable by a tiny pit at the top of the 1 in the date, and a minor tick at the center of the same digit, and a tiny dig just right of the upper loop of the B in LIBERTY. In the extensive auction survey done in the Bowers Borekardt book, only 39 auction appearances of this variety were noted from a survey of 701 auction sales through 1992.
Estimated Value $1,750-2,500

- 1795 1802, 2 over 1, wide date, B-2, BB-233, URS-8, Rarity-4. ANACS graded EF-40. Well struck, even at the centers, and without a significant problem. A glass will note trivial cleaning hairlines, but nothing out of the ordinary here. Nice surfaces and rims, the only minor problem are some light planchet irregularities on the obverse, mostly hidden in Liberty's hair and just above her head. Steel gray in color, with lighter gray devices. Similar to the BB-231 or B-1 in this sale, both are scarce, and likely at the lower end of the Condition Census for the variety. Identifiable by a small horizontal nick at the base of Liberty's neck.
Estimated Value $1,750-2,500

- 1796 1802, Narrow date, B-6, BB-241, R-1, URS-12. PCGS graded EF-40. Toned a medium steel gray and we note some stray surface marks, and a thin pin scratch through Liberty's nose extending either direction, but a strong glass is needed to see it. Moderate ticks on both sides, and one of the most common varieties of all bust dollars.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,700

Liberty Seated Dollars

- 1797 1840, EF-45. Flashy and bright, but we note some faint graffiti on the upper reverse which has been reduced to almost nothing by a profusion of marks in the area. Untoned and not a bad coin overall.
Estimated Value $300-350

Silver Dollars

- 1798 1842. NGC graded MS-61. Steel gray in color, with nice contrast between the fields and devices. Examination will locate typical handling marks, especially in the fields, but none are deep. Most of these early date Seated dollars circulated, and finding a high grade one can be a challenge.
Estimated Value $700-900

- 1799 1846. AU-55. Steel gray with some luster near the devices, and generally untoned. There are scattered spots on the obverse and others on the reverse, including a streak up to the left from the top of the eagle's head. A nice coin overall, and most collectors will be pleased with it.
Estimated Value $450-550

- 1800 1846. AU-50. Flashy and bright, with excellent luster and clean surfaces. A few hairlines, but they are not detracting. Perfect for the type or date collector who wants a steel gray coin with nice luster.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 1801 1849. MS-60. Moderate handling marks expected for the grade, but still nice and appealing. Untoned save for faint shadowy images on the obverse. As to the strike, it rates as normal, with slight weakness on the stars, but full on most of the other devices.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1802 1853. MS-64. Bright and untoned from a recent dipping, the color is slightly golden. Clean surfaces which show minor handling marks, mostly on the devices as compared to the fields. The usual faint hairlines are present in the fields, but they are expected on a mint state coin of almost any grade. One very light edge nick is noted over Liberty's head.
Estimated Value $7,500-10,000

- 1803 1859-O. PCGS graded MS-62. Blazing white luster and almost certainly from the bag of these that was discovered when the Treasury Department released their hoards in the 1960s. Moderate bag marks, but better than most seen from this hoard, after all, how would you look after being tossed around in a bag of silver dollars for 100 years? A frosty, brilliant uncirculated coin.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 1804 1860-O. MS-63 Prooflike. Toned a lovely steel gray in color and examination will find minor hairlines and a couple of shallow dents in the field left of Liberty's head. The fields are reflective, and this must have been an early strike from the dies.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000
- 1805 1860-O. PCGS graded AU-50. Medium steel gray in color with golden toning around the edges. While moderate bag marks are present, this coin retains nice appeal and luster, and most collectors will find it worth a good bid. In an old green insert PCGS holder.
Estimated Value $400-450

Silver Dollars

- 1806 1862. NGC graded Proof 64. Deeply toned with midnight blue around the periphery and lighter gray at the centers. Minor specks of heavier toning scattered around the devices and lettering. A rare proof issue, most of which are found in lower grades than this. Mintage of 430 coins in Proof, this one of the better ones to come down to us. NGC has graded 37 this high, with just 20 graded higher of the date.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 1807 1864. PCGS graded Proof 64. Mintages for the year amounted to just 470 coins in Proof. This is one of the better ones, PCGS notes just 28 have been graded this high, with 15 graded higher. The obverse is toned a light silvery gray in color, while the reverse is a cloudy and irregular gray in the fields, frosty on the devices. Needle sharp strike, and minor hairlines beneath the toning, as always, as well as a few areas of handling ticks.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 1808 1868. PCGS graded Proof 64. Deep steel gray in color, with shadowy areas in the fields that glow a luminous blue when examined under a light. The surfaces show virtually no signs of handling aside from minor hairlines, which are toned over nicely. Bold and beautiful in every way, this one will please most collectors. PCGS notes 71 have been graded as such, with just 13 graded higher (best PR-66).
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 1809 1868. AU-50. This one has a few scrapes and marks, but nothing you wouldn't expect on a large, heavy coin of the period. Nice gold toning around the edge, and well struck.
Estimated Value $550-600
- 1810 1868. AU-50 Cleaned. Steel gray in color but rather extensively hairlined from a none too gentle cleaning. Starting to recover with toning around the periphery.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 1811 1870-CC. EF-45. Nice for the grade, this coin has silvery gray color throughout and is well struck. Minor circulation marks from handling, and a small rim tick or two, but nothing deep to speak of. A good strike by the dies, bringing up all the minute details, with a complete LIBERTY on the shield and strong feather detail on the eagle. Mintage just 11,758 keeping this is the searce category.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,350

- 1812 1873. ICG graded MS-63. Examination will note that this coin is a bit dull from a past dipping or two, as the luster is subdued although the coin is still quite white. Nicely struck on the stars and eagle. A searce type issue.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Silver Dollars

Trade Dollars

Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 1814 1875-CC. MS-65. Full blazing luster in the fields and well struck, we note a few wispy hairlines and precious few ticks from handling, keeping this one at the high end of all mint state coins. Hints of golden toning are starting to form. Boldly struck for the date, and probably one of the best around from the important Carson City Mint.
Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

- 1815 1875-CC. NGC graded MS-62. Bright and untoned, this one has a good strike despite a few minor ticks, expected for the grade. A scarce date that is always in demand for the popular Carson City Mintmark.
Estimated Value $900-1,100

Estimated Value $150-200

- 1817 1876-CC. NGC graded MS-61. A touch dull from past cleanings, but this state of affairs is expected for a coin of this grade. We do find a sharp strike throughout, and most of the luster still present.
Estimated Value $1,700-2,000

- 1818 1877. PCGS graded MS-64. Frosty luster and lightly toned. Nearly a gem, with clean surfaces and delicate gold toning starting to form.

Estimated Value $150-200
- 1821 1877-S. AU-50. This one is unusual, the fields are prooflike, but it might be from a light polishing, after which the coin was cleaned with resulting hairlines in the fields. Still bright and well struck, and a good representative for the date collector.
Estimated Value $150-200

- 1822 1878. Proof 63. Toned with cloudy gray hues on both sides with evidence of sunset gold too. Well frosted on the devices, but with the usual hairlines in the fields slightly disturbing the delicate mirrors. Always popular with collectors, and an important type issue.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

Silver Dollars

Mint State 1878-CC Trade Dollar

- 1823 1878-CC. MS-60. This is a rare date, only 97,000 were coined and few were saved from this important Western Mint. Not quite fully struck on the high points, and most of the luster in intact. Light gold has started to form on the lower right reverse. If you have an album set of these, this would be a major addition and would knock out the key date.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP

Estimated Value $150-200

- 1829 1878. 7 tail feathers, third reverse. ICG graded MS-64. Deeply toned with familiar Kraft envelope (or similar) shades, and we can easily see the original folds in the toning from the envelope! Deep russet on the obverse, with lines where the folds resided for many years. The reverse lighter, and the lines quite obvious. Clean surfaces and quite interesting for the toned specialist.
Estimated Value $350-450

- 1830 1878-CC. NGC graded MS-66. An early strike here, which boasts frosty devices and slightly prooflike fields. No toning at all, and a beauty in every way. Liberty's cheek is especially clean, and the luster glowing throughout. Only 35 graded this high by NGC, with a single coin graded higher by that service, making this one of the finest to survive. An outstanding coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1831 1878-CC. PCGS graded MS-65. Deep dark gold to satiny silver in color on the obverse, the reverse with hazy toning and a vibrant arc of blue on the right side. - 1835 1879. PCGS graded Proof 64 Cameo. With above average contrast between the mirror fields and the devices, and hence the Cameo designation. Well struck and preserved, with light gold toning on both sides. A few trivial slide marks on Liberty's cheek, as usual.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1836 1879-S. Second reverse. NGC graded MS-64. Deep gold, blue and green colors spanning the obverse, and this one must have been at the top of the bag for many years. Fully struck, and lustrous beneath the hues. The reverse has light peripheral gold toning.
Estimated Value $250-350

Estimated Value $70-90

- 1840 1880-CC. 80 over 79, second reverse, GSA dollar. MS-60+. This one is mounted in the familiar black government holder and comes complete with the Nixon quote, Carson City blurb and even a paragraph about the overdate, which in discussing the overdate states: "As such die varieties may enhance the value of the coin, we suggest that you examine the coin carefully, or perhaps have the coin inspected by a competent numismatist." We like that part, "competent numismatist". The coin is bright and untuned. Breen-5551, VAM-4.
Estimated Value $250-UP

- 1841 1880-O. SEGS graded MS-64 "Toned". A choice example of this date that boasts delicate golden toning on both sides, probably from album storage over the years. Silver Dollars

Estimated Value $90-110

- 1852 1881-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Liberty's face has a deep fuchsia to gold area of toning which seems to have been splashed on from the lower left, past her ear the color fades to delicate ice blue over luster. On the reverse, we see just a bit of gold around the edge, otherwise all is white and pristine. Excellent surfaces and you might as well buy one of these with some color instead of yet another untuned one from the middle of the bag.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1853 1881-S. NGC graded MS-65 Prooflike. Deep ruby red at the centers with areas of gold and blue surrounding, fresh from a bag after decades of storage there. The reverse has light gold around the edge, and white at the centers. Prooflike fields, giving all these colors little to hang on to.
Estimated Value $800-1,000
- 1854 1881-S. NGC graded MS-65. Here is a wildly toned gem that boasts deep orange, green, gold and yellow toning on the obverse, a bit more organized in the usual fashion on the reverse. If you love toned Morgans, then grab this gem while you can.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 1855 1881-S. NGC graded MS-65. Here is one that has nice toning on both sides. The obverse is mostly white, but the upper left is strongly toned with blues, reds and golds. The reverse really got the dose of colors though, it boasts deep gold and red hues, with areas of sky blue intermixed. Hard to imagine all these colors on just one simple coin. And it's a gem! Take a look and see.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 1856 1881-S. PCGS graded MS-65. Toned with regal sunset golds across the centers and deeper reds at the top of the obverse. The reverse is satiny gold in color. A lovely toned gem to excite the color buff.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 1857 1881-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright on the obverse, with light gold at the rims, the reverse is a different story. Deep darkish purple and greens and golds in streaks, with the top right corner still white. Probably from decades in a bag, near the top. An amazing toned example of this date.
Estimated Value $200-300

Silver Dollars

- 1858 1881-S GSA dollar, MS-60+. This one is sealed in the large flexible plastic holder and comes with the original blue envelope from the Government. Bright white and a nice coin too.
Estimated Value $25-30

- 1864 1882-S. NGC graded MS-67. Deeply toned at the top of the obverse with shades of blue-green and red fading to sunset gold near Liberty's ear. Probably from a bag, where this one toned for decades. The reverse bright white save for a small area of gold at the bottom. Further, the surfaces are pristine and show few signs of contact. A toned and well preserved wonder. Color photo.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1865 1882-S. PCGS graded MS-66. This is one of our cover coins because of its wild obverse toning. In general Liberty's head is toned bright rose red with silver, while the surrounding fields are iridescent blue and green. Near perfect surfaces, as noted by the PCGS grade, and certainly a memorable example of this otherwise common date. The reverse, remarkably, is just plain white. Let's see what the premium is for a toned example is over just another white one. Color photo.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500
- 1866 1883-CC. MS-64. A nice example of the GSA dollars released when Nixon was President. This is another example of the dash below the second 8 in the date variety. In the Government black holder.
Estimated Value $80-90
- 1867 1883-CC. MS-63. This one is in the GSA black holder, and the coin is very nice. We note a recut date VAM-4, which is scarce. Flashy mint luster and untuned.
Estimated Value $75-85
- 1868 1883-CC GSA dollar, MS-60+. This one grades much higher on the reverse, all white save for an arc of toning on the lower reverse. Mounted in the GSA holder.

Estimated Value $50-75

- 1870 1883-S. MS-63. A resplendent example of this scarce date, the surfaces dance with radiant luster, and the coin is without toning and thus remains solid white in color. Random scuffs from handling, but nothing deep or distracting. Liberty's cheek shows minor contact in the frost, but is fresher than that usually seen for this grade. Boldly struck and perfect for the date collector.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200
- 1871 1883 NGC graded MS-64 and 1884-CC PCGS graded MS-64. Both are bright. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $100-120

Silver Dollars

- 1872 1883-S. MS-60+. A flashy brilliant uncirculated example with unbroken frosty and semi-reflective mint lustre; all is enhanced by some natural russet toning about the borders.
Estimated Value $500-750
- 1873 1883-S, 1889-S, 1900-S and 1901-S. These all grade About Uncirculated. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $75-85
- 1878 1884-CC. MS-60+. Semi-prooflike. Mounted in the familiar GSA black box. Nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $75-85

- 1879 1884-S. SEGS graded MS-62. "Light Toning" as noted on the SEGS insert. The toning is speckled and generally gold in color over the frosty, lustrous fields. There are some bagmarks in the fields and on Liberty's face, as always for this date, and we note that this one may be a bit optimistically graded by SEGS, and you shouldn't expect a cross-over from another grading service. For some reason, 1884-S dollars are seldom found without a bit of friction on the high points, and virtually all seen are similar to this coin or show more circulation marks and wear. An important coin that is really hard to find in mint state.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 1880 1884-S. PCGS graded AU-58 Premium Quality. Here is one that "just missed" a mint state grade, as it shows very few signs of friction, which can't really be called "wear". Clean surfaces and one small bit of toning on the lower reverse edge. Clean surfaces, and this coin would easily fit into an uncirculated set.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 1881 1884-S. NGC graded AU-58. Average surfaces for the grade, with moderate handling marks from brief circulation. Bright and lustrous in the fields, and well preserved overall. Scarce any better.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1882 1884-S. NGC graded AU-58. This one appears to have circulated as the delicate fields and devices show moderate handling marks. Frosty and white, and completely without toning at this time. Nearly impossible to find better.
Estimated Value $800-1,000
- 1883 1884-S. ICG graded AU-58. Sometimes we wonder if 1884-S dollars were struck in AU-58. They all seem to have light wear, and this one is no exception. Frosty and bright, nicely struck for the date, with the usual and expected handling marks.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 1884 1885. PCGS graded MS-65. Deeply toned on the obverse with shades iridescent blue, red and gold. Liberty's face is sharp and clean, and wholly toned with deep red hues. One tick over Liberty's eye. Fresh from long storage in a bag, where only the obverse was exposed to the air through the canvas.
Estimated Value $700-900

Silver Dollars

- 1885 1885-CC, PCGS graded Proof 66 Deep Mirror Prooflike. Flannagan. Here is one of the finest graded of the date, PCGS has seen 27 this high with just a single coin graded higher! The surfaces are stark white with mile high winter day frost on Liberty, and the fields mile ocean deep in their contrast. Hard to believe this coin could have been made as a business strike 116 years ago when the mints today can scarcely put out a bag without a dozen errors. The relentless march of progress and efficiency as observed through numismatics.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

From the Flannagan collection.

Gem MS-67 1885-CC Morgan

- 1886 1885-CC, PCGS graded MS-67. One of the finest graded of the date, with just 24 reported at PCGS, and a single coin, just 1 graded a notch higher. That makes this certainly one of the finest known/graded/available for your collecting pleasure. Snowy white frost on the devices and boldly struck. Exceptional surfaces on both sides, with one small mark near the left star on the reverse. Toning free, and downright radiant.

Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

Estimated Value $175-200

- 1888 1886, PCGS graded MS-67. This one must have been placed in a coin envelope for many years as the obverse has delightful colors which show the folds in the envelope! Superb surfaces and quite a nice coin, especially with so many colors.

Estimated Value $500-600

- 1889 1886, NGC graded MS-66. Glowing iridescent colors on the obverse which range through blues and golds over lustrous surfaces. The reverse is white. Clean surfaces and highly appealing for the toned collector.

Estimated Value $200-300

- 1893 1886, NGC graded MS-64. Here is deeply toned coin that boasts iridescent blue, lavender, yellow, green and whatnot all tossed in around the obverse. We even note a brush stroke in the left obverse field through the colors, perhaps from the original canvas bag. Bright on the reverse, with light gold around the periphery.

Estimated Value $400-500

- 1894 1886, PCGS graded MS-64. Deeply toned on the obverse with midnight blue at the centers and bright rose at the cap and mixed in over the surfaces. The reverse white at the center and deep gold at the edge.

Estimated Value $350-450

- 1895 1886, PCGS graded MS-64. Bright envelope (we assume) toning on the obverse of iridescent gold, blue and green, with envelope folds visible too. A few ticks from gem, but a nice coin nevertheless.

Estimated Value $300-400

- 1896 1886, ICG graded MS-64. Toned deep blue before Liberty's face with strong luster beneath and other colors streaking down her curls. The reverse bright, save for an area of toning on the left side. If you love toned Morgans, you're going to have a feast in this sale.

Estimated Value $250-300

- 1897 1886, PCGS graded MS-63. Vibrant rose red on the obverse, with a touch of blue on Liberty's bust tip. The reverse white.

Estimated Value $150-200

Silver Dollars

- 1898 1886-O. PCGS graded MS-62 Deep Mirror Prooflike. As noted in the PCGS Population Report, this is one of the rarest dates to locate in Deep Mirror Prooflike. Only 11 have been graded in all mint state grades by PCGS, and this is one of 3 in its grade category. The surfaces are very nice for the grade, and we wonder if PCGS wasn't a bit stingy in assigning this one only a 62. Grading is an art, and everyone's opinion differs to some degree. Minor contact marks in the delicate mirror fields, as expected, after all this was a business strike. Bright and untuned.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1899 1886-S. MS-60+. Untoned and quite lustrous. Moderate bagmarks, as expected.

Estimated Value $120-140

- 1900 1887. 7 over 6. MS-60 Prooflike. We note the fields are reflective, but as such were susceptible to bagmarks, which are present. The overdate is clear with a glass, and the coin remains untuned.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 1901 1887. NGC graded Proof 66. Smoky gold toning on both sides, light in nature and not disturbing. One tiny planchet flake is noted near the tip of Liberty's chin, and a small spot behind her cap, below UM of UNUM. Beautifully frosted on her face and head, with splashes of toning noted there and on the eagle's breast. Always popular with collectors.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 1902 1887. PCGS graded MS-65. The obverse is deeply toned with dark blue at the top which fades to vibrant purplish red, then yellow at the bottom towards the date with hints of blue again. Bold and beautiful, the reverse is untuned. Impossible to describe the colors and their respective arrangements. Color photo.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 1903 1887. NGC graded MS-65. In classic "old lady" fashion, Liberty is sporting blue hair with red highlights. Looks like she just stepped out of the saloon with a new colorful hairdo. Strong luster and areas of gold and blue mixed in on the obverse, the reverse white with a ring of gold. Color photo.

Estimated Value $800-1,200

- 1904 1888. ANACS graded MS-66. Well struck by the dies, and mostly white, with faint gold starting around the periphery, and hazy colors forming on the reverse.

Estimated Value $200-250

- 1905 1888. NGC graded MS-65. Stunning deep fuchsia and blue green toning on the obverse, the reverse nearly white with a touch of gold on the right. The colors must be seen to be believed. A scarce date, especially in full gem grades, this one particularly well dressed up. Color photo.

Estimated Value $800-1,200

- 1906 1888. NGC graded MS-65. Stunning red and gold shades with a streak of blue through Liberty hair on the obverse, the reverse untuned. A gem with clean surfaces and worth a premium for its colors.

Estimated Value $800-1,000

Silver Dollars

1907 1888. NGC graded MS-64. Bright white on the obverse, with vibrant gold toning at the periphery, but the story here is one the reverse, for here we have a radiant palette of colors ranging across the span of the rainbow and back again, generally horizontal in their organization, and all dance with the mint luster beneath. If you love toned coins, especially these hot-blooded colors, then wave your hand high when this one crosses the block and put aside some of the most vivid colors you'll probably ever see on a Morgan

Estimated Value $200-300

1908 1888. NGC graded MS-64. Deep luchsia on the top of the obverse, fading to brilliant blue green at the center and below. The reverse is white save for a bit of toning at the top. Excellent surfaces too, and a toned collector's delight.

Estimated Value $200-300

1909 1888. NGC graded MS-64. Bright white and lustrous on the obverse, but the reverse is the story here. Deep and iridescent shades on the right side fading to white on the left wing of the eagle, and back to sunset gold at the edge. Most of the colors line up in vertical order, and range across the spectrum. Simply stunning color.

Estimated Value $150-200

1910 1888. NGC graded MS-64. White on the obverse, with some gold at the edge, the reverse is toned with a wild fan of rainbow hues to complex to describe, ranging from light to dark shades and back again. The bidders will have to sort this one out.

Estimated Value $150-200

1911 1888. NGC graded MS-63. Bright white on the obverse, with totally the opposite on the reverse, for there we see resplendent reds and greens dancing over lustrous fields and devices. This one was reverse side up in the bag, where it lay for many years quietly toning away.

Estimated Value $150-200

1912 1889-CC. Sharpness of MS-60 but polished and buffed on Liberty's cheek. This coin was polished on the cheek in order to remove bagmarks, and perhaps in the surrounding fields too. One for the budget minded collector who wants to put this in an album, as it won't be graded by the major grading services in its current state. Satiny white in color, and a coin that should be inspected by prospective buyers. This is one of the key dates to the Morgan silver dollar series, and this one would be acceptable to some collectors.

Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

1913 1889-CC. AU-55. Here is a fine example of one the rarest dates in the Morgan dollar series. While this one was likely cleaned in the past, it was done carefully, and now the coin is toned with beautiful gold hues over luster around the periphery. The surfaces are better than average, and this coin would fit well into a mint state set.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,500

1914 1889-CC. AU-50 Cleaned. Dull gray from way too many cleanings, and now hairlined too. Still a rare date, and one that simply has been dipped to death, as we'd say down at the old coin shop.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

1915 1889-CC. ANACS graded EF-40. Even light wear and quite pleasing.

Estimated Value $800-900

1916 1890-CC. AU-53. Tawny gold toning and just lightly circulated.

Estimated Value $70-90

1917 1890-S. PCCGS graded MS-63 Deep Mirror Prooflike. A flashy prooflike specimen in an old green insert PCCGS holder.

Estimated Value $300-350

1918 1891-CC. MS-63 Prooflike. A flashy brilliant uncirculated example with a hint of violet toning adhering to the borders. Mirror surfaces are present on both sides.

Estimated Value $300-400

Silver Dollars

- 1919 1891-CC, MS-63. Bright and lustrous, with light toning starting around the periphery.
Estimated Value $225-275
- 1920 1891-CC, MS-61. Nicely struck by the dies with full breast feathers on the eagle and with clean fields. A few very light scuffs on Liberty's face, but not nearly as many, or as deep, as usually seen. Frosty luster and starting to tone a bit around the edges.
Estimated Value $180-200
- 1921 1891-CC, MS-61. Light hazy toning over lustrous fields, with moderate handling marks from bag storage over the years.
Estimated Value $180-200
- 1922 1891-CC, AU-50. Faint hairlines from circulation and still lustrous.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 1923 1892-CC, AU-58. This one has nice contrast between the frosty devices and reflective fields. Typical bagging.
Estimated Value $175-200
- 1924 1892-O, PCGS graded MS-64. The obverse is exceptionally clean for the grade, with satiny luster and a typical New Orleans strike. A scarce issue and a good coin for the collector who needs the date.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 1925 1892-S, AU-55 but lightly scratched. Sharp and bright, and the surfaces are clean at first glance, however, some ding-a-ling tried to "improve" a couple of small marks on Liberty's face by erasing them with a pin. This is scarcely visible, but can be made out with a glass. One that would fit well in a mint state Morgan collection that is displayed in an album or a Capital Plastics holder, as few would ever notice this little problem. Great luster and eye appeal otherwise.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

- 1926 1892-S, AU-53. A high grade specimen that has some luster in the fields, but we note a long scratch on the reverse hidden along the dentils either side of the left wing, and into the field by IN. Probably cleaned to a silvery white with the usual resulting hairlines, but good for a date collector who doesn't want to spend the money for a mint state example.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1927 1892-S, AU-53. This one has been lightly cleaned in the past, and is still bright and untoned. We see a few minor hairlines, which may be from circulation as much as from anything else. Downright expensive any better, and tough enough in this grade. An appealing coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1928 1893-CC, PCGS graded MS-64. A truly rare date that is extremely tough in this grade, and almost impossible better. This coin is stone white with good luster in the fields. Moderate handling marks are present, as expected for the grade. PCGS in their Population Report notes 217 graded as MS-64, with just 6 graded higher, all MS-65. This was the final year of issue for the beloved Carson City Mint, and not many were saved.
Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

- 1929 1893-CC, MS-60+. This coin is bright and flashy, but we note some hairlines in Liberty's chin. The fields are reflective, and the reverse is especially nice. One of the truly rare dates, and expensive in any grade, especially in Mint State. Check this one out to see if it would fit in your album today.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

Silver Dollars

- 1930 1893-S, VF-20. The rim along the upper obverse and reverse has been filed to remove some minor rim ticks, and is slightly rounded now, and therefore this coin should be inspected before bidding. The Queen of the Morgans, the 1893-S is one of the true rarities in this most popular series. With all the millions of dollars held over the years, no bags of this date turned up, and hence few were saved. During 1893, the United States economy suffered a sharp downturn, many people could not afford to save such a coin, and virtually all were spent. This one is no exception, the surfaces otherwise show normal handling marks for a circulated coin, but none are deep or distracting. Only 100,000 were coined, and most were melted under the Pittman Act in 1918. It is probable that only 3,000 to 4,000 exist, if the Population Reports are any guide, from the original mintage. Finding an acceptable circulated example is a real challenge for most collectors.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,400

- 1931 1894, NGC graded Proof 64 Cameo. A stunning cameo proof specimen with an even hue of light tone adding to its contrast. Popular as a proof due to the scarcity of mint state examples. Definitely a Premium Quality coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 1932 1894-O, SEGS graded MS-63 "Light Toning". One of the semi-key dates of the Morgan dollar series, and this one has hazy gold toning on both sides, with darker shades on the devices as opposed to the fields. Moderate handling marks, expected for the grade, with a minor cut on the lower neck of Liberty. The strike is typical for the date, with weakness on the upper feathers of the eagle's breast and shallowness on Liberty's curls over her ear. Good luster beneath the toning.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,900

- 1933 1894-S, PCGS graded MS-64. A near gem of this important and rare date, the surfaces are quite fresh and frosty, with satiny fields surrounding. Untoned and mint-fresh, and this one looks like it was just taken out of a bag of mint coins. There are some minor striation lines running vertically on Liberty's cheek, and a trivial scrape in the frost nearby. Rare this nice, and downright impossible to find much better, unless you have an unlimited budget.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 1934 1894-S, MS-60. Well struck for this date, with good separation on Liberty's curls, and full breast feathers on the eagle. Frosty and white, without any toning.
Estimated Value $300-350

Gem Cameo Proof 1895 Morgan

Enlarged

- 1935 1895. NGC graded Proof 65 Cameo. This is the "King of the Morgans" and the great rarity of the entire Morgan silver dollar set. Most found are in lower proof grades, and this coin is a wonderful exception as a full gem. Further, it is an early strike from the dies, and the design elements have a special "cameo" appearance with the unusually heavy frost imparted by the dies on the first dozen or so coins struck after the dies were prepared and polished. NGC recognizes these early strikes with a "cameo" designation on their grading inserts. Note the deeply mirrored fields and the snowy white devices on this specimen. This coin remains untoned aside from a hint of gold color around the edges. Boldly struck and superbly preserved, with few signs of contact and minimal hairlines. NGC has graded just one coin as such, and four have been graded higher, two as PF-66, and two as PF-67. If you demand a top quality coin for your collection, and can appreciate the beauty of this early proof cameo strike, then take a look at this coin and bid accordingly.
- Estimated Value $22,000-26,000

Silver Dollars

- 1936 1895-O. PCGS graded AU-55. Bright and untoned, this one barely circulated for a brief time before someone plucked out the rare date that it is and held it aside. Good luster and appealing.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 1937 1895-O. AU-55. We note this coin has been cleaned, and faint hairlines can be seen on the obverse, especially on the left obverse field and Liberty's face. Still bright and untoned, with a typical strike for the issue.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 1938 1895-S. PCGS graded MS-63 Deep Mirror Prooflike. Here is an extremely rare date to find in Deep Mirror Prooflike condition. PCGS has graded just 39 to date in various grades, this is one of 4 graded as MS-63, with 21 graded a notch higher, and 2 more above that (finest MS-67). We note the entire coin has a smoky gold color which deepens at the rims. As this is an early strike (hence, the highly polished dies creating the deep mirror fields), we note no signs of weakness in the execution of the coin by the dies. Full curls over Liberty's ear and full breast leathers are the rule. Examination will note minor hairlines in the mirror fields, and these likely account for the moderate grade. Liberty's cheek is clean, with no distracting marks or bumps. Most of the known examples of this date are from the Redfield hoard, but they tend to be bagmarked and weakly struck. A classic example of this rare date which is worthy of a strong bid.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 1939 1896. NGC graded MS-66. Bright white and untoned, with abundant mint frost on the devices. A common date in uncommon condition.
Estimated Value $300-400

- 1940 1897-O. PCGS graded MS-63. Frosty and white throughout, with a good strike even on the eagle's breast. This one resides in a tiny old style PCGS holder, and many will note that. Excellent surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $3,000-UP

- 1941 1897-S. ANACS graded MS-65 Obverse Deep Mirror Prooflike. An interesting coin, the obverse is Deep Mirror Prooflike, while the reverse is reflective, but more in the normal range. Untoned and quite flashy, with clean surfaces and appealing mint frost on the devices.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 1942 1899. MS-63. Nice surfaces on this scarce date.
Estimated Value $90-110

- 1943 1899 (4 pieces). These grade MS-60 to 63. Three are toned, one white. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 1944 1899-S. MS-60. Nice color and surfaces for the grade, white in color.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 1945 1900-O. O over CC. MS-60+. This one has been carefully enhanced by a process which smooths Liberty's cheek, which now has a faintly polished appearance. The effect is quite nice, and few would notice the carefully done work. Scarce and popular with the over Mintmark feature.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 1946 1901. AU-55. Silvery luster throughout, and without toning. A good strike and this one has the surfaces of a coin that spent only a brief time in circulation.
Estimated Value $75-85

Silver Dollars

- 1947 1901-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. Resplendent surfaces that are aglow with mint luster, and the fields and cheek are clean for the grade. We note faint hairlines on this scarce date, but these do not detract. Minor planchet roller lines are visible on the face of Liberty, as made and present on most specimens. As to the strike, it is typical, with good separation on all but the curl over Liberty's ear. A nice white coin in every way. PCGS has graded 128 this high, with just 17 graded higher.

Estimated Value $2,750-UP

- 1948 1903-O. MS-63. A pretty coin that has started to tone with a touch of gold over the lustrous fields.

Estimated Value $175-200

- 1949 1903-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Fresh mint luster and completely without toning. Scarce this nice, PCGS reports only 168 graded as such, with 112 graded higher.

Estimated Value $3,200-3,700

- 1950 1903-S. AU-58. Here is one of the rare dates of the Morgan dollar series, this particular coin is toned with gray and gold over luster on both sides. Well struck for the date, with the ever present weakness on the breast and curl over Liberty's ear. An opportunity to fill a big hole in your date set with a nearly mint state coin.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 1958 Morgan dollar group: 1883-O (2 pieces); 1885-O; 1898-O and 1904-O. These all grade MS-65. A nice lot for the collec-

- 1951 1904. Proof 63. This is the all mirror style peculiar to a few years at the Philadelphia Mint. Minor hairlines from a higher grade and bright and without toning on the mirror surfaces.

Estimated Value $900-1,000

- 1952 1921-D. PCGS graded MS-65. Frosty coppery-gold toning on the obverse, brighter on the reverse. One minor field mark near the fourth star. A scarce date in gem condition.

Estimated Value $150-200

- 1953 1921-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. A condition rarity in this grade, PCGS has awarded this gem grade to 178 coins, and just 10 have been graded higher (all MS-66). This particular coin boasts hazy gold toning over clean surfaces. Liberty's broad cheek has few signs of contact aside from microscopic ticks, keeping this coin at the high end of the grade category. On the reverse we note 2 very well placed, and thus concealed bagmarks on the eagle, and were it not for these, the coin probably would have graded even higher. Rare in gem condition, and worth a strong bid.

Estimated Value $1,250-UP

- 1954 A partial collection of Morgan Dollars, containing 71 different coins. This collection includes many different dates, including some CC coins and better dates, and grades from Good to Brilliant Uncirculated. Mounted in two brown Dansco coin albums, there is certainly a lot to work with here and with a bit of work this collection could be completed. Lot of 71 coins.

Estimated Value $2,000-UP

- 1955 Raw Morgan dollar lot. This pile includes 15 pre 1921 Morgans and 2 1921 Morgans, grades average Extremely Fine. A nice lot for the date collector. Lot of 17 coins.

Estimated Value $175-200

- 1956 1880-O (2 pieces), 1890-O and 1898-O. These grade About Uncirculated to Uncirculated. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $60-80

- 1957 Morgan dollars. This lot includes 1881-O; 1884-O (2 pieces); 1890-O; 1898-O and 1899-O, grades from MS-60 to 65. One of the 1884-O's is toned, the others white. Lot of 6 coins.

Estimated Value $100-125

Estimated Value $100-125

Estimated Value $75-100
- 1960 A lot of 64 pre 1921 Morgan Dollars. These grade Good to About Uncirculated, mostly in higher grades. Lot of 64 coins, including many different dates.
Estimated Value $500-700
- 1961 A small group of Morgan dollars. This lot includes 1901-O AU-58; 1902 AU-58; 1903 AU-58 and 1903 MS-60+. Most show light toning and are nice for the grade. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $60-80
- 1962 A group of 5 "S" Mint Morgan dollars. The following dates are included: 1878-S, 1879-S, 1880-S, 1881-S and 1882-S, and these grade Mint State 60 or better. All are bright and untuned. Lot of 5 coins.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 1963 A group of silver dollars, mostly Morgans. This group grades from Very Good to Uncirculated. Includes 32 Morgan dollars, and 2 Peace dollars. Several are nice coins, a few have toning and at least a couple were polished. Something for everyone, as we note a couple of slightly better dates at a quick glance. Lot of 34 coins.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 1964 Morgan and Peace dollar lot as follows: 1878, 7/8 Tailfeathers Extremely Fine; 1884-S Fine; 1886-O Very Fine; 1890-CC Very Fine but cleaned; 1891 Mint State 60; 1891-CC Very Fine but cleaned; 1894-S Very Good; 1896-S Very Good; 1901-S Very Fine; 1921 Morgan (2 pieces) both Extremely Fine; 19 common Peace Dollars Very Good to Extremely Fine and 1926 P,D,S each About Uncirculated to Uncirculated. Lot of 33 coins.
Estimated Value $225-250

Peace Dollars

- 1965 1921. NGC graded MS-65. Blazing white luster on both sides, with no signs of toning. Sharply struck for the date, with just a hair of weakness at the centers, and much better than usually encountered. First year of issue, and the only year of the high relief style made for circulation.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1966 1921. PCGS graded MS-65 High Relief. A well struck gem that boasts golden shades and hazy gray over lustrous fields. As expected, the coin shows few signs of handling, with an excellent cheek on Liberty. One of the few coins produced which most closely shows the artist's intent, with the strong strike on the devices and deeply engraved dies. Soon after 1921 drew to a close, the relief was greatly lowered by the jealous Morgan, whose own design had been supplanted, and coins produced after this year are far less detailed. A scarce coin in this grade and downright rare any better.
Estimated Value $1,500-1,700

- 1967 1921. PCGS graded MS-64 High Relief. Bright and frosty throughout, with a decent strike at the center. First year of issue.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,700
- 1968 1921. MS-63+. Lightly toned with no discerning marks.
Estimated Value $250-350
- 1969 1921. MS-63. Blast white and lustrous, with an excellent strike for this tough issue. As we know, the original concept of the Peace Dollar, as adopted, was this design, by 1922 the design was greatly flattened out, lowering the relief and striking coins that are uninspired by comparison. Here is a beauty, one all collectors will treasure.
Estimated Value $150-200
- 1970 1921. MS-60+. A totally white specimen
Estimated Value $100-125
- 1971 1921. MS-60. We note some faint rubber band burns on the obverse, one before the face, another at the back of Liberty's neck. Minor hairlines from a dipping, but well struck at the centers.
Estimated Value $100-120
- 1972 1921. AU-50. Dusky toning on both sides, but well struck by the dies.
Estimated Value $70-90
- 1973 1924. (8 pieces). These grade from MS-63 to MS-65. A small group of this date, all stored in old style coin envelopes, and most of the pieces have toning over lustrous surfaces. A common date, but fun to find with bright luster and pretty colors from toning. Lot of 8 coins.
Estimated Value $200-300

Silver Dollars

- 1974 1925-S. PCGS graded MS-64 Premium Quality. Nice luster and lightly toned for this date. Typical soft strike at the center, notable on Liberty's curls near her ear. Minor handling marks, but they are not too distracting, and this coin is conservatively graded. We note that PCGS has seen very few MS-65s of this date, only 24 to date, while there are 813 graded as MS-64. It is reasonable to assume that a better one would be far more expensive, if you could find one, and probably not as pretty and original as this coin. Hence, we recommend the present example if you are a serious date collector.
Estimated Value $500-UP
- 1975 1928. AU-55. This one has been cleaned in the past with the resulting hairlines. Some luster remains, and one of the scarce dates in the Peace dollar series.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 1976 1928. EF-40. Bright and lustrous, but there are some reeding marks on the obverse. A scarce date.
Estimated Value $120-140
- 1977 1935. NGC graded MS-65. Highly lustrous and satiny with clean surfaces for the grade. There is one reeding mark on Liberty's cheek, near the back so it's not too distracting. Starting to tone on the reverse with golden hues. A hand picked gem that most collectors will love.
Estimated Value $300-350
- 1978 A Peace dollar set, 1921 through 1935-S. This set includes one of each date and grades from Very Fine to Brilliant Uncirculated. Mounted in a Dansco coin album. The key dates are circulated (what a surprise). Lot of 24 coins.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 1979 A Peace dollar set, 1921 through 1935-S. This set includes one of each date and grades from Very Fine to Brilliant Uncirculated. Mounted in a Dansco coin album. The key dates are circulated. Lot of 24 coins.
Estimated Value $600-800
- 1980 Two partial Peace dollar collections 1921 to 1935. These two partial sets grade Extremely Fine to Uncirculated. Both sets are mounted in brown Dansco coin albums and both contain the scarce 1921, and one set contains a nice 1928. Lot of 31 coins.
Estimated Value $500-700
- 1981 A large lot of Peace dollars. A total of 101 coins in this group, not too many 1922 Ps, and many are "S" Mints. Grades range from VG to Brilliant Uncirculated. A nice lot for the dealer. Lot of 101 coins.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 1982 A complete Peace dollar set all PCGS graded MS-64 1921 to 1935. This is a choice set that was put away years ago, most of the PCGS holders have the green insert, so possible upgrades upbound. Each coin was chosen for its good luster and strike, and the set is well matched. Most of the coins in this set are blazing white, but a few have light toning starting to form. Perfect for the investor or collector who wants a lot of bang for the buck. An impressive set. Lot of 24 coins.
Estimated Value $7,500-UP

- 1983 1972-1978. Group of 5 Ike Dollars. 1972-D NGC MS-65; 1976 Type 1 NGC MS-63; 1976 Type 2 NGC MS-65 (2 pieces); 1978 NGC MS-65. Sold as a lot.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 1984 Four sets of Eisenhower dollars including Proof only issues. Each set contains 32 different Eisenhower Dollars and is mounted in a brown Dansco coin album, dates are complete from 1971 through 1978-S, and grades range from Uncirculated to Proof. Lot of 4 complete sets or 128 coins.
Estimated Value $600-700

Susan B. Anthony Dollar

- 1985 No Date Susan B. Anthony Dollar Error, struck 90% Off Center. PCGS graded MS-64. A very dramatic error, the obverse shows parts of three stars and some of the rim, the reverse has no detail. The edge is not reeded. An impressive example of this popular error type, especially so far off center. There is just enough in the three stars to quickly identify what the coin was supposed to be.
Estimated Value $450-550
- 1986 Three sets of Susan B. Anthony dollar coins, 1979-S through 1981-S. These three sets include the 1979-S Type I and Type II Proof issues. Grades from Unc. to Proof. Each set is mounted in a brown Dansco coin album. Lot of 39 coins (13 in each set).
Estimated Value $350-450

Patterns

- 1987 1855, Pattern One cent, J-171, P-196, Rarity-6. Nickel alloy or German silver. Plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 63. The composition of this coin is not known, but it is either German silver or a nickel alloy. Judging from the strike, this may be part nickel, which is quite hard and difficult to strike up when compared with softer metals. Minor weakness on the head, claw and feather tips, and on part of the reverse wreath, all of which show evidence of an uneven strike. We note some minor spots around the edges, and light streaky toning on both sides. As to the rarity of this coin, it is the finest graded of just 5 seen by PCGS, so don't hold back if you need this pattern issue. Perhaps a bit rarer than reported?
- Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

- 1988 1863 Pattern small cent, J-299, P-359, R-3, Plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 65 Red and Brown. Faded mint red in color and with typical surfaces expected for a gem proof. Spot free and very nice indeed.
- Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

- 1989 1869, Pattern Three Cent Nickel, J-676, P-753, R-5, Nickel, plain edge. PCGS graded Proof 63. This coin has slightly cloudy toning and moderate hairlines which account for the grade. There is a long planchet lamination from the tip of Liberty's nose down to the U of UNITED. Bright and otherwise untuned
- Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 1990 1870, Pattern Quarter dollar, J-879, P-976, R-7, Copper, plain edge. NGC graded Proof 63 Red. This is one of the beautiful "Standard" silver issues, struck in copper, and features a seated Liberty on the obverse holding a shield in one hand and an olive branch in the other, note the pole with cap of freedom behind. On the reverse, a complex and bold wreath of farm products with 25 CENTS at the center. Minor hairlines account for the grade, with a couple of spots on the obverse, but they are small. Perhaps 10 are known, this being the only red one graded that we know of.
- Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

- 1991 1879, Pattern Silver Dollar, J-1618, P-1813, R-3, Silver, Metric Dollar, Reeded edge. NGC graded Proof 64. Deep gray in color and well struck. We note a nick on the N of ONE and a couple more past the word on the reverse. Minor hairlines.
- Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

Territorial Gold Coins

Mint State 1849 Norris, Gregg & Norris Half Eagle, Plain Edge

Enlarged

1992 1849 Norris, Gregg & Norris (San Francisco) $5 Gold. Plain edge, K-2. PCGS graded MS-62. One of the finest graded of this rare and desirable issue, PCGS notes only 2 have been graded this high, with a single coin graded higher as MS-63. As to the strike, it is full and sharp, with the bold 5 on the shield easily visible, and the feathers full and complete on the eagle. Moderate handling marks on the somewhat prooflike surfaces, as expected for the grade. It is believed that Norris, Gregg & Norris was the first firm to issue gold coins in California in 1849. The coin states that it was made without alloy, hence was pure gold, and no doubt very soft as is pure gold's nature. We can only suspect that this one was set aside soon after it was struck, or perhaps lost and recovered many years later, and thus remains in mint state condition. Certainly a premier rarity in this grade (and any grade for that matter!) and worthy of the finest Territorial gold collection. Color photo.

Estimated Value $20,000-UP

Rare 1849 Moffat & Co. Half Eagle

1993 1849 Moffat & Co. (San Francisco) $5 Gold. ICG graded MS-62. This appears to be Kagin-4, but struck from severely rusted dies, which have been lapped to reduce the rust, nearly removing the star above Liberty's head. One of the first issuers of gold in the wild days of the California Gold Rush, this important specimen is sure to please the collector for its fresh surfaces. The grade is optimistic, but with the coin struck from worn, cracked and rusted dies, these things are a matter of opinion. As always, and we can't say it often enough, please make up your own mind as to the grade (read value here) of this and all coins prior to bidding.

Estimated Value $7,500-UP

Beautiful 1851 "SLUG". Lettered Edge, 50 On Reverse

1994 1851 U.S. Assay Office $50 "slug", 887 THOUS. Lettered edge, 50 on reverse, K-4, R-5. EF-45. A rare coin that is seldom found in any grade. This particular piece boasts lovely surfaces for such a big coin, sure there are some scattered ticks and marks, but none of consequence. We note some planchet irregularities below the right wing of the eagle. One of the most popular with the lettered edge, and the $50 on the central reverse in the enticing engine turned design. Note that the huge corners are much better than usually encountered. Less than 40 are known, and this is one of the classic Territorial gold rarities. Some traces of original mint lustre still evident about the devices.

Estimated Value $22,500-27,500

Discovery 1850 Baldwin & Co. Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 1995 1850 Baldwin & Co. (San Francisco) $5 Gold, K-2. PCGS graded AU-55. Here is a wonderful coin! This exact specimen was found off Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco in 2000 by a couple with a metal detector. The coin was unearthed when several buildings were being shored up alongside the water, and the sea water had been diverted in order to complete the work. Using their metal detector, several coins were found, including this magnificent and historic coin. The surfaces show a lovely coppery gold color, and there are no significant marks or bumps. We can detect no signs that the coin was buried or underwater. According to the finder, the coin was buried in several inches of mud, so the tide would not have affected the surfaces. PCGS has only graded 2 as such, with 3 others in AU grades higher, and a single Mint State-61 coin at the top of their Population Report. An excellent companion to the Vaquero $10 we have in this same sale! Don't miss either one. Accompanied with a copy of the newspaper article reporting this discovery. Color photo.

Territorial Gold Coins

One of the Finest 1850 Baldwin & Co. Vaquero Eagles

Enlarged

- 1996 1850 Baldwin & Co. (San Francisco) $10 Gold, Kagin-3, Rarity-6. PCGS graded MS-64. One of the finest graded by PCGS, in fact just 2 have been seen this high at PCGS, with a total of 10 seen at that service. This is the famous Harry Bass, Jr., coin, from Bowers and Merena's Part III Bass sale, lot 756. Certainly the most recognizable and one of the most popular coins of the entire Territorial gold series, the Vaquero, or horseman design, captures the imagination of any numismatist. The reverse design was similar to the existing United States eagles. Curiously, because the obverse was so recognizable, the coin did not find the wide acceptance as a design more closely resembling the regular issue gold coins of the United States, and hence the obverse die was changed in 1851 to resemble a Liberty Eagle. This particular example boasts stunning luster, fully struck devices, and as noted in the Bass Sale, we would not be surprised if this was some sort of special striking as the surfaces, strike and quality as so far above and beyond what is normally encountered. A foremost opportunity to put away a truly rare coin that may not be repeated for years to come. The fascinating history of this coin is well described in the Harry Bass, Jr. Part III catalog, and we refer interested parties to that sale. Color photo.

The banking firm of Baldwin and Company was effectively crushed by a wandering eccentric who called himself James King of William. Mr. King was a muckracking political journalist from Washington D.C. for the Daily Globe until he realized better opportunities were to be found in San Francisco with the beginnings of the Gold Rush. Thus King found his way to the mining district by late 1848. Being a sagacious fellow, King soon determined that digging for gold was hard work, and it would be far easier to buy, sell or lend gold dust than to dig for it. He became one of the partners in the banking firm of Samuel J. Hensley and in several successive firms, buying gold dust to sell to coiners at high profits, starting first at Sutter's Mill, then Sacramento, and later on his own in San Francisco. However, his bank manager embezzled everything, leaving him penniless.

King was envious of the profits being made by the likes of Baldwin & Co. and other private coiners of the period, and thus hatched a plot to make himself rich at their expense. King knew, as did everyone else, that the private coiner's output tended to run slightly below full bullion value, and unlike everyone else, King decided to define this as dishonesty instead of seigniorage or technical limitations. Accordingly, on March 21, 1851 King sent a parcel of Baldwin, Schultz and DuBosq coins to his friend Augustus Humbert, United States Assayer, for testing. Predictably, the assays rated them from 97% to 99% of face value. On March 28, 1851 King sent the figures to all local newspapers, creating one of the biggest scandals of the period, and setting into motion corrosive attacks on these private firms. Thereafter, bankers (like King) would only pay 80¢ on the dollar for private gold coins, at which manifestly absurd discount they bought them in quantity from panicked holders, to resell at a high profit to Humbert for recoinage into octagonal $50's. This action unquestionably worsened the economic depression which immediately followed, and may have caused it, by creating a coin shortage and destroying public confidence. Not that King's action brought him the vast wealth he craved: He continued in the banking business only to fail again and again. King returned to what Kagin calls "crusading journalism" with attacks on various immorality and corruption. His final attack was on County Supervisor James P. Casey, who King exposed as having been in Sing Sing Prison prior to his governmental post. Casey was so enraged he shot King on May 14, 1856, and King died a few days later. The outraged citizens formed a vigilante committee and dragged Casey out of jail (where he had run for protection), and hung him from the nearest tree. (See Breen's Encyclopedia and Kagin's work on Territorial Gold coins for more).

Territorial Gold Coins & Silver Bars

Rare 1855 Wass, Molitor & Co. $20 Small head

- 1997 1855 Wass, Molitor & Co. (San Francisco) $20 Gold. Small head, K-7, R-5. AU-55 Cleaned. A rare coin in any grade, this particular one has been cleaned sometime in the past, and the color has some tiny specks in the right obverse field. As to the strike, it is normal, sharp on Liberty, but weak on the eagle. We also note a small mark above the top leaf on the branch of the reverse, and this could be used to trace this specimen in the future. Toned a coppery gold in color now, and despite this coins problems, it is still a rare and seldom offered issue.
Estimated Value $15,000-UP

- 1998 1861 J.J. Conway $5 Restrike in "Goldline". MS-65. This coin was struck with the original die used to make the extremely rare $5 gold piece of J.J. Conway, of Georgia Gulch, Colorado. These restrikes were made around 1956 by the Colorado Historical Society (Breen) although the envelope notes 3,000 were struck in which this came. Nice surfaces, and the central obverse has been partially punched out (as made?). A later curiosity for the collector.
Estimated Value $50-UP

Silver Bars

- 1999 4.01 ounce silver bar from Arizona Assay Office, .925 fine, EF-40. This somewhat lopsided bar is serial number 1161S and the back notes it contains 3.71 ozs. of fine silver
Estimated Value $100-125
- 2000 4.85 ounce silver bar .925 fine from the Arizona Assay Office, EF-40. This bar is serial number 1162S, and the back notes 4.48 ounces of Fine silver. Lightly toned
Estimated Value $100-125

- 2001 4.72 ounce silver bar from Arizona Assay Office, EF-40. A nice bar, stamped .925 fine, and serial number 1163S. On the back, the bar is stamped 4.36 Oz. Fine (thus the bar contains 4.36 ounces of pure silver). Always in demand.
Estimated Value $100-125
- 2002 4.82 Ounce Arizona Assay Office silver bar, .925 fine, EF-40. This silver bar is serial number 1160S and is basically as issued. Stamped on the back 4.46 ozs. of fine silver.
Estimated Value $100-125

Gold Dollars

$1 Liberty Head

- 2003 1849. Open wreath. MS-64. Lovely orange gold toning on both sides and we note excellent surfaces and a good strike.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 2004 1851. PCGS graded MS-64. A very well struck specimen with all the hair detail on Liberty clearly defined. This beauty explodes with golden-orange mint color.
Estimated Value $900-1,000
- 2005 1851. VF-35. Nice color and surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $100-115
- 2006 1852. PCGS graded MS-62. Nice color and surfaces, with ample luster in the fields.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 2007 1852-D. AU-53. Nearly mint state as with full curls on Liberty and strong lettering all around the reverse. Moderate circulation marks from brief handling, and with dull gold color over luster.
Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

- 2008 1853. PCGS graded MS-64. This one has a nice fresh face on Liberty, and good luster in the fields. Sharp on the stars and other devices. One for the type collector.
Estimated Value $800-900
- 2009 1853. EF-40. One bump in the field below Liberty's neck.
Estimated Value $110-120

- 2010 1853 and 1855. The 1853 grades sharpness of Very Fine but repaired, and the 1855 grades sharpness of Extremely Fine but repaired. Both are nice for the grade, and the repairs are pretty minor. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2011 1854. Type 1. PCGS graded MS-61. A few fritzies in the left obverse field, but sharp overall. The 85 of the date show doubling below.
Estimated Value $200-250

- 2012 1854-D. PCGS graded AU-58. One of the finest graded of this rare date. Only 2,935 were coined as the country slipped into Civil War. Most of those were hoarded or lost, as the South went through the brunt of the ensuing war. This one retains much of the original mint color and has gorgeous rich gold colors on both sides. PCGS has graded 6 this high, with just 8 graded higher (best MS-62) so don't expect to find one with much more eye appeal, even if it is technically uncirculated. Well struck and well preserved, and hard to imagine a better one given the circumstances.
Estimated Value $5,500-6,500

Type II Gold Dollars

Superb Gem 1854 Type II Gold Dollar

Enlarged

2013 1854 Type 2. NGC graded MS-66. Superb! One of the very finest graded of this important date and type, and one of the most difficult of all series to find in true gem grades. The type II Indian gold dollar was struck in limited numbers as the Civil War loomed on the horizon, few were saved and almost all of those found today are circulated. NGC has graded just 4 this high, with a single coin graded higher, similar at PCGS where 6 have been graded as MS-66 and just 2 have been graded higher. Examination shows superb luster and a strong strike. All design elements are sharp, and the dies do not show clash marks. This is one of the rarest and most sought-after type coins, and one that has been a stellar rarity for decades as precious few have ever been found even approaching this grade. If you demand a show stopper, then here it is. Color photo.

Estimated Value $40,000-UP

Gold Dollars

Gem 1854 Type II Dollar

Enlarged

2014 1854 Type 2. PCGS graded MS-65. One of the American classics when it comes to rarity on this short-lived type coin. The Type II Indian gold coin has always been in feverish demand the past three decades by type and date collectors. Note the overlay of luster spread across the coin, with a seductive satiny reddish tint of colors that promote contrast between the flatness of the fields to the raised lettering and devices. On the obverse, the coin boasts a golden yellow hue which reflects back the harsh light used for critical examination. Turning to the reverse, we see similar satiny yellow fields with crisply struck devices, and surrounding the wreath is a lilac-orange-red-green combination of colors that dance when examined in the light with a youthfulness that belies the passage of 147 years since this one was struck.

As always, the dies show clash marks on both the obverse and reverse, as many times the dies came together without a planchet as the feeding machinery frequently jammed on these tiny planchets. The vast majority of these show clash marks. Scrutiny finds little to fault, sure there are some hidden hairlines and ticks which blend into luster, but this is clearly one of the few gems that have been graded during the past 15 years since PCGS began grading coins. The March 2001 PCGS Population Report shows only 34 graded as MS-65, with a scant 8 graded higher for this date. Certainly not many to go around to all the eager collectors out there attempting to put together gem type collections. Color photo.

Estimated Value $30,000-35,000

2015 1854 Type 2. NGC graded MS-62. A rare type coin that is seldom offered in mint state grades. This one has a wobbly scrape before the Indian's forehead, but the scrape is very shallow and can only be seen at certain angles when examined. Bright luster and struck from clashed dies, as were most.

Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

2016 1854 Type 2. NGC graded MS-61. This one was struck with clashed dies and we note some weakness at the centers. Moderate hairlines in the fields.

Estimated Value $2,250-2,750

Gold Dollars

- 2017 1854 Type 2. Sharpness of MS-60 but damaged. This coin was probably used to turn a screw in the distant past as there is minor rim damage at OF on the obverse, and some file marks on the reverse rim at the same location. Nice luster and otherwise a nice coin.
Estimated Value $1,000-UP

- 2018 1854 Type 2 Mint error, rim clipped planchet. PCGS graded AU-58. The clip is small and appears to be located at about 9:30 on the obverse (it's hard to tell in the PCGS holder) as we see the dentils get a bit smaller in that area. Well struck from lightly clashed dies, and note the luster in the fields. This is the scarce "Type II" variety.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP

- 2019 1855 Type 2. MS-60. Struck from clashed dies, as were most of these, and with nice surfaces. Luster in the fields and a rare type coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 2020 1855 Type 2. AU-58. Well struck by the usual clashed dies, the only weakness in on the 8 in the date and the LL above, frequently seen. Still lustrous and with decent surfaces. An expensive type coin.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

Type III Gold Dollars

- 2021 1861. NGC graded MS-64. Good color and luster, although there are some rough areas from the dies (as struck) on the lower obverse.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250

- 2022 1871. MS-60+. A well struck specimen with partial wire rims and fully blazing proof-like surfaces reminiscent of a proof. Only 3900 business strikes made.
Estimated Value $750-UP

Gold Dollars

Enlarged

- 2023 1883. PCGS graded Proof 65. 1883 saw America in a period of growth. The Civil War was now a generation old, and the current youth reflected high energy and enjoyed the excellent prospects not seen in decades. Gold dollar proof orders were high in 1883, up from prior years to a total of 207 coins. Of these, only 5 have been graded as PR-65 by PCGS, with 10 graded higher. That puts this coin in the top ten percent of those coined, and one of the prettiest frosted proofs you're likely to find. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

- 2024 1884. NGC graded Proof 64 Cameo. This is the recut date which Breen notes is scarce. Gorgeous rich gold in color, with excellent frost on the devices. NGC has graded 28 of these as Cameo Proofs, this one of 4 in its grade category, with the balance graded higher. Perfect for the type collector who wants a lot of quality for a less than staggering price.
- Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 2025 1886. PCGS graded Proof 66. A gorgeous coin for the grade, and one of just 11 graded this high by PCGS, with a single coin graded higher by a point. Although 1,016 were coined in Proof, PCGS has only graded a total of 69 coins, where are all the others? It is very probable that most were melted, spent or lost, as the number graded by PCGS is usually around one half the proof mintage on other dates. Something to think about when formulating your bid. Rich orange gold in color and superb quality. Hairlines are at a minimum, and we note a lint mark up from the right end of the wreath towards the left to the rim above, and a straight tiny line connecting the two 8s in the date. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $9,000-13,000

Early $2.50 Gold

Enlarged

- 2026 1804. 14 star reverse. PCGS graded AU-58. A beautiful example of this scarce date and type! The surfaces show moderate handling marks in the fields, but none are deep or distracting. Fully struck on the devices, with good separation on Liberty's curls and just a touch of wear on the tips of the eagle's wing feathers and tail. Bold stars in the field above the eagle, complete with the curious 14 star count, apparently Robert Scot was trying to employ the old "star cross" pattern, with the stars in straight lines instead of three natural arcs, and miscounted, adding an additional star. As the reverse dies were the exact same size as dimes of the period, many were used to coin quarter eagles and dimes over the span of several years, as was the practice at the Philadelphia Mint at the time. Faint adjustment marks can be seen with a strong glass, a few on the shield and through the rim above the legend. PCGS has graded 9 this high, with just 12 graded higher (best MS-63).

Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

Choice AU-58 1805 Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 2027 1805. PCGS graded AU-58. Reflective fields from the original die polish near the stars, the balance of the fields with minute handling marks from limited circulation. There are light adjustment marks down through Liberty's curls, but they are somewhat hidden by her cascading hair. Nicely struck by the dies, with no weakness on the obverse, although weak at the center of the reverse on the upper portion of the eagle. Problem free for the grade, and always in demand. PCGS has graded 10 this high, with just 3 graded higher (best MS-61) so don't expect to locate that gem out there! An opportunity for the specialist.

Estimated Value $8,500-10,000

Choice Mint State 1807 Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

2028 1807. PCGS graded MS-63. One of the finest graded of the entire date, PCGS has only graded 3 coins this high, with 2 graded higher! Precious few were coined nearly 200 years ago, and very few remain in any condition today. To locate a choice uncirculated example is something extraordinary. This one can be identified by a tiny pit mark left of the L in LIBERTY and another tiny mark resting on the top left of the 8 in the date. Fully struck on the stars and Liberty, with bold curls, similar on the reverse which shows all the stars strong except for a single star behind the eagle's head, which is weak. Minor hairlines from handling, and a couple of stray marks too, but nothing distracting. On the upper rim we see evidence of minor adjustment marks, but they don't extend beyond the dentils, and few would ever notice them, especially as long as this coin is in a holder. Great luster and a rarity in any uncirculated grade. Color photo.

Estimated Value $30,000-40,000

High Grade 1808 Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

2029 1808. PCGS graded AU-50. Only year of the type. One of the most difficult type coins of the entire sweep of United States Numismatics, as a meager 2,710 were struck, way back in 1808. That's the year prior to Lincoln's birth, to put some perspective on it. The dies were probably engraved by John Reich, the German engraver that the Philadelphia Mint kicked around for several years, as we see his signature of the thirteenth star with a small notch at the outer point. Clean surfaces for the grade, and problem free throughout. We see a tiny die crack along the top of the cap in the field. A true collector coin in high grade, and yet affordable as compared with a mint state example. Color photo.

Estimated Value $30,000-35,000

Enlarged

2030 1830. PCGS graded EF-45. Nice quality and surfaces, with coppery toning starting to form around the periphery. Typical strike for the date, sharp around the edge, and weaker at the centers. The U of UNITED is broadly recut to the left. Rare and seldom encountered.

Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

Enlarged

- 2031 1834. No motto. PCGS graded MS-64. Here is a stunning near gem of this important type coin. PCGS has graded just 35 this high with 8 graded higher. Prooflike and reflective, the surfaces are clean save for a few scattered ticks. Boldly struck and well preserved, with booming luster expected on later issues, but seldom seen on a coin from this period. An impressive and exciting coin to view, and no doubt satisfying to own. Color photo.
Estimated Value $9,000-10,000

- 2032 1836. Script 8. MS-60. Typical surfaces for the grade, with minor handling marks on both sides. Good luster in the fields and some central weakness in the strike. We note a bisecting crack on the obverse through Liberty's diadem.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,400

- 2033 1836. Script 8. NGC graded AU-55. Splendid color and surfaces, but we do note one sharp nick on the edge above star five. The usual die crack bisects the obverse through star six.
Estimated Value $400-500

Coronet Head

- 2034 1844-D. MS-60+. Strong luster in the fields and this one is well struck. We note a small scrape in the lower right field, and there is an alloy streak in the planchet through Liberty's neck. A rare date in this grade, and struck by strongly clashed dies. Only 17,332 struck in all, so this date is rare in high grades. Color photo.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP

- 2035 1846-C. EF-40 Cleaned. Cleaned and a coin that still has a good strike but is a touch on the dull side. Moderate handling marks expected, and struck by clashed dies. Not bad for what it is, and a scarce date too.
Estimated Value $1,200-1,500

High Grade 1847-C Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 2036 1847-C. SEGS graded MS-64. This coin has the "Star" designation from SEGS, which means the coin has problems, in this case, they are "Few Hairlines" as noted on the insert. Medium gold color, with decent surfaces, enough so to warrant a high grade from SEGS. Boldly struck for the date, with full curls on Liberty and none of the usual weakness. An impressive coin, however you evaluate it, and one that should not be overlooked. Light die cracks from the wing tips, as usual. Identifiable by a small tick on the bust tip just above the 1 in the date.
Estimated Value $10,000-UP

Rare Mint State 1848-C Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 2037 1848-C. PCGS graded MS-62. Currently the finest graded by PCGS, this coin is alone as the only MS-62 seen at that service, NGC has seen 4 in this grade, but none higher. Hence, this is certainly one of the best out there. Yellow gold in color and with some minor staining on the obverse visible with a glass. Sharply struck on this piece, unlike the Bass II example which was struck with a severely buckled die, this particular coin boasts strong details throughout. We note minor die cracks to the edge from each wingtip, and another through the S and another through U, both of UNITED towards the eagle. In PCGS holder #2759764.
Estimated Value $17,500-UP

- 2038 1850-O. AU-50. A scarce date in high grade, this one has reflective fields and shows moderate handling marks. Boldly struck and downright rare this nice, the obverse sharp, while the reverse shows minimal weakness.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

- 2039 1851-C. ICG graded AU-50. We note some microscopic roughness before the bust; nevertheless, a decidedly rare coin, particularly so in high grade.
Estimated Value $2,750-UP

- 2040 1853. AU-53. Nice luster and surfaces for the grade, with a typical strike too. Minor edge ticks on both sides, and some hairlines in the fields.
Estimated Value $170-190

High Grade 1858-C Rarity

- 2041 1858-C. NGC graded AU-58. Minor handling marks expected for the grade and strong luster in the fields. We note a sharp strike by the dies, the only weakness is on the eagle's thighs. 9,056 were coined, and few were preserved in high grades. This exceptional coin will certainly be a highlight in an advanced collection of Charlotte Mint gold. An opportunity for the astute numismatist.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 2042 1866-S. EF-40 Cleaned. Examination will note that the coin has been cleaned, and the surfaces are dull and faintly hairlined. Nevertheless, this is a rare date and should be considered by date specialists. Better than average surfaces, and a decent coin despite the cleaning.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 2043 1867-S. NGC graded MS-61. One of the few mint state coins graded, NGC reports just 3 in this grade, with 2 graded higher, both MS-62. PCGS has seen a few more, including some higher grade examples. What we have here is a nice, satiny coin that has minor handling marks and hairlines, the strike is a bit weak on the high points. The reverse die shows clash marks from Liberty's head around the eagle.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 2044 1869. NGC graded AU-58. Nearly mint state with good luster in the fields and just a whisper of wear on the high points. A scarce date, and worth a good bid.
Estimated Value $900-1,400

- 2045 1876-S. MS-60. Fresh mint luster in the fields and well struck. Note the "bar" on the neck of Liberty; this is seen on all examples from this die and is briefly discussed in the Breen Encyclopedia. We note one small scrape below the left wing and a long broken scrape from rim to wing tip, neck, wing tip and rim.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 2046 1880. EF-40. A nice coin for the grade, this one has clean surfaces and delicate copper gold color. 2,960 were struck for circulation. One minor planchet lamination is noted up from the D of UNITED into the rim.
Estimated Value $175-250

Rare Deep Cameo 1886 $2.50 Liberty

- 2047 1886. PCGS graded Proof 65 Deep Cameo. If you want to see just how nice proof gold can be, then ponder this coin for a bit. The fields are deep golden black while the devices are deeply frosted. Add to the superb surfaces, and just the tiniest signs of handling or hairlines, and you have a wonder coin.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,500

- 2048 1898. PCGS graded Proof 63 Deep Cameo. A choice example of this popular proof type. 1898 came out during the Mint's finest years, when Proof coin production was raised to something of an art. Notice the well frosted devices and textured mirror fields. Minor handling marks expected, and some cloudy toning in the fields to note the passage of time. These cameo proofs are quite special, and most collectors would be proud to own one.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 2049 1900. NGC graded Proof 64 Cameo. Proof gold is always a pleasure to view, and this coin exudes the quality that makes these rare coins so popular. The devices are well frosted and seem to float on the glassy sea of the fields, producing the popular "cameo" effect. Philadelphia coined 205 of these in Proof, and this coin falls about in the middle of those that survive grade-wise. We note a tiny lint mark up from the eagle's head, just above his eye and another around the stop left of the denomination. Minor hairlines visible with a glass, and these apparently account for the grade, as all else is quite fresh and beautiful. This coin offers a lot of value for the collector for its splendid surfaces, rarity and overall quality.

Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

Superb Gem 1901 $2.50 Liberty

Enlarged

- 2050 1901. PCGS graded MS-67. One of the finest graded of the date! Superb mint bloom and pristine surfaces throughout. Naturally, the strike is razor sharp too, and the coin is absolutely without fault. PCGS has graded 20 this high, with just a single coin graded a notch higher. Final year of issue, and certainly one of the finest known of the entire type (PCGS notes 160 graded of the entire type this high, with just 4 graded higher). If you demand something spectacular for your collection, then here it is. Color photo.

Estimated Value $4,000-4,500

- 2051 1901. PCGS graded MS-64. A beautiful coin for the grade and one which retains excellent luster and mint-fresh surfaces. Well struck and preserved, and perfect for the type collector.

Estimated Value $550-600

- 2052 1902. MS-60. Nice surface quality and luster.

Estimated Value $200-240

- 2053 1905. MS-65. We note a couple of minor ticks on Liberty's neck and chin and the surfaces are quite lustrous. A few signs of age in the form of copper spots on both sides.

Estimated Value $900-1,100

- 2054 1906. Proof 64. This one has been cleaned and some cleaning left part of the cleaning substance all over the obverse. Perhaps someone more talented in such matters can remove the reddish colored soap or jeweler's rouge from this coin. A nice proof that is totally reflective and well preserved, aside from the offending residue.

Estimated Value $5,000-5,500

- 2055 1906. MS-60+. Fresh luster and good color, with a couple of copper spots.
Estimated Value $250-300

Magnificent Gem Proof 1907

Enlarged

- 2056 1907. PCGS graded Proof 67. Here is one of the finest graded of the tiny proof mintage of 154 coins. PCGS has graded just 4 this high, and a single coin a point higher. This coin has light copper toning in the fields and retains magnificent mirror fields that reveal no unsightly marks or ticks. Liberty and the devices are all well frosted and free of handling marks. Simply stated, if you want one of the very best proof quarter eagles, of any date, then be sure to bid accordingly. A stunning, magnificent example of this final year of issue of the Coronet type that is worthy of the finest cabinet.
Estimated Value $20,000-UP

- 2057 1907. PCGS graded MS-65. A gem that boasts clean surfaces and devices, and excellent luster on both sides. The strike is sharp, and the coin is a delightful gem in every way.
Estimated Value $950-1,050
- 2058 1907. PCGS graded MS-64. A few hairlines around the top of the head (some of which may be die lines) are all that kept this from a higher grade. Good color and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 2059 1907. MS-63. Good luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 2060 1907 and 1912. The first grades EF-45, but the rim is filed on the upper obverse, the 1912 grades VF-35. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-250

Indian Head

Gem Matte Proof 1908 Quarter Eagle

Enlarged

- 2061 1908. NGC graded Matte Proof 66. Here we begin a complete set of Matte and Satin Proof Indian Head Quarter Eagles from 1908 through 1915. Each date was struck in very limited numbers, with as few as 100 (1915) up to 682 (1910). Most are in choice grades or a bit better. This particular set focused on quality, and many superb gem pieces are included. Obviously a labor of love, these coins will each stand alone as a beautiful representation of the finest talents of the Philadelphia Mint workers of the period, and were chosen for their splendid state of preservation.
In particular, this 1908 has pristine surfaces, the matte finish is undisturbed by spots or handling marks. NGC has graded 34 this high, with just 9 graded higher of the date. Perfectly struck, and one of the finest to survive of this first year of issue.
Estimated Value $14,000-16,000

- 2062 1908. MS-60. We note a couple of thin obverse scratches hidden in the lower bonnet feathers, but a good appearance overall.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 2063 1908 and 1911. These grade Fine to Very Fine. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $225-250

- 2064 1909. PCGS graded Matte Proof 64. This one has a few hairlines from a past cleaning, and we note a tiny disturbance between the eighth and ninth stars, otherwise problem-free. PCGS notes that just 10 have been graded this high, with a single coin graded higher as PR-65. What is of primary importance for the collector to understand is that this is by far the rarest date in high grade, only 139 were struck, PCGS has graded 38 of these (at a maximum, there is likely duplication in the Population Report as some coins were almost certainly submitted more than once). Of those graded, 28 are in grades of PR-63 or below, while most other dates show a median of PR-64 or higher. Hence, this is the key date of the proof issues if you demand a top quality set. Struck in the satiny "Roman" style finish, which is similar to the matte proofs, but a bit brighter. An impressive example of this truly rare date.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

Radiant 1910 Matte Proof

Enlarged

- 2065 1910. NGC graded Matte Proof 66. Mintages ballooned in 1910 to 682, nevertheless, not many have been found in gem condition. In fact, NGC has graded just 20 this high with 2 graded higher, while PCGS notes only 6 as PR-66, and none higher. Hence, this is certainly one of a select group which is among the finest known of the date. No signs of handling marks and the surfaces are quite well preserved. The only faint disturbance would be a couple of nearly invisible hairlines, mostly above the eagle in the fields. Don't expect to find a better one, as this is a really beautiful, and superb coin. Perfectly struck and a visual masterpiece of Bella Lyon Pratt's incuse design.
Estimated Value $15,000-17,000

- 2066 1910. MS-60. Clean surfaces and decent luster
Estimated Value $200-225

Resplendent 1911 Matte Proof

Enlarged

- 2067 1911. NGC graded Matte Proof 66. If you want a high end gem, then 1911 is probably the date you'll find. For whatever reason, this date has a decent number graded (compared to the other dates in this series) which have been graded PF-66 or higher. NGC in their Population Report notes that 26 have been graded this high, with 10 graded higher (all PF-67). PCGS reports that 14 have been graded this high, with 15 graded higher (all PR-67). We note the surfaces have coppery orange toning, and there is a slight break in the matte surface above the 9 on the dangling feathers on the Chief. A magnificent example of this issue, and a collector's delight.
Estimated Value $14,000-16,000

Superb Gem Matte Proof 1912 $2.50 Indian

Enlarged

- 2068 1912. PCGS graded Matte Proof 67. One of the very finest known of the mintage of just 197 pieces in Proof. PCGS has graded 4 this high, with none graded higher! At a glance, one can see why, the surfaces are pristine, without a spot or flaw, and no signs whatsoever of contact. Naturally, the strike is virtually perfect, and all device detail is sharp. As to the color, we note faint coppery shades especially around the right obverse, and these are the only signs of age since the time this one was struck. If you demand the finest, then here is one for your collection.
Estimated Value $19,000-UP

- 2069 1912. AU-50. Lightly circulated.
Estimated Value $140-150

Outstanding 1913 $2.50 Indian Matte Proof

Enlarged

- 2070 1913. PCGS graded Matte Proof 66. A significant and rare coin in this grade. PCGS reports they have graded 9 this high, with a single coin graded a notch higher. Remember that a scant 165 were coined in proof, and few can match the quality here. On the obverse, we see no flaw or signs of contact, and a tiny copper speck hidden in the Chief's hair over his neck, while the reverse has one minute tick mark in the field below the E of UNITED, and is otherwise virtually perfect. Satiny gold in color and without signs of toning. An opportunity for the specialist.
Estimated Value $15,000-17,500

- 2071 1913. NGC graded MS-62. Subdued mint color and nice surfaces.
Estimated Value $220-240

Rare Gem Proof 1914

Enlarged

- 2072 1914. PCGS graded Matte Proof 65. By 1914 orders from proof gold were slowing down, in fact, 117 were coined and most are found in lower grade ranges today. PCGS, in their Population Report notes that 6 were graded as PR-65, while 2 have been graded higher, one as PR-66 and one PR-67. On the obverse, the surfaces are essentially perfect, while on the reverse we note a faint scratch from the eagle's wing tip to the up-right of the E of UNITED, and a similar but even fainter scratch below MERICA and through the final A of that word. Both scratches can only be seen at certain angles when examined under a light with a strong glass, and this coin is still clearly a gem by any standards. The color is even and natural, and astute numismatists will want to avail themselves of this rarity.
Estimated Value $12,500-UP

- 2073 1914. PCGS graded MS-62. Lustrous and with typical surfaces and color. One of the better dates of the series.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 2074 1914. AU-58. This one has a couple of cuts on the face and some hairlines from brief circulation.
Estimated Value $200-225

Exquisite 1915 Matte Proof

- 2075 1915. NGC graded Matte Proof 64. This is the final year that Proofs were issued of this series, and only 100 were coined. In fact, no more quarter eagles were struck until 1925, and the denomination petered out entirely in 1929. This one has delicate coppery-orange toning on both sides, and no signs of handling or hairlines, even under the severe scrutiny of a 10X glass and halogen lamp. A satisfying coin to view, and no doubt own.
Estimated Value $8,000-9,000

- 2076 1915. NGC graded MS-64. Good color and luster, and well struck too.
Estimated Value $900-1,000
- 2077 1915. MS-60+. Nice color, but there is an unfortunate reverse scratch in the field before the eagle's breast to the rim. Another staple adventure? When will we ever learn....
Estimated Value $150-200
- 2078 1926. PCGS graded MS-62. One long bagmark in front of the Indian's face, and a couple of cheek nicks account for the grade.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 2079 1926. AU-50. There is a small rim bump on the reverse near the upper leaves on the branch.
Estimated Value $140-150
- 2080 1927. NGC graded MS-64. One scuff above the eagle's head from full gem, but good color and luster for the grade assigned.
Estimated Value $750-850
- 2081 1927. Sharpness of EF-40 but probably a jewelry piece. This was probably a jewelry piece as there are some marks around the rims and the surfaces are pebbly as seen on pieces that have been mounted. Cleaned too, and decent in appearance to the naked eye.
Estimated Value $110-120
- 2082 1928. PCGS graded MS-62. Good color and luster.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 2083 1854. MS-60+. Sharply struck, but this one has been wiped with a cloth, leaving numerous fine hairlines in the mirror fields. Rich yellow gold in color, and overall pleasing for the grade.
Estimated Value $1,250-UP

- 2084 1854. AU-53. Nice for the grade, with some luster near the devices and free from circulation problems.
Estimated Value $700-800

- 2085 1860-S. SEGS graded AU-53. Remnants of luster near the devices and well struck by the dies. We note that the SEGS grade may be a touch aggressive, but this is still a decent coin and certainly one of the better ones known of this date. PCGS has only graded a single example in Mint State, with few seen above EF-45 by that service. Curiously the San Francisco Mint struck lightweight Three Dollar coins in 1860, and when these were discovered, they were melted to the tune of 2,592, leaving a net mintage that was released from the Mint of 4,408. Rare in all grades, and especially so this nice. Minor circulation marks, but most collectors will be satisfied with this piece.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 2086 1872. PCGS graded MS-62. A rare date in any grade, with a mintage of a scant 2,000 pieces, this date is seldom encountered. PCGS has graded 8 this high, with only 6 graded higher, giving the collector some indication of how few of these there are. Generally well struck, the fields are prooflike and show minor handling marks and light hairlines. Golden red in color, and a beauty.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 2087 1877. Sharpness of VF-25 but repaired, buffed and cleaned. This one absolutely must be inspected by prospective buyers as the surfaces have been buffed and repaired to possibly fill a hole near the top of the obverse, and remove most of a scratch in that area. A dull matte surface is noted on both sides from cleaning and buffing, and this coin is not the top of its class. Nevertheless, it is a rare date, with a mintage of 1,488, few enough that it is seldom encountered in any grade.
Estimated Value $600-800

- 2088 1878. MS-60+. Lightly cleaned with the ever-present hairlines visible with a glass. Bold and beautiful, with good luster and typical gold color.
Estimated Value $1,500-UP
- 2089 1878. Sharpness of AU-50 but repaired on the face. Cleaned and buffed to lessen some scratches down Liberty's face.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 2090 1879. PCGS graded MS-62. Frosty luster and clean for the grade, with minimal problems. Some faint stacking friction on the high points.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,400

- 2091 1882. PCGS graded MS-64. Curious orange gold toning on both sides, and a rare date with a mintage of just 1,500 pieces. This is the 2 over high 2 variety. PCGS has graded 12 this high, with 7 graded higher. Color photo.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

- 2092 1885. Proof 64 Cameo. Only 109 were coined to represent the proofs of this year. Here is a nice example, the devices are well frosted, making this one of the cameo proofs, and the mirror fields are deeply reflective. We note minor hairlines in the fields, and a tiny ding at the top of the obverse.
Estimated Value $7,000-7,500

$3 Gold

One of the Finest Graded 1886 Proof $3 Gold Coins

Enlarged

- 2093 1886. PCGS graded Proof 66 Cameo. One of the finest graded by PCGS, and no doubt one of the very finest known, the current Population Report shows just 3 graded as PR-66, and we don't know if any of the others are a "Cameo" or not. The surfaces are pristine, without the usual signs of handling or annoying hairlines that diminish the value, and close examination will find only faint evidence of these. Beautiful orange gold in color, with perfectly struck devices and each is fully frosted, providing spectacular cameo qualities. Only 142 were struck, and this coin is clearly one of the very best. Color photo.

Estimated Value $20,000-25,000

Remarkable 1888 $3 Gold in Near Gem Condition

- 2094 1888. PCGS graded MS-64. A rare coin with a mintage of just 5,000 pieces, and this is certainly in the top five percent of those. Satiny luster in the fields and free of most signs of contact, the grade apparently due to minor hairlines visible with a strong glass. PCGS has graded 92 as such, with 84 graded higher, apparently from a small hoard which came out many years ago. Despite the numbers, remember this is a rare coin in high grade, and there simply aren't that many available for the collecting public.

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

$5 Gold

First Year of Issue 1795 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 2095 1795. Small eagle, Breen 6-E, M-8. NGC graded AU-55. A classic example of this popular first year of issue half eagle. The surfaces show average handling marks and the gold luster is subdued from limited circulation. As to the strike, it is full on the stars and eagle, but there is some weakness on the hair over Liberty's ear. Full feathers on the eagle's wings, but the breast feathers show some of the wear and a few criss crossing adjustment marks. Color photo.

Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

Scarce 1795 Half Eagle in Fine

- 2096 1795. Small eagle. PCGS graded Fine-15. A problem free coin which is quite unusual for the grade. Most early gold found today has any number of problems, but not so here, just normal wear and generally clean surfaces. If you have been searching for an affordable example of this first year of issue, then take a look at this, you'll be glad you did.

Estimated Value $6,000-6,500

Mint State 1802 Half Eagle

- 2097 1802. 2 over 1, Miller-52, Breen 2-F, Rarity-7. NGC graded MS-61. Deep golden luster in the fields and toned with coppery highlights on both sides. Well struck for this date, we note full breast feathers on the eagle, and normal weakness on the tail below. Similar on the obverse, with sharp details on Liberty's curls, and all the stars are full, and just the high points show any signs of weakness. Trivial adjustment marks on the upper rim, but a glass is needed to see them. For the grade, this is a nice coin, and the handling marks are to be expected for the grade. Take a look and see in order to most accurately arrive at a bid. Color photo.

Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 2098 1804. Small 8, Breen 2-C, Miller-63. Rarity-5. NGC graded MS-61. Satiny mint luster in the protected areas, and good color throughout. Moderate handling ticks from nearly 200 years of age. The obverse displays a light die crack through the 0 in the date, and a rim break over the T in UNITED, seen on most specimens. Light adjustment marks are visible on the horizontal shield lines. Scarce and in demand by type and variety collectors.
- Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 2099 1804. Small 8 over large 8, PCGS graded AU-55. Choice coppery gold in color, with toning that highlights the devices. The 8 over 8 is quite obvious, and we note a couple of die cracks on the reverse, one through the E of AMERICA to the second lowest horizontal shield at the bottom, and another out the left wing at the rim, and down the wing too. Faint adjustment marks at the shield. An excellent coin that any collector will long love, and find hours of enjoyment studying. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $3,800-4,500

- 2100 1805, Breen-3B, High Rarity-4. Sharpness of MS-60 but possibly repaired. This appears to be either Miller-71 or 74 but this particular coin has been lightly filed along the rim past the second S of STATES, which removed one of the diagnostics of the fused dentils in that area, if they were there. This coin has nice color and is well preserved, but shows light wipe lines as almost all of this period do. Copper toning in the fields of the obverse and reverse, with reflective fields. Boldly struck throughout and a beauty despite the minor rim problem on the reverse, and a small tick above the first A of AMERICA.
- The obverse die state is fairly late, there is a bisecting crack through the 0 in the date, a long thin crack from star thirteen to the center of Liberty's neck and mid curl, die rust through LI, and a die line above Liberty's cap. On the reverse the die state is early, and shows the spin up to the right from the left shield point, the dies are clashed with the outline of Liberty's head at the base of the shield and BLR are clashed near the tail.
- Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

Choice Mint State 1806 Pointed 6 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 2101 1806. Pointed top 6, Miller-79, Rarity-6, 8 X 5 stars. PCGS graded MS-63. This is an important type coin which is downright hard to find in mint state grades. Frosty luster abounds in the fields, and the surfaces are generally clean, keeping this in the choice category. This one is even free of the usual annoying adjustment marks, which are common on these early half eagles. An excellent coin to study, as the surfaces have no toning and each diagnostic is clear. Struck late in the reverse dies life, with a retained cud over the T in UNITED. PCGS has graded 16 this high, with just 3 graded higher, making this one of the best around.
- Estimated Value $15,000-17,000

- 2102 1806. Round top 6, 7X6 Stars. PCGS graded MS-62. Well struck by the dies and with nice luster for the grade. No signs of adjustment marks, and the surfaces show only minimal contact from other coins. A rare coin in any mint state grade, and perfect for the specialist or type collector.
- Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Rare Mint State Breen 3-C, Miller-89 1807

Enlarged

- 2103 1807, Breen 3-C, Miller-89, Rarity-7. ICG graded MS-64. This coin is a wonderful example which possess bright yellow gold with frosty luster. A few minor surface marks are mixed with heavier adjustment marks on the obverse. Softly struck, no doubt because of the multiple die cracks on the obverse, coupled with the effects of the adjustment marks. Similar on the reverse, with softness on the left side of the shield and into the star field above. We note a heavy die crack down from the B in LIBERTY through Liberty's mouth to star twelve, another up through the right serif of I, another between the first two stars into the field, a heavier crack from the rim to Liberty's cap. The reverse die has a crack from the arrows to the shield. An important example for the specialist.
Estimated Value $15,000-UP

Ex: A-Mark Coin Co., March 16, 1978; Bowers and Merena's Harry Bass II Sale, October 1999, lot 783.

Enlarged

- 2104 1807 Capped Bust to Left. PCGS graded MS-63. A choice coin that boasts splendid color and surfaces and very few signs of contact. We would guess the moderate grade is due to trivial hairlines. Well struck, and the first year of the new type. We note John Reich's signature notched star at the usual location behind the lowest curl of Liberty. If you want one of these with a lot of eye appeal, then here it is. PCGS has graded 23 as such, with 19 graded higher (best MS-67). Color photo.
Estimated Value $8,500-9,500

- 2105 1808. PCGS graded AU-58. Well struck by the dies, with excellent color and surfaces throughout. Nearly new, and a great value as such. We note minor handling marks, none worth describing, and this is another very appealing coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

Splendid 1811 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 2106 1811. Tall 5. PCGS graded MS-64. Gorgeous golden mint color on both sides and very sharply impressed by the dies. Examination will note some faint surface scratches, including one above Liberty's eye into the field, and several more on the reverse. These will scarcely show up until a strong glass is applied, but they are there nevertheless. PCGS has graded 6 this high, with 2 graded higher. Color photo.

Estimated Value $18,000-22,000

The Finest Graded 1818 5D Over 50

Enlarged

- 2107 1818. 5D over 50, Miller-125, Rarity-6. PCGS graded MS-65. This is the Finest Graded by either service! The surfaces of this magnificent gem are toned with hazy yellow hues that surround and enhance the devices. Each star and curl are fully struck on the obverse, and similar on the reverse where there is slight weakness on the eagle's craggy claws. Close examination notes a few trivial ticks on both sides, mostly in the fields, with the most notable behind the eagle's neck in the field. Liberty's face is quite clean.

A curious die error, the engraver first cut the denomination as "50" instead of 5 D perhaps thinking he was engraving a half dollar reverse instead of a half eagle die. The error was noticed, and the appropriate D (for Dollars) was engraved over the errant 0.

This is the only coin graded this high by PCGS of the variety, and there are none graded higher, making this likely the finest known, and certainly the finest graded.

Estimated Value

$75,000-UP

Important 1819 Half Eagle

Enlarged

2108 1819 B-2B, Miller-128, Rarity-7. ANACS graded AU Details, Net EF-40 Tooled-Whizzed. This extremely rare coin is seldom offered in any grade, and this important coin traces back to a 1926 Chapman Sale. The surfaces have been cleaned, with resulting hairlines in the soft gold, and a small area has been repaired behind Liberty's head where a scratch or something similar has been buffed out. Under the scrutiny of a glass, faint swirl lines can be seen in the field in this area, and the face may also have been touched up carefully. While the repair and cleaning lines are certainly present, they are not all that terrible as such things go, and this coin is certainly acceptable given the rarity of this issue. As to the number known, the recent Robert Miller book on Half Eagles estimates the number to be 7 of this die variety, and a total of about 20 for the date, affirming it as one of the classic rarities of the half eagle series.

For generations, half eagles have been collected by advanced numismatists. They are one of the few series that continued uninterrupted for the most part, through the 1805 to 1834 period, while the larger eagle denomination was shelved from 1805 until 1838. One of the real challenges for collectors of the half eagle series was the number of extreme rarities, coins like the 1822 with 3 known, only 1 in collectors hands, and 1825, 5 over 4 with 2 known and the 1815 and 1819 made obtaining a date set a true challenge. Given the mintages of most dates, it would seem that these coins would be available, but we must remember the economics of the time, gold had risen in value by 1805, making the coins worth more as melted bullion than their stated value. Hence, eagles were not produced. What half eagles were produced during this period were usually melted soon after production, and their bullion sold. Their melt value was placed as high as $5.33 by 1834 when the amount of gold was reduced on future coins starting in mid 1834 to below the melt value of $5.00, thus keeping coins in circulation and out of the melting pots. The survival ratio of half eagles from 1807 through the Capped head to left with motto type is likely less than 1 percent of those struck. A foremost rarity that is seldom available in any grade, and it will likely be years before another example of this date is available.

Estimated Value $15,000-20,000

*The first time we could trace this specimen was the Chapman sale of 3/1/26; next in Auction '79, 7/27/79:1230;

Rare Mint State 1823 $5 Capped Head

Enlarged

- 2109 1823, Breen 1-A. Rarity-4. PCGS graded MS-63. A lovely cameo example of this scarce date that boasts reflective fields (the dies were so little used, they never lost their polish), and well struck devices. Random ticks account for the grade, with minor hairlines expected. Identifiable by a tick in the field between the N of UNUM and the eagle's neck, and some toning from the left wingtip and surrounding area to the rim. PCGS has graded 5 this high, with just 3 graded higher (all MS-64). An opportunity for the astute numismatist. Color photo.
Estimated Value $20,000-25,000

Enlarged

- 2110 1825, 5 over 1, Miller-149, Breen 2-A. Sharpness of AU-50 but repaired and cleaned. This one has been repaired in the fields on the obverse and reverse and faint tooling lines can be seen around the stars. The entire coin was bathed in acid for a time, and the surfaces show trace porosity when examined with a strong glass. Still a rare coin that has been toned with pretty copper hues and is well struck. Perhaps two dozen are known in all grades, as most of these were melted as the price of gold rose during the period. This particular piece is about average for those known, and finding a choice circulated example is a real challenge.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

Gem 1830 Large 5D Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 2111 1830. Large 5D, Miller-158, High rarity-6. NGC graded MS-65. This stunning coin boasts lovely copper toning near the devices over lustrous fields. Liberty has a satiny appearance and shows no blemishes despite her age. Her broad cheek is shows no bagmarks or heavy scuffs. If one must find fault, the fields have minor hairlines, but not enough to keep this out of the gem class. Similar on the reverse, the proud eagle shows all feathers proudly, and the surfaces and fields show faint signs of handling. The toning on this coin is outstanding. As to the strike, it is full and complete, without weakness even on the upper curls of Liberty. This is an early die state, and fine die polishing lines can be seen, as well as recutting on stars eight, nine and twelve. Similar on the reverse, where recut letters can be seen and the D in the denomination has recutting noted on the inside upper curve, and on the upper post, just below the serif. Without question, this is a very rare coin in any grade, NGC has graded just 5 of this variety, PCGS has graded only 11 of this date (PCGS does not differentiate between the Large 5D and Small 5D). Of the entire group of 16 coins graded, this one is the Finest, and almost certainly the Finest Known. PCGS has graded two 1830 half eagles as high as MS-64, the next level down for NGC is MS-63. Therefore, if you want clearly the finest, then here is the coin for you. Obviously most were melted or lost from the original mintage of 126,351. Identifiable by a tiny planchet flake on and below the second leaf from the top on the reverse, and currently in NGC holder #380363-011. Estimated Value $70,000-UP

Classic Head Type

- 2112 1834. Plain 4. NGC graded MS-63. A choice coin for the grade, the surfaces display copious luster and the devices are sharp. We note a couple of handling marks, including a hidden tick on the first T in STATES. Precious few of these were saved in mint state grades, as most entered commerce quickly and soon were well worn or abraded. NGC has graded 44 this high with 5 graded higher.
Estimated Value $5,000-6,000

- 2113 1834. Crosslet 4. NGC graded AU-58. Rich gold toning and lustrous around the devices. Nicely struck and downright rare this nice, and a lot more expensive any better. Clean surfaces from brief circulation and sharp.
Estimated Value $7,000-9,000
- 2114 1835. Sharpness of Fine-12 but worn as jewelry. This one has numerous ticks and marks from being worn as jewelry.
Estimated Value $125-150

- 2115 1837. AU-53. The surfaces are slightly matte in appearance from circulation but the coin is well struck on the devices. Popular with type collectors.
Estimated Value $750-850

- 2116 1838. PCGS graded MS-63. Perfect for the type collector, this choice example boasts rich gold mint luster and a sharp strike from the dies. Scattered handling marks, as always, and generally well cared for since the time of issue. PCGS has graded 11 like this, with 25 graded higher.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,500

Coronet Head/No Motto

- 2117 1841. PCGS graded MS-61. A rare early date in mint state, PCGS notes only 1 in this grade with 14 graded higher. Good color and luster, with average surfaces for the grade that show no significant marks, just light handling fritzies. Boldly struck throughout, and quite appealing.
Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

- 2118 1844. PCGS graded EF-45. Coppery toning around the periphery and nicely struck. Minor handling marks, expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $170-190

- 2119 1844-C. NGC graded AU-58. One of the finest seen by NGC, they note just 6 graded this high in their current NGC Population Report and 4 graded higher (MS-63 best). This one is well struck by the dies, and retains some of the luster in the protected areas. We note the usual bagmarks on either side, which are evenly scattered and typical of the period. A rare date this nice and worth a look from a specialist.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,500

- 2120 1845-O. Sharpness of EF-40 but cleaned. This one shows the usual hairlines from a past cleaning. Starting to recover with deep copper shades around the dentils. A low mintage date and a coin that could possibly be improved.
Estimated Value $300-325

- 2121 1846. AU-58. Clean surfaces for the grade and boldly struck by the dies. Liberty's face is clean, and there is quite a bit of luster in the fields.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 2122 1849-C. PCGS graded AU-55. As nice as this date is usually found, PCGS has graded 16 this high with 14 graded higher. This one is sharply struck on all but the highest devices and shows good color and decent surfaces. A scarce date with a mintage of 64,823, most of which were melted or lost in the sweep of time.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,500

- 2123 1851-O. ANACS graded Sharpness of MS-60 Net AU 50, Obv. Tooled and Whizzed. As noted on the ANACS insert, this one has been Tooled and Whizzed on the obverse, probably to reduce marks on Liberty's face and in the surrounding field. Well struck and a bit too perfect in appearance, as early gold is just not found with such smooth surfaces. Inspection mandatory, and a rare coin.
Estimated Value $800-1,000

Satiny Mint State 1852 Half Eagle

- 2124 1852. NGC graded MS-64. High in the condition census for the date, this magnificent early half eagle will entice the advanced collector with its lovely mint bloom, fresh luster and sharp strike. We note minor low areas in the fields which are a striking phenomenon, and they are seen on most coins of the period. Liberty's face is quite fresh, and no distracting marks are seen there, or anywhere else for that matter. NGC has graded just 6 coins this high, with 2 graded higher (both MS-66, same coin?). Similar at PCGS, where 8 have been graded as MS-64, but none higher there. Simply stunning quality, and worth a strong bid if you expect to capture this prize. Color photo.
Estimated Value $12,000-UP

Rare Mint State 1852-D Half Eagle

- 2125 1852-D. ICG graded MS-63. An extremely rare coin in any mint state grade, PCGS in their Population Report notes only 4 coins have been graded as Mint State, with the best there MS-63. The rims are somewhat weak as struck, and this coin may have been exposed to seawater, as the surfaces are slightly matte in appearance (but less so than usual for the date). This is a judgment call, and something we'll leave to the experts in this series, as the coin may just be a normal issue. Luster in the protected areas and an important coin for the specialist, however it's judged. Certainly one of the best known of this date. Color photo.
Estimated Value $10,000-UP

- 2126 1854. PCGS graded MS-63. One of the finest graded of the date, PCGS has awarded 7 with grades this high, with just 2 graded higher. Full mint bloom and a decent strike for the date. We note faint pin scratches above the AM of AMERICA, which can only be seen at certain angles under a light. A truly nice coin for the grade.
Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 2127 1857. PCGS graded MS-62. Nice color and luster on both sides, with some trivial verdigris around the date. Light hair-lines from a higher grade, and a scarce coin as such.
Estimated Value $2,500-UP

- 2128 1859-S. PCGS graded AU-53. Deep coppery gold in color with average handling marks on both sides. A rare date that is seldom found this nice. Only 13,220 were coined, and PCGS has graded just 5 as AU-53, with 8 graded higher. One for the date collector.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

- 2129 1860-C, NGC graded AU-55. Mintage of a mere 14,813 and precious few survive in grades even approaching this one. Struck on the eve of the Civil War, and all gold coinage was quickly hoarded while the economic and human toll raged on. Many were lost and forgotten as families were torn apart, moved or simply lost as the tragedy raged on. This one survived in particularly good shape, with remnants of luster and a good strike on the obverse devices, while the eagle is a bit softer in definition. Moderate handling marks on both sides, as always. NGC has graded 6 this high, with 11 graded AU-58, and 10 graded in various mint state grades above that.
Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

The Only Certified Mint State 1862 Half Eagle

Enlarged

- 2130 1862, NGC graded MS-62. This is the only Mint State 1862 half eagle graded by either NGC or PCGS Combined, they have seen 6 that grade AU-58. As to the particulars here, this one is fully struck, with bold curls on Liberty, and excellent luster throughout. Mintages plunged to 4,430 in 1862 as the Civil War took hold and little gold was turned in for coining. Easily identifiable by a small bugmark below the hair bun of Liberty in the field. A foremost rarity for the specialist, and a coin not to be missed.
Estimated Value $20,000+UP

Coronet Head/With Motto

- 2131 1871-S, NGC graded AU-58. NGC notes only 9 are graded this high with 2 graded higher (both MS-61). Golden hues over lustrous fields, and well struck. Generally clean for the grade, with few scattered ticks to distract the eye. Don't miss this one if you need the date, it would be hard to improve upon.
Estimated Value $6,000-8,000

- 2132 1871-S, NGC graded AU-53. Typical of the era, mintages were low, only 25,000 for this year. Most were spent, lost or melted and recoinced in later years. This particular coin retains some of its luster, has nice surfaces and is a condition rarity. NGC has graded 7 as such, with 16 graded in higher AU grades, and just 2 mint state coins (both MS-61). We note a couple of minor ticks in the field before Liberty's nose, but are confident that a date collector would enjoy owning this coin.
Estimated Value $2,000-3,000

Outstanding 1873 Closed 3 $5 Liberty

Enlarged

- 2133 1873. Closed 3 The Finest Known! NGC graded MS-66. This is the only MS-66 graded by either NGC or PCGS, and apparently the Finest Known of the date. Mintage estimated at 49,280 by Harry X. Boosel ("Mr. 1873"), all coined in January 1873 prior to the order to change all the data logo punches to the open 3, the change because of potential confusion with an 8. Full frosty luster and superb mint bloom throughout. Well struck, the only weakness is on the neck of the eagle. Simply outstanding quality that cannot be duplicated. Even in MS-65, only 4 coins have been graded by NGC and PCGS combined. Color photo.
Estimated Value $27,500-UP

- 2134 1881 Repunched date. ANACS graded AU-55. Nice surfaces for the grade, but we note the date is widely recut to the left, as noted on the ANACS holder. Listed as Breen-6714. Good luster and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $350-500

- 2135 1881 (2 pieces). A pair of this common date, both grade EF-45. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $200-240

- 2136 1882-CC. AU-58. A nicely struck example with enough mint lustre to justify a higher grade; in addition, a minimum of marks with none worthy of mention. A high grade example and seldom seen or offered better.
Estimated Value $2,000-UP

- 2137 1882-S, 1901-S and 1902-S. These grade Very Fine to Extremely Fine. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $300-330

Gem Proof 1886 $5 Liberty

Enlarged

- 2138 1886. PCGS graded Proof 65 Cameo. A fantastic example of this low mintage date, only 72 were struck in Proof, and this is the second finest graded by PCGS. In fact, it is the only PR-65 graded, and we note a single coin graded higher as PR-66 by that service. Further, this coin is a "Cameo", which means it was an early strike, when the dies had the most polish on them, thus the devices are imparted with extra heavy frost, and the fields are especially well mirrored. Deep orange gold in color, and certainly one of the very finest known of this date in Proof. An outstanding opportunity to purchase a truly rare, beautiful and exciting coin. Color photo.
Estimated Value $20,000-30,000

- 2139 1886-S. NGC graded MS-63. Bright and untoned, with good luster and color on both the obverse and reverse. Typical handling marks expected for the grade.
Estimated Value $400-450

- 2140 1887-S. PCGS graded MS-63. Choice color and surfaces, with good luster on both sides. Fully struck by the dies, and one of the better examples of this date to survive, with just 22 graded higher!
Estimated Value $350-425

- 2141 1889. PCGS graded AU-55. This one probably barely circulated, but during its life it was man handled for many years in bags, during which it acquired a profusion of tiny bagmarks. Nevertheless, a scarce date and one that is seldom found this nice. Only 7,520 struck, and just a handful have been graded in Mint State above this coin.
Estimated Value $350-400

- 2142 1890. PCGS graded AU-53. A rare date that boasts a mintage of 4,240 in all. Most of these circulated hard, and this one was apparently saved after bouncing around in a bag for enough time to mark of the surfaces pretty well. Strong curls on Liberty and good color, but with the usual bagmarks.
Estimated Value $650-750

- 2143 1890. PCGS graded AU-50. A pleasing, completely original coin with no signs of cleaning. A rare low mintage date as a mere 4328 were struck, a mintage that includes 88 proofs. An undervalued date. In an old PCGS green insert slab.
Estimated Value $650-750

Gem 1892 Half Eagle

- 2144 1892. PCGS graded MS-65. Superb gold luster and undiminished by time or handling. One of the finest around, PCGS has graded just 4 this high with a single coin graded higher. The fields, devices and rims are virtually perfect, the only flaw are faint hairlines. Outstanding quality.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP

- 2145 1893. AU-53. Minor hairlines, but nicely struck by the dies.
Estimated Value $120-130

- 2146 1897. NGC graded MS-65. A lovely gem example of this date. NGC has graded 43 as such, with just 4 graded higher (all MS-66). Flashy mint color and clean surfaces, even for this lofty grade. A few faint hairlines from perfection, as always seen.
Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 2147 1900. PCGS graded Proof 62 Cameo. This is a curious one, the quality is top flight on the production of the coin, but there are some minor ticks in the left obverse field which account for the grade, as well as light hairlines. Only 200 were struck, and most of those were lost or spent during the following century. This one isn't the best known, but it sure is pretty for the grade assigned. Color photo.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 2148 1900. MS-60+. Strong luster and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2149 1903-S. NGC graded MS-65. A dazzling satiny mint gem. A touch of delicate toning further adds to its appeal.
Estimated Value $2,000-2,500

- 2150 1903-S. MS-63. A choice Brilliant Uncirculated example and lightly toned.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 2151 1906-D. AU-50. Minor handling marks from circulation, but with good luster and nicely struck.
Estimated Value $120-130

- 2152 1908. MS-60. The first year of issue of the Indian half eagle.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2153 1908. MS-60. We note some chatter marks on the face and hairlines too over lustrous fields.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2154 1908. MS-60. Fresh luster throughout, with minimal handling marks.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2155 1908-S. PCGS graded MS-64. One of the scarce dates to find, and this is a nice one! Good color and clean surfaces keep this half eagle firmly near the gem class.
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000

- 2156 1908-S. NGC graded MS-60. Moderate handling marks on both sides, but no problems, even on the Chief's face, which is smooth. Nice for the grade.
Estimated Value $800-1,000
- 2157 1909. MS-60. Average surfaces and some dullness on the high points.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 2158 1909. MS-60. Decent surfaces for the moderate grade.
Estimated Value $200-225
- 2159 1909. MS-60. Nice luster and well struck.
Estimated Value $200-225

Indian Head

- 2160 1909-D. PCGS graded MS-63 Premium Quality. A lovely, lustrous coin that boasts nice surfaces and a strong strike. In an old PCGS green insert holder. Seldom found much better.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,250
- 2161 1909-D. MS-60+. Good mint color and average surfaces for the date.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 2162 1909-D. MS-60+. Good luster and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 2163 1909-D. MS-60+. Nice surfaces for the grade, with strong luster and a good strike. A couple of small obverse spots above the top feather.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 2164 1909-D. MS-60+. A nice example of Pratt's curious incuse design. Frosty luster and minimal handling marks.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 2165 1909-D. MS-60+. Good surface quality and color.
Estimated Value $250-300
- 2166 1909-D. MS-60+. Typical surfaces and luster.
Estimated Value $250-300

- 2167 1909-D. MS-60. Minor bagmarks and a scrape at the top of the reverse on the rim.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2168 1910. PCGS graded MS-62. Yellow gold in color and we note the usual bagmarks.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 2169 1910. PCGS graded MS-60. Decent surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $200-225

- 2170 1911. NGC graded MS-63. Typical color and surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 2171 1911-D. NGC graded AU-58. A scarce date and this one just missed a mint state grade because of minor wear on the high points and minor circulation marks in the fields. Only 72,500 struck, and most are not this nice!
Estimated Value $1,200-1,600

- 2172 1911-S. NGC graded MS-63. Rich golden toning on both sides and this date is rare in full mint state grades. Most apparently entered circulation, and few survived in mint state. The "S" is nicely formed, and not the blob often encountered. Scattered ticks, none deep or distracting.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 2173 1911-S half eagle and 1857 $1 gold, both damaged. Both grade Very Fine, but both have been damaged, the half eagle with dents and heavy scratches, and the gold dollar has been holed and repaired. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $150-175

- 2174 1913. PCGS graded MS-62. Too bad this isn't a Liberty nickel. Nice gold luster and a few surface marks on the reverse accounting for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-350

- 2175 1913. AU-50.
Estimated Value $160-180

Choice Mint State 1916-S

- 2176 1916-S. PCGS graded MS-64. Mintages cooled to 240,000 for 1916 as the United States geared up for World War I. Most of those struck circulated for years before being saved. Of all places, a few bags turned up in El Salvador, and most of these were baggy mint state pieces. Not so here, the surfaces are clean and show few signs of handling. Deep coppery toning melds with the devices, and the Chief's cheek is full and undiminished. Minor handling lines in the fields, but far and away better than most encountered. PCGS has graded 51 this high, with a scant 9 higher of the date. Color photo.
Estimated Value $4,500-5,500

- 2177 1916-S. NGC graded AU-58. This one has dark specks on both sides, and apparently circulated just briefly. Minor bag-marks.
Estimated Value $300-350

One Of The Finest Graded 1841 Eagles

Enlarged

- 2178 1841. PCGS graded MS-63. While many may consider this to be a common date because of its availability in circulated grades, one need only glance at the PCGS Population Report to see what a condition rarity this is. In fact, PCGS reports only 4 coins have been graded in mint state grades, 2 as MS-60, 1 as MS-62 and this coin alone and apparently the best at MS-63. NGC has only seen a single coin they grade as MS-63, and also none are graded higher by that service. So, there it is, this is tied for the finest graded by either major grading service. This coin is sharply struck by the dies, and exhibits a rich yellow gold color and full luster. We note a long die crack through the left wing of the eagle, down his wing, through the middle of the shield towards the R in AMERICA, where it peters out mid field. A stunning and exciting coin to own, and precious few mint state pieces of any date are available from the eagle series of the period. If you demand one of the finest known, or at least the finest graded, then here is the coin for your collection. Color photo.

Estimated Value $20,000-30,000

- 2179 1842-O. EF-40. Typical surfaces for the period, with minor handling marks on both sides, and we also note a rim bump on the upper right side of the obverse. A bit reflective, probably from a cleaning in the past, as usually seen.

Estimated Value $350-400

The Finest Graded 1860 $10 Gold

Enlarged

- 2180 1860. PCGS graded MS-64. This is the finest graded by PCGS, by a wide margin we might add, and undoubtedly one of the finest known of the date. The mintage of 1860 eagles stopped at 15,055. In economic terms, the Civil War was rumbling, and gold and silver were quickly hoarded by the population as soon as they were coined while the politicians prepared for war. Somehow, this coin survived with clean surfaces and precious few signs of handling. Virtually all gold from this period shows heavy bagmarks and circulation marks, even on virtually mint state coins. Here is a complete exception to the norm. The surfaces are aglow with radiant luster, and the devices are well frosted by the dies. Perhaps this coin was picked up at the Mint just after coining, and held aside, for everything is unusual about it, as eagles from the period simply don't come this nice. Close examination will note the fine roller lines from the planchet preparation process, they are all parallel, and are a normal part of the coining process. The current PCGS Population Report notes 2 as MS-64, but that reflects the same coin, this coin, as it was resubmitted after the Bass Sale and received the same MS-64 grade, but the original tag was apparently not returned to PCGS to remove it from the Population Report.

Estimated Value $20,000-25,000

Ex. Bowers and Merena's Bass II Sale, October 1999, lot 1474, prior to that Superior's session of Auction '85 lot 959

- 2181 1861. NGC graded AU-58. Moderate bag marks from handling, while the fields retain their glowing luster. Boldly struck, with good separation on even the highest curls of Liberty.

Estimated Value $800-1,200

- 2182 1862. AU-50. This one has been cleaned and retoned with coppery orange shades over moderately bagmarked surfaces. A low mintage date, with just 10,995 struck, and this one remains at the high end of the survivors despite its handling marks and cleaning. We note a minor rim tick on the right side of the obverse.

Estimated Value $1,000-1,400

$10 Gold

- 2183 1865. AU-58. A high grade example of this rare date, the surfaces show rather extensive marks from handling, as usual for the date. Identifiable by a stain in the dentils on the lower right of the reverse. Boldly struck and downright rare this nice.
Estimated Value $6,000-8,000

- 2184 1870. NGC graded AU-58. Flashy luster and well struck by the dies on this rare date. We note rather extensive handling marks, as all too often seen on these important rare dates. To date, NGC has graded just 4 this high, with none graded higher! PCGS has only seen one coin as high as AU-58, also with none graded in Mint State. There you have it, this may be one of the finest known of the date, and it is certainly tied with at most 5 coins as the finest graded. Something to think about when formulating your bid.
Estimated Value $5,000-UP

Rare 1871-CC Eagle

Enlarged

- 2185 1871-CC. ANACS graded AU-50. Mintage for the year was a scant 8,085, with most suffering great indignities while circulating. In particular, this coin has moderate handling marks common to most of the large CC coinage, especially gold. Certainly a condition rarity, PCGS (this coin is graded by ANACS, but the more meaningful population report is published by PCGS and NGC) has only graded 5 coins this high, with 3 graded higher (AU-55 best). Identifiable by a small tick mark over the left wing and a toning speck on the rim between the eighth and ninth star. An important coin for the specialist.
Estimated Value $12,000-14,000

- 2186 1878. PCGS graded MS-62 Premium Quality. Mint fresh luster and with choice glowing gold color. Examination will find a few scattered ticks, and a small area of action above the date where something tiny has been removed. A good strike here, with few complaints worthy of note. One of 16 graded as such, with 10 graded higher.

Estimated Value $1,750-2,250

- 2187 1879-S. VF-35. Some luster remains, but a bit baggy as are most seen in the grade range assigned.

Estimated Value $175-200

- 2188 1880-S, 1884-S, 1888-S and 1889-S. These grade VF-EF. Lot of 4 coins.

Estimated Value $550-600

- 2189 1881-CC. MS-60. Matte in appearance from the usual bag-marks and we note some dullness on the high points. Moderate luster in the fields, and this is another scarce date in high grades. Liberty's face is generally clean and this is a decent coin overall.

Estimated Value $3,500-4,500

- 2190 1882. AU-58. Better than average.

Estimated Value $150-175

- 2191 1882 and 1892. Both grade EF-45. Decent surfaces. Lot of 2 coins

Estimated Value $300-320

Proof 1886 $10 Gold

- 2192 1886. Proof 60+. This one has light hairlines in the fields and a delicate copper tone too. Frosted devices and still appealing. Rare, just 60 were coined in all, this one has minor handling but a nice appearance. A glass will locate some trivial marks, as always. We suspect that this coin was carefully cleaned or expertly worked on and for that reason is not in a third party grading holder. Still a nice proof coin, and an affordable example of some of the finest workmanship of the Philadelphia Mint. Inspection recommended, as always, and still a very nice proof example. Color photo.

Estimated Value $7,000-10,000

- 2193 1886-S. NGC graded MS-63. Good luster with faded yellow gold color on both sides and moderate handling marks. This one jostled around in a bag for awhile before being plucked out, soon enough to remain choice. Scarce any better, and tough enough to find this nice.

Estimated Value $700-800

- 2194 1888-O. PCGS graded MS-62. Most New Orleans mint gold saw plenty of use, but not this one. Some scattered marks here and there, but plenty of original mint lustre to justify the uncirculated grade

Estimated Value $1,300-1,500

- 2195 1892, 1902 and 1905. These grade EF-45. Lot of 3 coins

Estimated Value $450-475

- 2196 1893. EF-45. Light hairlines from a past cleaning, but a decent coin overall

Estimated Value $140-160

- 2197 1893 (2 pieces). Both grade EF-45. Lot of 2 coins

Estimated Value $700-725

2198 1895-S. MS-60 Cleaned. Boldly struck and with clean surfaces, but the fields and devices show extensive hairlines from a harsh cleaning. Too bad, as this was a very nice coin before.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

2199 1896-S. AU-50. A rare date any better than this nicely struck example.
Estimated Value $300-350

2200 1897. PCGS graded MS-64. Semi-reflective with rich golden-orange mint color. A very flashy coin. Only 44 reported in this grade with 6 higher.
Estimated Value $1,400-1,600

2201 1897. NGC graded MS-63. Matte luster and surfaces, otherwise average for the grade.
Estimated Value $350-400

2202 1899-O. MS-60+. Frosty luster in the fields and well struck. A scarce date. We suspect this one has been lightly cleaned in the past.
Estimated Value $400-500

2203 1901. PCGS graded MS-63. Good color and luster, but there is some weakness on the high points in the strike.
Estimated Value $350-400

2204 1901. PCGS graded MS-63. Lustrous in the fields, and with rich golden color, some weakness on the curl over Liberty's ear.
Estimated Value $350-400

2205 1901. PCGS graded MS-63. Much better quality than average, strong luster, strike and clean surfaces.
Estimated Value $350-400

2206 1901. MS-60. Average surfaces, but good luster.
Estimated Value $150-175

2207 1901 (3 pieces). These each grade EF-45. Lot of 3 coins.
Estimated Value $450-475

2208 1901-S. MS-64. Frosty luster and clean for the grade, we see faint hairlines on the surfaces, and Liberty's face has an unusual appearance.
Estimated Value $800-900

2209 1907. NGC graded MS-63. Moderate ticks on both sides from shipping, average luster.
Estimated Value $350-400

2210 1907 (2 pieces). Both sliders grading AU-55. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $300-325

$10 Indian

2211 1907. No periods. ICG graded MS-63. A satiny mint beauty with golden orange and light olive highlights. A candidate for any certification service.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,200

Memorable 1908-S $10 Indian With Motto

Enlarged

- 2212 1908-S. With motto. PCGS graded MS-67. Wow, a wonder coin here! Check out the superb surfaces and radiant luster. Despite the low mintage of 59,850, a few of this date have been found in these wonder grades. In fact, PCGS has graded 5 this high, and even more remarkable, there are 3 graded higher (!), all MS-68. Nevertheless, this is still a rare coin in gem grades, and if you want something spectacular for your date set, or type set, then take a long careful look at this superb gem and see if it's the coin for you. Identifiable by a tiny copper spot on the lower leaf above the S Mintmark. An opportunity for the astute buyer. Color photo.
- Estimated Value $40,000-60,000

- 2213 1909-S. VF-20. Lovely antique copper toning.
- Estimated Value $210-230

- 2214 1910. PCGS graded MS-64. All Indian $10 pieces in this grade are scarce as a glance at the PCGS Population Report will demonstrate. Few true gems have been found and graded. This particular coin boasts blazing luster and ample mint bloom. The fields are textured, which gives the coin a special appearance seen on only a few years of these. One minor nick on Liberty's cheek from an even higher grade, and most will be very proud to own a coin as nice as this.
- Estimated Value $1,250-1,750
- 2215 1910. MS-60. Good luster and well struck for the date. No large or distracting bagmarks.
- Estimated Value $250-300

- 2216 1910-D. PCGS graded MS-63. Choice surfaces and color throughout, with few ticks present on either side. A fairly common date.
- Estimated Value $500-600
- 2217 1911. MS-63. Good luster and a sharp strike.
- Estimated Value $400-450
- 2218 1911. AU-53. Light wear.
- Estimated Value $250-300
- 2219 1911. AU-53. One small rim tick on the reverse.
- Estimated Value $250-300
- 2220 1912. MS-60+. A remarkably blemish free specimen with a nice clean cheek on the Indian, all overlaid with pale golden toning.
- Estimated Value $400-500

Gem 1912-S $10 Indian

Enlarged

- 2221 1912-S. PCGS graded MS-65. One of the finest graded by PCGS, with only 5 graded as such, with a single coin graded higher. Deep orange gold toning on both sides, and boldly struck throughout by the dies. An impressive example of this date, and a worthy coin for the advanced numismatist to aspire to own. Clean fields and face on Liberty, and we expect this coin to do quite well when it crosses the block. Color photo.

Estimated Value $30,000-40,000

- 2222 1914-S. PCGS graded MS-64. A scarce date that is downright rare in high grades. PCGS reports only 38 graded as MS-64, with a mere 8 coins graded higher, all MS-65. Glowing luster and rich gold in color, this appealing coin will find many who desire to own it, but only one will capture the prize this day. Clean surfaces that show minimal signs of handling, and an excellent face on Liberty. Color photo.

Estimated Value $7,000-8,000

- 2223 1914-S. PCGS graded MS-63. A delightful, completely original mint state example with warm toning on both sides. Quite scarce in such choice condition.

Estimated Value $2,500-3,000

- 2224 1915. PCGS graded MS-64. Flashy luster and very appealing. A few minor scuffs on Liberty's cheek, but they are small and not that detracting. Coppery gold in color, with splashes of deeper shades on both sides. PCGS has graded 141 this high, with just 30 graded higher. Color photo.

Estimated Value $1,250-1,750

Classic Gem 1916-S $10 Indian

- 2225 1916-S. PCGS graded MS-65. A condition rarity in gem, PCGS has graded 7 this high, with just 6 graded higher! Knee-deep in frost and with superb surfaces. Collectors of these know how few are encountered in gem condition. Take a look at the cheek on Liberty, or the surrounding fields, and you will see the absolute quality required for a gem grade. Bright yellow gold in color, with abundant luster throughout. Minor weakness in the strike, as always for the San Francisco Mint of the period. Color photo.
Estimated Value $10,000-12,500

Extremely Rare Gem 1920-S $10 Indian

Enlarged

- 2226 1920-S. PCGS graded MS-65 Premium Quality. This is a superb coin, one of the very finest to exist of this rare date. Throw away the mintage of 126,500 and check out the number graded. PCGS has seen just 46 coins in all grades, the lowest number besides the ultra rare 1933! In gem grades, there are 2 coins seen, this one as a magnificent MS-65, and a single coin graded higher, that an MS-67. Orange gold toning over well struck devices on the obverse, the reverse similar with frosty luster and boldly struck on the eagle's breast and wing, the only weakness is on the thigh and foot of eagle, typical of the San Francisco Mint of the period. The surfaces are outstanding, we note two tiny ticks on Liberty's forehead and a small tick on her chin, and a small copper spot below and right of star nine. On the reverse, we see a couple of tiny ticks on the eagle's tail feathers, near the tips. If you have ever considered building a date set of these, and demand high grade coins, then this is one you will want to own. Color photo.
Estimated Value $150,000-200,000

Estimated Value $600-700

Coronet Head

- 2229 1850. MS-60. The rims are remarkably clean and the surfaces abound with frosty mint lustre. Always popular as the first collectible $20.00 gold coin. Why not start your set with this choice example?
Estimated Value $3,000-4,000
- 2230 1855-S. PCGS graded EF-45. This one has average bagmarks for the period, and some luster near the stars. Little actual wear, but it must have been spent a lot in order to acquire the surfaces.
Estimated Value $400-500
- 2231 1855-S. ANACS graded EF-45. Some luster near the stars, and minor circulation marks on both sides. An appealing example despite the usual handling marks.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 2232 1856. Sharpness of MS-60 but a seawater coin. This coin must have been recovered from the shipwreck of the Yankee Blade which was recovered in 1977 off the coast of California. The coins found included many 1854-S to 1856-S double eagles, and some 1856 Philadelphia coins. In many instances, the coins from shipwrecks are sometimes the finest available for a given date. In the case of the Yankee Blade coins, they were exposed to more tidal movement than others, and thus the coins show matte surfaces from the action of sand slowly wearing down the mint finish. While the coin technically didn't circulate, the freshness is gone expected for a mint state coin and the surfaces have a fine porosity from the decades spent on the sea floor. Nevertheless, this one exhibits few marks and is really a choice example otherwise.
Estimated Value $1,500-2,000

- 2233 1857-S. AU-58. Clean surfaces that show less than the normal barrage of bagmarks, but the coin is slightly dull. Luster remains in the fields, and this one is well struck. Probably not from the Central America, as this one appears to have briefly circulated.
Estimated Value $1,000-1,500

Ultra Cameo Proof 1862 Double Eagle

Enlarged

2234 1862 Superb! NGC graded Proof 65 Ultra Cameo. This is likely the finest known proof of this date. Of course, it only had to beat out 35 coins struck in Proof, most of which were probably spent. Somehow this baby survived in absolutely pristine condition. It was obviously one of the first struck, and is the only Ultra Cameo graded by NGC. Further, it is the finest graded, with only 1 other PF-65 seen by NGC, but that is a "cameo" proof, and not as deep as seen on this coin. The devices are all deeply frosted, and the fields are simply black with mirror perfection. We note that trivial hairlines can be seen in the fields, but they are not deep or too distracting (don't expect an upgrade to come along soon) and this is a coin that any collector will instantly fall in love with upon first sight. Rich gold in color, and an ultra rarity. Identifiable by a tiny copper spot on the rim above the E of STATES. One tiny lint mark on the neck, and a wonderful coin for the specialist. Color photo.

Estimated Value $100,000-150,000

Choice 1873 Open 3 Rarity

2235 1873. Open 3. ICG graded MS-64. Nice luster but there are some handling marks on both sides, as always. Liberty's cheek has several small ticks on it, but none of the usual deep or distracting ones. We note that the finest of this rare date seen by PCGS is a mere MS-62, and it is alone in that category! Hence, given the ICG grade, we feel that this coin could still be one of the finest around, and expect a serious collector to consider the mint bloom, quality of the surfaces and good color. An opportunity to buy a rare and underrated variety.

Estimated Value $7,500-UP

High Grade 1873-CC $20 Liberty

Enlarged

2236 1873-CC. NGC graded AU-58. One of 45 so graded by NGC, with just 12 graded higher by that service. Flashy luster and fairly clean surfaces for the grade. We note some hairlines, but no other problems worth describing. Although 22,410 were struck, this is a very rare date in higher grades, especially above EF, hence a double eagle specialist will soon find this date to be quite a challenge. Here is a very nice one indeed, and we expect to see spirited bidding on this one.

Estimated Value $10,000-12,000

2237 1873-S Closed 3. NGC graded AU-58. Lustrous and frosty, but with moderate ticks from handling. Liberty's face is generally clean. A scarce date in high grade.
Estimated Value $750-950

2238 1875-CC. PCGS graded VF-35 Rainy Day Collection. Traces of luster near the devices and with even wear on the upper devices. Moderate handling marks, as always seen on these large CC coins.
Estimated Value $600-700

2239 1875-S. PCGS graded MS-60. Gleaming luster throughout, and with moderate bagmarks, despite the uninspired grade.
Estimated Value $750-900

2240 1878-S, 1889-S, 1891-S and 1893-S. These grade from VF to EF. A lustrous group. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $1,100-1,200

2241 1883-CC. AU-50. Well struck with natural appearing colors, and good luster remaining. Moderate hairlines and average handling marks.
Estimated Value $700-800

2242 1884-CC. NGC graded AU-58. Good luster and with the usual handling marks on the face, and others in the fields. Still very appealing, and better than most seen.

Monumental Gem Proof 1886

Enlarged

- 2243 1886. PCGS graded Proof 66 Deep Cameo. Here is one of the finest double eagles of any date! The surfaces are astounding in their beauty, the devices all deeply frosted and floating on a glassy sea of mirror fields. Light golden toning on Liberty, and a hazy patch on the right below the eagle's wing on the reverse. Identifiable by a small planchet flake below the G of GOD on the reverse. PCGS has graded 3 coins this high, from the original mintage 106, and none have been graded higher. Further, we don't know if the other 2 coins were Deep Cameos or even Cameo coins. If you demand the finest, most ultra rare and ultra beautiful coin for your collection, then don't hold back and buy this coin. Down the road, it is unlikely any will impress a true collector as much as this monumental coin. Color photo.

Estimated Value $90,000-110,000

- 2244 1891-S. NGC graded MS-62. Subdued luster and the surfaces have moderate bagmarks. Scarce in mint state. One thin line below the date from rim to rim.

Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 2245 1892-CC. PCGS graded MS-61 Premium Quality. Bright luster on both sides and sharply struck. There is a hidden scrape at the base right wing on the eagle. Scarce and in demand in full mint state condition, and this coin will please most collectors for its fresh color and surfaces. PCGS has graded 19 this high, with just 19 graded higher (MS-63 finest).

Estimated Value $4,000-5,000

Scarce Proof 1894 Double Eagle

- 2246 1894. PCGS graded Proof 62 Premium Quality. A rare date in proof, only 50 were coined and PCGS has graded 5 this high, with 9 graded higher of the date. Note the hazy gold toning on both sides, and the excellent contrast between the deeply frosted devices and reflective fields. Examination will find a small disturbance on Liberty's cheek, and the ever-present faint hairlines in the fields, but these are to be expected and are the general rule, locating a coin without signs of handling tends to be a far more expensive proposition, if such a coin can be found at all! During the 1890s, great care was taken in the production of proof coinage, the dies were especially well prepared, and the coins tend to show the greatest contrast of the century, and have the most frosted devices. If you, as a collector, would like to own just one example of proof gold, then we would heartily recommend this coin, as it has all the attributes of the finest proof gold ever made, and a comparatively reasonable price, when compared with coins of a higher grade. This is a regal coin worthy of a great collection.
Estimated Value $7,000-10,000

- 2247 1894. MS-60. Golden luster and a couple of bagmarks from a higher grade, one at the center of the shield, another near the edge behind Liberty's hair bun. Minor hairlines, and decent eye appeal.
Estimated Value $300-330
- 2248 1895, 1896-S, 1899 and 1903-S. These grade VF to EF. The 1899 has been polished, the others more natural in appearance. Lot of 4 coins.
Estimated Value $1,100-1,200

- 2249 1896. MS-64+. This one came to us with an MS-64 insert tag from PCGS. Apparently broken out in quest of an upgrade. Full luster and excellent surfaces that are free of all but the most minute marks. If you demand a nice one, then take a look at the surfaces under a strong glass to see if this one will suit your needs, as we expect it will.
Estimated Value $3,000-UP

- 2250 1896-S. MS-60+. Minor handling marks, mostly on the obverse.
Estimated Value $400-500

- 2251 1897. PCGS graded MS-63 Premium Quality. Clean surfaces and good luster in the fields. The only area of minor contact is Liberty's cheek, but the ticks are small and evenly distributed. A scarce coin this nice, and just 72 are graded higher, all MS-64, none above that.
Estimated Value $750-1,000
- 2252 1897 and 1897-S. Both grade EF-45. The "S" was cleaned. Lot of 2 coins.
Estimated Value $550-575

- 2253 1897-S. MS-63. Clean surfaces and strong luster.
Estimated Value $500-600
- 2254 1899. MS-60. Average surface marks.

- 2255 1899. AU-58. Moderate handling marks.

- 2256 1899-S. MS-60. Bright luster, but some bagmarks and hairlines.
Estimated Value $300-330
- 2257 1903. PCGS graded MS-63. A couple of small copper spots are noted.
Estimated Value $350-400
- 2258 1904. PCGS graded MS-64. Golden toning on the obverse over flashy luster.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 2259 1904. NGC graded MS-64. A flashy uncirculated example which has clean surfaces and excellent luster.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 2260 1904. NGC graded MS-64. A common date, but uncommonly clean surfaces, and good luster too.
Estimated Value $550-650
- 2261 1904. MS-60+. Nice color and surfaces.
Estimated Value $225-350
- 2262 1904. MS-60. Average surfaces for the grade.
Estimated Value $300-330
- 2263 1904. MS-60. Minor hairlines.
Estimated Value $300-330

St. Gaudens $20 Gold

Super Gem Proof High Relief 1907 $20 St. Gaudens

Enlarged

- 2270 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. NGC graded Proof 66. One of the most magnificent coins ever struck, this regal gem boasts creamy rich gold luster throughout and near perfect surfaces. The strike is second to none, and we know that these were coined on the largest press available, using maximum pressure to bring up the "high" relief cut deeply into the dies. Not just one strike, but several were required to fully complete the minute details on Liberty's head, hand and the tops of the eagle's wing feathers. As seen here, the coins devices jump off the surfaces, and examining the towering rendition of Lady Liberty is like climbing over the Alps when compared to normally struck coins of other denominations. We must remember that these were basically experimental pieces, and required extraordinary efforts to remain true to St. Gaudens magnificent design. Success was complete, but only a few were coined before the high relief devices were greatly reduced to a more production friendly low relief coin. These battles raged on in St. Gauden's 1907 eagles and again on Peace Silver dollars in 1921, where the relief was similarly reduced after a brief production run of extraordinary high relief pieces. NGC in their online Population Report (as of August 21, 2001) notes just 8 have been graded as PF-66, with a mere 9 graded higher (best is PF-69). While we haven't seen the others, we can only assume that they are very similar magnificent coins. Certain to be the centerpiece of any collection and worthy of a strong bid.
Estimated Value $50,000-UP

Gem Proof High Relief

Enlarged

- 2271 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. NGC graded Proof 65. A gem proof example that boasts a crisp strike (all nine of them or so!), with a full face on Liberty, rotund feathers on the eagle and his proud chest, and superb surfaces throughout. One tiny scuff on the Sun will serve to identify this specimen. While many coins may be rarer, or have lower populations, or be the key dates to a set, this particular coin has one thing up on all the others. It is arguably the most beautiful coin ever produced for circulation at our mints. From an artistic standpoint, the regal design finely executed in the dies, and transferred to a blank gold planchet, defies description. It is simply a marvel that such a coin was ever produced, despite the best efforts of the jealous Charles Barber who tried to upset the project every step of the way. Somehow these were produced, precious few, but enough that many remain in collectors hands, and not tucked away in museum vaults. As to the Proofs, these show slightly stronger strikes than the regular issue coins. NGC has graded 17 this high, with just 18 coins graded higher in Proof. The wire edge appears intact on this one, which is unusual as the delicate fin is often banged down or filed off on many of these. If you demand one of the best, and one of the most beautiful coins to cap off your collection, then raise your bidder paddle high and purchase this outstanding gem. Color photo.

Lovely Proof 1907 High Relief

Enlarged

- 2272 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. NGC graded Proof 64. A classic American rarity, these St. Gauden's proofs are clearly one of the most beautiful coins ever produced by any country, any mint. Deep gold in color, with pristine surfaces throughout. The strike is full and complete, and there are no signs of weakness even at the peak of the mile high devices. Identifiable by a tiny rim tick on the delicate wire rim just above the torch, and another tiny flake on the edge above the right side of the first T of STATES, and a shallow horizontal line on the eagle's breast. The color is slightly matte on this one, and it's in NGC holder #1602020-012. Color photo.
Estimated Value $20,000-25,000

Glorious High Relief $20

- 2273 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. PCGS graded MS-64. Here is a beautiful example of what is arguably the most popular coin design from the United States. Fully struck by multiple blows from the dies, with every nuance of the design crisp and complete. The familiar die swirl lines are present in the fields, caused by polishing at the Mint prior to coining. Glowing luster throughout, and this is a highly desirable example of this coin. Housed in an old PCGS holder with the green colored insert.
Estimated Value $12,500-UP

The Pittman High Relief Double Eagle

- 2274 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. NGC graded MS-63 Pittman. Boldly struck and retaining the abundant mint freshness that makes these coins so popular. We note that the wire rim is located on the lower left of the obverse, and upper left of the reverse. Minor handling marks and hairlines account for the grade. This one has a great pedigree, which includes "Pittman" on the NGC insert.
Estimated Value $7,000-9,000

From David Akers Numismatics, Inc. John J. Pittman Sale, October, 1997, Lot 1188, previously purchased from Mr. Gullhan for $100 in 1947

Mint State 1907 High relief Roman numerals

- 2275 1907. High relief, Roman numerals, wire rim. PCGS graded MS-62. Nice for the moderate grade assigned, we see a few scattered ticks and signs of handling, but they are not problematic. Good luster, the usual mega-bold strike, and exceptional eye appeal, as always for this issue.

2296 1916-S. NGC graded MS-64. Glowing luster and sharp.
Estimated Value $450-500

2297 1922. NGC graded MS-65. Although a common date, gem specimens are anything but. NGC has graded none higher than MS-65. This delightful example exhibits plenty of golden-orange mint bloom lustre and is free from noticeable contact marks.
Estimated Value $3,000-3,250

2298 1923. MS-64. A little flat on the torch, but generally clean surfaces and strong luster throughout.
Estimated Value $400-450

- 2299 1923-D. PCGS graded MS-67. This is one of the finest graded of the date, the luster is especially bright and the strike is full. Examination with a glass will scarcely find evidence of handling, and this is currently tied for the finest graded by PCGS, with 31 seen this high.
Estimated Value $6,000-7,000

- 2300 1924. PCGS graded MS-67. Here is a golden toned jewel that boasts superb luster, exceptional surfaces, and a good strike. PCGS reports only 50 have been graded this high of the date, with none graded higher! Don't wait for a better one, they simply don't exist.

The Rare 1931-D St. Gaudens in Gem Condition

Enlarged

- 2315 1931-D. NGC graded MS-65. One of the finest graded of the date, and a rarity in all grades. Breen estimated in his Encyclopedia that only 30-35 survived, but this number appears low as the combined NGC and PCGS Population Reports show 121 pieces graded in all grades. Of those graded, NGC has seen 8 this high, with none graded higher, and PCGS has graded 17 this high, with just 2 graded higher. Certainly one of the better ones known, this lustrous gem boasts greenish-gold luster around the periphery, and deeper copper shades towards the centers. Minor handling marks but not enough to keep this from the gem class, as a strong glass will reveal. Soon the only legally available 1933 will be offered amid much publicity, why not put this rarity away now before that sale takes place? An opportunity for the advanced numismatist. Color photo.

Estimated Value $35,000-UP

Estimated Value $700-900

Estimated Value $1,250-1,500

- 2318 1903 Louisiana Purchase-Jefferson Dollar, Sharpness of EF-40 but worn as jewelry and mounted. This one was worn as jewelry, and we note the edge has been lightly filed down to remove solder.
Estimated Value $100-150

Enlarged

- 2319 1903 Louisiana Purchase-McKinley Dollar. MS-64. Glowing mint luster and well struck by the dies. Coppery orange gold in color and nearly a gem.
Estimated Value $750-1,000

- 2320 1916 McKinley Dollar. MS-63. Flashy luster and well struck for this issue.
Estimated Value $350-400

Monster Gem 1915-S Panama-Pacific Gold Dollar

Enlarged

- 2321 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. PCGS graded MS-67. Pristine surfaces throughout, and one of the finest graded by PCGS, which notes just 37 have been seen this high, with none graded higher. This coin nudges back the envelope of perfection another notch. Make sure to view this one before the sale, to see just how nice it is. Boldly struck.
Estimated Value $9,500-UP

Enlarged

- 2322 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. Gorgeous peripheral toning greatly enhances the already delightful design elements. This coin could easily grade higher, as there are only the most minute signs of handling, but as we all know PCGS is pretty stingy about giving out MS-67 grades on anything! Whatever the grade, this is a superb coin which boasts a good strike and blazing luster. Color photo
Estimated Value $3,500-4,000

Commemorative Gold Coins

Enlarged

- 2323 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar. NGC graded MS-64. Faint coppery toning on the obverse, with one tiny spot near the center of the reverse. Nicely struck and nearly a gem.
Estimated Value $700-800

Estimated Value $125-150
- 2325 1915-S Panama-Pacific Dollar Paper Envelope. This is one of the original paper envelopes in which were sold with the one dollar gold coins. Most of these were discarded decades ago, and few turn up anymore. The paper is fresh, but the top is tattered where the envelope opens, and there is a strong central fold. White in color, with blue ink noting the issue size and describing the coins design. It is worth noting that the original selling price of these was $2 each. Some bargain today. The envelope is in excellent condition overall.
Estimated Value $100-125

Superb Gem 1915-S Panama-Pacific Gold $2.50

Enlarged

- 2326 1915-S Panama-Pacific $2.50. PCGS graded MS-67. One of the finest graded by PCGS, which has awarded this coveted grade to just 10 examples to date, and none are graded higher! Superb mint luster in the fields, and the coin appears to have been made today. As a collector, these top end coins seldom appear on the market for long, they are quickly purchased and put away whenever they appear. A simply stunning example of this extremely popular issue, and one of the finest to survive.
Estimated Value $14,000-UP

Commemorative Gold Coins

Lustrous 1915-S Panama-Pacific Gold $50 Round

- 2327 1915-S Panama-Pacific $50 Round. NGC graded MS-64. A flashy, bright example that boasts good luster and well preserved fields and devices. The Panama-Pacific Exposition was held in 1915, and few attendees could afford to buy a coin of this cost, and hence just 483 were sold to collectors. This is one of the better ones, only 98 have been graded this high by NGC, with 21 graded higher. An impressive example for the advanced collector. Estimated Value $35,000-UP

- 2328 1915-S Panama-Pacific $50 Round. NGC graded MS-63. Bright luster and clean surfaces for the grade, examination will locate minor hairlines from handling and a couple of trivial ticks. One of the most popular of all coins, especially in the huge gold format. Well struck on Minerva's face and the owl. Color photo. Estimated Value $22,000-25,000

Spectacular 1915-S Panama-Pacific Gold $50 Octagonal

- 2329 1915-S Panama-Pacific $50 Octagonal. NGC graded MS-64. One of the most popular of the commemorative issues, this beautiful design was struck in very limited quantities. The obverse features the head of Minerva with a lovely helmet, surrounded by playful dolphins, and the reverse depicts the wisdom of the owl with pine cones, and more playful dolphins near the edges. Struck in gold and a huge planchet, this coin remains every bit as impressive as the day it was struck. NGC has graded 109 this high, with 17 higher. Mint fresh luster throughout, and we note a few handling marks and hairlines, keeping this in the near-gem category. Estimated Value $30,000-UP

- 2330 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. PCGS graded MS-64. Bright luster and very clean for the grade, this one must have just missed the coveted gem grade, which is so hard to obtain on this issue. Great color and surfaces. Estimated Value $600-700
- 2331 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. MS-63. Nicer than most, with few signs of handling or cleaning, just faint hairlines and a small scrape on the upper right reverse rim. Estimated Value $400-500
- 2332 1926 Sesquicentennial $2.50. VF-30. This one must have been somebody's pocket piece. Still lustrous and nice for the grade. Estimated Value $150-175

California Fractional Gold

- 2333 1853. Round Liberty Quarter dollar. MS-63 Prooflike. Weakly struck at the center of the reverse, mostly on the 5 of the date, otherwise well preserved and bright. Prooflike in the fields.
Estimated Value $200-250

Enlarged

- 2334 1871. BG-715, Rarity 7. Octagonal Liberty Quarter Dollar. PCGS graded MS-66. This is the finest graded with none higher. Total pop in this grade is just this single example. Well struck and lightly toned.
